Form 63D-ELT and all accompanying forms and schedules must be filed electronically

Note: Taxpayers must refer to the instructions for all other related Massachusetts tax and/or information returns and schedules to ensure amounts reported on Form 63D-ELT are properly reflected and reported.

Form 63D-ELT (Entity Level Tax)

Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2021, pass-through entities treated as S corporations, partnerships or trusts that pass taxable income through to beneficiaries (Eligible PTEs) may make an annual irrevocable election to pay an excise on qualified income taxable in Massachusetts at a rate of 5% (PTE Excise). The annual voluntary election must be made on the Eligible PTE's tax return. The PTE Excise is reported and paid by an electing Eligible PTE on Massachusetts Form 63D-ELT which is due at the same time the Eligible PTE's Form 3, Form 355S, Form 63-FI or Form 2 is due.

Each qualified member of an electing Eligible PTE is allowed a credit equal to 90% of its distributive share of PTE Excise paid (PTE Excise Credit). A qualified member is a natural person, estate or trust subject to Massachusetts personal income tax as a shareholder, partner or beneficiary of an electing Eligible PTE. A qualified member may be a resident, nonresident or part-year resident.

A qualified member of an electing Eligible PTE may claim a PTE Excise Credit against its personal income tax due for the taxable year in which the electing Eligible PTE's taxable year ends. The PTE Excise Credit is refundable meaning that any excess credit amount is treated as an overpayment for which the qualified member may request a refund. The PTE Excise will expire if the federal SALT deduction limitation expires or is otherwise repealed. For further information see MGL chapter 63D §§ 1-7; TIR 22-26 Pass-through Entity Excise. See also Elective pass-through entity excise FAQs.

Who Must File Form 63D-ELT?

Massachusetts Form 63D-ELT must be filed by an Eligible PTE if it has made the annual voluntary election to pay PTE Excise on its return (Form 355S – Schedule S, Form 2 or Form 3). An S corporation that is a Financial Institution may make the election on Schedule S of Form 63 FI. Once the election is made for a tax year it is irrevocable for that year and is binding on all qualified members. See Form 355S, Form 63 FI, Form 2 or Form 3 instructions for information relating to the PTE Excise.

When is Form 63D-ELT Due?

Form 63D-ELT is due at the same time the Electing Eligible PTE's Form 3, Form 355S, Form 63-FI or Form 2 is due.

Is a Taxpayer Allowed an Extension of Time to File Form 63D-ELT?

Yes. The general rules relating to extensions apply to the PTE Excise. See TIR 16-10 for additional information on the simplified extension process for partnerships and trusts. See TIR 15-15 for additional information on the simplified extension process for corporate excise taxpayers.

What is a Proper Return?

A proper return is a return upon which all required amounts have been entered in all appropriate lines on all forms. Data sheets, account forms or other supporting schedules must be available to explain amounts entered on the forms and schedules. Referencing lines to enclosures in lieu of entering amounts onto the return is not sufficient. An exact copy of all pertinent U.S. tax forms (including all applicable schedules and forms and any other documentation required to substantiate entries made on this return) must be made available to DOR upon request.

Can Trusts be Eligible PTEs?

A trust filing MA Form 2 is an Eligible PTE if it has income that flows through to its beneficiaries and is reported on Massachusetts Schedule 2K-1 for Massachusetts personal income tax purposes. A trust beneficiary that is itself a PTE is not a qualified member (but may be a separate Eligible PTE) for purposes of the PTE Excise.

Filing an Amended Return

Supporting Statement Required. If you are filing an amended return for any reason you must attach a statement to the amended return with an explanation of why you are filing the amended return, including the basis for submitting it.
