SPRINT NEXTEL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Sprint Spectrum, L.P. and Nextel of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. (collectively, "Sprint Nextel") hereby submit the following disclosure:

1. Sprint Spectrum, L.P. and Nextel of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Sprint Nextel Corporation.
2. On August 15, 2005, the Federal Communications Commission issued an Order approving the merger of Nextel Communications, Inc. (parent corporation of Nextel of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc.) and Sprint Corporation (parent corporation of Sprint Spectrum, L.P.). Upon the effective date of this merger, Sprint Corporation and Nextel Communications, Inc. merged into a new corporate entity, Sprint Nextel Corporation.
3. For the period from approximately October 1999 to February 2000, John J. Keene, a Department of Telecommunications and Energy Hearing Officer assigned to this docket, was a consultant to Sprint Corporation, representing the company on zoning matters and reviewing of real estate leases.

4. For the period from approximately February 2000 to late 2001, John J. Keene, was a consultant to Nextel Communications, Inc., representing the company on zoning matters and reviewing of real estate leases.

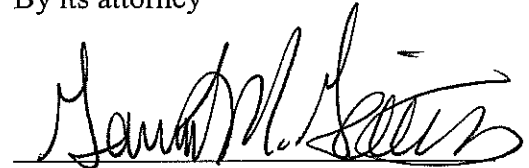

5. For the period of approximately August 2004 to August 2005, John J. Keene represented Nextel Communications Inc. on real estate lease review matters.

6. In late 2005 to approximately April 2006, John J. Keene worked part-time as a contractor (approximately 4 to 5 hours a week) on lease review matters for Sprint Nextel Corporation.

7. Sprint Nextel does not have record that John J. Keene worked on any projects relating to wireless coverage in the Massachusetts central artery tunnels.

Respectfully submitted,

By its attorney
