Re: Notice of <<Data Privacy Event>>> or <<Data Breach>>

Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>:

Pelli Clarke & Partners writes to notify you of a data privacy event that involved your personal information.

What Happened? On or around July 3, 2026, we were notified of suspicious activity within our computer network. Upon learning of the activity, we took immediate action to secure our network. We commenced an investigation, working under the guidance of specialists, to understand the nature and scope of the event. On July 30, 2026, we learned that certain files were taken from our network. We reviewed those files and determined that personal information was included within the dataset. We are now notifying those individuals whose information was involved.

What Information Was Involved? The personal information involved, included your << name and data elements>>. We stress that we have no evidence of misuse of any personal information for fraud or identity theft as a result of this incident, but we are providing you with the enclosed resources for added protection, should you feel it appropriate to use them.

What We Are Doing. Upon learning of the suspicious activity, we took immediate steps to secure our network, including taking our systems offline, resetting account passwords, and implementing additional measures to bolster our security posture. We are also reviewing our security controls, policies, and training programs in place for ways to continue to remain resilient against future threats.

As an added precaution, we are providing you with access to identity protections services through Kroll. Instructions for how to enroll in these services are below.

What You Can Do. Generally, it is best practice to remain vigilant for incidents of identity theft and fraud, from any source, by reviewing and monitoring your account statements and credit reports for suspicious activity and errors. If you discover any suspicious or unusual activity on your accounts, promptly contact your financial institution or the service provider. You may also refer to the enclosed "Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information" for additional resources you may take advantage of to protect your information, should you find it appropriate to do so.

To enroll in complimentary Credit Monitoring services through Kroll, please visit enroll.krollmonitoring.com/redeem. Provide your Activation Code, which is <<Enter Activation Code>> and Your Verification ID: <<Enter Verification ID>>. You must activate the services by <<Enter Activation Deadline>>. Your Activation Code will not work after this date.

For More Information. If you have questions about this incident which are not addressed in this letter, you may contact us by phone at [phone number] for further assistance. We thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Pelli Clarke & Partners

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO HELP PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

You May Obtain a Free Credit Report: Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit https://annualcreditreport.com, or call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228, complete the Annual Credit Report Request Form on the Federal Trade Commission's (FTC) website at https://ftc.gov and mail it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281. Once you receive your credit report, review it for discrepancies and identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact one of the credit reporting bureaus.

Fraud Alert Services: You have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified below.

Credit Freeze Instructions: As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without your express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you should provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Address information from the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as current utility or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (e.g., state driver's license or identification card); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft, if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, you may contact a major credit reporting bureau listed below:

Additional Information: This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement. If you experience identity theft or fraud, you have the right to file a police report with your local law enforcement agency. When filing a report, you may be required to provide documentation showing that you have been a victim, and you are entitled to obtain a copy of the report for your records. If you discover suspicious activity on your credit reports or otherwise believe your information is being misused, you should promptly contact local law enforcement to file a report.

Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to your state Attorney General and the FTC. A complaint may be filed with the FTC online at https://ftc.gov/idtheft, by phone at 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338), or by mail at Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. Complaints submitted to the FTC are added to its Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse and made available to law enforcement for investigative purposes. The FTC also provides information about fraud alerts and security freezes.
