Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>:

We are writing to provide you with information about a recent cybersecurity incident experienced by our firm, Bessemer Venture Partners (“BVP”), that affected certain of your personal information. We wanted to share some details and offer you some resources that you may find helpful. Please note the section titled “What You Can Do” below.

What Happened? On August 3, BVP was the target of a voice phishing incident that resulted in temporary unauthorized access to certain BVP employee accounts. Upon detection, BVP took immediate action to contain and remediate the situation, notified law enforcement, and engaged a leading cyber forensic firm to assist with our investigation and response. BVP’s external forensic expert has completed its investigation, and has confirmed that the incident was fully contained as of August 4, and there has been no known unauthorized activity in BVP’s environment since that date.

What Information is Involved? Our investigation determined that this incident affected records stored in certain cloud-hosted platforms used by BVP, which included: your name, <<Variable Data 1>>.

What Are We Doing? We have no indication that your data has been published on the dark web or used for unauthorized transactions or identity theft. Nonetheless, we are offering you two years of free credit monitoring and identity protection services provided by IDX. The services include credit monitoring, a $1,000,000 insurance reimbursement policy and identity restoration in the event that you are a victim of identity theft, and dark web monitoring. To activate the services, please follow the instructions included in the enclosed “Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information.”

What Can You Do? While we have no indications of unauthorized transactions or identity theft due to this incident, it is always good practice to exercise vigilance by regularly reviewing your account statements and monitoring any available credit reports for unauthorized or suspicious activity, and by taking care in response to any email, telephone or other contacts that ask for personal or sensitive information (e.g., phishing). We encourage you to remain vigilant in identifying calls, emails or SMS texts that appear to be spam or fraudulent. Additionally, you should never open links or attachments sent from untrusted sources. It is always best practice to review your BVP account statements and immediately report any suspicious activities. Please review the enclosed “Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information” included with this letter.

For More Information. Should you have any questions, please call 1-833-788-9712, Monday to Friday from 9 am – 9 pm Eastern Time, excluding holidays.

Sincerely,

The BVP Partners

Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information

Enroll in IDX Credit Monitoring and Identity Protection Services

1. Website and Enrollment. Scan the QR image or go to <https://app.idx.us/account-creation/protect> and follow the instructions for enrollment using your Enrollment Code provided at the top of the letter. Please note the deadline to enroll is December 30, 2026.

2. Activate the credit monitoring provided as part of your IDX identity protection membership. The monitoring included in the membership must be activated to be effective. Note: You must have established credit and access to a computer and the internet to use this service. If you need assistance, IDX will be able to assist you.

3. Telephone. Contact IDX at 1-833-788-9712 to gain additional information about this event and speak with knowledgeable representatives about the appropriate steps to take to protect your identity.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, an individual consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. You are encouraged to periodically obtain credit reports from the credit reporting agencies. To order your free credit report, visit <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/> or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file with the credit reporting bureau. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

If you discover any suspicious items on your credit reports or from the fraud alert and have enrolled in IDX identity protection, notify them immediately by calling or by logging into the IDX website and filing a request for help.

If you file a request for help or report suspicious activity, you will be contacted by a member of IDX’s ID Care team who will help you determine the cause of the suspicious items. In the unlikely event that you fall victim to identity theft as a consequence of this incident, you will be assigned an ID Care Specialist who will work on your behalf to identify, stop and reverse the damage quickly.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, free of charge, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Consumer reporting agencies may also require you to pay a fee for certain features they offer. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information (note that items 5 and 6 are only applicable when placing a credit freeze via mail, and item 7 is an optional document to facilitate the process when relevant):

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, military identification, etc.); and

7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency filed by you concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
