Wanted by the Massachusetts State Police & Taunton Police Department

Thomas VARGUS is wanted for Assault and Battery With a Dangerous Weapon-Machete and Cruelty to Animals for an incident in Taunton, MA on September 18, 2017. An investigation by the Taunton Police Department revealed that VARGUS approached a female walking a dog on Church Street. VARGUS then allegedly produced a machete and began stabbing the dog. The female was also struck with the weapon during the attack and injured. Area residents intervened and were able to lock the dog in a vehicle to prevent further injury. VARGUS subsequently fled the scene and an arrest warrant issued with New England extradition authorized. VARGUS has a lengthy and violent criminal history in Massachusetts to include nine convictions for Assault & Battery With a Dangerous Weapon including Beer Bottle, Mace Sprayer and Beer Can. He has additional convictions for Assault & Battery and Federal Narcotics Conspiracy charges. VARGUS has extensive tattooing on his body including on his head, face and neck. In addition to Taunton, he has past ties to Brockton, Cambridge and Somerville and should be considered Armed and Dangerous.
