Re: Notice of Data Event

Dear REDACTED

Leonard Mulherin and Greene, PC (“LMG”) is writing to inform you of a recent data event that may involve some of your information. LMG provides audit, accounting and/or tax services to individuals or organizations and retirement plans (which may include your current or former employer). This letter provides you with details about the event, steps we are taking in response, and resources available to help you protect against the potential misuse of your information.

What Information Was Involved?

Although we have no evidence that any personal information has been misused by third parties as a result of the event, we are notifying you out of an abundance of caution and for purposes of full transparency. Based on the investigation, the following information related to you may have been subject to unauthorized access: REDACTED

What We Are Doing

We take this incident and the security of information seriously. Since the discovery of the incident, we moved quickly to investigate, respond, and confirm the security of our systems. In addition, we have taken steps to strengthen our existing security controls.

In response to the event, we are providing you with access to Single Bureau Credit Monitoring/Single Bureau Credit Report/Single Bureau Credit Score services at no charge. This access begins on the same day this letter is being sent. These services provide you with alerts for REDACTED months from the date of enrollment when changes occur to your credit file. This notification is sent to you the same day that the change or update takes place with the bureau. Finally, we are providing you with proactive fraud assistance to help with any questions that you might have or in event that you become a victim of fraud. These services will be provided by Cyberscout, a TransUnion company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services.

What You Can Do

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your account statements, and to monitor your credit reports for suspicious or unauthorized activity.

Please review the enclosed Additional Resources To Help Protect Your Information, to learn more about how to protect against the possibility of information misuse.

To enroll in Credit Monitoring services at no charge, please log on to [REDACTED] and follow the instructions provided. When prompted please provide the following unique code to receive services: [REDACTED] In order for you to receive the monitoring services described above, you must enroll within 90 days from the date of this letter. The enrollment requires an internet connection and e-mail account and may not be available to minors under the age of 18 years of age. Please note that when signing up for monitoring services, you may be asked to verify personal information for your own protection to confirm your identity.

For More Information

If you have any questions or concerns not addressed in this letter, please call 1-833-397-4709 (toll free) Monday through Friday, during the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time (excluding U.S. national holidays).

We sincerely regret any concern or inconvenience this matter may cause, and remain dedicated to ensuring the privacy and security of all information in our control.

Sincerely,

Leonard Mulherin and Greene, PC

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES TO HELP PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Monitor Your Accounts

We recommend that you remain vigilant for incidents of fraud or identity theft by regularly reviewing your credit reports and financial accounts for any suspicious activity. You should contact the reporting agency using the phone number on the credit report if you find any inaccuracies with your information or if you do not recognize any of the account activity.

You may obtain a free copy of your credit report by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, calling toll-free at 1-877-322-8228, or by mailing a completed Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at www.annualcreditreport.com) to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281. You may also purchase a copy of your credit report for a fee by contacting one or more of the three national credit reporting agencies.

You have rights under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA). The FCRA governs the collection and use of information about you that is reported by consumer reporting agencies. You can obtain additional information about your rights under the FCRA by visiting <https://www.ftc.gov/legal-library/browse/statutes/fair-credit-reporting-act>.

Credit Freeze

You have the right to add, temporarily lift and remove a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit report at no cost. A credit freeze prevents all third parties, such as credit lenders or other companies, whose use is not exempt under law, from accessing your credit file without your consent. If you have a freeze, you must remove or temporarily lift it to apply for credit. Spouses can request freezes for each other as long as they pass authentication. You can also request a freeze for someone if you have a valid Power of Attorney. If you are a parent/guardian/representative you can request a freeze for a minor 15 and younger. To add a security freeze on your credit report you must make a separate request to each of the three national consumer reporting agencies by phone, online, or by mail by following the instructions found at their websites (see “Contact Information” below). The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze: (i) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (ii) Social Security number; (iii) date of birth (month, day, and year); (iv) current address and any previous addresses for the past five (5) years; (v) proof of current address (such as a copy of a government-issued identification card, a recent utility or telephone bill, or bank or insurance statement); and (vi) other personal information as required by the applicable credit reporting agency.

Fraud Alert

You have the right to add, extend, or remove a fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. A fraud alert is a statement that is added to your credit file that will notify potential credit grantors that you may be or have been a victim of identity theft. Before they extend credit, they should use reasonable procedures to verify your identity. Please note that, unlike a credit freeze, a fraud alert only notifies lenders to verify your identity before extending new credit, but it does not block access to your credit report. Fraud alerts are free to add and are valid for one year. Victims of identity theft can obtain an extended fraud alert for seven years. You can add a fraud alert by sending your request to any one of the three national reporting agencies by phone, online, or by mail by following the instructions found at their websites (see “Contact Information” below). The agency you contact will then contact the other credit agencies.

Federal Trade Commission

For more information about credit freezes and fraud alerts and other steps you can take to protect yourself against identity theft, you can contact the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) at 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, www.identitytheft.gov, 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338), TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above.

You should also report instances of known or suspected identity theft to local law enforcement and the Attorney General’s office in your home state and you have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of your police report.

Contact Information

Below is the contact information for the three national credit reporting agencies (Experian, Equifax, and TransUnion) if you would like to add a fraud alert or credit freeze to your credit report.

Re: Notice of Data Event

Dear REDACTED,

Leonard Mulherin and Greene, PC (“LMG”) is writing to inform you of a recent data event that may involve some of the deceased’s information. We sincerely apologize for any impact this event may have in connection with your loss. LMG provides audit, accounting and/or tax services to individuals or organizations and retirement plans (which may include the deceased’s former employer). This letter provides you with details about the event, steps we are taking in response, and resources available to help you protect against the potential misuse of the deceased’s information.

What Information Was Involved?

Although we have no evidence that any personal information has been misused by third parties as a result of the event, we are notifying you out of an abundance of caution and for purposes of full transparency. Based on the investigation, the following information related to the deceased may have been subject to unauthorized access: REDACTED

What We Are Doing

We take this incident and the security of information seriously. Since the discovery of the incident, we moved quickly to investigate, respond, and confirm the security of our systems. In addition, we have taken steps to strengthen our existing security controls.

In response to this incident, we are providing you with access to Cyber Monitoring services for the deceased at no charge. These services provide you with alerts for REDACTED months from the date of enrollment. Cyber monitoring will look out for the deceased’s personal data on the dark web and alert you if their personally identifiable information is found online. These services will be provided by Cyberscout, a TransUnion company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services.

What You Can Do

To enroll the deceased in Cyber Monitoring services at no charge, please log on to REDACTED and follow the instructions provided. When prompted please provide the following unique code to receive services: REDACTED. In order for you to receive the monitoring services described above, you must enroll within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter. The enrollment requires an internet connection and e-mail account and may not be available to minors under the age of eighteen (18) years of age. Please note that when signing up for monitoring services, you may be asked to verify personal information for your own protection to confirm your identity.

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review the deceased's account statements, and to monitor the deceased's credit reports for suspicious or unauthorized activity. Additionally, security experts suggest that you contact the deceased's financial institution and all major credit bureaus to inform them of such a breach and then take whatever steps are recommended to protect the deceased's interests. Please review the enclosed ADDITIONAL RESOURCES TO HELP PROTECT THE DECEDENT'S INFORMATION, to learn more about how to protect against the possibility of information misuse.

We would like to reiterate, at this time, there is no evidence that the deceased's information was misused. However, we encourage you to take full advantage of the services offered.

For More Information

If you have any questions or concerns not addressed in this letter, please call 1-833-397-4709 (toll free) Monday through Friday, during the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time (excluding U.S. national holidays).
