

The Massachusetts Gaming Commission (“Commission”) is writing to notify you that today, October 4, 2024, your personal information as contained in an email you submitted to forwarded to a similar, but slightly different, email address to yours as part of a response to your inquiry. This incident may have compromised the security of your personally identifiable information, although the Commission is unaware of any actual misuse of your information. Attached is a notice describing your right to security freezes and providing related information.

Additionally, the Commission will be offering you credit monitoring services for at least 18 months at no cost to you. Information regarding that service will be provided by a separate letter in the near future.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Todd

Todd M. Grossman
General Counsel

