Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear Sample A. Sample,

We are writing to inform you about a recent incident experienced by Accumedic Computer Systems ("Accumedic"), an electronic medical records (EMR) vendor, that may affect the privacy of certain information belonging to you. We have no evidence of attempted or actual misuse of any information involved in this incident, but we are providing you with information about the incident and steps you can take to protect yourself, should you feel it necessary.

What Happened? Accumedic notified Hispanic Counseling Center ("HCC") that on June 8, 2026, it became aware of suspicious activity within its network. It advised that it immediately isolated affected servers, notified law enforcement, and initiated an investigation with the assistance of third-party experts. Accumedic reported that its investigation and review concluded on August 7, 2026, and identified that an unauthorized third party gained access to its systems on or around April 8, 2026, and potentially obtained customer information between June 4 to June 8, 2026. On September 1, 2026, this EMR vendor confirmed to us that the impacted files may have contained some of your personal information. Please note that we have no evidence of fraud or misuse of any personal information, and we are notifying you out of an abundance of caution.

What Information Was Involved? The information identified may have included your first and last name together with [data elements]. Presently, there is no evidence or indication of actual or attempted misuse of your personal information.

What We Are Doing. Accumedic informed us that upon learning of this incident, it immediately took steps to secure its network environment, undertook a thorough investigation, and implemented additional technical safeguards to further enhance the security of information in its possession. Additionally, we are offering you ## months of complimentary identity protection services and credit monitoring at no cost to you.

What You Can Do: We recommend that you remain vigilant in regularly reviewing and monitoring all of your account statements and credit history for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Additionally, if you have not done so already, you can enroll in the free credit monitoring services we are making available to you. Instructions on how to enroll is included in the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information. Please note that you must enroll yourself into the credit monitoring services as we cannot enroll you on your behalf.

For More Information: If you have any questions, please call 1-833-918-4082 Monday through Friday between 9:00 am and 9:00 pm, Eastern Time, excluding U.S holidays.

Sincerely,
Hispanic Counseling Center

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. Once you receive your credit report, review it for discrepancies and identify any accounts

[1] Offline members will be eligible to call for additional reports quarterly after enrolling.
[2] The Identity Theft Insurance is underwritten and administered by American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, an Assurant company. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting bureau.

You have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a credit freeze on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without your express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Address for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (e.g., state driver's license or identification card); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft, if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the credit reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), or your state Attorney General. The FTC also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. The FTC may be reached at 600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement, your state Attorney General, and the FTC. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
