[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

We are writing to inform you of an issue involving certain of your personal information. We recently learned that a copy of your Form W-2G was inadvertently provided to another MGM Resorts guest, who we understand subsequently returned the form after realizing the error. The information that was disclosed on this Form included your name, address, Social Security number, state-issued identification number, and information about your winnings (i.e., date and time of winnings and amount won).

Promptly after becoming aware of the issue, we took steps to address it and to help prevent this type of incident from reoccurring. We have no indication of identity theft, fraud or other misuse of your personal information in connection with this incident. Nevertheless, we are providing you this letter so you can take steps to help protect your information. You are entitled under U.S. law to one free credit report annually from each of the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228. We encourage you to remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports. You can also contact the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies to place a fraud alert on your credit file, and under Massachusetts law, you also have the right to obtain a police report and request a security freeze on your credit file. There is no charge to place or lift a security freeze. The consumer reporting agencies may require that you provide certain personal information (such as your name, Social Security number, date of birth, and address) and proper identification (such as a copy of a government-issued ID card and a bill or statement) prior to honoring your request to place a security freeze on your account.
