Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<Full Name>> :

Insurance Agency Marketing Services, Inc. (“IAMS”) takes the security and privacy of information in its care seriously. This notice is to inform you about a data security incident at IAMS, which may have impacted your personal information and any personal information of others that you provided to IAMS via your insurance agent or directly (“Beneficiaries”). Although we have no indication of identity theft or fraud in relation to this incident, out of an abundance of caution, we are providing you with information about the incident, our response, and additional measures you can take to help protect your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened

IAMS has learned that on or about March 1, 2024 - May 3, 2024, an unauthorized third party remotely accessed certain IAMS computer systems, and, as a result, accessed and/or acquired some files containing personal information. Upon becoming aware of the incident, IAMS engaged third-party cybersecurity experts to remediate, further investigate, and determine the scope of the incident. This notice was not delayed as a result of a law enforcement investigation.

What Information Was Involved

IAMS has been investigating this data security incident, including working with cybersecurity advisors to attempt to determine the scope of the incident and data potentially involved in the incident. This process concluded on or about July 12, 2024, after which IAMS worked to identify individuals whose information may have been present in the identified systems and contact information for those individuals. The review determined that the following information related to you was present in the impacted computer systems and may have been accessible to the unauthorized third party: your name and <<Breached Elements>>. Again, IAMS is not aware of any identity theft or fraud in relation to this incident but is providing this notice out of an abundance of caution.

What We Are Doing

Upon learning of the incident, IAMS launched an investigation, assessed the security of its systems, and took actions to help prevent a similar incident from occurring in the future, including security enhancements. IAMS also reported the incident to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Upon discovering that your and your Beneficiaries’ information may have been accessed and/or acquired, IAMS is making this notification.

Although we are not aware of any identity theft or fraud as a result of this incident, to ease any concerns you might have about this situation, and at no cost to you, we are offering you and your Beneficiaries identity theft protection services through CyEx. Your CyEx identity protection services include: <<12/24 >> months of single Bureau credit monitoring and fully managed identity theft recovery services. To enroll in credit monitoring, please review page 5 of this letter, visit app.identitydefense.com/enrollment/activate/iams, or call CyEx at 1-866-622-9303. You will be asked to give your full name and the activation code stated on the last page of this letter. Your Beneficiaries can enroll by calling CyEx at 1-866-622-9303, as reflected in their notice regarding this incident. With this protection, CyEx will help you and your Beneficiaries resolve issues if your identities are compromised.

What You Can Do

You should communicate with your Beneficiaries regarding this incident, and you and your Beneficiaries should remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports. Immediately report any suspicious activity. You may also contact the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) and the national consumer reporting agencies for more information on fraud alerts, security freezes, and other steps you can take to avoid identity theft. Additional information, including contact information, is provided in the insert labeled “Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information.”

For More Information

We fully appreciate the importance of protecting your personal information, and we apologize for any inconvenience this incident may cause. If you have any questions, please call (888) 499-1221, available Monday through Friday 9AM to 9PM Eastern Time.

Sincerely,

INSURANCE AGENCY MARKETING SERVICES, INC.

Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information

1. Activate the credit monitoring provided as part of your identity protection membership. Follow the instructions for enrollment using your activation code provided on the last page of this letter. The monitoring included in the membership must be activated to be effective. Please read page 5 of this letter for additional details regarding credit monitoring enrollment. Note: You must have established credit and access to a computer and the internet to use this service. If you need assistance, CyEx will be able to assist you.

2. Review your credit reports. We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports. Under federal law, you also are entitled every 12 months to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three major consumer reporting agencies. To obtain a free annual credit report, go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. You may wish to stagger your requests so that you receive a free report by one of the three credit bureaus every four (4) months.

If you discover any suspicious items and have enrolled in Identity Defense Complete, notify them immediately by logging into your CyEx account.

You should also know that you could report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement, your state's attorney general, and the Federal Trade Commission.

3. Place Fraud Alerts with the three consumer reporting agencies. If you choose to place a fraud alert, we recommend you do this after activating your credit monitoring. You can place a fraud alert at one of the three major consumer reporting agencies by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three agencies is as follows:

Consumer Reporting Agencies

Equifax 1-888-298-0045 www.equifax.com	Experian 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com	TransUnion 1-800-680-7289 www.transunion.com
Equifax Fraud Alert 1-888-378-4329 P.O. Box 105069 Atlanta, GA 30348-5069	Experian Fraud Alert 1-888-397-3742 P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013	TransUnion Fraud Alert 1-800-680-7289 P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19022-2000
Equifax Security Freeze P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, GA 30348-5788	Experian Security Freeze P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013	TransUnion Security Freeze P.O. Box 160 Woodlyn, PA 19094

It is necessary to contact only ONE of these agencies and use only ONE of these methods. As soon as one of the three agencies confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place alerts on their records as well. You will receive confirmation letters in the mail and will then be able to order all three credit reports, free of charge, for your review. An initial fraud alert will last for one year.

Please Note: No one is allowed to place a fraud alert on your credit report except you.

4. Security Freeze. By placing a security freeze, someone who fraudulently acquires your personal identifying information will not be able to use that information to open new accounts or borrow money in your name. There is no cost to freeze or unfreeze your credit files. If you wish to place a security freeze on your credit file, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each consumer reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information: (1) Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.); (2) Social Security Number; (3) Date of birth; (4) Addresses for the prior five years; (5) Proof of current address; (6) A legible copy of a government issued identification card; and (7) A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft. Keep in mind that when you place the freeze, you will not be able to borrow money, obtain instant credit, or get a new credit card until you temporarily lift or permanently remove the freeze.

Please contact any of the three major consumer reporting agencies listed above for details on what information each company requires and to place the freeze.

6. You can obtain additional information about the steps you can take to avoid identity theft, including but not limited to, information about fraud alerts and security freezes, from the following agencies, in addition to the consumer reporting agencies listed in Section 3 above. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them.

California Residents: This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement. Notice of Data Breach

To Whom It May Concern:

Insurance Agency Marketing Services, Inc. (“IAMS”) takes the security and privacy of information in its care seriously. This notice is to inform you about a data security incident at IAMS, which may have impacted your personal information. Although we have no indication of identity theft or fraud in relation to this incident, out of an abundance of caution, we are providing you with information about the incident, our response, and additional measures you can take to help protect your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened

IAMS has learned that on or about March 1, 2024 - May 3, 2024, an unauthorized third party remotely accessed certain IAMS computer systems, and, as a result, may have accessed and/or acquired files that contain your personal information. Upon becoming aware of the incident, IAMS engaged third-party cybersecurity experts to remediate, further investigate, and determine the scope of the incident. This notice was not delayed as a result of a law enforcement investigation.

What Information Was Involved

IAMS has been investigating this data security incident, which has included working with cybersecurity advisors to attempt to determine the scope of the incident and data potentially involved in the incident. This process concluded on or about July 12, 2024, after which IAMS worked to identify individuals whose information may have been present in the identified systems and contact information for those individuals. The review determined that the following information related to you was present in the impacted computer systems and may have been accessible to the unauthorized third party: your name and Date of Birth and Social Security Number. Again, IAMS is not aware of any identity theft or fraud in relation to this incident but is providing this notice out of an abundance of caution.

What We Are Doing

Upon learning of the incident, IAMS launched an investigation, assessed the security of its systems, and took actions to help prevent a similar incident from occurring in the future, including security enhancements. IAMS also reported the incident to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Upon discovering that your information may have been accessed and/or acquired, IAMS is making this notification to you.

Although we are not aware of any identity theft or fraud as a result of this incident, to ease any concerns you might have about this situation, and at no cost to you, we are offering you identity theft protection services through CyEx. CyEx identity protection services include at least 12 months of single Bureau credit monitoring and fully managed identity theft recovery services.

To enroll in credit monitoring, please review page 5 of this letter or call CyEx at 1-866-622-9303. You will be asked to give your full name. With this protection, CyEx will help you resolve issues if your identity is compromised.

What You Can Do

You should remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports. Immediately report any suspicious activity. You may also contact the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) and the national consumer reporting agencies for more information on fraud alerts, security freezes, and other steps you can take to avoid identity theft. Additional information, including contact information, is provided in the insert labeled “Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information.”

For More Information

We fully appreciate the importance of protecting your personal information, and we apologize for any inconvenience this incident may cause. If you have any questions, please call (888) 499-1221, available Monday through Friday 9AM to 9PM Eastern Time.

Sincerely,

INSURANCE AGENCY MARKETING SERVICES, INC.

Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information

1. Activate the credit monitoring provided as part of your identity protection membership. Follow the instructions for enrollment provided on the last page of this letter. The monitoring included in the membership must be activated to be effective. Please read page 5 of this letter for additional details regarding credit monitoring enrollment. Note: You must have established credit and access to a computer and the internet to use this service. If you need assistance, CyEx will be able to assist you.

2. Review your credit reports. We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports. Under federal law, you also are entitled every 12 months to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three major consumer reporting agencies. To obtain a free annual credit report, go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. Security Number; (3) Date of birth; (4) Addresses for the prior five years; (5) Proof of current address; (6) A legible copy of a government issued identification card; and (7) A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft. Keep in mind that when you place the freeze, you will not be able to borrow money, obtain instant credit, or get a new credit card until you temporarily lift or permanently remove the freeze.

Please contact any of the three major consumer reporting agencies listed above for details on what information each company requires and to place the freeze.

5. You can obtain additional information about the steps you can take to avoid identity theft, including but not limited to, information about fraud alerts and security freezes, from the following agencies, in addition to the consumer reporting agencies listed in Section 3 above. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them.
