Dear [REDACTED]

Wynn & Wynn, PC writes to notify you of an incident that may affect the privacy of certain information related to you. We are providing you information about the incident, our response, and steps you can take to help protect your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

We observed unusual activity on our computer network and immediately began an investigation, which ultimately included the assistance of third-party specialists. The investigation determined that certain files on our network were potentially accessed without authorization for a limited time. Therefore, we reviewed the files at issue to determine the specific information contained therein and to whom the information related. The review recently concluded and determined the information in the files included your name in combination with [REDACTED]

In response to this incident, we notified law enforcement and implemented additional technical measures to further secure our systems and decrease the chance of a similar incident occurring in the future. We are not aware of any fraud or identity theft in connection with this incident. However, we are offering you access to 24 months of complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services in an abundance of caution.

We encourage you to enroll in the complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services we are making available to you. Information about how to enroll in these services along with additional resources available to you are included in the attached Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information.

If you have any questions, please contact [REDACTED]. You may also write to us at 90 New State Highway, Raynham, MA 02767.

We regret this incident occurred and apologize for any concern it may cause.

Sincerely,

Wynn & Wynn, P.C.

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO HELP PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Enroll in Free Services

To enroll in credit monitoring services at no charge, please log on to <https://bfs.cyberscout.com/activate> and follow the instructions provided. When prompted please provide the following unique code to receive services: [REDACTED]

In order for you to receive the monitoring services described above, you must enroll within 90 days from the date of this letter. The enrollment requires an internet connection and e-mail account and may not be available to minors under the age of 18 years of age. Please note that when signing up for monitoring services, you may be asked to verify personal information for your own protection to confirm your identity.

Monitor Your Accounts

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your credit reports and account statements for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. Once you receive your credit report, review it for discrepancies and identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting bureau.

You have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without your express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Address for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (e.g., state driver’s license or identification card); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft, if you are a victim of identity theft.
