

Wellington Circle Study

Public Information Meeting

MEETING INFO

We invite you to register for and attend the first Virtual Public Information Meeting for the Wellington Circle Study on June 24th. At this Virtual Public Meeting, the Study Team will share an overview of the Study's background and review the Meeting on Demand Platform that will be available for 2 weeks following the live meeting for members of the public to review the existing planning context and multimodal transportation network and provide feedback on issues and opportunities in and around Wellington Circle.

REGISTRATION:

To register for the meeting, please use the QR code to the right or visit the Study's website page at www.mass.gov/wellington-circle-study. After registering you will receive a confirmation email with information about joining the webinar.
