Notice of Security Incident

Dear <<FirstName>> <<LastName>>:

We are writing to let you know of a cybersecurity incident that affected certain of your personal information processed by First Advantage Corporation (“First Advantage”). We are writing to provide you with information about the incident, our response and additional measures you can take to help protect yourself.

What Happened?

On November 17, 2025, First Advantage became aware that an unauthorized third party obtained access through sophisticated phishing to a single First Advantage Drug & Occupational Health Screening Unit employee’s account. First Advantage promptly launched an investigation and determined that the unauthorized third party gained access on or about November 13, 2025. Leveraging this access, the unauthorized third party was then able to use the employee’s account and download the contents of the employee’s email inbox. To date, we are not aware of fraud or misuse of personal information resulting from this incident.

What Information Was Involved?

We can confirm that the following information of yours was affected: <<Data Elements>>.

What We Are Doing.

As part of our response, we disabled the employee’s account and implemented a number of safeguards across our systems to enhance our security. We are continuing to evaluate additional steps we can take and additional safeguards we can implement to prevent something like this from happening again.

While we are not aware of identity theft or fraud related to this incident, we are offering you two years of complimentary credit monitoring and identity restoration services through Cyberscout, a TransUnion company.

We also encourage you to enroll in the complimentary credit monitoring services that we are offering. Please review the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information, which contains details about this offer and general guidance on what you can do to safeguard against possible future misuse of your information.

For More Information.

We have established a dedicated call center to answer questions about this incident. If you have any questions regarding this incident, please call 833-289-5957, 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday, excluding major U.S. holidays.

We understand and regret any concern this incident may have caused and appreciate your patience and understanding.

Sincerely,

First Advantage

Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information

Fraud Alerts: Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus: Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228 toll-free. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

- Equifax: https://assets.equifax.com/assets/personal/Fraud\_Alert\_Request\_Form.pdf
  - Equifax Information Services, P.O. Box 105069, Atlanta, GA 30348-5069
- Experian: <https://www.experian.com/help/fraud-alert>
  - Experian, P.O. Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013
- TransUnion: <https://www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts>
  - TransUnion, P.O. Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016

Credit Freeze: As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” at no charge on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information: (1) full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.); (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) addresses for the prior two to five years; (5) proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill; (6) a legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and (7) a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft. Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

- Equifax: <https://www.equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services/credit-freeze>; 1-888-298-0045
  - Equifax Information Services LLC, P.O. Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348-5069
- Experian: <https://www.experian.com/freeze/center.html>; 1-888-397-3742
  - Experian Security Freeze, P.O. Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013
- TransUnion: <https://www.transunion.com/credit-freeze>; 1-800-909-8872
  - TransUnion, P.O. Box 160, Woodlyn, PA 19094

Federal Trade Commission: Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the three major credit reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state attorney general. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338). The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state attorney general. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For District of Columbia residents, the District of Columbia Attorney General may be contacted at: 400 6th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001; (202) 727-3400; oag.dc.gov.

For Iowa residents, you are advised to report any suspected identity theft to law enforcement, including local law enforcement or the Iowa Attorney General. The Iowa Attorney General may be contacted at: 1305 E. Walnut Street, Des Moines, IA 50319; (515) 281-5926 or (888) 777-4590 (for outside of the Des Moines metro area); iowaattorneygeneral.gov.

For Massachusetts residents, under Massachusetts law, individuals have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it.

For New Mexico residents, consumers have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in their credit file has been used against them, the right to know what is in their credit file, the right to ask for their credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting bureaus must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to consumers' files is limited; consumers must give consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; consumers may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance based on information in their credit report; and consumers may seek damages from violators. Consumers may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active-duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage consumers to review their rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/sites/default/files/articles/pdf/pdf-0096-fair-credit-reporting-act.pdf>, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20580.

For New York residents, the New York Attorney General may be contacted at: Office of the Attorney General, The Capitol, Albany, NY 12224-0341; (800) 771-7755; ag.ny.gov.
