NOTICE OF DATA SECURITY INCIDENT

This law firm represents Grant Street Group, LLC (“Grant Street”), in connection with certain legal matters. We write to notify you that Grant Street has recently learned of a serious data security incident involving a former third-party service provider, Blank Rome LLP (“Blank Rome”), which included your personal information.

What Happened?

On May 21, 2026, an attorney at Blank Rome was misled into uploading certain files to an external Google Drive folder during a social engineering attack. Within several hours of the incident, the compromised device was taken offline, and the files were deleted from that external folder. Blank Rome subsequently commenced an internal investigation working with third-party cybersecurity professionals and notified law enforcement of the incident. Grant Street was informed of the incident on September 11, 2026, and has conducted its own internal review of its breached files.

What Information Was Involved?

It was determined that certain of the breached files contained your personal information. These files included a W-9 form which contained information including your name, social security number, address, and signature. To our knowledge, no other sensitive personal or financial information of yours was compromised.

What We Are Doing.

Grant Street will continue to cooperate with law enforcement and forensic investigators regarding the potentially affected documents and information, and you will be notified if there are any further significant developments. Our understanding is that the attorney involved in the incident has been fired, and Grant Street Group has ended its service relationship with Blank Rome.

To help protect you, credit monitoring services will be made available to you through Epiq's Privacy Solutions ID credit monitoring, to provide you with two years of credit monitoring services, free of charge. You may have already received the enclosed instructions through which you can enroll in Epiq's credit monitoring service, but if you have not already enrolled, we recommend that you do so as soon as possible.

What You Can Do.

In the meantime, we strongly advise you to take preventive measures to help prevent and detect any misuse of your information.

As a first step, we recommend that you closely monitor your financial accounts and if you see any unauthorized activity, you should promptly contact your financial institution. We also suggest that you submit a report with the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"), either by calling 1.877.438.4338 (1.877.IDTHEFT) or online at www.identitytheft.gov/databreach.

As a second step, we recommend you contact the three U.S. credit reporting agencies (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion) to obtain a free credit report from each, either by calling 1.877.322.8228 or by logging onto www.annualcreditreport.com.

Even if you do not find any suspicious activity in your initial credit reports, the FTC recommends that you check your credit reports periodically, which can help you detect suspicious activity and address it quickly.

For additional precautions available through Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion, including placing a fraud alert on your credit report or placing a security freeze on that agency's credit file, you can contact those agencies directly.

Equifax: call 1-888-378-4329 or log on to <https://www.equifax.com/personal/contact-us/>

Experian: call 1-888-397-3742 or log on to <https://www.experian.com/help/contact/>

TransUnion: call 1-833-806-1627 or log on to <https://www.transunion.com/customer-support/contact-us-consumers>

For More Information.

We sincerely apologize for the inconvenience this incident has caused you. Please be advised that we will keep you informed of any developments in the investigation which may be of importance to you.

¹ The credit scores provided are based on the VantageScore 3.0 model. For three-bureau VantageScore credit scores, data from Equifax®, Experian®, and TransUnion® are used respectively. Any one-bureau VantageScore uses Equifax data. Third parties use many different types of credit scores and are likely to use a different type of credit score to assess your creditworthiness. Credit monitoring from Experian and TransUnion will take several days to begin.

² Identity Theft Insurance is underwritten by insurance company subsidiaries or affiliates of American International Group, Inc. The description herein is a summary and intended for informational purposes only and does not include all terms, conditions, and exclusions of the policies described. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.
