Dear Sample A. Sample:

Legacy Bank and Trust (“Legacy”) writes to inform you of an event that may involve your personal information. Although we are unaware of any identity theft or fraud in relation to the event, we are providing you with information about the event, our response, and resources we are making available to you to help protect your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened? Legacy recently completed its investigation into a cyber event involving unauthorized access to an employee email account that occurred on May 21, 2026. Working with third party specialists, we completed a time-intensive and comprehensive review of the emails and attachments that may have been accessed by the unauthorized actor. This review was completed on August 10, 2026, and we are notifying individuals based on the results of this review.

What Information Was Involved? The investigation determined [REDACTED] and the following information related to you were present in the email account: [Extra1]. Please note that Legacy is not aware of any actual or attempted misuse of your information.

What We Are Doing. The confidentiality, privacy, and security of information in our care are among our highest priorities. In response to this event, we took steps to secure our email environment, completed a thorough investigation, and reviewed the contents of the affected emails and files. As part of our ongoing commitment to the privacy of information in our care, we are reviewing existing security policies and implementing additional security measures to further protect against similar events occurring in the future.

As an added precaution, we are offering you credit monitoring and identity theft protection services for [Extra3] at no cost to you, through Experian. You can find information on how to enroll in these services in the enclosed STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION. We encourage you to enroll in these services as you will not be automatically enrolled, and we are not able to do so on your behalf.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Please review the information contained in the enclosed STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION. There you will also find more information on the complimentary credit monitoring and identity theft protection services we are making available to you.

For More Information. We understand that you may have questions about this event that are not addressed in this letter. If you have additional questions, please call our dedicated assistance line at [REDACTED] between the hours of 9:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m., Eastern Time, Monday through Friday, excluding major U.S. holidays. You may also write to us at [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

Legacy Bank and Trust

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

Enroll in Monitoring Services

To help protect your identity, we are offering complimentary access to Experian IdentityWorksSM for [Extra5] months.

If you believe there was fraudulent use of your information as a result of this incident and would like to discuss how you may be able to resolve those issues, please reach out to an Experian agent. If, after discussing your situation with an agent, it is determined that identity restoration support is needed then an Experian Identity Restoration agent is available to work with you to investigate and resolve each incident of fraud that occurred from the date of the incident (including, as appropriate, helping you with contacting credit grantors to dispute charges and close accounts; assisting you in placing a freeze on your credit file with the three major credit bureaus; and assisting you with contacting government agencies to help restore your identity to its proper condition).

Please note that Identity Restoration is available to you for [Extra5] months from the date of this letter and does not require any action on your part at this time. The Terms and Conditions for this offer are located at www.ExperianIDWorks.com/restoration.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, [REDACTED]. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
