Dear <<Full Name>>,

We write to inform you of a data security incident experienced by LaunchCyte LLC (and through LaunchCyte, by its portfolio company Crystalplex Corporation) that may have involved your personal information as described below. We are not aware of any improper use of your personal information. This letter is meant to provide you with information about the incident and how you can protect yourself from the unauthorized use of your personal information.

NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

What Happened?

We learned that an unauthorized actor obtained access to one of LaunchCyte's systems. Upon a thorough investigation we discovered that some personal information may have been accessed by the unauthorized actor.

What Information Was Involved?

The unauthorized actor accessed a folder that may have included your: first and last name, date of birth, Social Security number and address, and, for LaunchCyte members, IRS 1040 Form K-1.

What Are We Doing?

LaunchCyte genuinely regrets the inconvenience this incident may cause you. We have removed the unauthorized actor from our system and are updating our security controls, internal policies and processes and conducting employee training to reduce the chance of similar intrusions occurring in the future.

What you Can Do

Given the nature of your information potentially exposed, we strongly recommend that you monitor your credit score and financial accounts. Additionally, security experts suggest in the event of any potential data exposure that you contact your financial institutions and all major credit bureaus to inform them of such a breach and then take recommended steps to protect your interests, including the possible placement of a free fraud alert on your credit file. We also encourage you to enroll in the free identity protection services using the details we provided on the next page.

For More Information

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at 412-481-2200 or patty@launchcyte.com. We have also established a dedicated call center to answer questions you may have about this incident, which you can reach at 888-458-5715 Monday – Friday, 9:00 am to 9:00 pm (Eastern Standard Time). We apologize for any inconvenience this situation may cause you.

Sincerely,

Frank J. Lucchino Jr.
CEO

What You Should Do To Protect Your Personal Information

Free Credit Report. You may order a free credit report at www.annualcreditreport.com, call toll-free at 877-322-8228, or mailing your request to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281. When you receive your credit report, review the entire report carefully. Look for any inaccuracies and/or accounts you don't recognize and notify the credit bureaus as soon as possible in the event there are any. You may also purchase a copy of your credit report for a fee by contacting one or more of the three national credit reporting agencies (information provided below)

Free Credit Monitoring Instructions. In response to the incident, we are providing you with access to Equifax Complete™ Premier credit monitoring for <<CM Duration>>-Months at no charge. To enroll in Equifax's services please follow the information enclosed in the attached document. The document will include a one-time Enrollment Code that you can use to activate the free credit monitoring we are providing you through Equifax.

Place a Fraud Alert. A fraud alert helps protect you against an identity thief opening new credit in your name. With this alert, when a merchant checks your credit history when you apply for credit, the merchant will receive a notice that you may be a victim of identity theft and to take steps to verify your identity. You also have the right to place a "security freeze" on your credit file. A security freeze generally will prevent creditors from accessing your credit file at the three nationwide credit bureaus without your consent. You can place a fraud alert or request a security freeze by contacting the credit bureaus. The credit bureaus may require that you provide proper identification prior to honoring your request.

Police Report. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement, your state Attorney General, and the FTC. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

Federal Trade Commission. The Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") offers consumer assistance and educational materials relating to identity theft, privacy issues, and how to avoid identity theft. You may also obtain information about fraud alerts and security freezes from the consumer reporting agencies, your state Attorney General, and the FTC. If you detect any incident of identity theft or fraud, promptly report the incident to your local law enforcement authorities, your state Attorney General, and/or the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You can learn more about how to protect yourself from becoming an identity theft victim (including how to place a fraud alert or security freeze) by contacting the FTC at 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338), or www.ftc.gov/idtheft. The mailing address for the FTC is: Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20580.

¹The credit scores provided are based on the VantageScore® 3.0 model. For three-bureau VantageScore credit scores, data from Equifax®, Experian®, and TransUnion® are used respectively. Any one-bureau VantageScore uses Equifax data. Third parties use many different types of credit scores and are likely to use a different type of credit score to assess your creditworthiness. ²Credit monitoring from Experian and TransUnion will take several days to begin. ³WebScan searches for your Social Security Number, up to 5 passport numbers, up to 6 bank account numbers, up to 6 credit/debit card numbers, up to 6 email addresses, and up to 10 medical ID numbers. WebScan searches thousands of Internet sites where consumers' personal information is suspected of being bought and sold, and regularly adds new sites to the list of those it searches. However, the Internet addresses of these suspected Internet trading sites are not published and frequently change, so there is no guarantee that we are able to locate and search every possible Internet site where consumers' personal information is at risk of being traded.

⁴The Automatic Fraud Alert feature is made available to consumers by Equifax Information Services LLC and fulfilled on its behalf by Equifax Consumer Services LLC. ⁵Locking your Equifax credit report will prevent access to it by certain third parties. Locking your Equifax credit report will not prevent access to your credit report at any other credit reporting agency. Entities that may still have access to your Equifax credit report include: companies like Equifax Global Consumer Solutions, which provide you with access to your credit report or credit score, or monitor your credit report as part of a subscription or similar service; companies that provide you with a copy of your credit report or credit score, upon your request; federal, state and local government agencies and courts in certain circumstances; companies using the information in connection with the underwriting of insurance, or for employment, tenant or background screening purposes; companies that have a current account or relationship with you, and collection agencies acting on behalf of those whom you owe; companies that authenticate a consumer's identity for purposes other than granting credit, or for investigating or preventing actual or potential fraud; and companies that wish to make pre-approved offers of credit or insurance to you. To opt out of such pre-approved offers, visit www.optoutprescreen.co ⁶The Identity Theft Insurance benefit is underwritten and administered by American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, an Assurant company, under group or blanket policies issued to Equifax, Inc., or its respective affiliates for the benefit of its Members. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.
