

Notice of Security Incident

Dear [FIRST]:

Stoss Landscape Urbanism recently discovered an incident that may affect the security of your personal information. We are writing to provide you with information about the incident, how it may impact you and your personal information, what measures we are taking, and what steps you can take to protect yourself.

What Happened?

On October 10, 2025, we identified suspicious activity that disrupted certain of our IT systems. We promptly launched an investigation with the support of external cybersecurity experts and reported the incident to law enforcement. Our investigation determined that, on or about September 14, 2025, an unauthorized third party gained access to our network and took certain files from our system.

What Information Was Involved?

The affected data included your name, Social Security number, bank information, passport information, telephone number, email address, and other employment-related information.

What We Are Doing

We have implemented a number of safeguards across our systems to enhance our security. Moving forward, we will be examining what additional steps we can take to prevent something like this from happening again.

While we are not aware of any identity theft or fraud related to this incident, we are offering you complimentary access to Experian IdentityWorks<sup>SM</sup> for 24 months.

If you believe there was fraudulent use of your information as a result of this incident and would like to discuss how you may be able to resolve those issues, please reach out to an Experian agent. If, after discussing your situation with an agent, it is determined that identity restoration support is needed then an Experian Identity Restoration agent is available to work with you to investigate and resolve each incident of fraud that occurred from the date of the incident (including, as appropriate, helping you with contacting credit grantors to dispute charges and close accounts; assisting you in placing a freeze on your credit file with the three major credit bureaus; and assisting you with contacting government agencies to help restore your identity to its proper condition).

Please note that Identity Restoration is available to you for 24 months from the date of this letter and does not require any action on your part at this time. The Terms and Conditions for this offer are located at www.ExperianIDWorks.com/restoration.

While identity restoration assistance is immediately available to you, we also encourage you to activate the fraud detection tools available through Experian IdentityWorks as a complimentary 24-month membership. This product provides you with superior identity detection and resolution of identity theft. To start monitoring your personal information, please follow the steps below:
