Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear _____ :

Alta Park Capital, LP (“APC”) is writing to inform you of a recent event that may involve some of your information. Although APC is unaware of any actual or attempted misuse of information, APC is providing you with notice of the event, steps APC is taking in response, and resources available to help you better protect your information, should you feel it is appropriate. APC has your information in relation to investment services it provides to Alta Park Fund Onshore, LP and Alta Park Private Opportunities Fund, LP.

What Happened? On or about June 17, 2026, APC became aware that an employee’s email account was used to send unauthorized emails. Upon becoming aware of the activity, APC quickly took steps to secure the employee’s email account and with the assistance of external cybersecurity specialists, commenced a full investigation into the nature, scope, and impact of the activity. The investigation determined that an unauthorized actor used the email account to send unauthorized emails to external recipients on June 17, 2026, and the actor viewed limited emails within the employee’s email account between April 21, 2026, and June 17, 2026. APC’s investigation has confirmed that the viewed emails within the email account do not contain sensitive information, but because some of the emails included attachments, APC subsequently conducted a detailed review of the email attachments to determine whether they contained sensitive information and to whom the information relates. Although the investigation did not identify any evidence that any email attachments were viewed or accessed by the unauthorized actor, APC has determined that your information was contained within the email attachments and while APC is not aware of any actual or attempted misuse of the information within our care, APC is providing notice to you out of an abundance of caution.

What Information Was Involved? The information in the potentially accessible email attachments vary from individual to individual, but the investigation determined that some of your information was contained within the attachments, including _____, _____, and name. Again, there is no evidence that any information was subject to actual or attempted misuse in connection with this event.

What We Are Doing. APC views its responsibility to safeguard information in its possession as an utmost priority. In response to this event, APC has taken steps to review its policies and procedures and have implemented additional security measures to better prevent future similar incidents. APC is providing notice of this event to regulators where required. As an added precaution, APC is offering you complimentary access to Single Bureau Credit Monitoring/Single Bureau Credit Report/Single Bureau Credit Score services at no charge for _____ months through Cyberscout, a TransUnion company. Although APC is covering the cost of these services, due to privacy restrictions, you will need to complete the activation process yourself. Enrollment instructions are included in this letter below.

What You Can Do. APC encourages you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements, explanation of benefits, and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors over the next 12 to 24 months. Any suspicious activity should be reported to the appropriate insurance company, health care provider, or financial institution. You can also find out more about how to safeguard your information in the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information.

For More Information. We understand you may have questions that are not addressed by this letter. If you have questions about this event, you may call APC's dedicated assistance line at 1-800-405-6108 and supply the fraud specialist with your unique code listed above. Representatives are available for 90 days from the date of this letter, to assist you with questions regarding this incident, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern time, Monday through Friday, excluding major U.S. holidays. You may also write to APC at 1 Letterman Drive, Building A, Suite A4-100 (4th floor), San Francisco, CA 94129, Attn: Compliance.

Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information

Enroll in Complimentary Credit Monitoring Services

To enroll in Credit Monitoring services at no charge, please log on to <https://bfs.cyberscout.com/activate> and follow the instructions provided. When prompted please provide the following unique code to receive services:

. In order for you to receive the monitoring services described above, you must enroll within 90 days from the date of this letter. The enrollment requires an internet connection and e-mail account and may not be available to minors under the age of 18 years of age. Please note that when signing up for monitoring services, you may be asked to verify personal information for your own protection to confirm your identity.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
