Chap. 506. AN ACT ESTABLISHING A REVENUE RECOGNITION SYSTEM TO ENCOURAGE SPEEDY CONTRACT COMPLETION, AND PERMITTING THE USE OF BID BONDS UNDER THE LAWS RELATIVE TO PUBLIC WORKS CONSTRUCTION.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is, in part, to encourage speedy contract completion relative to public works construction, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 30 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 39G, as most recently amended by section 3 of chapter 774 of the acts of 1972, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 39G. Upon substantial completion of the work required by a contract with the commonwealth, or any agency or political subdivision thereof, for the construction, reconstruction, alteration, remodeling, repair or improvement of public ways, including bridges and other highway structures, sewers and, water mains, airports and other public works, the contractor shall present in writing to the awarding authority its certification that the work has been substantially completed. Within twenty-one days thereafter, the awarding authority shall present to the contractor either a written declaration that the work has been substantially completed or an itemized list of incomplete or unsatisfactory work items required by the contract sufficient to demonstrate that the work has not been substantially completed. The awarding authority may include with such list a notice setting forth a reasonable time, which shall not in any event be prior to the contract completion date, within which the contractor must achieve substantial completion of the work. In the event that the awarding authority fails to respond, by presentation of a written declaration or itemized list as aforesaid, to the contractor's certification within the twenty-one day period, the contractor's certification shall take effect as the awarding authority's declaration that the work has been substantially completed.

Within sixty-five days after the effective date of a declaration of a substantial completion, the awarding authority shall prepare and forthwith send to the contractor for acceptance a substantial completion estimate for the quantity and price of the work done and all but one per cent retainage on that work, including the quantity, price and all but one per cent retainage for the undisputed part of each work item and extra work item in dispute but excluding the disputed part thereof, less the estimated cost of completing all incomplete and unsatisfactory work items and less the total periodic payments made to date for the work. The awarding authority also shall deduct from the substantial completion estimate an amount equal to the sum of all demands for direct payment filed by subcontractors and not yet paid to subcontractors or deposited in joint accounts pursuant to section thirty-nine F, but no contract subject to said section thirty-nine F shall contain any other provision authorizing the awarding authority to deduct any amount by virtue of claims asserted against the contract by subcontractors, material suppliers or others.

If the awarding authority fails to prepare and send to the contractor any substantial completion estimate required by this section on or before the date herein above set forth, the awarding authority shall pay to the contractor interest on the amount which would have been due to the contractor pursuant to such substantial completion estimate at the rate of three percentage points above the rediscount rate then charged by the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston from such date to the date on which the awarding authority sends that substantial completion estimate to the contractor for acceptance or to the date of payment therefor, whichever occurs first. The awarding authority shall include the amount of such interest in the substantial completion estimate.

Within fifteen days after the effective date of the declaration of substantial completion, the awarding authority shall send to the contractor by certified mail, return receipt requested, a complete list of all incomplete or unsatisfactory work items, and, unless delayed by causes beyond his control, the contractor shall complete all such work items within forty-five days after the receipt of such list or before the then contract completion date, whichever is later. If the contractor fails to complete such work within such time, the awarding authority may, subsequent to seven days' written notice to the contractor by certified mail, return receipt requested, terminate the contract and complete the incomplete or unsatisfactory work items and charge the cost of same to the contractor.

Within thirty days after receipt by the awarding authority of a notice from the contractor stating that all of the work required by the contract has been completed, the awarding authority shall prepare and forthwith send to the contractor for acceptance a final estimate for the quantity and price of the work done and all retainage on that work less all payments made to date, unless the awarding authority's inspection shows that work items required by the contract remain incomplete or unsatisfactory, or that documentation required by the contract has not been completed. If the awarding authority fails to prepare and send to the contractor the final estimate within thirty days after receipt of notice of completion, the awarding authority shall pay to the contractor interest on the amount which would have been due to the contractor pursuant to such final estimate at the rate hereinabove provided from the thirtieth day after such completion until the date on which the awarding authority sends the final estimate to the contractor for acceptance or the date of payment therefor, whichever occurs first, provided that the awarding authority's inspection shows that no work items required by the contract remain incomplete or unsatisfactory. Interest shall not be paid hereunder on amounts for which interest is required to be paid in connection with the substantial completion estimate as hereinabove provided. The awarding authority shall include the amount of the interest required to be paid hereunder in the final estimate.

The awarding authority shall pay the amount due pursuant to any periodic, substantial completion or final estimate within thirty-five days after receipt of written acceptance for such estimate from the contractor and shall pay interest on the amount due pursuant to such estimate at the rate hereinabove provided from that thirty-fifth day to the date of payment.

No periodic, substantial completion or final estimate or acceptance or payment thereof shall bar a contractor from reserving all rights to dispute the quantity and amount of, or the failure of the awarding authority to approve a quantity and amount of, all or part of any work item or extra work item.

Substantial completion, for the purposes of this section, shall mean either that the work required by the contract has been completed except for work having a contract price of less than one per cent of the then adjusted total contract price, or substantially all of the work has been completed and opened to public use except for minor incomplete or unsatisfactory work items that do not materially impair the usefulness of the work required by the contract.

SECTION 2. Section 39M of said chapter 30 is hereby amended by inserting after the first sentence the following two sentences:- Every bid for such contract shall be accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond, or cash, or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the awarding authority. Such bid deposit shall be in an amount not less than five per cent of the value of the proposed work, as estimated by the awarding authority, but in no event less than one hundred dollars.

SECTION 3. This act shall not be applicable to contracts executed prior to January first, nineteen hundred and seventy-six.

Approved October 27, 1976.

Section 1A. The following rules of construction shall apply to the provisions of a will:

1. A legatee or devisee who fails to survive a testator by one hundred and twenty hours shall be deemed to have predeceased the testator unless the will of the decedent otherwise provides by express reference to survivorship or with respect to simultaneous deaths or common disaster, or by other like provision.

2. The construction and legal effect of a disposition in a will shall be determined by the law of the commonwealth or by the local law of any foreign state or commonwealth selected by the testator in the will, unless the application of that law is contrary to the public policy of this commonwealth.

3. The intention of a testator as expressed in his will shall control the legal effect of his dispositions and the rules of construction expressed in the succeeding clauses four to six, inclusive, shall apply unless a contrary intention is indicated by the will.

4. In the case of bequeathed securities, the legatee shall be entitled only to (1) as much of the bequeathed securities as are a part of the estate at the time of the testator's death; (2) any additional or other securities of the same issuer owned by the testator or his estate by reason of action initiated by the issuer excluding any acquired by exercise of purchase options; and (3) securities of another issuer owned by the testator or his estate as a result of a merger, consolidation or reorganization or other similar action, received in exchange for the bequeathed securities.

5. No general residuary clause in a will and no will making general disposition of all of the testator's property shall exercise a power of appointment created by another instrument which does not specify a specific method of exercise unless reference is made to powers of appointment or there is some other indication of intention to exercise the power.

Property prevented from passing to a former spouse because of revocation by divorce shall pass as if a former spouse had failed to survive the decedent, and other provisions conferring a power or office on the former spouse shall be interpreted as if the spouse had failed to survive the decedent. The probate court may, upon such notice, if any, as it considers reasonable, authorize or require a temporary executor or temporary administrator with the will annexed to do such other acts relative to any property or estate in his charge as it may deem necessary, but except as to continuing the business of the deceased this section shall not give to the temporary executor or temporary administrator with the will annexed other or greater powers than those granted to the named executor by the will. The temporary executor or temporary administrator with the will annexed shall not distribute any of the property in his hands except such amounts as may be allowed by the court to the widow or minor children for necessities.

Section 15. The powers of the temporary executor or temporary administrator with the will annexed shall cease upon the approval of the executor or administrator c.t.a., or upon the earlier entry of a decree terminating such powers and in any event at the expiration of ninety days from the appointment of the temporary executor or temporary administrator with the will annexed unless prior to such expiration, the court upon such prior notice, if any, as it considers reasonable, may extend the appointment of the temporary executor or temporary administrator with the will annexed for one or more terms not to exceed ninety days each, but no such extension shall take effect until the temporary executor or temporary administrator with the will annexed shall return an inventory of all the deceased's real and personal property which shall have come to his possession or knowledge, and such extension shall terminate upon the appointment of an executor.

The probate court may, with or without notice, discharge a temporary executor or temporary administrator with the will annexed.

Claims based on contracts entered into by an executor or administrator in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the estate or on torts committed in the course of administration of the estate may be asserted against the estate by proceeding against the personal representative in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the personal representative is individually liable therefor.

Issues of liability between the estate and an executor or administrator individually may be determined by an accounting, surcharge, indemnification or other appropriate proceeding.

SECTION 14. Chapter 197 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 2, as amended by section 3 of chapter 221 of the acts of 1933, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 2. If an executor or administrator shall not within four months after the approval of his bond have had notice of demands against the estate of the deceased sufficient to warrant him to represent such estate to be insolvent, he may, after the expiration of said four months, pay the debts due from the estate and shall not be personally liable to any creditor in consequence of such payments made before notice of such creditor's demand; and if such executor or administrator shall be in doubt as to the validity of any debt which, if valid, he would have a right to pay under this section, he may, with the approval of the probate court, after notice to all persons interested, pay such debt or so much thereof as the court may authorize.

The probate court may allow creditors further time for bringing actions, not exceeding one year from the time of giving bond by such executor or administrator, provided that application for such further time be made before the expiration of nine months from the date of approval of the bond.

Claims against a decedent's estate may be presented as follows:

(a) The claimant within four months after approval of the official bond of the executor or administrator may deliver or mail to the executor or administrator a written statement of the claim indicating its basis, the name and address of the claimant, and the amount claimed, or within such time may file a written statement of the claim on an approved form with proper registry of probate and a copy thereof delivered or mailed to the executor or administrator. The claim shall be deemed presented on the first to occur of receipt of the written statement of claim by the personal representative, or the filing of the claim in the registry of probate. If the claim is secured, the security shall be described. Failure to describe the security correctly will not invalidate the presentation made.

(b) Or the claimant may commence a proceeding against the executor or administrator in any court where he may be subjected to jurisdiction, to obtain payment of his claim against the estate, but the commencement of the proceeding must occur within the time limit and in the time stated in this section.

As to claims presented by written statements of claim within the time limit prescribed above, an executor or administrator may mail a notice to any such claimant stating that the claim has been disallowed. If, after allowing or disallowing a claim, the executor or administrator changes his decision concerning the claim he shall so notify the claimant. The executor or administrator may not change a disallowance of a claim after the time for the claimant to commence a proceeding on the claim has expired and the claim has been barred. Failure of the executor or administrator to mail notice to a claimant of action on his claim within sixty days after the time for original presentation of the claim has expired shall have the effect of a notice of allowance.

A judgment in a proceeding in another court against an executor or administrator to enforce a claim against a decedent's estate is an allowance of his claim.

Unless otherwise provided in any judgment in another court entered against the executor or administrator, allowed claims shall bear interest at the legal rate for the period commencing sixty days after the time for original presentation of the claim has expired unless based on a contract making a provision for interest, in which case such claims shall bear interest in accordance with said provision.

SECTION 16. Said chapter 197 is hereby further amended by striking out section 11, as appearing in the Tercentenary Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 11. If new assets shall come to the hands of an executor or administrator after the barring of creditor's claims under section nine, he shall account for and apply the same in like manner as if they had been received within said period, and shall be liable, on account of such new assets, to an action at law or to a proceeding in the probate court by or for the benefit of a creditor, in like manner as if such assets had been received within the period, if such action or proceeding is commenced within four months after the creditor has notice of the receipt of such assets, and within six months after they are actually received.

SECTION 17. Said chapter 197 is hereby further amended by striking out section 12, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 12. If an action commenced against an executor or administrator within the time limited in section nine shall fail of a sufficient service or return by an unavoidable accident, if the process in such action shall be abated or defeated in consequence of a defect in the form thereof or of a mistake in the form of the proceeding, if, after a verdict for the plaintiff, the judgment shall be arrested, or, if a judgment for the plaintiff shall be reversed on a writ of error, the plaintiff may commence a new action for the same cause within sixty days after the abatement or other determination of the original action, or after the reversal of the judgment therein.

SECTION 18. Said chapter 197 is hereby further amended by striking out section 13, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 13. A creditor of the deceased, whose right of action shall not accrue within the time fixed for presentation of claims, or within such further time as may be allowed by an extension granted under section nine, or in the case of an administrator de bonis non, within the period allowed by section seventeen, may present his claim to the probate court at any time before the estate is fully administered; and if, upon examination thereof, the court shall find that such claim is or may become justly due from the estate, it shall order the executor or administrator to retain in his hands sufficient assets to satisfy the same. But if a person interested in the estate offers to give bond to the alleged creditor with sufficient surety or sureties for the payment of his claim if it is proved to be due, the court may order such bond to be taken, instead of requiring assets to be retained as aforesaid. If because of partial distribution already made, or because of inability to sell the real estate of the deceased, the executor or administrator shall be unable to retain sufficient assets to satisfy the claim in full as finally established, the creditor may enforce his claim for the balance under section twenty-nine within nine months from the final settlement of said estate or from the time when the amount of said balance is finally determined.

SECTION 19. Said chapter 197 is hereby further amended by striking out section 17, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 17. An administrator de bonis non shall be liable to an action by a creditor of the deceased for the same period as provided by section nine for actions against an original executor or administrator, less the period during which the statutory limitation provided by said section nine has run against previous executors or administrators of the same estate, but in any event for not less than two months from the date of his appointment. The court may allow further time for bringing actions as provided in said section nine, provided application therefor is made before the expiration of the period herein provided. This section shall not apply to claims already barred by said section nine at the date of the appointment of the administrator de bonis non.

SECTION 20. Said chapter 197 is hereby further amended by striking out section 21, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 21. If an executor or administrator, within the time for the commencement of actions by creditors is required by a legatee or next of kin to make payment, in whole or in part, of a legacy or distributive share, the probate court may require that such legatee or next of kin shall first give bond to the executor or administrator, with surety or sureties approved by the court, and conditioned to repay the amount so to be paid or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy any demands which may be thereafter recovered against the estate of the deceased, and to indemnify the executor or administrator against all loss and damage on account of such payment.

SECTION 21. Said chapter 197 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 25 the following section:-

Section 25A. Property which a testator gives in his lifetime to a pecuniary legatee subsequent to the will providing for such pecuniary legacy, shall be treated to the extent of the gift as satisfaction of the pecuniary legacy in whole or in part only if the will so provides, or if the testator so declared in a contemporaneous writing, or if the legatee has acknowledged in writing that the gift was in satisfaction. For purposes of partial satisfaction, property given during a lifetime shall be valued as of the time the donee came into possession or enjoyment of the property or as of the time of death of the testator, whichever first occurred.

SECTION 22. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 199 the following chapter:

- (1) the date of death of the nonresident decedent,
- (2) that no local administration, or application or petition therefor, is pending in the commonwealth, and
- (3) that the foreign personal representative is entitled to payment of delivery.

Payment or delivery may be made to a foreign personal representative of a nonresident decedent appointed in a jurisdiction which was not the domicile of the decedent upon similar proof of appointment and affidavit, if such affidavit also states that there is no domiciliary foreign personal representative and no proceedings are pending for appointment of a personal representative in any court in the jurisdiction of the decedent's domicile and that the foreign personal representative is the personal representative appointed in the appointment proceeding first commenced.

If such nonresident decedent owned tangible personal property located in the commonwealth at the time of his death, or at any time during the twelve months preceding his death had a permanent or temporary place of abode in the commonwealth, a foreign personal representative of the decedent shall not accept payment or delivery pursuant to this section two (a) earlier than one month after filing proof of his authority in accordance with section five with a copy to the commissioner of corporations and taxation.

Section 4. Payment or delivery under section two may not be made if a resident creditor of the nonresident decedent or nonresident protected person has notified the debtor of the nonresident decedent or nonresident protected person or the person having possession of the personal property belonging to or appointed by the nonresident decedent or belonging to the nonresident protected person that the debt should not be paid nor the property delivered to the foreign personal representative, guardian or conservator.

Section 5. If no local administration or application or petition therefor is pending in the commonwealth, a domiciliary foreign personal representative may file with a probate court in the commonwealth in a county in which property belonging to the decedent is located, authenticated copies of his appointment and of any official bond he had given.

Section 6. A domiciliary foreign personal representative who has complied with section five may exercise as to personal property in the commonwealth all the powers of a local personal representative acting in a similar representative capacity and may maintain actions and proceedings in the commonwealth, subject to compliance with sections eight and nine of chapter one hundred and ninety-five.

Section 7. The power of a foreign personal representative under section two or six shall be exercised only if there is no administration or application therefor pending in the commonwealth. An application for local administration of the estate shall terminate the power of the domiciliary foreign personal representative to act under section six, but the probate court may allow the domiciliary foreign personal representative to exercise limited powers to preserve the estate. No personal representative, who, before receiving actual notice of a pending local administration, has changed his position in reliance upon the powers of a foreign personal representative shall be prejudiced by reason of the application for, or grant of, local administration. The local personal representative shall be subject to all duties and obligations which have accrued by virtue of the exercise of the powers by the foreign personal representative and may be substituted for him in any action or proceedings in the commonwealth.

The power of a foreign guardian or conservator under section two shall be exercised only if no local guardian or conservator has been appointed and no application therefor is pending in the commonwealth. Jurisdiction under section two shall be limited to the money or value of personal property collected.

A foreign guardian or conservator shall submit himself to the jurisdiction of the courts of the commonwealth by acting under clauses (2) and (3) of the preceding paragraph.

Section 9. In addition to jurisdiction conferred by section eight, a foreign personal representative shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the commonwealth to the same extent that his decedent was subject to jurisdiction immediately prior to death.

Section 10. In any proceeding in the commonwealth to determine rights in real or personal property in the commonwealth or administered by a fiduciary in the commonwealth or under a will admitted to probate in the commonwealth:

(b) The interest of a nonresident protected person named a party to the proceeding for whom there is no local guardian or conservator may be represented by a foreign guardian or conservator served in the manner provided in section eleven or by other lawful means. The authority of a foreign personal representative or of a foreign guardian or conservator under this section shall include authority to be a party to an agreement of compromise in respect of the rights of the decedent or the protected person in such property. The procedures authorized in this section are in addition to and not in limitation of all other applicable procedures.

Section 11. In addition to and not in limitation of other provision of law, service of process may be made upon the foreign personal representative, guardian or conservator by registered or certified mail, addressed to his last reasonably ascertainable address, requesting a return receipt signed by addressee only. Notice by ordinary first class mail is sufficient if registered or certified mail service to the addressee is unavailable. Service may be made upon a foreign personal representative in the manner in which service could have been made under other laws of the commonwealth on either the foreign personal representative or his decedent immediately prior to death.

If service is made upon a foreign personal representative, guardian or conservator as provided in this section, he shall be allowed at least thirty days within which to appear or respond.

Section 12. An adjudication rendered in any jurisdiction in favor of or against any personal representative of the estate of a nonresident decedent shall be as binding on the local personal representative as if he were a party to the adjudication.

Section 13. Nothing in this chapter shall limit the jurisdiction of the probate court under other provisions of the General Laws.

SECTION 23. Chapter 201 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 3, as appearing in the Tercenary Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 3. A father or mother may by will appoint a guardian for a minor child, whether born at the time of making the will or afterward, to continue during minority or for a less time, effective when the guardian accepts appointment by filing his bond in acceptable form, except that if a guardian has already been appointed, whether testamentary or otherwise, a later testamentary appointment shall become effective only when approved by the court. A testamentary guardian appointed by will of a parent shall have the same powers and perform the same duties relative to the property of the ward, and, if the other parent is not living, relative to the person of the ward, as a guardian appointed under section two. If application is made to the probate court for approval of the appointment of a testamentary guardian after the appointment of a guardian, whether testamentary or otherwise, has become effective, notice of such application shall be given to such previous guardian, and thereafter the court may remove such previous guardian and approve the appointment in his place of the person applying for approval of appointment as testamen-

(b) A conservator or guardian shall be individually liable for obligations arising from ownership or control of property of the estate or for torts committed in the course of administration of the estate only if he was personally at fault.

(c) Claims based on contracts entered into by a conservator or guardian in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the estate, or on torts committed in the course of administration of the estate may be asserted against the estate by proceeding against the conservator or guardian in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the conservator or guardian is individually liable therefor.

(d) Any question of liability between the estate and the conservator or guardian individually may be determined in an accounting, surcharge, indemnification or other appropriate proceeding or action.

SECTION 25. The first paragraph of section 38 of said chapter 201, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding the following sentence:- He shall have custody of all wills, codicils, and other instruments purporting to be testamentary dispositions executed by his ward.

The probate court, upon the petition of a conservator or guardian, other than the guardian of a minor, and after such notice to all other persons interested as it directs, may authorize such conservator or guardian to take such action, or to apply such funds as are not required for the ward's own maintenance and support, in such fashion as the court shall approve as being in keeping with the ward's wishes so far as they can be ascertained and as designed to minimize insofar as possible current or prospective state or federal income, estate and inheritance taxes, and to provide for gifts to such charities, relatives and friends as would be likely recipients of donations from the ward.

Such action or application of funds may include but shall not be limited to the making of gifts, to the conveyance or release of the ward's contingent and expectant interests in property including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety, to the exercise or release of his powers as donee of a power of appointment, the making of contracts, the creation or revocable or irrevocable trusts of property of the ward's estate which may extend beyond his disability or life, the exercise of options of the ward to purchase securities or other property, the exercise of his rights to elect options and to change beneficiaries under insurance and annuity policies, and the surrendering of policies for their cash value, the exercise of his right to an elective share in the estate of his deceased spouse, and the renunciation or disclaimer of any interest acquired by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer.

The guardian or conservator in his petition shall briefly outline the action or application of funds for which he seeks approval, the results expected to be accomplished thereby and the tax savings expected to accrue. The proposed action or application of funds may include gifts of the ward's personal property or real estate, but transfers of real estate shall be subject to the requirements of chapter two hundred and two. Gifts may be for the benefit of prospective legatees, devisees or heirs apparent of the ward or may be made to individuals or charities in which the ward is believed to have an interest. The conservator or guardian shall also indicate in the petition that any planned disposition is consistent with the intentions of the ward insofar as they can be ascertained, and if the ward's intentions cannot be ascertained, the ward will be presumed to favor reduction in the incidence of the various forms of taxation and the partial distribution of his estate as herein provided. The conservator or guardian shall not, however, be required to include as a beneficiary any person whom he has reason to believe would be excluded by the ward.

SECTION 27. Said chapter 201 is hereby further amended by adding the following section:-

Section 50. The death, mental illness or other disability recognized under the General Laws, of any principal who has executed a power of attorney in writing shall not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney in fact, agent or other person who, without actual knowledge of the death, mental illness or other disability of the principal, shall act in good faith under the power of attorney or agency. Any action so taken unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, shall bind the principal and his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives. An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact or agent stating that he did not have, at the time of doing an act pursuant to the power of attorney, actual knowledge of the revocation or termination of the power of attorney by death, mental illness or other disability, and signed under the penalties of perjury, shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermina-tion of the power at that time. If the exercise of the power shall require execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable, the affidavit when authenticated for record shall likewise be recordable.

Claims based on contracts entered into by a trustee in his individual capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the trust estate, or on torts committed in the course of trust administration may be asserted against the trust estate by proceeding against the trustee in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the trustee was personally liable therefor.

The question of liability as between the trust estate and the trustee individually may be determined in an accounting, surcharge, indemnification or other appropriate proceeding.

All monies held in a Capital Reserve Fund, except as hereinafter provided, shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of bonds of the MHFA which are secured by such Capital Reserve Fund as the same mature, the purchase of such bonds, the payment of interest on such bonds or the payment of any redemption premium required to be paid when such bonds are redeemed prior to maturity; provided, however, that, monies in a Capital Reserve Fund shall not be withdrawn therefrom at any time in such amount as would reduce the amount of such Fund to less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on outstanding bonds which are secured by such Capital Reserve Fund, except for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds maturing and becoming due and for the payment of which other monies of the MHFA are not available. Any income or interest earned by, or increment to, a Capital Reserve Fund due to the investment thereof shall be used by the MHFA for the purposes of such Capital Reserve Fund.

(b) The MHFA shall not issue bonds which are secured by a Capital Reserve Fund at any time if the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing or becoming due in a succeeding calendar year on such bonds then to be issued and on all other outstanding bonds of the MHFA which are secured by such Capital Reserve Fund will exceed the amount of such Capital Reserve Fund at the time of issuance unless the MHFA, at the time of issuance of such bonds, shall deposit in such Fund from the proceeds of the bonds so to be issued, or otherwise, an amount which together with the amount then in such Fund, will be not less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on such bonds then to be issued and on all other outstanding bonds of the MHFA which are secured by such Capital Reserve Fund.

(c) To assure the continued operation and solvency of the MHFA for the carrying out of the public purposes of this act, provision is made in paragraph (a) for the accumulation in a Capital Reserve Fund of an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on all outstanding bonds which are secured by such Capital Reserve Fund. In order further to assure such maintenance of a Capital Reserve Fund there shall be annually appropriated and paid to the MHFA for deposit in such Capital Reserve Fund such sum, if any, as shall be certified by the chairman of the MHFA to the governor as necessary to restore such Capital Reserve Fund to an amount equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing and becoming due in any succeeding calendar year on the outstanding bonds which are secured by such Capital Reserve Fund. Chap. 551. AN ACT AMENDING THE LAW PERTAINING TO FETAL RESEARCH.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 112 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 12J and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 12J. (a) I. No person shall use any live human fetus whether before or after expulsion from its mother's womb, for scientific, laboratory, research or other kind of experimentation. This section shall not prohibit procedures incident to the study of a human fetus while it is in its mother's womb, provided that in the best medical judgment of the physician, made at the time of the study, said procedures do not substantially jeopardize the life or health of the fetus, and provided said fetus is not the subject of a planned abortion. In any criminal proceeding a fetus shall be conclusively presumed not to be the subject of a planned abortion if the mother signed a written statement at the time of the study, that she was not planning an abortion.

This section shall not prohibit or regulate diagnostic or remedial procedures the purpose of which is to determine the life or health of the fetus involved or to preserve the life or health of the fetus involved or the mother involved.

A fetus is a live fetus for purposes of this section when, in the best medical judgment of a physician, it shows evidence of life as determined by the same medical standards as are used in determining evidence of life in a spontaneously aborted fetus at approximately the same stage of gestational development.

(a) II. No experimentation may knowingly be performed upon a dead fetus unless the consent of the mother has first been obtained, provided, however, that such consent shall not be required in the case of a routine pathological study. In any criminal proceeding, consent shall be conclusively presumed to have been granted for the purposes of this section by a written statement, signed by the mother who is at least eighteen years of age, to the effect that she consents to the use of her fetus for scientific, laboratory, research or other kind of experimentation or study; such written consent shall constitute lawful authorization for the transfer of the dead fetus.

(a) III. No person shall perform or offer to perform an abortion where part or all of the consideration for said performance is that the fetal remains may be used for experimentation or other kind of research or study.

(a) IV. No person shall knowingly sell, transfer, distribute or give away any fetus for a use which is in violation of the provisions of this section. For purposes of this section, the word "fetus" shall include also an embryo or neonate.

(a) V. Except as hereafter provided, whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for not less than one year nor more than two and one-half years or by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years and by the imposition of a fine of up to ten thousand dollars.

(a) VI. In any criminal action under this subsection (a), it shall be a complete defense that at the time of its performance the subject procedure had received the written approval of a duly appointed Institutional Review Board provided that such Board sets forth in its written approval that the procedure does not violate the provisions of this subsection (a) and sets forth therein a reasonable basis for such conclusion and provided that there was not outstanding, at any time that the subject procedure was being performed, a judgment of a court entered pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b), that the subject procedure violates the provisions of this subsection (a). The written approval shall contain a detailed description of the procedure by attachment of a protocol or other writing or otherwise and shall be maintained as a permanent record by such Board or by the hospital or other institution for which the Board acts.

A copy of the written approval, together with any attached protocol or other writing, shall be filed with the office of the District Attorney for the county in which the hospital or other institution for which the board acts, is located. Such copy shall be available for public inspection at reasonable times. No member of an Institutional Review Board voting not to approve a procedure, or not present at such a vote, shall be criminally or civilly liable for such approval by the Institutional Review Board or for the performance of the procedure by others. No member of such a Board voting to approve a procedure shall be criminally or civilly liable for such approval by him or the performance of the procedure by others if, based on the written approval and the basis thereof referred to above, such a member acts on a good faith belief that the procedure does not violate the provisions of this section.

(a) VII. Where there is outstanding such a judgment that the subject procedure violates the provisions of this subsection (a), it shall not constitute a defense that the person performing said procedure did not receive notice, or otherwise know, of that judgment; provided, however, that until the District Attorney files a copy of the judgment prohibiting a procedure with the Commissioner of Public Health as provided in subsection (b) VII it shall constitute a defense that the person performing the subject procedure did not have notice of the judgment and that he had obtained the approval of the Institutional Review Board for the subject procedure as provided in subsection (a) VI.

(b) I. Whenever a procedure has been approved by a duly appointed Institutional Review Board which the District Attorney for the district where said procedure is performed has reasonable grounds to believe is prohibited under the provisions of subsection (a), he shall file a complaint in the Superior Court sitting in a county where the procedure is performed seeking a determination of whether said procedure violates the provisions of this statute. The complaint shall describe the procedure and the reason or reasons why there are reasonable grounds to believe that the said procedure is in violation of the provisions of this statute. The complaint shall name as defendants those persons within his jurisdiction whom the District Attorney reasonably believes have performed, are performing, or are about to perform, the described procedure and those institutions within his jurisdiction in which said procedure has been performed, is being performed, or is about to be performed; such defendants shall be served with a copy of the complaint and a summons in accordance with the provisions of Rule 4 of the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure. Upon the filing of the complaint, notice thereof shall be given by the District Attorney, by certified or registered mail, to the Commissioner of Public Health, who in turn shall give the same notice to those institutions in the Commonwealth who, in the judgment of said Commissioner, may be affected by a judgment in the action, and in any event to all of the licensed medical schools in the Commonwealth.

(b) II. Any person or institution which has performed, is performing, or is about to perform, a procedure, may file a complaint in the Superior Court seeking a determination of whether said procedure violates the provision of this statute. Said determination may be sought irrespective of whether said procedure has been approved by an institutional review board. The complaint, which shall have attached thereto a copy of any protocol relative to said procedure, shall describe the procedure and state the reason or reasons which cause the plaintiff to seek the judicial determination. The complaint shall name the District Attorney for the district where the procedure is performed as defendant in the action and he shall be served with a copy of the complaint, including the attached protocol, if any, and the summons in accordance with the provisions of Rule 4 of the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure. Service shall be made by delivery to the office of said District Attorney; or by mailing by certified or registered mail to said office. Upon receipt of service, notice shall be given by the District Attorney, by certified or registered mail, to the Commissioner of Public Health who in turn shall give notice to those institutions who in the judgment of said commissioner may be affected by a judgment in the action, and in any event to all of the licensed medical schools in the Commonwealth.

(b) III. Any person or institution desiring to intervene in the action may file a motion to intervene with the court in which the action is pending within ten days from the mailing of such notice, except that the court, for good cause shown, may allow said motion after the ten-day period. A copy of the motion to intervene shall also be served upon the District Attorney and upon the persons or institutions initiating the action or against whom the action has been initiated. The motion shall be signed and certified under oath by the applicant and shall state the grounds therefore showing that the applicant claims an interest in the issue of the lawfulness of the subject procedure in that he has performed said procedure, or that he is performing said procedure, or that he is about to perform said procedure, and that the disposition of the action may impair or impede his ability to perform or continue to perform said procedure. Upon a determination by the court that the applicant has satisfied the requirement of this section, the court shall allow the applicant to intervene in the action.

(b) IV. After service of the complaint upon an original party, such party shall serve and file an answer within twenty days unless otherwise directed by order of the court. The answer shall state whether, in the opinion of the pleader, the subject procedure is prohibited by the provisions of this statute and the reason or reasons for such opinion. An intervenor may serve and file a pleading in support of either the complaint or answer within ten days from receipt of notice of the granting of the motion to intervene. Unless the court otherwise orders, no response to the pleading of an intervenor is required.

(b) V. Any party may move for summary judgment, in accordance with Rule 56 of the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure, or for judgment on the pleadings in accordance with Rule 12 (c) of the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion.

(b) VI. Any trial on the merits shall be without a jury. The court shall find the facts specially and shall set forth in writing separately its findings of facts and conclusions of law thereon and shall enter judgment accordingly. Such judgment may be appealed to the Supreme Judicial Court. Until reversed, however, by the Supreme Judicial Court, such judgment shall constitute an in rem judgment, binding within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, that the subject procedure is prohibited or is not prohibited by the provisions of this statute.

(b) VII. Upon the entry of a judgment that a procedure is prohibited by the provisions of this statute, the District Attorney shall promptly give notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the counties of the Commonwealth and by sending notification by registered or certified mail to each licensed hospital and medical school in the Commonwealth; such notice shall contain a description of the prohibited medical procedure and shall state that the performance of such procedure constitutes a crime punishable under the provisions of this statute. A copy of all judgments and accompanying opinions permitting or prohibiting a procedure shall be filed by the District Attorney with the Commissioner of Public Health. The Commissioner of Public Health shall maintain a permanent file of such judgments and opinions for public inspection.

(b) VIII. Any action brought under this statute to determine whether a procedure is prohibited by the provisions of this statute and any appeal of a judgment that a procedure is or is not prohibited by the provisions of this statute shall be advanced for a prompt and speedy disposition consistent, however, with a reasonable opportunity being afforded to the parties to properly prepare the case.

(b) IX. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence or clause of this statute is held to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the remaining portions of this statute.

Approved October 27, 1976.

NUMBER OF ACTS AND RESOLVES APPROVED, APPROVAL WITHHELD, ACTS VETOED BY THE GOVERNOR, PASSED OVER HIS VETO AND ACTS DECLARED EMERGENCY LAWS BY THE GOVERNOR UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE CONSTITUTION.

The General Court during its second session held in 1976 passed 553 Acts and 6 Resolves of which 550 Acts and 26 Resolves received executive approval. 3 Acts from which executive approval was withheld became law by virtue of Chapter 1, Section 1, Article II of the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Two (2) Acts entitled, respectively, "An Act authorizing the City of Boston to pay a sum of money to Monument Contracting Co., Inc. and authorizing said city to award certain contracts without advertising for bids if approved by the Law Department of said City." (Chapter 159) and "An Act authorizing the Superior Court to vacate its judgment in the case of Raymond A. Sullivan vs. Commonwealth." (Chapter 259) were passed, but failed to receive executive approval; as, however, they were not returned, with objections thereto, within ten days after they had been received in the executive department, the General Court not having been dissolved in the meantime, said Acts have the force of law, under the provisions of the Constitution governing such cases and have been so certified.

The Governor returned 2 Acts with his objections thereto in writing. Upon said 1 Act objections were sustained and upon 1 Act his objections were not sustained.

One (1) Act entitled "An Act authorizing the construction and operation of a new hospital facility for St. John of God Hospital, Inc." was returned by him with his objections thereto, to the branch in which it originated, was reconsidered and, the vote being taken on its passage, the objections of the Governor thereto notwithstanding, it was rejected and said Act thereby became void.

One (1) Act entitled "An Act directing the Commissioner of Public Health to issue certificates of need to the St. Joseph Manor Nursing Home, Inc. and to the Cape Cod Hospital." (Chapter 417) was passed and laid before the Governor for his approval, was returned by him with his objections thereto, to the branch in which it originated, was reconsidered, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and, the vote being taken on its passage, the objections of the Governor thereto notwithstanding, it was passed and said Act has thereby the force of law.

Thirty (30) Acts, Chapters 64, 91, 104, 114, 118, 120, 190, 195, 230, 233, 266, 272, 277, 310, 313, 322, 366, 385, 395, 415, 432, 446, 463, 468, 477, 492, 502, 519, 542 and 552 were declared to be emergency laws by the Governor in accordance with the provisions of the Forty-eighth Amendment to the Constitution, the Referendum II, Emergency Measures.

Twenty-nine (29) Acts, having been passed by the General Court and the General Court having prorogued, failed to become effective as they did not receive executive approval within ten days.

The General Court was prorogued on Saturday, October 16, 1976 at 12:55 A. M., the session having occupied 284 days.

RETURN OF VOTES ON QUESTION NO. 4, BEING A LEGISLATIVE AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION, SUBMITTED UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE XLVIII OF THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION TO THE VOTERS OF THE COMMONWEALTH AT THE STATE ELECTION HELD NOVEMBER 2, 1976.

Votes for Question No. 4 (Proposed Amendment to the Constitution).

Do you approve of a law summarized below, which was disapproved by the House of Representatives on May 5, 1975, by a vote of 179-46, and on which no vote was taken by the Senate before May 7, 1975?

Summary

SECTION 1 of the act inserts a new chapter 164B into the General Laws and establishes a Massachusetts Power Authority, a body corporate and politic with seven members appointed by the Governor to staggered six year terms. The Authority is to establish and operate a bulk power supply system to supply wholesale electric power to utilities throughout the Commonwealth. The primary purpose of the Authority is to supply the Commonwealth with power with the minimum adverse impact on the environment. The Authority is also authorized to engage in research and development of new sources of power, new siting techniques, and methods of environmental protection.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Authority is authorized to adopt by-laws; adopt an official seal; maintain offices; sue and be sued; construct or acquire facilities either within or without the Commonwealth; issue revenue bonds and borrow money in anticipation of issuance of revenue bonds; acquire real and personal property; employ professional, managerial and other employees deemed necessary and fix their compensation to be paid solely out of revenues of the Authority; appear before other government agencies; apply for and receive federal or other grants of funds; and enter into contracts and agreements.

The Authority will build and operate all new generating and transmission facilities in the Commonwealth and has the option to purchase existing facilities through negotiation, condemnation, or eminent domain. After an initial two-year period, no other utility may construct a new facility unless the Authority certifies that it lacks the capability to finance the facility and the facility would further the purposes of the act.

The Authority will finance its activities by issuing revenue bonds. The bonds will be exempt from state taxation, but will not be backed by the full faith and credit of the Commonwealth. Power will be sold to other utilities by contract but no special discounts or bonuses to promote the increased use of power may be given. Public hearings are required on all major contracts.

The Authority is required to develop a master, 20-year demand study and siting plan within 18 months of its incorporation, to be updated each succeeding year. Cities will be selected in accordance with the Electric Power Facilities Siting Council Act of 1973. The Governor and the community in which any facility is to be located must affirmatively approve the facility before it can be constructed.

The Authority will be subject to all applicable federal and state environmental standards and must obtain all necessary federal and state permits and complete all necessary environmental impact statements.

The Authority will be exempt from taxation but will make payments in lieu of taxes to cities and towns in an amount equal to the tax which would be paid if the Authority's real and personal property were owned by a private electric utility company.

The Authority is forbidden from engaging in promotional or image advertising. The Authority has the authority to bargain collectively with its employees and is subject to the provisions of Chapter 150 of the General Laws, which governs the conciliation and arbitration of industrial disputes. Employees of the Authority are not subject to the civil service laws and rules. Employees of utilities displaced by the activities of the Authority have first preference in employment by the Authority.

SECTION 2 of the act amends section 43 of Chapter 164 of the General Laws to provide that if a city or town votes, in accordance with the provision of Chapter 164, to establish a municipal utility and acquire the facilities of the utility currently serving the community, and the utility refuses to sell its property to the city or town, that the Department of Public Utilities will establish a fair price for the facilities, and the utility will be required to accept the price determined by the department and tender the deed for the facilities to the city or town.

Do you approve of a law summarized below, which was disapproved by the House of Representatives on May 3, 1976, by a vote of 197-35, and on which no vote was taken by the Senate before May 5, 1976?

Summary

The proposed legislation would prohibit the possession, ownership or sale of any weapon from which a shot or bullet can be discharged and which has a barrel length of less than sixteen inches. The prohibition would not apply to military personnel, law enforcement officers, federally licensed handgun manufacturers and wholesalers, common carriers in the ordinary course of transport, or to historical societies and museums. The act would not affect the possession of rifles, shotguns, and certain antiques and replicas. The proposal also does not change the existing statutory penalties for unlawful possession, ownership or sale of handguns, including provision imposing mandatory jail sentences.

The proposal would permit owners of handguns to surrender their weapons to any law enforcement agency in the Commonwealth within six months of the effective date of the act without incurring criminal liability. Those surrendering handguns within that six months will be compensated at a rate to be determined by the Commissioner of Public Safety.

RETURN OF VOTES ON QUESTION NO. 7, BEING A LEGISLATIVE AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION, SUBMITTED UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE XLVIII OF THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION TO THE VOTERS OF THE COMMONWEALTH AT THE STATE ELECTION HELD NOVEMBER 2, 1976.

Votes for Question No. 7 (Proposed Amendment to the Constitution).

Do you approve of the law summarized below, which was disapproved by the House of Representatives on May 3, 1976, by a vote of 182-49, and on which no vote was taken by the Senate before May 5, 1976?

Summary

The proposed act would impose a general requirement that every electric utility company charge a uniform rate per kilowatt hour of electricity. The proposed act would except from this general rule rates charged to other electric utility companies and to residential customers who heat their principle place of residence by electricity. The Act would also permit a different rate to be charged residential customers for the first three hundred (300) kilowatt hours they consume each month, and would authorize "peak load" pricing whereby a higher rate than the uniform rate per kilowatt hour may be charged during the periods of the day or seasons of the year when consumption of electricity is the greatest. The Act would authorize the Department of Public Utilities to issue implementing rules and regulations and provides for enforcement.

Votes for Question No. 8.

The following is a non-binding advisory question: "Shall the General Court enact legislation authorizing the construction of an oil refinery and a deep water port, subject to the approval of those communities directly affected and any reservations that the General Court may prescribe?"

Summary

The Legislature has placed this question on the ballot in order to determine whether the people favor or oppose the construction of an oil refinery and deep water port in Massachusetts. The vote on this question is not binding on the Legislature. The question deals with the general advisability of such construction and is not a specific proposal for a facility. If a specific proposal is made, it would be subject to approval by the communities directly affected and subject to any restrictions imposed by the Legislature.

Votes for Question No. 9.

The following is a non-binding advisory question: "Shall retail stores including package liquor stores, so called, be allowed to open for business on Sunday?"

Summary

*The Legislature has placed this question on the ballot in order to determine whether the people favor or oppose the Sunday opening of certain retail stores, including package liquor stores.
