Chap. 781. AN ACT ESTABLISHING A DISTRICT COURT PROCEDURE TO DIVERT SELECTED OFFENDERS FROM THE DISTRICT COURTS TO PROGRAMS OF COMMUNITY SUPERVISION AND SERVICE.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 276 the following chapter:—

CHAPTER 276A.

DISTRICT COURT PRETRIAL DIVERSION OF SELECTED OFFENDERS.

Section 1. The following words, as used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, shall have the following meanings:—

"Assessment", a thorough and complete measurement of the needs of an individual in, but not limited to, the following areas: education, vocational training, job placement, mental and physical health, family and social services, and an analysis of a defendant's commitment to participate in a program of community supervision and services.

"Commissioner", the commissioner of probation.

"Director", the person in charge of the operation of a program of community supervision and services.

"Official designee", a representative of a program of community supervision and service who has been approved by the presiding justice of a district court to work in conjunction with that court's probation office to screen defendants who may be eligible for diversion.

"Plan of service", a comprehensive and cohesive set of recommended programs and specific services to meet the needs of individuals as determined through assessment.

"Program", any program of community supervision and services certified or approved by the commissioner of probation under the provisions of section eight, including, but not limited to, medical, educational, vocational, social and psychological services, corrective and preventive guidance, training, counseling, provision for residence in a halfway house or other suitable place, and other rehabilitative services designed to protect the public and benefit the individual.

Section 2. The district courts, and in Boston, the municipal court of the city of Boston, shall have jurisdiction to divert to a program, as defined in section one, any person who is charged with an offense or offenses against the commonwealth for which a term of imprisonment may be imposed and over which the district courts may exercise final jurisdiction and who has reached the age of seventeen years but has not reached the age of twenty-two, who has not previously been convicted of a violation of any law of the commonwealth or of any other state or of the United States in any criminal court proceeding after having reached the age of seventeen years, except for traffic violations for which no term of imprisonment may have been imposed, who does not have any outstanding warrants, continuances, appeals or criminal cases pending before any courts of the commonwealth or any other state or of the United States, and who has received a recommendation from a program that he would, in light of the capacities of and guidelines governing it, benefit from participation in said program.

Section 3. The probation officers of a district or municipal court, or their official designee, when gathering information in accordance with section eighty-five of chapter two hundred and seventy-six, shall also screen each defendant for the purpose of enabling the judge at arraignment to consider the eligibility of the defendant for diversion to a program.

Any defendant who is qualified for consideration for diversion to a program may, at his arraignment, be afforded a fourteen-day continuance for assessment by the personnel of a program to determine if he would benefit from such program.

If a defendant chooses to accept the offer of a continuance for the purpose of such an assessment, he shall so notify the judge at arraignment. Upon receipt of such notification, the judge shall grant a fourteen-day continuance. The judge, through the probation office or its official designee, shall direct the defendant to a program and shall inform said program of such action.

The judge may, in his discretion, grant a defendant who is preliminarily determined not to be eligible because of a failure to satisfy all the requirements of section two, a like fourteen-day continuance for assessment. In arriving at such a decision the opinion of the prosecution should be taken into consideration. Such a continuance may be granted upon the judge's own initiative or upon request by the defendant.

Section 4. In the event that an individual who is eligible under the provisions of section two is charged with a violation of chapter ninety-four C, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit the effect or operation of sections thirty-seven to fifty-five, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and twenty-three.

In the event that an individual who is eligible under the provisions of section two is charged with a violation of one or more of the offenses enumerated in section three of chapter one hundred and twenty-three A, the provisions of this chapter shall not be applicable for said defendant.

Section 5. Upon the expiration of a fourteen-day continuance granted pursuant to section three, the director of the program to which the defendant has been referred shall submit to the court a written report of its assessment. The report shall contain the information obtained through the program's assessment, the program's recommendation as to whether the defendant would benefit from diversion to the program, and a plan of services for the defendant if it has been determined that the defendant would so benefit.

The judge, upon receipt of the report, shall provide an opportunity for a recommendation by the prosecution regarding the diversion of the defendant. After receiving the report and having provided an opportunity for the prosecution to make its recommendation, the judge shall make a final determination as to the eligibility of the defendant for diversion to the program. The criminal proceedings of a defendant who qualifies for diversions under section two and who agrees to abide by the terms and conditions contained in the plan of services approved by the judge, shall be stayed for a period of ninety days, unless the judge in his discretion considers that the interest of justice would best be served by a hearing of the facts, after which the case may be continued without a finding for ninety days. No appeal shall be allowed from such final determination.

A defendant who has been determined to be ineligible by reason of his failure to satisfy certain provisions of section two, but who, in the judge's discretion, received a fourteen-day continuance for assessment, may, on the basis of the report submitted by a program, be granted a like stay of proceedings.

In no event shall a stay of proceedings be granted pursuant to this section unless the defendant consents in writing to the terms and conditions of the stay of proceedings and knowingly executes a waiver of his right to a speedy trial on a form approved by the chief justice of the district courts, and, in Boston, the chief justice of the municipal court of the city of Boston. Such consent shall be with the advice of defendant's counsel. Any request for assessment, or a decision by the defendant not to enter such a program, or a determination by the program that the defendant would not benefit from it, or any statement made by the defendant during the course of assessment, shall not be admissible against the defendant in any criminal proceedings; nor shall any consent by the defendant to the stay of proceedings or any act done or statement made in fulfillment of the terms and conditions of such stay of proceedings be admissible as an admission, implied or otherwise, against the defendant, should the stay of proceedings be terminated and criminal proceedings resumed on the original charge or charges. No statement or other disclosure or records thereof made by a defendant during the course of assessment or during the stay of proceedings shall be disclosed at any time to a prosecutor or other law enforcement officer in connection with the charge or charges pending against said defendant or any co-defendant.

Section 6. During a stay of proceedings or a continuance without a finding, as provided in section five, the director of a program shall submit periodic reports to the court relative to the progress of the defendant. The director shall also report violations of program conditions or subsequent arrests immediately upon notice thereof.

If the defendant during the stay of proceedings or a continuance without a finding violates a condition of the program or is charged with a subsequent offense, a judge in the court that entered the stay of proceedings may issue such process as is necessary to bring the defendant before the court. When the defendant is brought before the court, the judge shall afford him an opportunity to be heard. If the judge finds that the defendant has committed a violation of a condition of the program or that he has been charged with a subsequent offense, the judge may order, when appropriate, that the stay of proceedings be terminated and that the commonwealth proceed on the original charges as provided by law. No appeal shall be allowed from such an order.

Section 7. Upon the expiration of the initial ninety-day stay of proceedings or a continuance without a finding, the program director shall submit to the court a report indicating the successful completion of the program by a defendant or recommending an extension of the stay of proceedings or a continuance without a finding for not more than an additional ninety days, so that the defendant may complete the program successfully.

If the report indicates the successful completion of the program by a defendant, the judge may dismiss the original charges pending against the defendant. If the report recommends an extension of the stay of proceedings or a continuance without a finding, the judge may, on the basis of the report and any other relevant evidence, take such action as he deems appropriate, including the dismissal of the charges, the granting of an extension of the stay of proceedings or a continuance without a finding, or the resumption of criminal proceedings. In the event that an extension of the stay of proceedings or a continuance without a finding is granted, the program director shall submit a final report upon the expiration of such stay of proceedings.

Section 8. The office of the commissioner shall, in its discretion, certify, monitor and aid all programs to which defendants may be diverted pursuant to this chapter. The certification of programs shall be subject to the approval of the presiding justice of the individual court which would be the beneficiary of such services. The office of the commissioner shall, in its discretion, (a) issue for a term of two years, and may renew for like terms, a certification, subject to revocation for cause, to any person, partnership, corporation, society, association or other agency or entity of any kind, other than a licensed general hospital or a department, agency or institution of the federal government, the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof, deemed to be responsible and suitable to establish and maintain such a program and to meet applicable certification standards and requirements; and in the case of a department, agency or institution of the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof, grant approval to establish and maintain a program for a term of two years, and may renew such approval for like terms, subject to revocation for cause; (b) promulgate, in consultation with the advisory board established in section nine, rules and regulations establishing certification and approval standards and requirements; (c) establish limits for caseloads and enrollment so that programs are able to provide high quality intensive individualized service to those defendants participating in such programs; (d) procure, where appropriate, by contract, the personnel, facilities, services, and materials necessary to carry out the purposes of this act, subject to all applicable laws and regulations; (e) prepare reports for said advisory board showing the progress of all programs in fulfilling the purposes set forth; (f) notify the appropriate presiding justice of the individual court that adequate facilities and personnel are available to fulfill a plan of community supervision and services for that court; (g) provide technical assistance to such program as may be certified hereunder; (h) provide for the audit of any funds expended by the office for the support of programs certified hereunder; (i) promote the cooperation of all agencies which provide education, training, counseling, legal, employment, or other services to assure that eligible individuals released to programs may benefit to the maximum extent practicable; (j) prepare and submit an annual report to the chief justices of the supreme judicial, appeals, superior and district courts and to all justices in the district court system evaluating the performance of all programs.

Section 9. There shall be an advisory board to the office of the commissioner for the overseeing of programs. The members of the advisory board shall be the attorney general, the commissioners of education, mental health, rehabilitation and welfare, a district court judge, the director of the division of employment security, the president of the Massachusetts District Attorney's Association, or their respective designees, and seven experts in the area of human services to the sociologically and economically disadvantaged through community based programs to be appointed by the governor for terms of two years, one of whom shall be an ex-offender. The members of the advisory board shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for their expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties. The advisory board shall annually select its chairman from among its members.

The advisory board shall assist the commissioner in coordinating the efforts of all public agencies and private organizations and individuals within the commonwealth concerned with the providing of services to defendants by said programs.

Chap. 794. AN ACT FURTHER REGULATING THE PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS FOR INSURANCE COVERAGE OF EMPLOYEES OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to regulate immediately the percentage of the amount of premiums of insurance coverage of employees paid by the commonwealth, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 32A of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 8, as most recently amended by section 1 of chapter 888 of the acts of 1973, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 8. For policies of group life insurance and accidental death and dismemberment insurance, and group health insurance purchased by the commission in accordance with the provisions of sections four, five and ten C, the commonwealth, on behalf of active and retired employees and their dependents, shall contribute no less than seventy-five per cent of the total monthly premium or rate applicable to said coverages and the active and retired employees on behalf of themselves or themselves and their dependents shall contribute the remaining twenty-five per cent of the total monthly premium or rate, except, that upon approval by way of an annual, or more frequent appropriation act, the commonwealth may contribute more than seventy-five per cent but less than the entire total monthly premium or rate. Each appropriation act as may be applicable, shall provide the necessary sum based upon the estimated monthly cost as required by section four and shall describe the ratio of contribution to be paid by the commonwealth and by the active and retired employees insured under the aforesaid sections. The description of the ratio may include a condition that if, as a result of a change in the total monthly premium or rate which occurs during the current or ensuing fiscal year from a change in a contract between the commission and the insurance carrier or carriers, the amount of the contribution paid by the active and retired employee and dependents is to remain unchanged and the difference in the amount thus paid and the total monthly premium or rate as changed is to be added to, or deducted from as the case may be, the contribution by the commonwealth. The aforesaid ratio shall continue until changed by a subsequent appropriation act and the aforesaid sum shall also include the commonwealth's contribution of the total monthly premium or rate required for coverages contained in other sections of this chapter as such contribution is provided in said sections.

With respect to any period of insurance authorized by this chapter which is in effect for an active employee and dependent, there shall be withheld from each payment of salary or wages no more than twenty-five per cent of the aforesaid total monthly premium or rate, or, there shall be a lesser amount as provided in the most recent applicable appropriation act. With respect to any period of insurance authorized by this chapter which is in effect for a retired employee and dependent, there shall be withheld from each payment of pension or retirement allowance no more than twenty-five per cent of the aforesaid total monthly premium, or, there shall be withheld a lesser amount as provided in the most recent applicable appropriation act. The commonwealth shall contribute a share of any additional premium which may be required for coverage of an employee's dependent child who is nineteen years of age or over and mentally or physically incapable of earning his own living, such share equalling the same ratio as that paid on behalf of an active or retired employee and dependent.

If an employee is entitled to receive, during a calendar month, salary, wages or other compensation and the premium has not been withheld from said salary, wages or other compensation, he may continue his insurance in effect by paying directly to the commission the premium which would otherwise have been deducted from his salary, wages or other compensation. If an employee is not entitled to receive salary, wages or other compensation for a calendar month, he shall for the purposes of this chapter be deemed to have been granted a leave of absence without pay and shall make payment for the entire total monthly premium or rate of his insurance to the commission as aforesaid and there shall be no contribution by the commonwealth for such employee's insurance. If an employee is not entitled to receive salary, wages or other compensation for any calendar month, due to illness of such employee and not because of illness of his immediate family, for purposes of this chapter he shall be deemed to have been granted sick leave without pay, and subject to the rules and regulations of the commission, said employee shall make payment of the portion of the total monthly premium or rate that would have otherwise been deducted from his salary, wages or other compensation.

All amounts withheld from an employee's salary or wages as provided in this section and all amounts withheld from pensions or retirement allowances under the provisions of section nineteen of chapter thirty-two shall be forwarded by the department, institution, or other agency responsible for the payment of employee salaries and wages or pensions and retirement allowances to the commission. The Massachusetts Parking Authority, the metropolitan area planning council, the division of savings bank life insurance, local housing authorities and redevelopment authorities shall reimburse the commonwealth for all contributions made on behalf of their employees including the applicable administrative expense as determined by the commission. The conservation commission and its agents, officers and employees and the commissioner of natural resources and his agents and employees, may enter upon privately owned land for the purpose of performing their duties under this section.

If after said hearing the conservation commission, selectmen or mayor, as the case may be, determine that the area on which the proposed work is to be done is significant to public or private water supply, to the ground water supply, to flood control, to storm damage prevention, to prevention of pollution, to protection of land containing shellfish, or to the protection of fisheries, such conservation commission, board of selectmen or mayor shall by written order within twenty-one days of such hearing impose such conditions as will contribute to the protection of the interests described herein, and all work shall be done in accordance therewith. If the conservation commission, selectmen or mayor, as the case may be, make a determination that the proposed activity does not require the imposition of such conditions, the applicant shall be notified of such determination within twenty-one days after said hearing. Such order or notification shall be signed by the mayor or a majority of the conservation commission or board of selectmen, as the case may be, and a copy thereof shall be sent forthwith to the applicant and to the department of natural resources and the department of public works.

If a conservation commission has failed to hold a hearing within the twenty-one day period as required, or if a commission, after holding such hearing, has failed within twenty-one days therefrom to issue an order, or if a commission, upon a written request by any person to determine whether this section is applicable to any work, fails within ten days to make said determination, or where an order does issue from said commission, the applicant, any person aggrieved by said commission's order or failure to act, or any owner of land abutting the land upon which the proposed work is to be done, or any ten residents of the city or town in which such land is located, may, by certified mail and within ten days from said commission's order or failure to act, request the department of natural resources to determine whether the area on which the proposed work is to be done is significant to public or private water supply, to the ground water supply, to flood control, to storm damage prevention, to prevention of pollution, to protection of land containing shellfish or to the protection of fisheries. The commissioner of natural resources also may request such a determination within said ten days. The party making any such request shall at the same time send a copy thereof by certified mail to the conservation commission, board of selectmen or mayor which conducted the hearing hereunder. If such party is other than the applicant, a copy of such request shall also be sent at the same time by certified mail to the applicant. Upon receipt of such request the department of natural resources shall make the determination requested and shall by written order issue within seventy days of receipt of such request, signed by the commissioner of natural resources, impose such conditions as will contribute to the protection of the interests described herein; provided, however, that said department shall notify the applicant within thirty days of the receipt of such request if his application or request is not in proper form or is lacking information or documentation necessary to make the determination. Such order shall supersede the prior order of the conservation commission, board of selectmen or mayor, and all work shall be done in accordance therewith, but in no event shall any work commence until ten days have elapsed following the issuance of said order. At any time prior to a final order of determination by the department, any party requesting a determination may in writing withdraw the request, and such withdrawal shall be effective upon receipt by the department. Notwithstanding the withdrawal, the commissioner may continue the determination if he notifies all parties within ten days of receipt of the withdrawal. A copy of such order shall be sent to the applicant, to the conservation commission, board of selectmen or mayor which conducted the hearing hereunder, and to the department of public works.

No work proposed in any notice of intention shall be undertaken until the final order, determination or notification with respect to such work has been recorded in the registry of deeds for the district in which the land is located.

Any site where work is being done which is subject to this section shall display a sign of not less than two square feet or more than three square feet bearing the words, "Massachusetts Department of Natural Resources File Number ..." and the sign shall display the file number assigned to the project.

If the department of public works finds that any proposed work would violate the provisions of chapter ninety-one, it shall proceed immediately to enforce the provisions of said chapter.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any mosquito control work done under the provisions of clause (36) of section five of chapter forty, of chapter two hundred and fifty-two or of any special act; to maintenance of drainage and flooding systems of cranberry bogs, to work performed for normal maintenance or improvement of lands for agricultural use; or to any project authorized by special act prior to January first, nineteen hundred and seventy-three.

An emergency project shall mean any project certified to be an emergency by the commissioner and the conservation commission of the city or town in which the project would be undertaken, or if none, by the mayor of said city or the selectmen of said town. In no case shall any removal, filling, dredging, or alteration authorized by such certification extend beyond the time necessary to abate the emergency.

Any person who purchases, inherits or otherwise acquires real estate upon which work has been done in violation of the provisions of this section or in violation of any order issued under this section shall forthwith comply with any such order or restore such real estate to its condition prior to any such violation. Any court having equity jurisdiction may restrain a violation of this section and enter such orders as it deems necessary to remedy such violation, upon the petition of the attorney general, the commissioner of natural resources, a city or town, an owner or occupant of property which may be affected by said removal, filling, dredging or altering, or ten residents of the commonwealth under the provisions of section ten A of chapter two hundred and fourteen.

Rules and regulations shall be promulgated by the commissioner to effectuate the purposes of this section. However, failure by the commissioner to promulgate rules and regulations shall not act to suspend or invalidate the effect of this section.

Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months or both. Each day or portion thereof of continuing violation shall constitute a separate offense. This section may be enforced by natural resources officers, deputy natural resources officers, and any officer having police powers.

SECTION 2. The first paragraph of section 40A of said chapter 131, as appearing in chapter 782 of the acts of 1972, is hereby amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:— In this section, the term "inland wetlands" shall include the definition of "freshwater wetlands" as set forth in section forty, and it shall further include that portion of any bank which touches any inland waters or any freshwater wetland, and any freshwater wetland subject to flooding.

SECTION 3. Within ninety days of the effective date of this act the commissioner of natural resources shall promulgate the regulations required by section forty of chapter one hundred and thirty-one of the General Laws, as amended by section one of this act. Said regulations shall concern, but shall not be limited to, defining the terms in said section forty and establishing standard application forms setting forth the minimum information which is required for issuance of an order pursuant to said section forty.

SECTION 17. Said chapter 123 is hereby amended by striking out section 47, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 47. Any defendant who is charged with a drug offense shall, upon being brought before the court on such charge, be informed that he is entitled to request an examination to determine whether or not he is a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, and that if he chooses to exercise such right he must do so in writing within five days of being so informed.

If the defendant requests such an examination, the court may in its discretion determine that the defendant is a drug dependent person, who would benefit by treatment, without ordering the examination. In such event, the court shall inform the defendant that he may request assignment to a drug treatment facility, and advise him of the consequences of assignment and that if he is so assigned the criminal proceedings shall be stayed for the term of such assignment.

The criminal proceedings shall be stayed for the period during which a request made under this section is under consideration by the court. If the defendant requests an examination, the court shall, unless the court has already determined that the defendant is a drug dependent person, appoint a psychiatrist, or if it is, in the discretion of the court, impracticable to do so, a physician, to conduct the examination at an appropriate location designated by it. In no event shall the request for such an examination or any statement made by the defendant during the course of the examination, or any finding of the psychiatrist or physician be admissible against the defendant in any criminal proceedings.

The psychiatrist or physician shall report his findings in writing to the court within five days after the completion of the examination, stating the facts upon which the findings are based and the reasons therefor.

If the defendant is also charged with a violation of any law other than a drug offense, the stay of the criminal proceedings may be vacated by the court upon the report of the psychiatrist or physician, whereupon the report shall be considered upon disposition of the charges in accordance with sections forty-eight and forty-nine, and the remaining provisions of this section shall not apply. If the defendant is charged with a drug offense only and if the psychiatrist or physician reports that the defendant is a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, the court shall inform the defendant that he may request assignment to a drug treatment facility, and advise him of the consequences of the assignment and that if he is so assigned the criminal proceedings shall be stayed for the term of such assignment.

If the defendant requests assignment and if the court determines that he is a drug dependent person who would benefit from treatment the court may stay the criminal proceedings and assign him to a drug treatment facility.

An order assigning a person under this section shall specify the period of assignment, which shall not exceed eighteen months or the period of time equal to the maximum sentence he could have received had he been found guilty of every count alleged in the complaint or indictment, whichever is shorter.

In determining whether or not to grant a request for assignment under this section, the court shall consider the report, the past criminal record of the defendant, the availability of adequate and appropriate treatment at a facility, the nature of the offense with which the defendant is charged including, but not limited to, whether the offense charged is that of a sale or sale to a minor, and any other relevant evidence.

In the event that the defendant requests assignment and if the court determines that the defendant is a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, and the defendant is charged for the first time with a drug offense not involving the sale or manufacture of dependency related drugs, and there are no continuances outstanding with respect to the defendant pursuant to this section, the court shall order that the defendant be assigned to a drug treatment facility without consideration of any other factors.

Before such assignment, the court shall consult with the facility or the division, to determine that adequate and appropriate treatment is available.

If the defendant requests assignment, and if the court determines that the defendant is a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, and the defendant is charged for the first time with a drug offense not involving the sale or manufacture of dependency related drugs, and there are no continuances outstanding with respect to the defendant pursuant to this section, and adequate and appropriate treatment at a facility is not available, the stay of criminal proceedings shall remain in effect until such time as adequate and appropriate treatment at a facility is available.

In all other cases, an assignment order shall not be made unless, after consultation with the facility or the division, the court determines that adequate and appropriate treatment is available, provided, however, that the court may in its discretion order that the stay of criminal proceedings remain outstanding until such time as adequate and appropriate treatment is available.

In the event that the stay of the criminal proceedings remains in effect for the reason that adequate and appropriate treatment at a facility is not available, the issue of the availability of adequate and appropriate treatment at a facility may be reopened at any time by the court on its own motion, or on motion by the prosecutor, or the defendant.

In no event shall any defendant be assigned pursuant to this section unless the defendant consents in writing to the terms of the assignment order.

If the psychiatrist or physician reports that the person is not a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, the defendant shall be entitled to request a hearing to determine whether or not he is a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment. The court may on its own motion, or shall, upon request of the defendant or his counsel, appoint an independent psychiatrist, or if it is impracticable to do so, an independent physician to examine the defendant and testify at the hearing. If the court determines that the defendant is a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, the procedures and standards applicable to a defendant who is determined by the court, following the report of the first examining psychiatrist or physician to be a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, shall apply to the defendant.

If the court does not assign the defendant to a facility, the stay of the criminal proceedings shall be vacated.

At any time during the term of assignment, the administrator may transfer any inpatient to an outpatient program if he finds that the patient is a proper subject for an outpatient program; provided, however, that the administrator may retransfer the patient to an inpatient program if he finds that the person is not suitable for outpatient treatment, and provided further that immediately upon such transfer the administrator shall notify in writing the assigning court and the director of such transfer.

Any patient assigned under this section may apply in writing to the assigning court for discharge or transfer either from inpatient to outpatient treatment or from one facility to another; provided, however, that not more than one such application may be made in any three-month period. Upon receipt of an application for discharge or transfer, the court shall give written notice to the patient of his right to a hearing and to be represented by counsel at the hearing.

Within ten days of the receipt by the court of an application for discharge, the administrator and an independent psychiatrist, or, if none is available, an independent physician, designated by the court to make an examination of the patient shall report to the court as to whether or not the patient would benefit from further treatment at a facility. If the court determines that the patient would no longer so benefit, the patient's application for discharge shall be granted. If the court does not so determine, said application shall be denied.

Within ten days of the receipt by the court of an application for transfer, the administrator shall report to the court as to whether the patient is a proper subject for the transfer for which he has made application. If the court determines that the patient is a proper subject for the transfer, the patient's application for transfer shall be granted and the assigning court shall be so notified. If the court does not so determine, said application shall be denied.

Throughout the period of assignment at a facility pursuant to this section, the administrator of said facility shall provide quarterly written reports on the progress being made in treatment by the defendant to the assigning court. Failure to comply may be grounds for suspension of the facility's license. At the end of the assignment period, or when the patient is discharged by the administrator, or when the patient prematurely terminates treatment at a facility, whichever occurs first, the administrator shall notify in writing the assigning court and the director of such termination, and further shall state the reasons for such termination, including whether the defendant successfully completed the treatment program.

In reaching its determination of whether or not the defendant successfully completed the treatment program, the court shall consider, but shall not be limited to, whether the defendant cooperated with the administrator and complied with the terms and conditions imposed on him during his assignment. If the report states that the defendant successfully completed the treatment program, or if the defendant completes the term of treatment ordered by the court, the court shall dismiss the charges pending against the defendant. If the report does not so state, or if the defendant does not complete the term of treatment ordered by the court, then, based on the report and any other relevant evidence, the court may take such action as it deems appropriate, including the dismissal of the charges or the revocation of the stay of the criminal proceedings.

As to any defendant determined by the court pursuant to this section to be a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, concerning whom the court does not order assignment in lieu of prosecution, the court may in the event that such person is convicted of the criminal charges, order that he be afforded treatment pursuant to either section forty-eight or forty-nine. The provisions of this section shall apply to juveniles in the same manner and under the same terms and conditions as adults; provided that no juvenile shall be committed to a facility without the consent of his parents or guardian.

The provisions of this section shall apply to proceedings in the superior court provided, however, that no defendant who has been examined for his drug dependency pursuant to this section in a district court shall have the right to a new examination if his case is bound over or appealed to the superior court; provided, however, that a superior court judge may, in his discretion, grant a second such drug examination.

During any stays authorized by this section, the court may in its discretion place the defendant in the care of a probation officer until he is accepted at a facility. For the purposes of this section, the term facility shall include federal facilities.

SECTION 18. The first sentence of the fourth paragraph of section 48 of said chapter 123, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 1, 2 and 3, the words "who is a drug addict who would benefit by treatment or a drug dependent person who is not a drug addict but".

If the court determines that he is a drug dependent person who would benefit by treatment, and if the court orders that the defendant be confined to a jail, house of correction, prison, or other correctional institution, the court may order that the defendant be afforded treatment at a penal facility in accordance with the standards and procedures set forth in this section.

Whenever such determination indicates a percentum increase or decrease of at least three percentum, such report shall be accompanied by a recommendation for legislation to provide a corresponding percentum increase or decrease in the salaries of all employees in the service of the commonwealth and paid from the treasury thereof, including wages paid to blind workers by the Massachusetts commission for the blind, as provided in section one hundred and forty-three of chapter six of the General Laws, but excluding salaries fixed by statute, except those salaries fixed in accordance with the provisions of chapter seven hundred and sixty-six of the acts of nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, and compensation payable to persons whose services are coded in accordance with the expenditure code manual under the subsidiary title "03 Services-Nonemployees", such increase or decrease to take effect as of the beginning of the first payroll period of the calendar year in which said report is so submitted; provided, however, that no decrease shall be recommended which would reduce any salary in the general salary schedule or any other salary affected by the provisions of this paragraph below that in effect on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine; and provided further, that all such weekly rates, as so increased or decreased, shall be rounded, as necessary, to produce weekly rates which are evenly divisible by five. Such certification must be sent at least thirty days before the effective date of such step-rate salary increase. The said appointing authority may, in writing to the personnel administrator not later than fifteen days before such effective date, object thereto, stating reasons therefor and furnishing a copy thereof to the said officer or employee, in which event said administrator shall, in writing not later than five days preceding the date when the increase otherwise would have taken effect, remove such certification; and the appointing authority shall forthwith notify such officer or employee.

In the event that a step-rate increase has been denied an officer or employee of the commonwealth by the appointing authority, the appointing authority may recommend that such denial be removed and such step-rate increase be granted. The personnel administrator thereupon shall certify such increase in the manner provided for above in the case of regular step-rate increases, and such step-rate increase shall become effective upon such certification.

If a step-rate increase is denied any officer or employee under the provisions of this section, such officer or employee may appeal for review of such decision before the civil service commission.

Any officer or employee reinstated or reemployed, if reinstated or reemployed within three years following his separation from the payroll, shall be credited with the number of years of service which shall correspond to his rate in the job group to which his office or position at the time of such separation shall then have been allocated; but in no event shall he be paid at a rate lower than that which he shall have been receiving at the time of such separation. (b) Labor Service. Prior to any request to the administrator for promotion of a permanent employee in the classified labor service to a position of higher grade in the classified labor service, or for a change within said service from the duties of a position of one grade to a position of a grade which is not higher, where there are substantially dissimilar requirements which prevent a transfer under section sixteen A, which may be either a temporary or permanent position, the appointing authority shall cause a promotional bulletin to be posted in locations where it can be seen by all employees eligible under the civil service law and rules for at least five working days. Such promotional bulletin shall state the title of the position to be filled, the salary and location of the position, any pertinent information as to any special qualifications, or licenses required by law to fill the position, and whether such position is permanent or temporary, and, if temporary, the probable duration of the vacancy. It shall also clearly state the last date for applying for such position. All such requests recommended by the appointing authority to the administrator shall be in conformance with the civil service law and rules. A promotional bulletin shall be mailed to any employee on sick or military leave; on vacation; or off the payroll during the entire period of the posting of such bulletin. All answers of applicants to questions in examinations relating to education, training and experience shall be made under the penalties of perjury. The administrator shall determine the scope, weight and passing requirements of examinations. Any such examination may include a practical test, or written examination, or oral examination or any combination thereof, at the discretion of the administrator; provided, that whenever an oral examination is given, it must be used in conjunction with a written examination or practical test; and provided further, that any oral examination shall be conducted by a board of not less than three persons chosen by the administrator. If a blind person is an applicant for an examination for any position, the duties of which such applicant may properly perform, the administrator shall, in preparing such examination, make such provision as will enable such blind person to take the examination, and, upon passing the examination, such blind person may be appointed to the position notwithstanding his inability to meet required physical standards so far as they relate to the eyes. In the grading of the subject of training and experience in any competitive examination, no credit shall be allowed in the marking for employment or experience in the position for which the examination is held, unless such employment or experience in the position was the result of an appointment or promotion after certification from an eligible list for the position.

Whenever an appointing authority makes a requisition to fill a temporary position in the classified civil service and attaches thereto a request that approval be given for the employment of a mentally retarded person in the position, the administrator may, notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter or any other law, approve such employment; provided, that the appointing authority certifies that in his opinion the duties of the position may be performed by a mentally retarded person. Thereupon, the personnel administrator shall approve such appointment. The administrator may require any such mentally retarded person to undergo such tests as in his opinion will test the fitness of the applicant to properly perform the duties of the position. Upon the approval of the administrator of such employment in accordance with the provisions of this section, the retarded person shall be regarded as properly appointed to the position and shall continue subject to the provisions of this chapter. The position of any such mentally retarded person who has been employed in a year-round temporary position in the commonwealth for a continuous period of three years or more for which compensation has been duly paid or authorized under the same or a like item in prior appropriation acts shall be deemed to be a permanent position. The personnel administrator shall, by title and code number and subject to the approval of the executive office for administration and finance, certify to the budget director, the comptroller, each appointing authority concerned, and the house and senate committees on ways and means, each such position to be included.

Any appointments to positions for which the federal standards for a merit system of personnel administration apply shall not be approved unless the appointee meets such established standards.

SECTION 80. The first paragraph of section 12 of said chapter 31, as appearing in chapter 571 of the acts of 1955, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 4 and 8, the word "director" and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the word:— administrator.

SECTION 81. Said section 12 of said chapter 31 is hereby further amended by striking out the second paragraph, as amended by chapter 304 of the acts of 1974, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:—

No person shall remain eligible for more than two years upon any eligible list, notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, except provisions of law extending eligibility to persons in the military and naval service; provided, however, that whenever the administrator is temporarily enjoined by a court order from certifying persons from an eligible list, the period of eligibility of all persons whose names appear on said list shall be extended for a period equal to the duration of such order.

SECTION 82. The third paragraph of said section 12 of said chapter 31, inserted by chapter 241 of the acts of 1964, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 2 and 4, the word "director" and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the word:— administrator.

SECTION 84. Section 12A of said chapter 31, as most recently amended by section 8 of chapter 320 of the acts of 1973, is hereby further amended by striking out, in lines 2, 5, 6, 8, 10, 13, 16, 19, 25, 26, 30 and 34, the word "director" and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the word:— administrator.

SECTION 87. Said chapter 31 is hereby further amended by striking out section 15 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 15. No person shall be appointed or promoted to any position in the classified civil service except upon requisition by the appointing officer and upon certification by the administrator from an eligible list prepared in accordance with this chapter and the rules made thereunder. If there is no such list, or if the administrator is unable to comply with a requisition, he may, or in the case of any department, board, commission, institution, or other agency within any of the executive offices established by chapters six A and seven, the secretary having charge of such executive office may subject to section twenty-five, authorize a provisional appointment. A provisional appointment may be authorized pending the establishment of an eligible list; provided, that in any office or position in the commonwealth or any agency or political subdivision thereof where compliance with the federal standards for a merit system of personnel administration is a condition for the granting of federal funds, the administrator shall forthwith make arrangements to establish an eligible list within a year from the date of the approval of the provisional authorization.

Upon authorization of a provisional appointment, as provided by this section, whether to a permanent or a temporary position, the administrator shall proceed to conduct an examination as he determines necessary; provided, that for any office or position in the commonwealth or any agency or political subdivision thereof where compliance with the federal standards of a merit system of personnel administration is a condition for the granting of federal funds, such examination shall be held and an eligible list established within a year from the date of the approval of the provisional authorization.

If, as a result of any examination, no suitable eligible list is established, authorization for a further extension of the provisional appointment, whether to a permanent or temporary position, may be granted by the administrator pending the establishment of an eligible list, upon the request of the appointing authority; provided, that the administrator shall forthwith make arrangements to conduct another examination and establish an eligible list within eighteen months from the date of the determination of the results of such examination; and provided further, that in any office or position in the commonwealth or any agency or political subdivision thereof where compliance with the federal standards for a merit system of personnel administration is a condition for the granting of federal funds, such examination shall be held within a year from the date of the last examination.

Authorization to make a provisional appointment shall be void if not exercised within two weeks.

A provisional appointment to fill a permanent or temporary position shall be terminated by the administrator within thirty days after the establishment of an eligible list for such position, and it may be terminated by the administrator at any time.

Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, where there is no suitable eligible list, no person shall be appointed to an office or position by the appointing authority, and no provisional appointment to fill such an office or position, permanent or temporary, shall be authorized until the appointing authority has filed with the administrator and, in the case of an office or position in the classified civil service in any department, board, commission, institution or other agency within any of the executive offices established by chapters six A and seven, with the secretary having charge of such executive office, a notification, in such form as the administrator shall prescribe, containing the following information: (1) a statement of the information the appointing authority believes necessary to conduct an examination, including the duties of the office or position, the knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to perform said duties, and the entrance requirements of the office or position; (2) a certification to the administrator that in his opinion the person proposed to be provisionally appointed meets said qualifications and requirements; (3) a substantiating statement showing how the proposed appointee meets the entrance requirements; and (4) a proposal as to the type of examination to be held. The administrator or secretary having charge of an executive office, as the case may be, shall review the statements, certification and proposal and, if he determines them satisfactory, may authorize a provisional appointment. If at any time the administrator shall determine that the appointee under any provisional appointment so authorized by the administrator does not in fact meet the said qualifications and requirements, the administrator shall terminate such appointment; and any provisional appointment so authorized by any such secretary shall be terminated by the secretary or the administrator if either shall determine that the appointee does not in fact meet the said qualifications and requirements. Every provisional appointment made after such authorization shall be reported by the appointing authority to the administrator. If the administrator and appointing authority are in agreement that the duties, qualifications and entrance requirements are correct as stated, and if no qualified person can be found to fill the position pending the holding of the examination, the positions shall remain unfilled until the eligible list is established. If an emergency exists, and the appointing authority certifies that the position has to be filled, sets forth the reasons for the emergency, and submits a statement satisfactory to the administrator of what steps he has taken to find a qualified person, the administrator may authorize the filling of the position by a person who does not possess the qualifications and requirements approved. Said authorization under such emergency conditions shall not be construed to mean that said person is thereby ruled as eligible to take the examination. If no eligible list is established as the result of the scheduled examination, the administrator and the appointing authority shall confer and decide what action should be taken, including the holding of another examination on a different basis and the restructuring of the office or position. A requisition to make an appointment to fill a vacancy in a permanent position or in a newly created position for which funds have been appropriated or are available on a permanent basis shall state that such vacancy is to be filled on a permanent basis.

No provisional appointment shall be approved or continued, except in accordance with the provisions of section fifteen G; provided, however, that where a list has been established as the result of an open competitive examination, and the appointing authority requests that the office or position be filled by a competitive promotional or a qualifying examination, as hereunder provided in paragraphs A and

B, a provisional promotion of a person from within his department may be authorized in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of disabled veterans as provided in section twenty-three.

Any alteration in the nature of the employment of a person holding such a provisional appointment or any increase in salary thereof shall immediately terminate such an appointment.

Except as otherwise provided in sections ten, nineteen A, twenty A, twenty C, twenty-two, forty-seven A, forty-eight and forty-nine A and in section thirty-six of chapter forty-eight, no person shall receive an original appointment to the official service of the commonwealth or any city or town thereof other than by virtue of a competitive examination, unless (a) the administrator certifies that he has previously held a competitive examination for the position involved and has been unable to establish an eligible list of at least two available persons; or unless (b) a position not under civil service is placed thereunder by virtue of a statute or rule and the administrator makes recommendations supported by four affirmative votes of the commission to include under civil service any present incumbent of the position, subject to passing a qualifying examination, prescribed by the administrator. If one person passes a competitive examination, his name shall be certified by the administrator to the appointing authority. A noncompetitive examination may not, however, be given to a person who failed a competitive examination or to anyone who was provisionally employed in a position and did not take the examination for said position.

A person may be certified from a civil service list to fill, for the duration of the vacancy, a temporary vacancy.

In case of an emergency, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, which could not have been foreseen and where the public business would be seriously impeded by delay in filling any position in the manner provided by law, an appointing authority may make an emergency appointment without requisition; but in no case, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, shall such emergency appointment continue for more than thirty days within the sixty consecutive days next following, and in every case he shall forthwith report the same to the administrator, stating the reason therefor, in such form and detail as the administrator may prescribe, and the time, not exceeding thirty days within the sixty consecutive days next following, for which such employment is to last. No such emergency appointment shall be renewed except with the consent of the administrator or be renewed more than once, except that in departments, institutions or hospitals the functions of which are connected with the public safety or public health where the public service would otherwise suffer, the administrator may renew such emergency appointment for one additional period; but no person shall receive more than one such appointment and renewal or renewals, as the case may be, in any twelve-month period. In case of an emergency in the position of laborer, which could not have been foreseen and where the public business would be seriously impeded by delay in filling the position in the manner provided by law, an appointing authority may make an emergency appointment without requisition; but in no case shall such emergency appointment continue for more than thirty days within the sixty consecutive days next following, except that the appointing authority may renew the emergency appointment for one additional period, as provided in this paragraph or, at his discretion, renew the emergency appointment immediately for a period not to exceed an additional fifteen days, in which event no further emergency appointment under this section may be given such laborer within the twelve-month period from the date that the thirty-day emergency appointment began; and in every such case the appointing authority shall forthwith report the same to the administrator, stating the reason therefor, in such form and detail as the administrator may prescribe, and the time, not exceeding thirty days within the sixty consecutive days next following, or the additional fifteen days provided for in this section, for which such employment is to last. If the person given such an emergency appointment as a laborer has had prior emergency employment under another title in the classified civil service within the twelve consecutive months next following the date of his first employment under the emergency appointment, the total emergency employment in any position, including that of laborer, shall not exceed a total of sixty days in any twelve-month period. Vacancies of which an appointing authority has had, or might with due diligence have had, reasonable knowledge shall not be considered an emergency under this section.

A. An appointing authority, with the approval of the administrator, may promote in the same department in the official service a permanent employee in one grade to the next higher grade as determined by the administrator; provided, that such employee has been employed in such department after certification on a permanent basis in the lower grade for at least three years next preceding the date of request, is the oldest employee, the second oldest employee or the third oldest employee in length of service, who is willing to accept such position, and that such employee passes a qualifying examination prescribed by the administrator. In case of promotions of more than one employee, the next oldest employees in succession in length of service may be selected from the same number of such oldest employees as that provided in the civil service rules governing certification for more than one vacancy. If there is only one permanent employee in a department of a city, town or district who is eligible for promotion, such employee may be promoted on the request of the appointing authority; provided, that such employee has been employed on a permanent basis, after certification, for at least one year, and that such employee passes a qualifying examination prescribed by the administrator. This paragraph shall not apply in any case where a promotion is required to be made as provided in section twenty nor in the case of a temporary promotion except where the administrator is satisfied that there is a likelihood of the position becoming permanent within a reasonable period of time. If a person has been so temporarily promoted, the administrator may, upon the request of the appointing authority, approve the promotion on a permanent basis when the position becomes permanently vacated without requiring a further examination. The effective date of a permanent promotion under this paragraph shall be the date on which the person passed the qualifying examination; provided, however, that if the appointing authority has not assigned the person to the higher duties pending the passing of the examination, the effective date of the promotion shall be the date on which the appointing authority certifies that the person has assumed the higher duties.

B. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section twenty, all promotions in the official service in a department shall be made (a) in accordance with paragraph A, (b) after a departmental promotional examination subject to this clause or after a departmental promotional examination subject to clause (2) of this paragraph, (c) after an executive office promotional examination, (d) after a competitive promotional examination or (e) after an open competitive examination, whichever method shall be selected by the appointing authority, with the approval of the administrator. Any such departmental promotional examination shall be open, until there are at least two employees in lower grades eligible to apply, to all permanent employees in the department in grades equal to that of the position for which the examination is held and in the next lower grades, as determined by the administrator, who have been employed in the department in such grades, after certification and in a permanent or temporary status, for at least one year preceding the date of examination; provided, that no such departmental promotional examination shall be open to any employee of a department who has not been employed therein, after certification and in a permanent status, for at least one year next preceding the date of the examination, or who has permanent status after certification in a grade higher than that of the position for which the examination is to be held. Any such competitive promotional examination shall be open to all permanent employees of the commonwealth, or of the city, town or district where the promotion is to be made, as the case may be, who after certification in a permanent status, have been employed for at least the six months next preceding the date of said examination in permanent or temporary status in positions which are in the class or service group of the position for which the examination is to be held, as such class or service group shall have been established in accordance with section forty-five of chapter thirty, or in any other class or service group, as determined by the administrator, which contains positions having duties, qualifications, and other significant characteristics similar or functionally related to those of the position for which the examination is to be held, and which are in grades equal to that of the said position and in the next lower grades, as determined by the administrator.

(2) Departmental promotional examinations which are not made in accordance with clause (1) of this paragraph shall be open to permanent employees in the department (a) who have been employed therein, after certification, whether in a permanent or temporary status, for at least one year preceding the date of examination in a position determined by the administrator to be directly qualifying for the position for which the examination is held, or (b) who meet such experience or education and training requirements as shall be determined by the administrator to be qualifying for the position for which the examination is held. Such experience, education or training may have been acquired within or without the department, and shall be creditable only upon presentation of evidence satisfactory to the administrator that such experience or training are of the length, type and quality determined by the administrator to be appropriate for the classification; provided, that no such promotional examination shall be open to any employee of the department who has not been employed therein, after certification and in a permanent status, for at least one year next preceding the date of examination, or to any employee who has permanent status, after certification, in a grade higher than that of the position for which the examination is held. All promotions in the official service of the division of employment security in the department of labor and industries shall be made in accordance with paragraph A or the provisions of this clause. The provisions of this clause at the discretion of the administrator may be applied to any position in the official service in any other department, and so far as practicable, to executive office promotional examinations, with the approval of the secretary thereof, and to competitive promotional examinations.

C. In each instance when the appointing authority appoints or promotes, as the case may be, any person other than the person whose name appears highest on a list certified by the administrator for a position and such person is willing to accept such appointment or promotion, the appointing authority shall forthwith deliver to the administrator a written statement of his or its reason for so appointing or promoting the person so appointed or promoted, and no appointment or promotion of any person other than the person whose name appears highest on such list shall become effective until such statement has been received by the administrator. Every such statement shall be filed in the office of the division and shall be open to public inspection.

D. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary no individual, other than in an emergency as heretofore set forth in this section, shall be appointed, transferred, excepting a transfer to a position with substantially identical authority, duties and responsibility, or promoted to any office or position which is subject to the federal standards for a merit system of personnel administration unless the administrator or the secretary having charge of an executive office established by chapters six A or seven, as the case may be, has certified such individual meets the minimum qualifications conformable with applicable federal requirements, which minimum qualifications the administrator is hereby authorized and directed to establish for each such office or position.

All departmental promotional examinations for positions in the department of public works shall be open to eligible employees in said department, as determined by the administrator and in the case of promotional qualifying examinations length of service shall be computed on total length of permanent service, as set forth in section fifteen D, regardless of the unit to which assigned.

For positions in the classified labor service, districts established under section three of chapter sixteen shall not be changed except in accordance with section eighteen A of this chapter and certification shall be made in accordance with the provisions of said section.

Requests to make a promotion of a civil service employee to fill a permanent vacancy or a newly created position for which funds have been appropriated or are available on a permanent basis shall state that such vacancy is to be filled on a permanent basis and not on a temporary basis.

SECTION 88. Said chapter 31 is hereby amended by striking out section 15B, as most recently amended by section 4 of chapter 683 of the acts of 1971, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 15B. An employee in the classified civil service of a department may, upon requisition made by the appointing officer, be appointed or promoted to a position in the lowest grade, as determined by the administrator, of the official service of such department upon certification from an eligible list established as a result of an examination open only to permanent employees in the classified civil service of such department who have been employed therein after certification for at least one year.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section extending eligibility for such an examination to the classified civil service, the administrator may restrict such eligibility to any group or groups of positions in the labor service if there are sufficient number of employees in such a group or groups to take a competitive examination, as determined by the administrator. The administrator may also include in such an examination incumbents of those positions in the official service in said department whom the administrator determines proper for admission to the examination.

An employee may be promoted to a position in the lowest grade of the official service of the department with the approval of the administrator, provided such employee passes a qualifying examination, has been employed in the department for at least one year, and is the oldest employee, the second oldest employee or the third oldest employee in length of service who is willing to accept such position. The determination as to which employees are willing to accept shall be made only after the posting of a promotional bulletin in accordance with the provisions of section eight; provided, that for the purposes of making said determination persons in the official service in said department shall be eligible to respond to the bulletin and those who do respond shall be considered in making the determination.

The provisions of this section may, upon the request of the appointing authority and at the discretion of the administrator, be applied to a department where the official service is subject to the provisions of this chapter but wherein the labor service is not so subject, in which case the words "classified civil service" shall include persons who have been employed for at least one year in the department in said labor service notwithstanding the fact that they are employed in positions which are not subject to the provisions of this chapter. The seniority date of any person who acquires civil service status under this section shall be computed from the date of permanent appointment after certification by the administrator for promotion, following his passing such examination.

SECTION 88A. The first paragraph of section 15C of said chapter 31, as appearing in chapter 195 of the acts of 1953, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 3, the word "director" and inserting in place thereof the word:— administrator.

SECTION 88B. Section 15E of said chapter 31, inserted by chapter 540 of the acts of 1946, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 6, 14 and 16, the word "director" and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the word:— administrator.

SECTION 89. Said chapter 31 is hereby amended by striking out sections 15F and 15G and inserting in place thereof the following two sections:—

Section 15F. Any person who is appointed to a permanent position after certification may, upon request of the appointing authority and the approval of the administrator, be provisionally promoted to a position in the next higher grade in the same department or division of a department, if there is no suitable eligible list from which to certify; or be appointed after certification in accordance with the civil service law and rules to a temporary position in a higher grade. If, however, there is no such employee qualified and willing to accept such a provisional promotion, a provisional promotion to a position in the classified official service without regard to class or grade may be authorized by the administrator if in his opinion the appointing authority submits sound and sufficient reasons to show that said provisional promotion will be for the public good. If the administrator has approved the holding of a competitive promotional examination, as provided in paragraph B of section fifteen, he may approve a provisional promotion of a person who is eligible to take said examination, notwithstanding the fact that the promotion may involve a transfer from one department to another. Such provisional promotion or such temporary appointment shall not be deemed to interrupt the serving of the probationary period or the period of eligibility for promotion required by this chapter in the office or position of the lower grade.

No provisional promotion shall be made under this section without the prior approval of the administrator; provided, however, that provisional promotions to any office or position in the classified civil service in any department of the commonwealth, as defined by section one of chapter twenty-nine, and in any board, commission, institution or other agency within any of the executive offices established by chapter six A and seven may be authorized by the secretary having charge of such executive office without further authorization or approval by the administrator upon submission of notification of such provisional promotion to the administrator, in such form as he shall prescribe, and subject to all applicable provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations established thereunder. If at any time the administrator shall determine that any provisional promotion authorized by any such secretary shall have been made in violation of any such provision, or that the person provisionally appointed shall fail to meet the qualifications and requirements established by the administrator for the position, the administrator shall terminate such promotion. Every provisional promotion made after such authorization shall be reported by the appointing authority to the administrator.

Section 15G. Whenever a certification of names of persons eligible for appointment or promotion is made by the administrator and the eligible list contains the names of three persons willing to accept, selection and appointment or promotion shall be made by the appointing authority from the eligible list in accordance with the law and rules. The appointing authority may make a selection and appointment or promotion from a certification of less than three at his own discretion. If the appointing authority does not make an appointment or promotion from a certification of less than three names he shall notify the administrator that it is his intention to leave the position unfilled until such time as an eligible list of at least three persons willing to accept is established, or, if the appointing authority wishes to fill the position by a person whose name does not appear on said eligible list, he shall certify to the administrator that each person on the list who reported for an employment interview as directed by the administrator was interviewed and considered for the position. In such case, the appointing authority shall state sound and sufficient reasons, satisfactory to the administrator, why the certification of less than three names was not adequate to make a proper selection. No provisional appointment or provisional promotion shall be approved or continued following a certification by the administrator if the list contains the names of three persons eligible and willing to accept. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of disabled veterans as provided in section twenty-three.

SECTION 90. Said chapter 31 is hereby further amended by striking out section 16A, as most recently amended by section 22 of chapter 1230 of the acts of 1973, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 16A. Any person who has been permanently appointed in accordance with the civil service law and rules and who has served a probationary period required by section twenty D may, after application in writing to the administrator by an appointing authority and with the consent of the administrator, be transferred to another similar position, provided the appointing authority submits sound and sufficient reasons, in the opinion of the administrator, to show that the transfer will be for the public good and will not impose unreasonable hardship on the employee to be transferred. No position shall be considered similar which is higher in grade or for which there are substantially dissimilar requirements for appointment.

If such transfer shall be to a temporary position, the transfer shall be temporary and for such period of time as the appointing authority shall determine, with the consent of the administrator. If such transfer shall be to a permanent position, the transfer shall be permanent or temporary, as the appointing authority shall determine, with the consent of the administrator; and if temporary, shall be for such period of time as the appointing authority shall determine, with the consent of the administrator. A temporary transfer shall not affect the seniority date of the employee so transferred and shall not be deemed to interrupt the serving of the period of eligibility for promotion required by this chapter in the office or position from which the employee is transferred.

Without the consent of the administrator but otherwise subject to the requirements of the two preceding paragraphs, a transfer from an office or position with a department, as defined by section one of chapter twenty-nine, within any of the executive offices established by chapters six A and seven to another office or position within the same department may be authorized by the secretary having charge of such executive office upon submission of notification of such transfer to the administrator in such form as he shall prescribe, and subject to all applicable provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations established thereunder; provided, however, that the duration of any such transfer to a temporary position shall be subject to the approval of the personnel administrator. If at any time the administrator shall determine that any such transfer so authorized by any such secretary shall have been made in violation of any such provision, the administrator shall terminate such transfer.

Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of disabled veterans as provided in section twenty-three.

Any person aggrieved by any such transfer may appeal to the commission in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of section two.

In case of an emergency where the public safety or health would be seriously impaired by delay in the performance of essential duties, the appointing authority may, in the manner and subject to the conditions specified by the provisions of section fifteen relating to emergency appointments, make an emergency transfer or other assignment of any employee.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, any person who has been permanently appointed in accordance with the civil service law and rules may apply in writing to his appointing authority for transfer to another similar position, and said appointing authority, with the consent of the administrator, may grant such application.

SECTION 91. The first paragraph of section 16B of said chapter 31, inserted by chapter 185 of the acts of 1971, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 1, the word "director" and inserting in place thereof the word:— administrator.

SECTION 94. The second paragraph of section 18 of said chapter 31, inserted by section 3 of chapter 179 of the acts of 1971, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 2, 5, 7 and 14, the word "director" and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the word:— administrator.

The term "base elevation" as used in this section shall mean the mean elevation of the watershed in which the activity is proposed. The mean elevation shall be determined relative to the portion of the watershed which is situated in said county by taking the highest and lowest elevation in each city and town within the watershed and finding the average of these elevations.

The base elevation for each of the watersheds in said county shall be as follows:

Farmington River watershed	1,500 feet above mean sea level
Housatonic River watershed	1,500 feet above mean sea level
Westfield River watershed	1,600 feet above mean sea level

Deerfield River watershed	1,700 feet above mean sea level
Hudson River watershed	1,700 feet above mean sea level
Hoosic River watershed	1,800 feet above mean sea level

The term "hearing authority" as used in this section shall mean the conservation commission, or if none, the board of selectmen in a town, or the mayor of a city in which an activity subject to the provision of this section is proposed.

The term "mountain regions" as used in this section shall mean those highland areas within the city or town which are subject to the provisions of this section.

The term "person" as used in this section shall include any individual, group of individuals, association, partnership, corporation, company, business organization, trust, estate, the commonwealth or political subdivision thereof, administrative agency, public or quasi-public corporation or body, or any other legal entity or its legal representative, agents or assigns.

The hearing authority shall draft proposed boundaries for mountain regions. The mountain regions shall generally be those areas within the city or town which have an elevation greater than the base elevation as defined in this section.

If the hearing authority determines that the regulation of certain areas which have elevations lower than the base elevation is necessary to accomplish the purposes of this section, the hearing authority may include those areas in the proposed mountain regions. If the hearing authority finds that regulation of certain areas above the base elevation would not accomplish the purposes of this section, the hearing authority may exempt those areas from the proposed mountain regions.

The boundaries of the mountain regions shall not become effective until after a public hearing in relation thereto has been held by the hearing authority. Notice of the time and place of said hearing shall be given once in each of two successive weeks, by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the city or town in which an activity is proposed, the first publication occurring not less than fourteen days before the day of such hearing. Said publication shall be at public expense. In addition, the hearing authority shall submit a map or text delineating the proposed boundaries to the board of health and the planning board of said city or town and to the department. If the conservation commission is the hearing authority, and is carrying out the provisions of this section, notice shall also be given to the board of selectmen or to the mayor. Agencies receiving such notice shall submit written comments to the hearing authority and shall testify at the public hearing. A copy of the map or text delineating the proposed boundaries shall be filed with the city or town clerk for public inspection not less than fourteen days before the hearing and may be published in full in a newspaper.

The hearing authority shall submit a map or text delineating final boundaries to the city council or town meeting within twenty-one days after the hearing. After submission of the report or a lapse of twenty-one days without submission of the report, the city council or town meeting may adopt, by a two-thirds vote, reject, or amend and adopt final boundaries of the mountain regions.

The hearing authority shall submit a map or text delineating the final boundaries of mountain regions to the commissioner.

The boundaries of mountain regions may be amended, changed, or repealed by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the city council in a city or by a two-thirds vote of the town meeting in a town.

Any person who proposes to remove, fill, excavate, or alter any land situated within the mountain regions shall file written notice of his intention to so remove, fill, excavate, or alter, including such plans as may be necessary to describe such proposed activity and its effect on the environment, and shall receive and comply with an order of conditions as provided in this section.

The notice required by this section shall be sent by certified mail to the hearing authority of the city or town in which the activity is proposed. Each notice shall be accompanied by a filing fee of twenty-five dollars payable to the city or town. Copies of such notice shall be sent at the same time by certified mail to the department and to the department of public works. No such notice shall be sent before all permits, variances, and approvals required by by-law or ordinance with respect to the proposed activity have been filed. Upon receipt of any notice the department shall designate a file number for such notice and shall send a notification of such number to the person giving notice, to the hearing authority to whom the notice was given, and to the department of public works. Said notification shall state the name of the owner of the land upon which the proposed work is to be done and the location of said land.

The hearing authority shall hold a public hearing on the proposed activity within twenty-one days after receipt of said notice. Notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given by the hearing authority at the expense of the applicant, not less than five days prior to such hearing, by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the city or town where the activity is proposed and by mailing of the published notice to the applicant and to the board of health and the planning board of said city or town and to the department and to the department of public works.

Within twenty-one days after the hearing, the hearing authority shall issue a written order which may impose conditions on the proposed activity to protect public or private water supply, to protect the ground water supply, to prevent pollution and erosion, to control flooding, and to preserve the natural scenic qualities of the environment. The activity shall be done in accordance with such order. If the hearing authority determines that the proposed activity will not noticeably affect such interests or that the applicant has taken adequate measures to protect such interests, the order shall so state. The order shall be signed by a majority of the conservation commission, a majority of the selectmen, or by the mayor, as the case may be, and a copy thereof shall be sent forthwith to the applicant and to the department and the department of public works. At the same time, a copy of the order shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city or town where the activity is proposed.

Upon issuance of an order, the applicant or any person aggrieved by the order, or any owner of land abutting the land upon which the proposed activity would be done, or any ten residents of the city or town where such land is located, or the commissioner may request the department to determine if conditions should be imposed on the proposed activity to protect public or private water supply, to protect ground water supply, to prevent pollution and erosion, to control flooding, and to preserve the natural scenic qualities of the environment. Such request may be submitted if the hearing authority fails to hold a hearing within twenty-one days after receipt of the notice of intention, or if the hearing authority holds a hearing but fails to issue an order within twenty-one days after the hearing. The request shall be sent to the department by certified mail within ten days after the hearing authority has acted or failed to act. At the same time, the party making the request shall send copies thereof by certified mail to the hearing authority and, if the party is not the applicant, to the applicant. Within thirty days after the receipt of the request, the department shall notify the applicant if his application is not in the proper form or is lacking information or documentation necessary to make the determination. Within seventy-two days after receipt of such request, the department shall make the determination requested and shall issue a written order, signed by the commissioner, imposing conditions to protect the interests described herein. Such order shall supersede the prior order of the hearing authority and all work shall be done in accordance therewith. A copy of the order shall be sent to the applicant, to the hearing authority, to the department of public works, and the party who requested the order if not the applicant. At the same time, a copy of the order shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city or town where the activity is proposed.

Any person aggrieved by an order of the department issued under the provisions of this section may appeal under the provisions of chapter thirty A. Such right of appeal shall be exclusive.

No activity in any mountain region shall be undertaken until the final order with respect to such work has been recorded in the registry of deeds for the district in which the land is located. Upon completion of the activity in compliance with the order, the applicant may obtain a certificate of compliance from the hearing authority. The applicant may record that certificate in the registry of deeds for the district in which the land is located.

Any person who purchases land upon which an activity has been done in violation of the provisions of this section or in violation of an order issued under this section shall forthwith comply with the order or restore the land to its condition prior to any violation.

If an applicant fails to undertake the proposed activity within one year following the date of issuance of an order, such inaction shall constitute an abandonment of the project and the order shall be considered expired. The applicant may request an extension of the order prior to the expiration of the one-year period from the agency which issued the order. Said agency, in its discretion, may grant two extensions of the order for a period no longer than one year.

The agency which issued the order may suspend or revoke the order if it finds that the applicant has not complied with the conditions set forth in the order, or that the applicant has exceeded the scope of activity as set forth in the application. Such a finding shall be made only after giving notice to the applicant of the facts or conduct which warrant the intended action, and after a hearing at which the applicant is given an opportunity to show compliance with the conditions of the order.

The hearing authority, its agents, officers, and employees, the commissioner, his agents and employees, may enter upon privately owned land for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section.

Any court having equity jurisdiction may restrain a violation of this section and enter such orders as it deems necessary to remedy such violation, upon the petition of the attorney general, the commissioner, a city or town, an owner or occupant of property which may be affected by removal, filling, excavation, or altering, or ten residents of the commonwealth under the provisions of section ten A of chapter two hundred and fourteen.

Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months or both. Each day or portion thereof of continuing violation shall constitute a separate offense. This section may be enforced by natural resources officers or deputy natural resources officers.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to owners of land who propose to cut forest products on land devoted to forest purposes and who have complied with the provisions of sections forty to forty-six, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and thirty-two.

This section shall not apply to any activity which is subject to the provisions of section forty, any activity conducted in connection with the construction or maintenance of any facility, as that term is defined in section sixty-nine G of chapter one hundred and sixty-four, to any activity conducted in connection with the construction or maintenance of any electrical, transmission or distribution facilities or facilities used in the transmission of intelligence by electricity or by telephone or otherwise for which locations in the public ways have been approved by the selectmen or aldermen under the provisions of section twenty-two of chapter one hundred and sixty-six, or to the construction or maintenance of any electric distribution facilities required to serve a building or structure whose construction has been approved by the local conservation commission.

SECTION 2. The provisions of section thirty-nine A of chapter one hundred and thirty-one of the General Laws, inserted by section one of this act, which require a notice of and a public hearing and approval of certain activities in mountain regions in the county of Berkshire, shall not become effective until a map or text delineating the boundaries of the mountain regions has been filed with the city or town clerk and has been recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district in which the city or town is located and the hearing authority has after notice and public hearing, adopted rules and regulations consistent with the provisions of this section which have been approved by the commissioner of natural resources.

SECTION 3. The provisions of section thirty-nine A of chapter one hundred and thirty-one of the General Laws, inserted by section one of this act, shall not apply to existing buildings or structures in existence on the effective date of this act, nor to the use of land to the extent to which it is used on said effective date. The provisions of said section thirty-nine A, as so inserted, shall not apply to any activity for which application for permits, variances and approvals required by by-law or ordinance have been filed before the effective date of this act nor to a lot in a subdivision if such subdivision has been approved pursuant to sections eighty-one K to eighty-one GG, inclusive, of chapter forty-one prior to said effective date.

SECTION 4. If any provision of section thirty-nine A of chapter one hundred and thirty-one of the General Laws, inserted by section one of this act, or the application of such provision to any person or circumstances shall be invalid, the remainder of said section or application of that provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Chap 845. AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIANS AND CONSERVATORS FOR CERTAIN MENTALLY RETARDED PERSONS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The first sentence of section 4 of chapter 123 of the General Laws, as appearing in section 4 of chapter 888 of the acts of 1970, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "appointed", in line 9, the words:— or removed,.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of chapter 201 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by section 1 of chapter 314 of the acts of 1956, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word "persons", in line 3, the words:—, mentally retarded persons, and —, by inserting after the word "or", in line 5, the words:—, mental retardation or, — and by adding the following paragraph:—

For the purposes of this chapter, a mentally retarded person is a person who, as a result of inadequately developed or impaired intelligence, is substantially limited in his ability to learn or adapt, as determined in accordance with established standards for the evaluation of a person's ability to function in society.

SECTION 3. Section 6 of said chapter 201, as most recently amended by section 2 of said chapter 314, is hereby further amended by striking out, in lines 1 to 4, inclusive, the words "Two or more relatives or friends of a mentally ill person, or the mayor and aldermen of a city or the selectmen of a town in which he is an inhabitant or resident" and inserting in place thereof the words:— A parent of a mentally ill person, two or more relatives or friends of a mentally ill person, a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the commonwealth whose corporate charter authorizes the corporation to act as a guardian of a mentally ill person —, and by striking out, in line 6, the word "him" and inserting in place thereof the words:— such mentally ill person.

SECTION 4. Said chapter 201 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 6 the following section:—

Section 6A. A parent of a mentally retarded person, two or more relatives or friends of a mentally retarded person, a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the commonwealth whose corporate charter authorizes the corporation to act as guardian of a mentally retarded person, or any agency within the executive offices of human services or educational affairs may file a petition in the probate court asking to have a guardian appointed for such mentally retarded person. If, after notice as provided in section seven and a hearing, the court finds that the person is mentally retarded to the degree that he is incapable of making informed decisions with respect to the conduct of his personal and financial affairs, that failure to appoint a guardian would create an unreasonable risk to his health, welfare and property, and that appointment of a conservator pursuant to section sixteen B would not eliminate such risk, it may appoint a guardian of his person and estate. The court shall not so find unless the petition is accompanied by a report from a clinical team consisting of a physician, a licensed psychologist and a social worker, each of whom is experienced in the evaluation of mentally retarded persons, that it has examined the said person and has determined that he is mentally retarded to the degree that he is incapable of making informed decisions with respect to the conduct of his personal and financial affairs. The court shall not, pursuant to this section, appoint as guardian any person or organization which, in its opinion, has any interest, responsibilities or powers which would render such person or organization unable to perform the duties of guardian in the best interest of the mentally retarded person. A copy of such appointment shall be sent by mail by the register to the department of mental health. The court may require additional testimony as to the existence and degree of mental retardation, and may require the person subject to the petition to submit to examination. It may also appoint one or more persons experienced in the evaluation of mentally retarded persons to examine such person and report their conclusions to the court. Reasonable expenses incurred in any examination conducted pursuant to this section shall be paid by the petitioner, the estate of such person, or by the county, as may be determined by the court.

The guardian of a mentally retarded person shall act to protect the welfare of such person and may utilize the services of agencies and individuals to provide necessary and desirable social and protective services of different types appropriate to such person including, but not limited to, counseling services, advocacy services, legal services, and other aid as he deems to be in the interest of such person.

SECTION 5. Section 7 of said chapter 201, as most recently amended by section 3 of chapter 314 of the acts of 1956, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word "ill", in lines 4, 5, 11, and 15, in each instance, the words:— or mentally retarded.

Section 12 of said chapter 201, as amended by section 4 of said chapter 314, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word "ill", in line 1, the words:— or mentally retarded —, and by striking out, in lines 6 and 7, the words ", except that the conditions relative to the education of the ward shall be omitted" and inserting in place thereof the words:— ; provided, however, that in the case of a guardian of a mentally ill person or spendthrift, the condition prescribed by clause Second of paragraph 6 of said section one of said chapter two hundred and five relative to the education of the ward shall be omitted.

SECTION 7. Section 13 of said chapter 201, as most recently amended by section 5 of said chapter 314, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word "ill", in lines 2, 5 and 8, in each instance, the words:— or mentally retarded.

SECTION 8. Said chapter 201 is hereby further amended by striking out section 13A, as amended by section 6 of said chapter 314, and inserting, in place thereof, the following section:—

Section 13A. A mentally ill person under guardianship or any person, agency or corporation authorized by section six to petition for the appointment of a guardian for a mentally ill person may file a petition for the removal of such guardian. A mentally retarded person under guardianship or any person, agency or corporation authorized by section six A to petition for the appointment of a guardian for a mentally retarded person may file a petition for the removal of such guardian.

SECTION 9. Said chapter 201 is hereby further amended by inserting, after section 16A, the following section:—

Section 16B. A parent of a mentally retarded person, two or more of his relatives or friends, a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the commonwealth whose corporate charter authorizes the corporation to act as a conservator of a mentally retarded person, or any agency within the executive office of human services may file a petition in the probate court asking to have a conservator appointed for such mentally retarded person. If, after notice as provided in section seventeen and a hearing, the court finds that the person is mentally retarded to the degree that he is incapable of making informed decisions with respect to the conduct of his financial affairs and that the failure to appoint a conservator would create an unreasonable risk to his property, it may appoint a conservator to have charge and management of his property, subject to the direction of the court. The court shall not so find unless the petition is accompanied by a report from a clinical team consisting of a physician, a licensed psychologist and a social worker, each of whom is experienced in the evaluation of mentally retarded persons, that it has examined the person and has determined that the person is mentally retarded to the degree that he is incapable of making informed decisions with respect to the conduct of his financial affairs. In the case of a mentally retarded person of majority age who is wholly or substantially self-supporting by means of his wages or earnings from employment or other financial entitlement, the court may, upon the recommendation of such clinical team, exempt the property of the mentally retarded person from the powers of a conservator as described in section twenty to the extent of his wages or other financial entitlement, or three hundred dollars per month, whichever is less.

SECTION 10. Said chapter 201 is hereby further amended by striking out section 19, as appearing in the Tercentenary Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 19. A conservator appointed pursuant to section sixteen or section sixteen A shall give the bond prescribed in section one of chapter two hundred and five except that the conditions set out in clause Second of paragraph 6 of said section one of said chapter two hundred and five regarding custody and education of the ward shall be omitted.

SECTION 11. Said chapter 201 is hereby further amended by striking out section 20, as amended by section 8 of chapter 314 of the acts of 1956, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 20. A conservator shall have the management of all of the estate of his ward, except as provided in section sixteen B, and all laws relative to the jurisdiction of the probate court over the estate of a person under guardianship as a mentally ill person, including the management, sale or mortgage of his property and the payment of his debts, shall be applicable to the estate of a person under conservatorship.

Chap. 846. AN ACT ESTABLISHING A MASSACHUSETTS HOME MORTGAGE FINANCE AGENCY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this act the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless a contrary intent is clearly indicated:—

"Mortgage lender", any bank, mortgage broker, mortgage company or mortgage banker, trust company, savings bank, credit union, national banking association, federal savings and loan association, or building and loan association maintaining an office in the commonwealth or any insurance company authorized to transact business in the commonwealth.

"New residential mortgage", a loan made by a mortgage lender and secured by a mortgage constituting a lien upon real property or a lease of the fee of real property located in the commonwealth and improved by a residential building or unimproved if the proceeds of such loan shall be used for the purpose of erecting, acquiring or rehabilitating, including home improvement loans, a residential building thereon; or for the purpose of purchasing a condominium unit or a cooperative share in a residential condominium or cooperative provided that each such mortgage loan made from the proceeds of a loan made by MHMFA to such mortgage lender shall be made to an owner-occupant pursuant to section five.

"Annual sinking fund payment", the amount of money specified in the resolution or resolutions authorizing term bonds as payable into a sinking fund during a particular calendar year for the retirement of term bonds at maturity after such fiscal year, but shall not include any amount payable by reason only of the maturity of a bond.

"Low income persons or families", those persons and families whose annual income is equal to or less than the maximum amount which would make them eligible for units owned or leased by the housing authority in the city or town in which the residence for which the mortgage loan is sought is located or, in the event that there is no housing authority, that amount which is established as the maximum for eligibility for low-rent units by the department of community affairs.

"Moderate income persons or families", those persons and families whose annual income is less than the amount necessary to enable them to obtain and maintain decent, safe and sanitary housing without the expenditure of over twenty-five per cent of such income for housing expenses, including the provision of heat, electricity, hot water and an allowance for maintenance and repairs.

"Annual income", a family's or person's gross annual income less such reasonable allowances for dependents, other than spouse, and for medical expenses as MHMFA determines.

"MHMFA", the Massachusetts Home Mortgage Finance Agency.

SECTION 2. Declaration of Public Necessity. It is hereby found that as a result of the continuing increases in the cost of construction or rehabilitation, municipal taxes, heating and electricity expenses, maintenance and repair expenses and the cost of land, low income persons and families and moderate income persons and families in many areas within the commonwealth, including areas which contained formerly stable neighborhoods, are unable to purchase, rehabilitate and maintain decent, safe and sanitary housing which provide an opportunity for home ownership either directly or through a condominium or cooperative form of ownership. The inability of such families to purchase and hold housing in the commonwealth results in the decline of new housing and in the decay of the existing housing stock and of existing neighborhoods with attendant increases in municipal costs for welfare, police and fire protection. The decline in new housing, together with the decay of existing housing stock, has produced a critical shortage of adequate housing in the commonwealth adversely affecting the economy of the commonwealth and the well-being of its residents. Private enterprise without the assistance contemplated by this act cannot achieve the construction or rehabilitation of any housing for persons and families of low or moderate income and the alternative of forcing such families to live in substandard housing is undesirable since it tends to decrease the interest of such families in their communities, the maintenance of their property and the preservation of their neighborhoods.

A large and significant number of commonwealth residents have and will be subject to hardship in finding decent, safe and sanitary housing unless new facilities are constructed and existing housing, where appropriate, is rehabilitated. Unless the supply of housing and the ability of low income persons and families and moderate income persons and families to obtain mortgage financing is increased significantly and expeditiously, a large number of residents of the commonwealth will be compelled to live in unsanitary, overcrowded and unsafe conditions to the detriment of the health, welfare and well-being of these persons and of the whole community of which they are a part. By increasing the housing supply of the commonwealth and the ability of low income persons and families and moderate income persons and families to obtain mortgage financing, the clearance, replanning, development and redevelopment of blighted areas will be aided, and the critical shortage of adequate housing will be ameliorated.

It is hereby found that a major cause of this housing crisis is the lack of funds at interest rates which are at a level whereby low and moderate income persons and families can afford to own and maintain decent, safe and sanitary housing, and further, it is hereby found that an additional major cause of such a housing crisis is the lack of funds available to finance housing by the private mortgage lending institutions of the commonwealth. It is further found that this lack of funds has frustrated the maintenance, sale and purchase of existing residences in the Commonwealth.

It is hereby further found that to aid in remedying these conditions, to promote the expansion of the supply of funds at low interest rates available for new residential mortgages for low income persons and families and moderate income persons and families and thereby help alleviate the shortage of adequate housing, a corporate agency of the commonwealth shall be created with power (i) to raise funds from private investors in order to make those funds available, through mortgage lending institutions, for new residential mortgage loans to low income persons and families and moderate income persons and families, (ii) to insure such new residential mortgage loans, and (iii) to provide technical assistance to low income persons and families and moderate income persons and families desiring such new residential mortgage loans. By utilizing such powers the agency created shall help develop the financial resources available to meet such housing needs. This purpose is best accomplished through a program whereby mortgage lending institutions make the needed residential mortgage loans, insured or uninsured, through the use of proceeds of loans made available by the agency on terms designed to assure the expansion of available mortgage funds while protecting against the realization by these mortgage lending institutions of an excessive financial return or benefit.

It is hereby further found that the authority and powers conferred under this act and the expenditure of public moneys pursuant thereto constitutes a serving of a valid public purpose and that the enactment of the provisions hereinafter set forth is in the public interest and is hereby so declared to be such as a matter of determination by the general court.

SECTION 3. Massachusetts Home Mortgage Finance Agency. There is hereby created in the department of community affairs a body politic and corporate to be known as the Massachusetts Home Mortgage Finance Agency, which shall not be subject to the supervision or control of the department of community affairs or of any department, commission, board, bureau or agency of the commonwealth except to the extent and in the manner provided in this act. The MHMFA is hereby constituted a public instrumentality and the exercise by the MHMFA of the powers conferred by this act shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential governmental function.

The MHMFA shall consist of the commissioner of community affairs or his designated representative and the commissioner of corporations and taxation or his designated representative and the chairman of the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency, ex officiis, and four persons to be appointed by the governor, of whom one shall be experienced in commercial banking, one shall be experienced in real estate transactions and one shall be a representative of a community action agency, or other recognized low income organization. Each appointive member shall be appointed for a term of seven years, except that in making his initial appointments, the governor shall appoint three members to serve for terms of three, five and six years, respectively, as he may designate. Any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired term. Any member shall be eligible for reappointment.

The chairman of the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency shall serve as chairman of the MHMFA and the MHMFA shall annually elect one of its members as vice-chairman and shall also annually elect a secretary, a treasurer and such other officers as it may determine, none of whom need be members of the MHMFA. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the MHMFA and shall be custodian of all books, documents, and papers filed with the MHMFA and of its minute book and seal. He shall have authority to cause to be made copies of all minutes and other records and documents of the MHMFA and to give certificates under the seal of the MHMFA to the effect that such copies are true copies and all persons dealing with the MHMFA may rely upon such certificates. The treasurer shall be the chief financial and accounting officer of the MHMFA and shall be in charge of its funds, books of account and accounting records.

The chief executive officer of MHMFA shall be the executive director of the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency.

Four members of the MHMFA shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of four members shall be necessary for any action taken by the MHMFA. No vacancy in the membership of the MHMFA shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the MHMFA.

The members, chairman and chief executive officer of the MHMFA shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for their necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, no officer or employee of the commonwealth or of any public instrumentality thereof shall be deemed to have forfeited or shall forfeit his office or employment by reason of his acceptance of MHMFA or employment therewith.

SECTION 4. General Grant of Powers. The MHMFA is hereby authorized to:

(a) Make loans to mortgage lenders under terms and conditions requiring the proceeds thereof to be used by such mortgage lenders for the making of new residential mortgages, all subject to the provisions of section five.

(b) Adopt by-laws for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business.

(n) Procure insurance against any loss in connection with its property in such amounts, and from such insurers, as may be necessary or desirable.

(o) Employ such agents, employees, professional and business advisers as may from time to time be necessary in its judgment and to fix their compensation. (p) Make and publish rules and regulations respecting the grant of loans under this act and the regulation of borrowers and any other regulations necessary to fulfill the purposes of this act.

(s) Establish a program to insure loans made by mortgage lenders with the proceeds of loans made by MHMFA to such mortgage lenders, subject to the provisions of section six.

(t) Do any and all things necessary or convenient to carry out its purposes and exercise the powers expressly given and granted in this act.

SECTION 5. Loans to Mortgage Lenders. The MHMFA shall from time to time make loans to a mortgage lender under terms and conditions requiring the proceeds thereof to be used by such mortgage lender for the making of a new residential mortgage for housing to persons and families of low and moderate income, provided that such persons or families are or intend to be owner-occupants and provided that such mortgage lender secures such loan as to the payment of principal and interest by a pledge of and lien upon collateral security in such amounts and consisting of such obligations and securities as the MHMFA shall by resolution determine to be necessary to assure payment of such loans and the interest thereon as the same become due.

The MHMFA shall from time to time adopt, modify, amend or repeal rules and regulations governing the making of such loans to mortgage lenders and the application of the proceeds thereof, including rules and regulations as to any or all of the following:

(1) Procedures for the submission of requests or the invitation of proposals for loans;

(2) Standards and requirements as to allocations of loans among all or certain of the mortgage lenders or awards of loans and determining the amounts and interest rates thereof;

(3) Limitations or restrictions as to the number of family units, location or other qualifications or characteristics of residences to be financed by new residential mortgages;

(4) Restrictions as to the interest rates on new residential mortgages or the return realized therefrom by mortgage lenders;

(5) Requirements as to commitments made with loans from MHMFA by mortgage lenders with respect to new residential mortgages;

(6) Schedules of any fees and charges necessary to provide for expenses and reserves of the MHMFA;

(7) Procedures or standards for foreclosure and subsequent resale;

(8) Any other matters related to the duties, and the exercise of the powers of the agency.

Such rules and regulations shall be designed to effectuate the general purposes of this act and the following specific objectives: (i) the expansion of the supply of funds in the Commonwealth available for new residential mortgages; (ii) the provision of the additional housing needed to remedy the shortage of adequate housing in the commonwealth and to eliminate the existence of a large number of substandard dwellings; and (iii) the effective participation by mortgage lenders in the program authorized by this act and the restriction of the financial return and benefit thereto from such program to that which is necessary and reasonable to induce such participation.

Loans to mortgage lenders shall be general obligations of the respective mortgage lenders owing the same and shall bear such date or dates, shall mature at such time or times, shall be evidenced by such note, bond or other certificate of indebtedness, shall be subject to prepayment, and shall contain such other provisions as the MHMFA shall by resolution determine.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, the interest rate or rates and other terms of the loans to mortgage lenders made from the proceeds of any issue of bonds of the MHMFA shall be at least sufficient so as to assure the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon as the same become due from the amounts received by the MHMFA in repayment of such loans and interest thereon.

The MHMFA shall require as a condition of each loan to a mortgage lender that such mortgage lender shall, on or prior to the ninetieth day or such earlier day as shall be prescribed by rules and regulations of the MHMFA following the receipt of the loan proceeds, have entered into written commitments to make, and shall thereafter proceed as promptly as practicable to make and disburse from such loan proceeds new residential mortgages as defined in section one of this act to low income persons and families or moderate income persons, or families, such mortgage loans to be an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such loan from the MHMFA.

A new residential mortgage loan for rehabilitation of a dwelling of two or more units and which otherwise meets the criteria of this act may be made only if:

(i) the tenants residing in the dwelling have sufficient income reasonably to pay any increase in rent resulting from such rehabilitation so that new residential mortgage loans made with MHMFA loan funds minimize residential displacement; provided that this limitation shall not apply when the proceeds of said mortgage loan are to be used to alleviate conditions which violate the state sanitary code or applicable building or housing codes or to carry out other essential maintenance, and provided further that nothing in this act shall authorize a rent increase not otherwise authorized by law;

(ii) the borrower has entered into a two-year agreement on a form approved by MHMFA with each tenant residing in the dwelling which limits rent increases during such period to those properly resulting from the new residential mortgage or those necessitated by increases in property taxes, operating or maintainance expenses, or additional capital improvement;

(iii) the borrower has, on a form provided by MHMFA, notified each tenant residing in the dwelling of the repairs or improvements to be undertaken with the proceeds of the mortgage loan, of the estimated increase in rent, if any, attributable to such repairs or improvements, and of the right of said tenant to review by the MHMFA of the mortgage application, if the tenant believes the mortgage loan is not being made in accordance with the requirements of this act or MHMFA regulations and if the tenant requests the review within fourteen days of receipt of the notice. Such review need not be in accordance with sections ten and eleven of chapter thirty A of the General Laws.

A district court or housing court within the jurisdiction in which a dwelling unit affected by an action, regulation or order of MHMFA under this section is located shall have original jurisdiction over proceedings contesting such action, regulation or order and shall be authorized to take such action with respect thereto as is provided in the case of the superior court under the provisions of chapter two hundred and thirty-one A of the General Laws. All orders, judgments and decrees of such district court or housing court may be appealed as is provided in the case of a civil action in such district court or housing court.

It shall be the policy of MHMFA in making loans to mortgage lenders to consider the ability of a mortgage lender to make loans comparable to the policies expressed in this act from existing reserves held by such mortgage lender for the purpose of making loans. MHMFA shall set requirements on participating mortgage lenders so that at least eighty per cent of the bond proceeds shall be for new residential mortgages on structures at least ten years old. MHMFA shall require participating mortgage lenders to make periodic reports including but not limited to, information on the geographic distribution, terms and type, as in first or second lien, of mortgages made with proceeds of MHMFA bonds, the distribution and terms of those mortgages insured by the MHMFA, and individual citation as to where and by how much rent levels have been projected to increase by the mortgage lender and the borrower in the course of processing the loan. Such information shall be published by the MHMFA and submitted annually to the general court and the department of community affairs. In addition, the MHMFA shall require as a condition to mortgage lenders that in any city or town with an approved neighborhood preservation program proposed to MHMFA by a city or town, an agreed upon dollar volume of bonding authorization as a minimum commitment shall be located in priority areas set forth in the neighborhood preservation program within an agreed upon time period, not greater than five years; provided, however, that local community organizations such as community action agencies or other recognized low income organizations shall be included in reviewing the neighborhood preservation program.

In proposing a neighborhood preservation program to the MHMFA, a city or town shall submit in a manner as may be required by the MHMFA, the following:

(1) the degree of blight, decay or deterioration of housing accommodations, or the imminent threat of such blight, decay or deterioration within the area;

(2) the degree to which conventional financing or refinancing of repairs, remodeling or rehabilitation of such housing accommodations is available;

(3) the proportion of residential structures within the area which are owner-occupied and;

(4) the degree to which the project income and the financial resources of owner-occupants, where relevant, of the housing accommodations with the area provide reasonable assurances of the economic feasibility of the financing of the repairs, remodeling or rehabilitation to be insured hereunder;

(5) the proportion of residential structures in the area where rehabilitation work can be done with financing as provided herein, without necessitating a substantial increase in carrying costs and rental charges to any owner-occupant or tenant beyond their capacity to absorb, and the extent of suitable vacant housing in such an area.

Before giving approval of a neighborhood preservation program, the MHMFA shall consider the expressed commitment of a city or town to provide a concentrated effort to enforce the building and housing codes within certain priority areas in such city or town, and the expressed commitment of a city or town to provide capital improvements and other city services to improve and restore such areas.

The MHMFA may revoke its approval of a neighborhood preservation program if it determines that a city or town in which an area for said program is located has failed to initiate and continue tangible activity on such a program.

The MHMFA shall require the submission, by each mortgage lender to which the MHMFA has made a loan, of evidence satisfactory to the MHMFA of the making of new residential mortgages as required by this Section and prescribed by rules and regulations of the MHMFA and in connection therewith may inspect the books and records of such mortgage lender.

The MHMFA may require as a condition of any loans to mortgage lenders such representations and warranties as it shall determine to be necessary to secure such loans and carry out the purposes of the act.

SECTION 6. Mortgage Insurance Program. MHMFA may, pursuant to regulations adopted by it, establish a program of mortgage insurance to insure those loans made by mortgage lenders as a condition to the receipt of a loan from the MHMFA under section five and also to insure conventional mortgage loans to resident owners made for purposes of acquisition and rehabilitation or rehabilitation in areas designated for neighborhood preservation programs under section five.

Such sums as may be appropriated or otherwise acquired may be used for the purpose of establishing a mortgage insurance fund administered by the MHMFA. Such sum, to the extent necessary, shall be applied to the payment of (i) claims made by lenders who have made new residential mortgage loans as a condition to the receipt of a loan from the MHMFA under section five, and which new residential mortgage loans are in default and (ii) claims made by lenders of conventional mortgage loans, in default, made to resident owners for purposes of acquisition and rehabilitation in areas designated for neighborhood preservation programs under section five. Claims shall be made against the mortgage insurance fund in accordance with procedures established by MHMFA. Pursuant to this Section, and to rules and regulations adopted by it, MHMFA may have at any time a total amount of insurance risk outstanding not in excess of the amount contained in the fund multiplied by thirty. At such time as premiums and other sources of income to the fund provide adequate protection against potential losses, MHMFA shall, to the extent it deems it prudent, return to the General Fund of the commonwealth from the mortgage insurance fund all or a portion of such funds appropriated.

The commissioner of insurance shall prepare regulations to govern the issuance of mortgage insurance which shall be included without amendment in the regulations adopted by the MHMFA pursuant to this section. To the full extent practicable said regulations shall require compliance with the general provisions of chapter one hundred and seventy-five of the General Laws.

SECTION 7. Technical Assistance. MHMFA may, subject to appropriation by the general court or funds made available from any other public or private source, and pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by it, contract with nonprofit organizations incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth or qualified public agencies for technical assistance to potential borrowers from such mortgage lenders including without limitation the following services:

(i) consultation as to the nature, extent and manner of new construction, or the repair, remodeling or rehabilitation financed hereunder and consultation regarding the nature, extent and manner of repairs required to ensure that the dwelling structure shall not contain a substantial violation of the housing or building codes after such work is completed;

(ii) consultation regarding the laws, rules, regulations and codes regulating the nature, extent and manner of undertaking such work;

(iii) consultation as to the contractors, subcontractors, individuals, or other entities to perform such work;

(iv) consultation as to the proper manner, mode and method of financing such work;

(v) consultation regarding the manner, method or mode by which such borrowers may undertake all or any portion of the work themselves;

(vi) consultation regarding the progress of the work, including technical assistance regarding the quality of such work;

(vii) consultation regarding debt consolidation, debt management and money management to ensure the stability and repayment of any mortgage insured hereunder;

(viii) consultation regarding ongoing management of the premises.

SECTION 7A. Resident Ownership Subsidy Program. MHMFA shall create and establish a special fund, herein referred to as the Resident Ownership Fund, and shall pay into such fund any monies appropriated and made available by the commonwealth and any grants or financial aids received from others for the purposes of such fund. All monies held in the Resident Ownership Fund shall be used solely to assist low income families or persons who own single-family or multi-family homes or cooperative housing shares or condominium units, the purchase or rehabilitation of which are financed under this act by providing, as designated by appropriation, (i) a subsidy to such families or persons not to exceed the difference between the amount required annually to pay interest and debt service, real property taxes, fire insurance, reasonable management costs and reasonable maintenance costs on such a home, share, or unit, and twenty-five per cent of the annual income of such families or persons or (ii) special advice and assistance to such families or persons.

SECTION 8. Issuance of Bonds and Notes. The MHMFA shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds and notes in such principal amount as, in the opinion of the MHMFA, shall be necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving its corporate purposes, including the making of loans, the payment of interest on bonds and notes of the MHMFA, establishment of reserves to secure such bonds and notes, and all other expenditures of the MHMFA incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its corporate purposes and powers. The MHMFA shall have power, from time to time, to issue renewal notes, to issue bonds to pay notes and whenever it deems refunding expedient to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and to issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose. The refunding bonds shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded.

The notes and bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the members, shall bear such date or dates, and shall mature at such time or times as such resolutions, may provide, except that no bond shall mature more than fifty years from the date of its issue. The bonds may be issued as serial bonds payable in annual installments or as term bonds or as a combination thereof. The notes and bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, contain such terms and provisions relating to, but not limited to, pledges of the MHMFA's assets, setting aside of reserves, limitations on additional notes and bonds, and such other matters as may affect the security or protection of the notes and bonds, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds of the MHMFA may be sold at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the MHMFA shall determine. The principal of and interest on any bonds or notes issued by the MHMFA may be secured by the full faith and credit of the MHMFA, by a pledge of any revenues and receipts of the MHMFA, by a pledge of loan collateral, or by any one or more of the foregoing, all as the MHMFA may determine in the resolution authorizing the issue of such bonds or notes. No notes or bonds of the MHMFA shall be sold by the MHMFA at private sale, unless such sale and the terms thereof have been approved by the state treasurer. The aggregate principal amount of notes and bonds of the MHMFA outstanding at any one time shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five million dollars.

Neither the members of the MHMFA nor any person executing the notes or bonds shall be liable personally on the notes or bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

The MHMFA, subject to such agreement with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist, shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase its notes or bonds, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding (i) if the notes or bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date thereupon, or (ii) if the notes or bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the notes or bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to such date.

SECTION 9. Credit of Commonwealth or any Subdivision Thereof Not Pledged. Bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this act shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof or a pledge of the faith and credit of the commonwealth or, except as provided in section eight, of any such political subdivision, but such bonds and notes shall be payable solely from the proceeds of loans made under this act, reserve funds created therefor by the MHMFA, and other available funds of the MHMFA. All such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the MHMFA nor the commonwealth nor any political subdivision thereof shall be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from such proceeds, reserve fund and available funds and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the commonwealth or, except as provided in section eight, any political subdivision thereof, is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds.

SECTION 10. Capital Reserve Fund. The MHMFA shall create and establish a special fund, herein referred to as the Capital Reserve Fund, and shall pay into said Capital Reserve Fund any monies appropriated and made available by the commonwealth or from any other source, public or private, for the purposes of such fund, any proceeds of sale of notes or bonds to the extent provided in the resolution of the MHMFA authorizing issuance thereof, and any other monies which may be available to the MHMFA for the purpose of such fund from any other source. All monies held in the Capital Reserve Fund, except as hereinafter provided, shall be used solely for the payment of the principal or annual sinking fund payment of bonds of the MHMFA as the same mature or become due, the purchase of bonds of the MHMFA, the payment of interest on such bonds of the MHMFA or the payment of any redemption premium required to be paid when such bonds are redeemed prior to maturity; provided, however, that monies in such fund shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such fund to less than the maximum amount of principal and interest or annual sinking fund payment, whichever is less, maturing or becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all bonds of the MHMFA then outstanding, except for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds of the MHMFA maturing or becoming due, whether at maturity or by annual sinking fund payment, and for the payment of which other monies of the MHMFA are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or increment to, the Capital Reserve Fund due to the investment thereof may be transferred by the MHMFA to any fund of the MHMFA to the extent it does not reduce the amount of the Capital Reserve Fund below the maximum amount of principal and interest or annual sinking fund payment, whichever is less, maturing or becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all bonds of the MHMFA then outstanding.

The MHMFA shall not issue bonds at any time if the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing becoming due, whether at maturity or by annual sinking fund payment, in a succeeding calendar year or such bonds then to be issued and on all other bonds of the MHMFA then outstanding will exceed the amount of the Capital Reserve Fund at the time of issuance unless the MHMFA, at the time of issuance of such bonds, shall deposit in such fund from the proceeds of the bonds so to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which, together with the amount then in such fund, shall be not less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing or becoming due, whether at maturity or by annual sinking fund payment, in any succeeding calendar year on such bonds then to be issued and on all other bonds of the MHMFA then outstanding.

To assure the continued operation and solvency of the MHMFA for the carrying out of the public purposes of this act, provision is made in this section for the accumulation in the Capital Reserve Fund of an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest, whether at maturity or by annual sinking fund payment, maturing or becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all bonds of the MHMFA then outstanding. In order further to assure such maintenance of the Capital Reserve Fund there shall be annually appropriated and paid to the MHMFA for deposit in the Capital Reserve Fund such sum, if any, as shall be certified by the chairman of the MHMFA to the governor as necessary to restore the Capital Reserve Fund to an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest, whether at maturity or by annual sinking fund payment, maturing or becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the bonds of the MHMFA then outstanding. The chairman of the MHMFA shall annually, on or before December first, make and deliver to the governor his certificate stating the amount, if any, required to restore the Capital Reserve Fund to the amount aforesaid and the amount so stated, if any, shall be appropriated and paid to the MHMFA during the then current fiscal year of the commonwealth. Such amount, if any, shall be repaid to the commonwealth as soon as possible by the MHMFA from monies in excess of the amount required to make and keep MHMFA self-supporting.

In computing the amount of the Capital Reserve Fund for the purposes of this section, securities in which all or a portion of such fund are invested shall be valued at par, or if purchased at less than par, at their cost to the MHMFA.

SECTION 11. Trust Agreement. In the discretion of the MHMFA, bonds and notes issued by it shall be secured by a trust agreement by and between the MHMFA and a trustee, which may be any trust company or bank within the commonwealth having the powers of a trust company. Either the resolution providing for the issuance of bonds and notes or such trust agreement may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the MHMFA in relation to the custody, safeguarding and application of all monies.

It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth to act as depository of the proceeds of bonds and notes or of revenues and to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the MHMFA. Such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and noteholders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders and noteholders. In addition to the foregoing, such trust agreement may contain such other provision as the MHMFA may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders.

SECTION 12. Bonds and Notes Tax Exempt. The creation of the MHMFA is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the commonwealth and for the improvement of their health, safety, welfare, comfort and security, and its purposes are public purposes and the MHMFA shall be performing an essential governmental function. The Commonwealth covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent holders and transferees of the notes and bonds issued by the MHMFA, in consideration of the acceptance of any payment for the notes and bonds, that the notes and bonds of the MHMFA, issued pursuant to this act and the income therefrom shall at all times be free from taxation.

SECTION 13. Bonds and Notes Eligible for Investment. Bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this act are hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the commonwealth and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies in their commercial departments and within the limits set by section forty of chapter one hundred and seventy-two of the General Laws, savings banks, co-operative banks, banking associations, investment companies, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the commonwealth may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such bonds and notes are hereby made securities which may properly legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the commonwealth for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the commonwealth now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

SECTION 14. Advisory Committee. To assist the MHMFA in the discharge of its duties, the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency Advisory Committee shall assist the MHMFA and its staff in formulating policies and procedures dealing with programs to accomplish the purposes of this act.

Members of the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency advisory committee shall receive no compensation. They shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter thirty-one or chapter two hundred and sixty-eight A of the General Laws.

SECTION 15. Annual Report. The MHMFA shall annually submit to the governor, the chairman of the senate committee on ways and means, the chairman of the house committee on ways and means, the commissioner of administration, and the comptroller within ninety days after the end of its fiscal year, a complete and detailed report setting forth: (a) its operations and accomplishments; (b) its receipts and expenditures during such fiscal year in accordance with the categories and classifications established by the MHMFA for its operating and capital outlay purposes; (c) its assets and liabilities at the end of its fiscal year, including a schedule of its loans, commitments, insurance in force and the status of reserve, special, or other funds, and (d) a schedule of its bonds and notes outstanding at the end of its fiscal year, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and incurred during such fiscal year.

SECTION 16. Inspection of Books and Records. The books and records of the MHMFA shall be subject to an annual audit by the auditor of the commonwealth.

SECTION 17. Liberal Construction. This act, being necessary for the welfare of the commonwealth and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

SECTION 18. Severability. The provisions of this act are severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision of such court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions.

Chap. 849. AN ACT PROVIDING FOR AN EXPERIMENTAL PROGRAM TO COMPARE HOUSING CONSTRUCTION UNDER CONVENTIONAL BIDDING, TURNKEY AND CONTRACT MANAGER METHODS OF CONSTRUCTION.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The commissioner of the department of community affairs, hereinafter called the commissioner, may authorize one or more housing authorities to participate in an experimental program of not more than twenty-seven million dollars of the bond authorization provided for in sections thirty-four and forty-one of chapter one hundred and twenty-one B of the General Laws, to compare housing construction under competitive bidding as set forth in sections forty-four A to forty-four L, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and forty-nine of the General Laws with housing construction under a turnkey system of design, bidding and construction in accordance with procedures and standards provided in sections two and three and with housing construction under a contract-manager system of design, bidding and construction in accordance with procedures and standards provided in sections four and five. The experimental program shall provide for the use of (a) not more than nine million dollars of the bond authorization for the construction of two projects of new housing of approximately one hundred dwelling units each by the turnkey system of design, bidding and construction; (b) not more than nine million dollars for the award of contracts in accordance with sections forty-four A to forty-four L, inclusive, of said chapter one hundred and forty-nine for construction at approximately the same time for two projects of new housing of the same size and design as those approved pursuant to clause (a); and (c) not more than nine million dollars of said bond authorization for the construction of two projects of new housing of approximately one hundred dwelling units of substantially the same design and construction as those approved pursuant to clause (a) by the contract-manager method of construction. The commissioner shall not authorize the use of any part of the bond authorizations for any project as part of the experimental program until the experimental program review board provided for in section six has approved the entire experimental program.

SECTION 2. For turnkey construction a housing authority may enter into contracts with a turnkey developer for each of the two projects for the purchase or acquisition of new dwelling units to be constructed on a site owned by or to be purchased by the developer. Such contracts shall not require compliance with sections forty-four A to forty-four L, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and forty-nine of the General Laws, nor with sections thirty-nine F to thirty-nine P, inclusive, of chapter thirty of the General Laws, but the turnkey developers shall provide the security for payments as provided in section twenty-nine of said chapter one hundred and forty-nine and shall comply with sections twenty-six and twenty-seven of said chapter one hundred and forty-nine.

SECTION 3. Each turnkey developer shall select an architect registered in the commonwealth to prepare the plans and specifications for a turnkey project approved by the housing authority, to employ electrical, mechanical and structural engineers and to provide a full-time clerk of the works during construction. The architect shall enter into a contract with the housing authority and with the commissioner to prepare the plans and specifications for the turnkey project in the manner required for bidding as provided in sections forty-four A to forty-four L, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and forty-nine of the General Laws and section thirty-nine M of chapter thirty of the General Laws, all in accordance with the standards established by and for the fees authorized by the commissioner for contracts for projects awarded by competitive bidding as provided in said sections forty-four A to forty-four L, inclusive, of said chapter one hundred forty-nine. Said contract shall also provide that the commissioner and a housing authority shall use the same plans and specifications for the construction of a similar project of another housing authority, adapted to the site selected by that housing authority and constructed under a contract awarded under competitive bidding as provided in said sections forty-four A to forty-four L, inclusive, of said chapter one hundred forty-nine and in accordance with all laws applicable to housing authorities for the construction of a building project. The commissioner shall arrange to take bids for each project similar to the approved turnkey project at approximately the same time as he approves the commencement of the construction of the turnkey developer. Neither the turnkey developer nor the turnkey general contractor shall bid on the project similar to the turnkey project which is to be bid pursuant to said sections forty-four A to forty-four L, inclusive, of said chapter one hundred forty-nine.

SECTION 4. Each housing authority constructing a project under the contract manager method of construction shall (a) contract with an architect registered in the commonwealth to prepare plans and specifications for each of the two contract-manager projects, including the employment of electrical, mechanical and structural engineers and a full-time clerk of the works during construction and (b) at the same time award a contract for a contract manager for each of the two contract-manager projects to the lowest responsible and eligible bidder for each project on the basis of competitive bids. A housing authority shall require that a contract manager have five years' experience in the scheduling, coordination and erection of building projects and may prequalify bidders for the contract-manager job. The contract manager shall not perform any project work with persons on his own payroll or with or by any persons in which he has a direct or indirect interest.

SECTION 5. The contract manager shall work with and assist the architect in the preparation of plans and specifications for a project, all with a view to having the plans and specifications for the project provide for substantial and economical construction. The plans and specifications shall provide for the housing authority to take separate bids and to enter into separate contracts with the lowest responsible and eligible bidder (a) for each of the subtrades listed in section forty-four C of chapter one hundred forty-nine of the General Laws and (b) for the remainder of the project divided into such subtrades as the housing authority may establish. The contracts with each successful bidder shall provide that the contract manager shall supervise the construction, shall establish the order and sequence of construction in accordance with customary methods of construction unless specifications provide for a different order and sequence and shall coordinate the construction work for the project, all with the view of completing the project within the time provided in the specifications. The provisions of sections forty-four A to forty-four L, inclusive, of said chapter one hundred forty-nine with respect to the procedure for the award of contracts shall not apply to the separate contracts for the construction of the contract-manager projects.

SECTION 6. An experimental program review board in the department of community affairs shall review and give prior approval to the details of the experimental program as submitted by the commissioner, including the projects involved, the sites, the plans and specifications, the times for commencement and completion of each of the projects in the experimental program and the award of all construction contracts and the appointment of the contract managers. The commissioner shall not approve any project of a housing authority as part of the experimental program until the board has approved the entire program. The board shall consist of the commissioner or his designee who shall act as chairman, the commissioner of the department of labor and industries or his designee, three members or their designees selected by the Massachusetts State Building Trades Council AFL-CIO, one member or his designee selected by Associated General Contractors of Massachusetts, one member or his designee selected by Associated Subcontractors of Massachusetts, one member or his designee selected by the Massachusetts State Association of Architects, and one member or his designee who shall be the executive director of a housing authority selected by the Massachusetts State Association of Housing and Redevelopment officials. The commissioner shall notify each member and his designee at least one week before any meeting. Five members shall be a quorum and approval or disapproval of any matter shall require at least four votes. Any two members may request a meeting for a specific purpose by a request in writing to the commissioner and the commissioner shall immediately call said meeting.

SECTION 7. The experimental program review board shall continue in existence throughout the construction of projects under the experimental program. The board, or any member, may examine the construction and the records of the housing authority, the architect, the turnkey developer and its contractors and subcontractors and the contract manager and the contractors performing work on the contract-manager projects. The board shall bring to the attention of the housing authority and the commissioner all violations of this act and of the terms of any contract or subcontract and shall recommend to the commissioner procedures to stop such violations and to prevent such violations in the future and any other matters which it finds are necessary to carry out the program successfully.

SECTION 8. A housing authority constructing a turnkey or contract manager project as a part of the experimental program shall require contractors and subcontractors used on a turnkey project and contractors used on a contract-manager project (a) to furnish labor that can work in harmony with all other elements of labor employed or to be employed on the project in order to avoid disputes between contractors and subcontractors employing union labor and those employing nonunion labor and (b) to comply with sections twenty-six and twenty-seven of chapter one hundred forty-nine of the General Laws. Every contractor and subcontractor performing labor on the site or on any temporary off-site facilities used to perform work for such a project shall file weekly certified copies of such labor payroll for submission to the commissioner of labor and industries on forms furnished by said commissioner. Each turnkey developer, the housing authority and the clerk of the works shall examine said certified copies of payroll records, make such investigation of their accuracy as appears necessary by checking the records of the contractor or subcontractor and their employees and then certify said copies for accuracy and for compliance with the wage rates and with the classifications of work established for the project by the commissioner of labor and industries. A turnkey developer shall have full responsibility for failure to pay the established wage rates by contractors and subcontractors employed on the project. A person who violates any provisions of clause (b) of this section shall pay a fine of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars for each such separate violation.

SECTION 9. There shall be appropriated to the department of community affairs seventy-five thousand dollars for the initial cost of implementing the experimental program. Upon completion of the program, said department, in conjunction with the board, shall submit to the general court a full and complete report on costs, administrative expenses and other data on the three methods of construction used in the experimental program and any one or more members of the board may submit an additional report concurring with or dissenting from the report. The commissioner shall not submit the report of the department to the general court until the members of the board have had full opportunity to prepare and submit such concurring or dissenting report or reports as they may desire to submit.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 41 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 87A, as most recently amended by section 6 of chapter 467 of the acts of 1968, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 87A. The director of standards, upon the written request of the registrar of motor vehicles, shall appoint any of those persons described in section twenty-nine of chapter ninety as having the powers of constables and of police officers, and, upon the written request of the commissioner of public safety, shall appoint any of those persons appointed to the division of state police under the provisions of section nine A of chapter twenty-two as weighers and measurers of motor vehicles and trailers and of the loads of such vehicles and trailers. Before entering upon their duties, such weighers and measurers shall be sworn. Subject to section ninety, they shall serve as long as they have the powers of constables and police officers or until the said registrar or the said commissioner shall in writing request the director to revoke any such appointment.

SECTION 2. Section eighty-seven B of said chapter forty-one is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. Section 30 of chapter 85 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following four paragraphs:—

The owner or lessee of any motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit duly registered in this commonwealth may apply to the commissioner of public works for a permit authorizing such owner or lessee to operate or have operated such motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit on a public way when the weight of such vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit together with its load would exceed the weight limitations prescribed by this section or the provisions of chapter ninety. No such application shall be accepted by the commissioner of public works if the weight of the motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit, together with its load, for which such permit is sought exceeds the gross vehicle weight rating established by the original manufacturer of the chassis. All such applications shall be made on forms provided by the commissioner of public works which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) the make, model and year of the motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit to which the permit is to apply, including the said gross vehicle weight rating and the weight for which it is registered in this commonwealth;

Within fourteen days after his receipt of such application, the commissioner of public works shall notify the applicant of the approval or disapproval of his application. If the application is approved, the commissioner of public works shall issue to the applicant written evidence of such approval, and the form of such approval shall set forth a description of the motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit and its owner or lessee as provided in (1) through (4) above, the maximum weight allowed under such permit, and the expiration date of such permit. Such permit may be issued to allow the operation of any motor vehicle or semitrailer unit having three axles which with its load weighs not more than seventy-three thousand pounds, or any motor vehicle or semitrailer unit having four axles which with its load weighs not more than eighty-seven thousand pounds, or any motor vehicle or semitrailer unit having five or more axles which with its load weighs not more than ninety-nine thousand pounds, but not above such limits, nor in any event shall any such permit allow the operation of any motor vehicle or semitrailer unit which with its load exceeds the gross vehicle weight rating as established by the original manufacturer of the chassis; provided, however, that the commissioner of public works may issue one-way or round-trip permits for the carrying of certain irreducible loads, which may exceed the said gross vehicle weight rating, but only under such conditions and limitations as the commissioner of public works may prescribe.

No motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit which is the subject of any such permit issued by the commissioner of public works shall be operated on any public way until the registrar of motor vehicles shall have issued to the owner or lessee thereof the permit sticker as provided in section nineteen D of chapter ninety.

The commissioner of public works may, after a prior hearing, suspend or revoke for cause any permit issued by him under this section, and in the event of such revocation, shall forthwith notify the registrar of motor vehicles, who shall immediately revoke the permit sticker issued under section nineteen D of chapter ninety. Upon the revocation of any such permit or sticker, the owner or lessee of such motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit shall immediately return such permit to the commissioner of public works if it has not been filed with the registrar of motor vehicles under section nineteen D of chapter ninety, and shall immediately remove such permit sticker from any such motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit.

The said department, person or local authorities may in addition maintain such notices at all other bridges constructed after June first, nineteen hundred and sixty.

SECTION 5. Said chapter 85 is hereby further amended by striking out section 35, as amended by chapter 91 of the acts of 1955, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 35. Said department shall approve or alter to meet its approval all such plans submitted to it and shall determine the maximum load which any such bridge may safely carry, and the department or the local authorities having control of such bridge shall, if such bridge was constructed prior to June first, nineteen hundred and sixty, and may, if such bridge was constructed at a later date, maintain notices not less than one hundred feet from each end thereof and legible at a distance of fifty feet stating the maximum weight of vehicle with load which the bridge will safely carry. Any such bridge which is not posted for the said maximum weight by June first, nineteen hundred and seventy-five, shall immediately thereafter be posted by the department or the local authorities having control of such bridge with signs placed as provided herein restricting travel across such bridge to vehicles weighing three tons or less. Each such bridge so restricted shall be reported forthwith to the department, and the department shall maintain a current list of all such bridges. The owner of a vehicle operated on any bridge posted under this or the preceding section shall be responsible for all damage resulting thereto if the weight of the vehicle and load exceeds the maximum load as posted under this or the preceding section, as the case may be, and the amount of the damage may be recovered in an action at law by the person or authorities charged with the maintenance of the bridge. Any person operating a vehicle the weight of which, with its load, exceeds the maximum weight as posted under this section or section thirty-four shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, unless said vehicle is being operated in accordance with the terms of a permit issued under the provisions of section thirty.

SECTION 6. Section 1 of chapter 90 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after the definition "Garage", as appearing in the Tercentenary Edition, the following definition:—

SECTION 7. Section 17 of said chapter 90 is hereby amended by adding the following sentence:— No person shall operate any motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer unit while carrying its load under a permit issued under section thirty of chapter eighty-five upon any way at a rate of speed exceeding either forty miles per hour or the rate of speed otherwise duly established for such way, whichever is the lesser.

If the gross weight of any such motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit does not exceed one hundred and five per cent of the maximum gross weight provided by said permit, such motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer shall not be deemed to be operating in violation of the provisions of section thirty of chapter eighty-five; but if the gross weight of such motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer does exceed the said one hundred and five per cent of the maximum gross weight provided by said permit, any penalty provided in this chapter shall be determined on the basis of one hundred per cent of the gross weight of such motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit at the time of such violation.

In the weighing of any motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer unit under this chapter, portable scales may be used; provided, that such scales have been approved by the director of standards under section twenty-nine or chapter ninety-eight; and provided further, that such scales shall be inspected at least once in each year by the director of standards or his inspectors.

The said certificate shall be in such form as the registrar shall prescribe and shall be signed and sworn to by a person appointed under said section eighty-seven A and present at the weighing of such motor vehicle or trailer or semitrailer, and the court shall take judicial notice of the signature of such person and that he is so appointed.

In any claim for bodily injuries or for damage to property arising out of such direction to a scale location or such weighing, any officer or employee of the commonwealth authorized to enforce the provisions of this chapter may file a written request with the attorney general that the attorney general defend him against an action for damages for bodily injuries, including death, or for damage to proper-

Such certificate of inspection shall remain valid for the duration of the permit. Whoever knowingly makes a false statement in any application for a permit under section thirty of chapter eighty-five or in any certificate of inspection under this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not less than two weeks nor more than two years, or both.

A complaint against a person for a violation of section eleven or section sixteen or section seventeen or of a regulation made under section eighteen may be placed on file at the discretion of the court if the violation appears to have been unintentional or if no person or property could have been endangered thereby. Chap. 858. AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE MASSACHUSETTS INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 40D the following chapter:—

CHAPTER 40 E.

MASSACHUSETTS INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.

Section 1. It is hereby declared that there currently exists in certain areas of the commonwealth a critical condition of unemployment and that such condition may well exist, from time to time, in other areas of the commonwealth; that in some areas of the commonwealth such conditions are chronic and of long standing and that, without remedial measures, they may become so in other areas of the commonwealth; that economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, safety, morals and general welfare of not only the people of the affected areas but of the people of the entire commonwealth; that involuntary unemployment and its resulting burden of indigency falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker and ultimately upon the commonwealth in the form of public assistance and unemployment compensation; that the absence of employment and business opportunities for the youth of such areas is a threat to the strength and permanence of their faith in our American political and economic institutions and the philosophy of freedom on which those institutions are based; that unemployment and the absence of new economic opportunities in such areas have caused thousands of workers and their families to migrate elsewhere to find work and establish homes, and that this exodus has tended to reduce the tax base of counties, cities, boroughs and other local governmental jurisdictions, and impair their financial ability to support education and other local governmental services; that security against unemployment and the resulting spread of indigency and economic stagnation in the areas affected can best be provided by the promotion, attraction, stimulation, rehabilitation and revitalization of commerce, industry and manufacturing in such areas; that the present and prospective health, safety, morals, right to gainful employment and general welfare of the people of the commonwealth requires as a public purpose the promotion and development within areas of critical unemployment of new and expanded industrial and manufacturing enterprises; that the device under which private community industrial development organizations in Massachusetts acquire or build industrial buildings with funds raised through popular subscription, mortgage borrowing or otherwise, for lease and sale to expanding industries has proven effective in creating new employment and business opportunities locally, is in accord with the American tradition of community initiative and enterprise, and requires and deserves encouragement and support from the commonwealth, as a means toward alleviation of unemployment and chronic economic distress; that community industrial development corporations in Massachusetts have themselves invested substantial funds in successful industrial development projects and experience difficulty in undertaking additional such projects by reason of the partial inadequacy of their own funds or funds potentially available from local subscription sources and by reason of limitations of local financial institutions in providing additional and sufficiently sizeable mortgage loans; that there is a need to stimulate a larger flow of private investment funds from banks, investment houses, insurance companies and other financial institutions into such community industrial building programs in areas of chronic economic distress; that by increasing the number of community industrial building projects presenting attractive opportunities for private investment in such areas, a larger portion of the private capital available in Massachusetts for investment can be put to use in general economic development of the commonwealth.

It is therefore imperative that for the purpose of alleviating unemployment with its resulting spread of indigency and economic stagnation that promotion and development of industrial and manufacturing enterprises and research and development facilities in those areas in which conditions of critical unemployment currently, or may from time to time exist, is a public purpose.

Section 2. The following words and terms as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings, except where the context clearly indicates otherwise:—

"Cost of establishing an industrial development project", any or all of the following:— the cost of construction, rehabilitation, the cost of all lands and site preparation, property, rights, easements and franchises acquired, which are deemed necessary for such construction, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction, cost of engineering and legal expense, plans, specifications, surveys, estimates of costs and other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of any industrial development project together with such other expenses as may be necessary or incident to the financing and the construction of the industrial development project and the placing of the same in operation; the cost of all machinery and equipment and its installation and maintenance may be included in the cost of establishing an industrial development project.

"Critical economic area", the area encompassing any municipality or group of municipalities, county, group of counties or region of the commonwealth reasonably defined by the authority wherein critical conditions of unemployment, economic depression, widespread reliance on public assistance and unemployment compensation are found to exist by the authority. Prior to determination and designation of any area of the commonwealth as a critical economic area the authority shall conduct such investigations of the area and of the records and statistical indices of the department of labor and industry, the department of public welfare and the department of commerce and development, and the division of employment security, as well as the declarations and statistics of any federal agencies as shall be necessary to establish the existence of the above conditions in such area and to establish that: (i) an average of not less than seven per cent of the labor force of such area has been unemployed for any two years of the preceding five years, hereinafter designated "critical economic area A"; or (ii) an average of not less than six per cent of the labor force of such area has been unemployed for a period of not less than twelve months, hereinafter designated "critical economic area B"; immediately prior to the date of such investigations and findings. No area of the commonwealth shall be designated a critical economic area without such investigations and finding having been first made and certified to in the permanent records of the authority. An area of the commonwealth having once been designated a critical economic area A shall remain so for a period of six months following the month in which it ceases to qualify as a critical economic area as above defined and designated by the authority.

"Industrial development agency", a nonprofit corporation or a foundation or association or a community development corporation organized and existing under the laws of the commonwealth, regardless of the particular name, to whose members or shareholders no profit shall inure and which shall have as a purpose the promotion, encouragement, construction, development and expansion of new or existing industrial development projects in a critical economic area.

"Industrial Development Fund", the account created by section eight of this chapter.

"Industrial development project", any land, site, structure, facility or undertaking comprising or being connected with or being part of (i) an industrial enterprise, (ii) a manufacturing enterprise, or (iii) a research and development enterprise, established or to be established by an industrial development agency in a critical economic area.

"Industrial enterprise", an enterprise other than a mercantile, commercial or retail enterprise, which by virtue of its size requires substantial capital and which by its nature and size has created or will create substantial employment opportunities. The term "industrial enterprise" may include warehouse and terminal facilities, provided they require substantial capital and have or will create substantial employment opportunities.

"Primary employment", a full-time, permanent job whose entry level hourly wage is at least one hundred and fifty per cent of the nonmanufacturing minimum wage as defined in chapter one hundred and forty-nine.

"Responsible buyer", any person, partnership, or corporation deemed by the authority, after investigation, to be financially responsible to assume all obligations prescribed by the authority in the acquisition and operation of an industrial development project.

"Responsible tenant", any person, partnership, or corporation deemed by the authority, after investigation, to be financially responsible to assume all rental and all other obligations prescribed by the authority in the leasing and operation of an industrial development project.

Section 3. There is hereby created a body corporate and politic, constituting a public corporation and government instrumentality, to be known as the Massachusetts Industrial Development Authority, hereinafter referred to as the authority. There shall be a board of directors which shall consist of thirteen members:— The secretary of manpower affairs, the secretary of communities and development, commissioner of commerce and development, the commissioner of labor and industry and the commissioner of banking, or their designees, and their respective successors in office, and eight additional members to be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a representative of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, one a representative of the State Labor Council AFL-CIO, one a representative of the business of finance, one a representative of the real estate profession, one who is a certified public accountant, one who is a professional engineer, one who is qualified by training and experience in industrial development, and one who is qualified by training and experience in the administration of municipal affairs. The said members of the authority initially appointed by the governor shall continue in office for terms of one to seven years, respectively, from the date of their appointment and until their respective successors shall be duly appointed and qualified, the term of each appointed member to be designated by the governor at the time of his appointment; but their successors shall each be appointed for a term of seven years, except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired term. Said members of the authority shall be entitled to no compensation for their services as members, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for all necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties as members.

Section 4. The authority is hereby authorized to:

(a) make determination and designation of critical economic areas;

(b) cooperate with industrial development agencies in their efforts to promote the expansion of industrial, manufacturing and research and development activity in critical economic areas;

(c) determine, upon proper application of industrial development agencies, whether the declared public purpose of this chapter has been accomplished or will be accomplished by the establishment by such development agencies of an industrial development project in a critical economic area;

(d) make, upon proper application of industrial development agencies, loans to such industrial development agencies of moneys held in the Industrial Development Fund described in section two for industrial development projects in critical economic areas and to provide for the repayment and redeposit of such allocations and loans in the manner hereinafter provided;

(e) sue and be sued, in its own name;

(f) adopt an official seal;

(g) make by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs;

(h) appoint officers, agents and employees; and to prescribe their duties and to fix compensation, within the limitations provided by law;

(i) make contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient for the carrying on of its business;

(j) accept grants from and to enter into contracts or other transactions with any federal agency;

(k) take title by foreclosure proceeding to any industrial development project where such acquisition is necessary to protect any loan previously made therefor by the authority and to pay all costs arising out of such foreclosure and acquisition from moneys held in the Industrial Development Fund and to sell, transfer and convey any such industrial development project to any responsible buyer; in the event such sale, transfer and conveyance cannot be effected with reasonable promptness, the authority may, in order to minimize financial losses and sustain employment, lease such industrial development project to a responsible tenant or tenants; the authority shall not lease industrial development projects except under the conditions and for the purposes cited in this section;

(l) purchase first mortgages and to make payments on first mortgages on any industrial development project where such purchase or payment is necessary to protect any loan previously made therefor by the authority, and to sell, transfer, convey and assign any such first mortgage; moneys so used by the authority in the purchase of any first mortgages, or any payments thereon, shall be withdrawn from the Industrial Development Fund, and any moneys derived from the sale of any first mortgages shall be deposited by the authority in the Industrial Development Fund; provided, however, the authority shall have no power at any time to borrow money or in any manner to pledge the credit or taxing power of the commonwealth or any of its municipalities or political subdivisions, nor shall any of its obligations be deemed to be obligations of the commonwealth or any of its political subdivisions;

The authority may adopt such rules and regulations as it deems necessary in transacting its business, and in carrying out its duties.

Section 5. When it has been determined by the authority upon application of an industrial development agency and hearing thereon in the manner hereinafter provided, that the establishment of a particular industrial development project of such industrial development agency in a critical economic area has accomplished or will accomplish the public purposes of this act, the authority may contract to loan such industrial development agency an amount not in excess of the percentage of the cost of such industrial development project, as established or to be established as hereinafter set forth, subject, however, to the following:—

(a) Industrial development projects to be established:

(1) The authority may, in critical economic area A, contract to loan to the industrial development agency an amount not in excess of forty-five per cent of the cost of such industrial development project if it has determined that the industrial development agency holds funds or property in an amount or value equal to not less than five per cent of the cost of establishing the industrial development project, which funds or property are available for and shall be applied to the establishment of such project.

(2) The authority may, in critical economic area B, contract to loan to the industrial development agency an amount not in excess of thirty per cent of the cost of such industrial development project if it has determined that the industrial development agency holds funds or property in an amount or value equal to not less than ten per cent of the cost of establishing the industrial development project, which funds or property are available for and shall be applied to the establishment of such project.

(3) Prior to the making of any loan under this subsection the authority shall have determined that the industrial development agency has obtained from other independent and responsible sources, such as banks and insurance companies or otherwise, a firm commitment for all other funds, over and above the loan of the authority and such funds or property as the industrial development agency may hold, necessary for payment of all of the cost of establishing the industrial development project, and that the sum of all these funds, together with the machinery and equipment to be provided by the responsible tenant or responsible buyer, is adequate for the completion and operation of the industrial development project.

(b) The authority may, in critical economic area A, contract to loan to an industrial development agency an amount not in excess of forty-five per cent of the cost, and in critical economic area B, may contract to loan to an industrial development agency an amount not in excess of thirty per cent of the cost, of establishing an industrial development project established without prior participation by the authority, if at the time of making such loan the authority has determined:

(1) That in critical economic area A, the industrial development agency has invested in the industrial development project funds or property in an amount or value equal to not less than ten per cent of the cost of such industrial development project and all of the costs of establishing said industrial development project have been paid; and in critical economic area B, the industrial development agency has invested in the industrial development project funds or property in an amount or value equal to not less than twenty per cent of the cost of such industrial development project and all costs of establishing said industrial development project have been paid.

(2) That the industrial development project is leased or sold to a responsible tenant or buyer which has supplied the machinery and equipment necessary for the operation of the industrial development project and is occupying the same for the purposes intended.

(3) That neither the industrial development agency nor the responsible tenant or buyer is in default under any of the agreements entered into by them in respect of the financing and operation of the industrial development project.

(4) That there is sufficient income from the lease or agreement to purchase with the industrial tenant or industrial purchaser sufficient to insure the repayment of the loan of the authority made pursuant to this subsection.

(5) The proceeds of the authority loan to the industrial development agency made pursuant to this subsection shall be used only to pay a part of the cost of establishing an industrial development project in furtherance of the public purposes of this act.

(c) The authority may, in critical economic area A, contract to loan to an industrial development agency in respect of an industrial development project in which the authority heretofore participated an amount which together with the prior loan of the Authority, is not in excess of forty per cent of the cost of such industrial development project, and in critical economic area B, an amount which together with the prior loan of the authority, is not in excess of thirty per cent of the cost of such industrial development project, determined as of the time of the disbursement of the prior authority loan, if at the time of making such loan under this subsection the authority has determined:

(1) That the industrial development agency has invested in the industrial development project funds or property in an amount or value equal to not less than twenty per cent of the cost of such industrial development project and all of the costs of establishing such industrial development project have been paid.

(2) That the loan to the industrial development agency will not reduce the present investment of the industrial development agency in the industrial development project to an amount which is less than ten per cent of the cost of establishing the industrial development project, such percentage to be determined as of the time of the disbursement of the prior authority loan.

(3) That the responsible tenant or buyer occupying said industrial development project is willing to enter into such agreements, mortgages or other security instruments as the authority may deem necessary to secure such additional loan.

(4) That there is sufficient income from the lease or agreement to purchase with the industrial tenant or industrial purchaser sufficient to insure the repayment of the loan of the authority made pursuant to this subsection.

(5) That neither the industrial development agency nor the responsible tenant or purchaser is in default under any of the agreements entered into by them in respect of the financing and operation of the industrial development project.

(6) That the proceeds of the authority loan to the industrial development agency made pursuant to this subsection shall be used only to pay a part of the cost of establishing a specific industrial development project in furtherance of the public purposes of this chapter.

Any such loan of the authority shall be for such period of time and shall bear interest at such rate as shall be determined by the authority and shall be secured by bond or note of the industrial development agency and by mortgage on the industrial development project for which such loan was made, such mortgage to be second and subordinate only to the mortgage securing the first lien obligation issued to secure the commitment of funds from the aforesaid independent and responsible sources and used in the financing of the industrial development project.

Moneys so loaned by the authority to industrial development agencies shall be withdrawn from the Industrial Development Fund or the treasury of the authority and paid over to the industrial development agency in such manner as shall be provided and prescribed by the rules and regulations of the authority.

All payments of interest on said loans and the principal thereof shall be deposited by the authority in the Industrial Development Fund.

Loans by the authority to an industrial development agency for an industrial development project shall be made only in the manner and to the extent as provided in this section, except, however, in those instances wherein an agency of the federal government participates in the financing of an industrial development project by loan, grant or otherwise of federal funds. When any federal agency does so participate, the authority may adjust the required ratios of financial participation by the industrial development agency, the source of independent funds and the authority in such manner as to insure the maximum benefit available to the industrial development agency, the authority, or both, by the participation of the federal agency.

Where any federal agency participating in the financing of an industrial development project is not permitted to take as security for such participation a mortgage the lien of which is junior to the mortgage of the authority, the authority shall in such instances be authorized to take as security for its loan to the industrial development agency a mortgage junior in lien to that of the federal agency.

In no instance shall less than sixty per cent of the loans herein authorized be provided to industrial development agencies in critical economic area A.

Section 6. Prior to the loaning of any funds to an industrial development agency for an industrial development project in a critical economic area, the authority shall receive from such industrial development agency a loan application in form adopted by the authority which shall contain, without being limited to, the following provisions:

(a) A general description of the industrial development project and a general description of the industrial or manufacturing enterprise or research and development facility for which the industrial development project has been or is to be established;

(b) A legal description of all real estate necessary for the industrial development project;

(c) Such plans and other documents as may be required to show the type, structure and general character of the industrial development project;

(d) A general description of the type, classes and number of employees employed or to be employed in the operation of the industrial development project;

(e) Cost or estimates of cost of establishing the industrial development project;

(f) A general description and statement of value of any property real or personal, of the industrial development agency applied or to be applied to the establishment of the industrial project;

(g) A statement of cash funds previously applied, or then held by the industrial development agency which are available for and are to be applied, to the establishment of the industrial development project;

(h) Evidence of the arrangement made by the industrial development agency for the financing of all costs of the industrial development project over and above the participation of the industrial development agency;

(i) A general description of the responsible tenant to which the industrial development agency has leased or will lease the industrial development project or of the responsible buyer to which the industrial development agency has sold or will sell the project;

(j) A general description of the form of lease or sales agreement entered into or to be entered into by and between the industrial development agency and its responsible tenant or responsible buyer;

(k) Evidence that the establishment of the industrial development project will not cause the removal of an industrial or manufacturing plant or facility or research and development facility from one area of the commonwealth to another area of the commonwealth;

(l) Evidence that the industrial development project has created or will create substantial primary employment.

The board of the authority shall hold such public hearings and such examinations as to each loan application received as shall be necessary to determine whether the public purposes of this chapter will be accomplished by the granting of loans within such applications requested.

When the board shall have determined said facts favorable as to any application, it is authorized and empowered, having due regard to the promotion of the public purposes herein declared, to grant a loan to an industrial development agency in the manner and to the extent as in this chapter provided.

Section 7. There is hereby created a special account in the treasury of the commonwealth to be known as the Industrial Development Fund to which shall be credited any appropriations made by the legislature to the authority, as well as such other deposits as provided in this section.

As often as may be necessary, the authority shall requisition from the Industrial Development Fund such amounts as may be necessary to provide adequate funds for the payment of the administration of the purpose of this act.

The authority shall also requisition from time to time, from the Industrial Development Fund such amounts as shall be allocated by the authority for loans to industrial development agencies for industrial development projects.

Section 8. The powers of the authority shall be exercised by the board of directors consisting of thirteen members hereinafter referred to as the board. The commissioner of commerce and development and his successor in office shall be the chairman and chief executive officer and the board shall elect a secretary and treasurer from their number. At the first meeting in each year they shall elect from their number a secretary and treasurer.

A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of organizing the authority and conducting the business thereof, and, except in the instance of loan applications, all action may be taken by a vote of a majority of the members present, unless in any case the by-laws shall require a larger number;

approval or rejection of loan applications shall be by a majority vote of the full membership of the board.

The board shall have full authority to manage the properties and business of the authority, and to prescribe, amend and repeal by-laws, rules and regulations governing the manner in which the business of the authority may be conducted, and the powers granted to it may be exercised and embodied.

The department of commerce and development shall provide staff services to the authority for its administration of this chapter, including liaison between the authority and the industrial development agencies and related organizations, and between the authority and other agencies of the commonwealth whose facilities and services may be useful to the authority in its work.

The authority is authorized to make reimbursement to any agency of the commonwealth for such special expenses as may be incurred in the provision of any services or the use of any facilities required by the authority.

In addition, the authority may employ an executive director who shall be experienced in the fields of economic development, finance and business administration, appoint its own legal counsel, and, as required for special studies and surveys, retain such temporary engineering, finance and other consultants and technicians as it may require.

Section 9. The authority shall have power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds and notes in such principal amount as, in the opinion of the authority, shall be necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving its corporate purposes, including financing the cost of a project, establishment of reserves to secure such bonds and notes, and all other expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its corporate purposes and powers. The authority shall have power, from time to time, to issue renewal notes, to issue bonds to pay notes and whenever it deems refunding expedient to refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and to issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for any other purpose. The refunding bonds shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be refunded.

The notes and bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the members, shall bear such date or dates, and shall mature at such time or times as such resolutions, may provide, except that no bond shall mature more than fifty years from the date of its issue. The bonds may be issued as serial bonds payable in annual installments or as term bonds or as a combination thereof. The notes and bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, contain such terms and provisions relating to, but not limited to, pledges of the revenues, setting aside of reserves, limitations on additional notes and bonds, and such other matters as may affect the security or protection of the notes and bonds, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The notes and bonds of the authority may be sold at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the authority shall determine. The principal of and interest on any bonds issued under the authority of this act (a) shall be secured by a pledge of the revenues derived from the sale or lease of the project out of which such bonds shall be made payable, (b) may be secured by a mortgage covering all or any part of the project, (c) may be secured by a pledge or assignment of the lease of such project, or (d) may be secured by a trust agreement or such other security device as provided in section nine, or by any one or more of the foregoing, all as the authority may determine in the resolution authorizing the issue of such bonds or notes.

Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the notes or bonds shall be liable personally on the notes or bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

The authority, subject to such agreement with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist, shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase its notes or bonds, which shall thereupon be cancelled, at a price not exceeding (1) if the notes or bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date thereupon, or (2) if the notes or bonds are not then redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after such purchase upon which the notes or bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to such date.

Section 10. In the discretion of the authority bonds and notes issued by it shall be secured by a trust agreement by and between the authority and a trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within the commonwealth. Either the resolution providing for the issuance of bonds and notes or such trust agreement may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in relation to the custody, safeguarding and application of all monies.

It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth to act as depository of the proceeds of bonds and notes or of revenues and to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the authority. Such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and noteholders and of the trustees, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders and noteholders. In addition to the foregoing, such trust agreement may contain such other provision as the authority may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders and noteholders. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the authority.

Section 11. Bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this chapter shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof or a pledge of the faith credit of the commonwealth or of any such political subdivision, but such bonds and notes shall be payable solely as provided in section eight. All such bonds and notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the authority nor the commonwealth nor any political subdivision thereof shall be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except as provided in section eight and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the commonwealth nor any political subdivision thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds.

Section 12. The creation of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the commonwealth and for the improvement of their health, safety, welfare, comfort and security, and its purposes are public purposes and the authority will be performing an essential governmental function. The commonwealth covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent holders and transferees of the notes and bonds issued by the authority, in consideration of the acceptance of any payment for the notes and bonds, that the notes and bonds of the authority, issued pursuant to this act and the income therefrom shall at all times be free from taxation.

Section 13. Such bonds and notes are hereby made securities which may properly legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the commonwealth for any purposes for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the commonwealth now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

Section 14. All moneys of the authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority. Said moneys shall be deposited in the first instance by the treasurer in one or more banks or trust companies, in one or more special accounts, and each of such special accounts shall be continuously secured by a pledge of direct obligations of the United States or of the commonwealth, having an aggregate market value, exclusive of accrued interest, at all times at least equal to the balance on deposit in such account. Such securities shall either be deposited with the treasurer or be held by a trustee or agent satisfactory to the authority. All banks and trust companies in said accounts shall be paid out on the warrant or other order of the treasurer of the authority, or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to execute such warrants or orders.

When and as the amounts allocated by the authority as loans to industrial development agencies are repaid to the authority pursuant to the terms of the mortgages and other agreements made and entered into by the authority, such amounts shall be retained by the authority, it being the intent of this chapter that the authority shall operate as a revolving fund whereby all appropriations received and payments made thereto may be applied and reapplied to the purposes of this chapter. Any time that the authority shall determine that funds held by it are in excess of the amount needed by the authority to carry out the purposes of this chapter, the authority shall release such excess and transfer the same to the treasury of the commonwealth general fund.

Section 15. No member of the authority or officer or employee thereof shall either directly or indirectly be a party to or be in any manner interested in any contract or agreement with the authority for any matter, cause or thing whatsoever by reason whereof any liability or indebtedness shall in any way be created against such authority. If any contract or agreement shall be made in violation of the provisions of this section the same shall be null and void and no action shall be maintained thereon against such authority.

Section 16. The authority shall annually submit to the governor, the chairman of the senate ways and means committee, the chairman of the house ways and means committee, the secretary of administration and the comptroller within ninety days after the end of its fiscal year, a complete and detailed report setting forth: (a) its operations and accomplishments; (b) its receipts and expenditures during such fiscal year in accordance with the categories and classifications established by the authority for its operating and capital outlay purposes; (c) its assets and liabilities at the end of its fiscal year, including a schedule of its loans, commitments, insurance in force and the status of reserve, special or other funds, and (d) a schedule of its bonds and notes outstanding at the end of its fiscal year, together with a statement of the amounts redeemed and incurred during such fiscal year.

Section 17. The commonwealth does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes of the authority that the commonwealth will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, maintain, equip and furnish the project or projects, to establish and collect rentals, fees and other charges and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of the bonds or notes nor in any manner impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders or noteholders until the bonds or notes, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders are fully met and discharged.

NUMBER OF ACTS AND RESOLVES APPROVED, APPROVAL WITHHELD, ACTS VETOED BY THE GOVERNOR, PASSED OVER HIS VETO AND ACTS DECLARED EMERGENCY LAWS BY THE GOVERNOR UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE CONSTITUTION.

The General Court during its second session held in 1974 passed 858 Acts and 90 Resolves of which 694 Acts and 80 Resolves received executive approval at prorogation and 12 Acts from which executive approval was withheld became law by virtue of chapter 1, section 1, Article II of the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

The Governor returned 19 Acts with his objections thereto in writing. Upon said 7 Acts his objections were sustained and upon 12 Acts his objections were not sustained.

Seven (7) Acts entitled, respectively, "An Act relating to police officers in the employ of a city or town or of the Commonwealth."; "An Act establishing a special fund in the State Treasury with certain funds received from the federal government for the installation of emergency communication equipment on limited access highways."; "An Act relative to the selection of civil service employees for appointment or promotion."; "An Act requiring pharmacists to maintain a patient profile record system."; "An Act providing that persons convicted of murder in the first degree shall suffer the punishment of death."; "An Act placing the issue of public school pupil reassignment on the ballot of the special election to be held in the City of Boston in June of this year." and "An Act providing a temporary exemption from the renewal fee charged to liquor licensees whose premises have been destroyed by insurrection or riot." were passed and laid before the Governor for his approval, were returned by him with his objections thereto, to the branch in which they respectively originated, were reconsidered and, the vote being taken on their passage, the objections of the Governor thereto notwithstanding, they were rejected, and said Acts thereby became void.

Twelve (12) Acts entitled, respectively, "An Act increasing the number of assistant clerks in certain district courts and the Boston Juvenile Court." (Chapter 148); "An Act providing that future members of the police force of the Town of Ayer shall be exempt from the civil service law and rules." (Chapter 301); "An Act permitting the burning of fuel with sulphur content of two and two tenths per cent for residual fuel oil utilization facilities in the Berkshire air pollution control district." (Chapter 353); "An Act relative to the designation of managerial employees under the law regulating collective bargaining by public employees." (Chapter 354); "An Act providing that Carmen Simonelli shall be eligible for appointment as a permanent police officer in the Town of Adams under the civil service law." (Chapter 408); "An Act establishing a Division of Communicable and Venereal Diseases in the Department of Public Health." (Chapter 409); "An Act providing for the appointment of an additional messenger for the Probate Court for Norfolk County." (Chapter 446);

"An Act providing that members of the Police Department of the Town of Nantucket be exempted from the civil service law and rules and further regulating the appointment of members of the Police Department of the Town of Nantucket." (Chapter 518); "An Act authorizing the City of Lawrence to expend certain sums for the Bessie M. Burke Memorial Hospital and to continue to operate said hospital." (Chapter 583); "An Act increasing the amount of money which the County Commissioners of Essex County may borrow for constructing and equipping a Court House in the City of Peabody for the District Court of Peabody." (Chapter 651); "An Act relative to the registration of certain vehicles." (Chapter 652) and "An Act to protect unborn children and maternal health within present constitutional limits." (Chapter 706) were passed and laid before the Governor for his approval, were returned by him with his objections thereto, to the branch in which they originated, were reconsidered, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and, the vote being taken on their passage, the objections of the Governor thereto notwithstanding, they were passed and said Acts have thereby the force of law.

Twenty-two (22) Acts, Chapter 53, 76, 135, 169, 183, 213, 241, 316, 430, 477, 486, 530, 537, 554, 609, 611, 636, 670, 720, 776, 786 and 828 were declared to be emergency laws by the Governor in accordance with the provisions of the Forty-eighth Amendment to the Constitution, the Referendum II, Emergency Measures.

Thirty (30) Acts, having been passed by the General Court and the General Court having prorogued, failed to become effective as they did not receive executive approval within ten days.

ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION

adopted by the Legislature of the political year one thousand nine hundred and seventy-one, and by the Legislature of the political year one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and approved by the People on the fifth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and seventy-four.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIRST ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

ARTICLE CI. Section 1. In the year nineteen hundred and seventy-five and every tenth year thereafter a census of the inhabitants of each city and town shall be taken. Said census shall specify the number of inhabitants residing in each precinct of each town and in each precinct and ward of each city. Said census shall be the basis for determining the representative districts for the ten year period beginning with the first Wednesday in the fourth January following the taking of said census; provided that such districts as established based on the census in the year nineteen hundred and seventy-one shall terminate on the first Wednesday in January in the year nineteen hundred and seventy-nine.

The House of Representatives shall consist of one hundred and sixty members. The General Court shall, at its first regular session after the year in which said census was taken, divide the Commonwealth into one hundred and sixty representative districts of contiguous territory so that each representative will represent an equal number of inhabitants, as nearly as may be; and such districts shall be formed, as nearly as may be, without uniting two counties or parts of two or more counties, two towns or parts of two or more towns, two cities or parts of two or more cities, or a city and a town, or parts of cities and towns, into one district. Such districts shall also be so formed that no town containing less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants according to said census shall be divided. The General Court may by law limit the time within which judicial proceedings may be instituted calling in question any such division. Every representative, for one year at least immediately preceding his election, shall have been an inhabitant of the district for which he is chosen and shall cease to represent such district when he shall cease to be an inhabitant of the Commonwealth. The manner of calling and conducting the elections for the choice of representatives, and of ascertaining their election, shall be prescribed by law.

Section 2. Each such census of inhabitants required in section one shall likewise be the basis for determining the senatorial districts and also the councillor districts for the ten year period beginning with the first Wednesday in the fourth January following the taking of such census; provided that such districts as established based on the census in the year nineteen hundred and seventy-one shall terminate on the first Wednesday in January in the year nineteen hundred and seventy-nine. The Senate shall consist of forty members. The General Court shall, at its first regular session after the year in which said census is taken, divide the Commonwealth into forty districts of contiguous territory, each district to contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants according to said census; and such districts shall be formed, as nearly as may be, without uniting two counties, or parts of two or more counties, into one district. The General Court may by law limit the time within which judicial proceedings may be instituted calling in question such division. Each district shall elect one senator, who shall have been an inhabitant of this Commonwealth five years at least immediately preceding his election and at the time of his election shall be an inhabitant of the district for which he is chosen; and he shall cease to represent such senatorial district when he shall cease to be an inhabitant of the Commonwealth. The manner of calling and conducting the elections for the choice of senators and councillors, and of ascertaining their election, shall be prescribed by law.

Section 3. Original jurisdiction is hereby vested in the supreme judicial court upon the petition of any voter of the Commonwealth, filed with the clerk of the supreme judicial court for the Commonwealth, for judicial relief relative to the establishment of House of Representatives, councillor and senatorial districts.

Section 4. Article XCII of the Amendments to the Constitution is hereby annulled.
