NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Dear Sample A. Sample:

At Upbound Group, Inc., we take the confidentiality of personal information very seriously. I am writing to inform you of a recent data security incident that involved some of your personal information.

Upon learning of the incident, we immediately took steps to investigate and mitigate its impact. We ensured the effective implementation of containment, remediation and enhancement measures, and launched an investigation, with the assistance of a leading cybersecurity expert, in order to mitigate the effects of the incident and minimize the likelihood of a recurrence in the future.

Through the investigation, we determined that an unauthorized third party obtained files that included certain individuals' personal information. Based upon our review, we have determined that this personal information included your: [Extra1].

What You Can Do: We deeply regret that this occurred. As a precaution, we have arranged for you, at your option, to enroll in a complimentary two-year credit monitoring service. We have engaged Experian to provide you with its credit monitoring product. This product helps detect possible misuse of your information and provides you with identity protection support focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. Enrolling in this program will not affect your credit score.

This free credit monitoring service is available for you to activate until December 31, 2026 by visiting the Experian IdentityWorks website to enroll (<https://www.experianidworks.com/1Bcredit>) using the following activation code: ABCDEFGHI. This code is unique for your use and should not be shared. Additional information about Experian and how to enroll in this program is available in the form affixed to this letter.

This letter also provides other precautionary measures you can take to protect your personal information, including placing a fraud alert and security freeze on your credit files, and obtaining a free credit report. Additionally, you should remain vigilant for the next 12 to 24 months for incidents of fraud and identity theft, including by regularly reviewing your account statements and monitoring credit reports. If you discover any suspicious or unusual activity on your accounts or suspect identity theft or fraud, report it immediately to your financial institutions.

For More Information: We have set up a dedicated resource line to answer any questions you may have. Please do not hesitate to call 833-918-1248 between 9:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday, if you have any questions or concerns.

On behalf of Upbound, we value our relationship with you, and are committed to providing the highest quality service. We deeply regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may cause and it is our priority to help you in any way we can.

Sincerely,

/s/ Christopher Pfirman

Steps You Can Take To Help Protect Personal Information

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus: Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report. If you discover information on your credit report arising from a fraudulent transaction, you should request that the credit reporting agency delete that information from your credit report file.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below. As soon as that agency processes your fraud alert, it will notify the other two agencies, which then must also place fraud alerts in your file.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. Other personal information as required by the applicable credit reporting agency.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
