Security Breach Notice Pursuant to MGL c. 93H

Date: August 7, 2025

ADDRESS

Dear CUSTOMER:

The City of Boston Office of the Parking Clerk and the Massachusetts Department of Transportation's Registry of Motor Vehicles ("RMV") value and respect the privacy of your information. Pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 93H, we are writing to inform you of a recent incident where individuals used the City of Boston's access to the RMV's data system to obtain unauthorized access to customers' information, which may include your information.

The City of Boston and the RMV consider the protection and security of your personal information to be one of its highest priorities and regret any inconvenience that this incident may have caused you. The City of Boston has implemented updated protocols to ensure against a breach of this nature.

If you would like to obtain a free replacement driver's license or ID card with a new state assigned (SA) number, which will also result in a free replacement professional license if applicable, please contact RMV93H@dot.state.ma.us and be sure to include your name, preferred contact information, and that you are seeking a new license.

You are not responsible for any fees related to a free replacement driver's license or ID card and professional license with a new state assigned (SA) number.

Under Massachusetts law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed regarding this incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it.

You may also place a security freeze on your credit reports, free of charge. A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing or other services. Under federal law and Massachusetts law, you cannot be charged to place, lift, or remove a security freeze.

You must place your request for a freeze with each of the three (3) major consumer reporting agencies: Equifax (www.equifax.com); Experian (www.experian.com); and

In order to request a security freeze, you will need to provide some or all of the following information to the credit reporting agency, depending on whether you do so online, by phone, or by mail:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security Number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, the addresses where you have lived over the prior five (5) years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill, telephone bill, rental agreement, or deed;
6. A legible photocopy of a government issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.);
7. Social Security Card, pay stub, or W2;
8. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

The credit reporting agencies have up to three (3) business days after receiving your request to place a security freeze on your credit report, based upon the method of your request. The credit bureaus must also send written confirmation to you and should provide you with a unique personal identification number (PIN) or password (or both) that you will use to temporarily lift or remove the security freeze. It is important to maintain this PIN/password in a secure place, as you may need it to lift or remove the security freeze.

To lift the security freeze in order to allow a specific entity or individual access to your credit report, you must make a request to each of the credit reporting agencies by mail, through their website, or by phone (using the contact information above). You must provide proper identification (including name, address, and social security number) and may be required to provide the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze, as well as the identities of those entities or individuals you would like to receive your credit report. You may also temporarily lift a security freeze for a specified period of time rather than for a specific entity or individual, using the same contact information above. The credit bureaus have between one (1) hour (for requests made online or by telephone) and three (3) business days (for requests made by mail) after receiving your request to lift the security freeze for those identified entities or for the specified period of time.

To remove the security freeze, you must make a request to each of the credit reporting agencies by mail, through their website, or by phone (using the contact information above). You must provide proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and may be required to provide the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze. The credit bureaus have between one (1) hour (for requests made online or by telephone) and three (3) business days (for requests made by mail) after receiving your request to remove the security freeze.
