Section 102C. The superior court may of its own motion or on the motion of a plaintiff or defendant, after determination by said court that if the plaintiff prevails, there is no reasonable likelihood that recovery will exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars, transfer for trial any civil action pending in said court to the court from which such action was previously removed, if any, or if such action was originally entered in the superior court, to any district court, including the municipal court of the city of Boston, in which it could have been brought under the provisions of section two of chapter two hundred and twenty-three.

Clerks of the superior court shall, when a case is so transferred, transmit the order of reference and the original papers in the action, or certified copies thereof, together with a copy of the docket entries, without charge to the clerk of the court to which such action was so transferred.

Such action shall, unless retransferred as hereinafter provided, be pending in the court to which it was transferred and shall be tried by a justice sitting in said court. The parties shall have the benefits of and be subject to the district-municipal courts rules of civil procedure. Such action while pending in said court may be consolidated for trial with cross actions as provided in section two A of chapter two hundred and twenty-three. The justice shall file a written decision or finding with the clerk who shall forthwith notify the parties or counsel of record. Any party to the transferred action aggrieved by the finding or decision may as of right have the case retransferred for determination by the superior court and any party to an action consolidated for trial with the transferred action aggrieved by the finding or decision may as of right have his case transferred for determination by the superior court. The request for retransfer or transfer, as the case may be, shall be filed with the clerk of said district court within ten days after notice of the finding or decision. If either party neglects to appear at the time appointed for such trial, or at any adjournment thereof, without just cause, or if at any such time either party refuses to produce in good faith the testimony relied on by him, the justice may close the trial and order that judgment be entered for the adverse party and file a finding or decision to that effect, and if both so fail to appear he may order that the action be dismissed.

Upon the filing with the clerk of a request for retransfer, the decision or finding shall be forthwith transmitted, with any original papers received from the superior court and any original papers filed in the district court after transfer of the case by the superior court, to the clerk of the superior court of the county from which the case was referred. If a request for transfer is filed in an action consolidated for trial with the action transferred from the superior court, the finding or decision shall be forthwith submitted, with all original papers filed in the district court, to the clerk of the superior court of the county from which the transferred case was referred. The clerk of the superior court shall forthwith notify the parties or counsel of record of the receipt and filing of said finding or decision.

The action shall thereafter be tried in the superior court. The decision, and the amount of the damages assessed, if any, by a district court shall be prima facie evidence upon such matters as are put in issue by the pleadings, and no other findings of such court shall at any time be admissible as evidence or become part of the pleadings. A party shall be held to waive any right to jury trial previously claimed, unless within ten days after the filing of the finding or decision in the superior court he shall file a statement that he insists on a jury trial.

SECTION 263. Said chapter 231 is hereby further amended by striking out section 104, as most recently amended by section 104 of said chapter 377, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 104. Any other party, a plaintiff against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is brought, and a defendant who asserts a compulsory counterclaim, may, provided that the amount of the claim against such other party, the amount of the claim, counterclaim or cross-claim brought against such plaintiff, or the amount of the compulsory counterclaim asserted by such defendant, as the case may be, exceeds seven thousand five hundred dollars, file in the district court in which the action is pending a claim of trial by the superior court together with the sum of five dollars for the entry of the claim of each plaintiff in the superior court, and, except as provided in section one hundred and seven, a bond in the penal sum of one hundred dollars, with such surety or sureties as may be approved by the party or parties not asserting such claim of trial by the superior court or by the clerk or an assistant clerk of said district court, payable to the other party or parties, conditioned to satisfy any judgment for costs which may be entered against him in the superior court in said cause within thirty days after the entry thereof. Such claim of trial by the superior court must be filed no later than twenty-five days after service of the pleading which asserts the claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim on which the right to remove is based, provided, however, that in the case of a compulsory counterclaim, the party asserting such counterclaim must file such claim of trial by the superior court no later than five days after the expiration of the time allowed to assert such counterclaim. The clerk shall forthwith transmit the papers and entry fee to the clerk of the superior court and the same shall proceed as though then originally entered there.

Removal of a case under this section shall remove any default and vacate any judgment entered thereon for failure to plead or otherwise defend in the district court, excepting cases in which the ad damnum does not exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars. Cases in which no claims, counterclaims and cross-claims exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars and those in which rights of parties to remove for trial in the superior court as hereinabove provided are not properly exercised shall be tried in the district court. A party who would have been entitled to remove the case for trial in the superior court as hereinabove provided but for the fact that the amount of the claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim, as the case may be, does not exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars shall, if he desires trial by the superior court, file said entry fee and bond within ten days after notice of the decision or finding. Such filing shall have the same effect as a request for retransfer under section one hundred and two C, and the decision shall be transmitted to and the case tried in the superior court subject to the provisions of said section one hundred and two C applicable to retransferred cases.

Such assignment may be made for such period of time as such administrative justice may deem advisable. In each of the foregoing three districts one of the justices so assigned shall be designated by the administrative justice for the district courts, subject to the approval of the chief justice of the supreme judicial court as presiding justice, who shall from time to time designate those of the appellate justices who shall act on appeals in each district court in that district and direct the times and places of sittings. The presiding justice of any appellate division may call upon a justice of any other appellate division to serve in his division, and when so requested such justice shall serve therein. An indigent party may subsequently file one or more supplementary affidavits requesting the waiver, substitution or payment by the commonwealth of fees and costs not previously granted at any time before a finding of guilt or innocence or a final decree or judgment has been entered.

SECTION 269. Said chapter 261 is hereby further amended by striking out sections 27C to 27G, inclusive, as appearing in section 3 of chapter 694 of the acts of 1974, and inserting in place thereof the following five sections:-

Section 27C. (1) When an affidavit of indigency, or any supplement thereto, is filed, the clerk or register shall forthwith bring it to the attention of the court. If the affidavit appears regular and complete on its face and indicates that the affiant is indigent, the court, upon a finding of the facts alleged therein, may grant such request for waiver, substitution or payment, by the commonwealth, with or without hearing in the case of normal fees and costs, but shall grant such request only after hearing in the case of extra fees and costs. Before making a finding of indigency, the court shall consider the following facts with respect to the applicant as of the time of hearing, in the immediate past and with respect to the immediate future: his age, education, training, physical and mental ability and number of dependents; gross and net income; regular and extraordinary expense, if any; assets and liabilities; whether or not he is a recipient of public assistance and for what purpose; and any other facts which are relevant to the applicant's ability to pay court costs.

If the court makes a finding of indigency, it shall not deny any request with respect to normal fees and costs, and it shall not deny any request with respect to extra fees and costs if it finds the document, service or object is reasonably necessary to assure the applicant as effective a prosecution or defense as he would have if he were financially able to pay. The court shall not deny any request without first holding a hearing thereon; and if there is an appeal pursuant to section twenty-seven D following a denial, the court shall set forth its written findings and reasons justifying such denial, which document shall be part of the record on appeal.

(2) The clerk of each court shall conspicuously post in the part of his office open to the public a notice specifying the indigency limits currently in force, and informing the public in plain language of the availability of waiver, substitution or payment by the commonwealth of fees and costs for indigent persons.

Section 27D. In any case where the court denies a request for waiver, substitution or payment by the commonwealth of fees and costs, the applicant make take an appeal as hereinafter provided. If the matter arises in the superior court, the land court or in a probate court, the appeal shall be to the single justice of the appeals court at the next sitting thereof; and if the matter arises in any district, municipal, juvenile or housing court, the appeal shall be to the superior court then sitting in the same county, if any, or, if not, to the superior court sitting in the nearest county or in Suffolk county. Upon being notified of the denial the applicant shall also be advised of his right of appeal, and he shall have seven days thereafter to file a notice of appeal with the clerk or register. Upon receipt of notice of appeal timely filed with the clerk or register shall forthwith notify the judge or justice, who shall set forth his written findings and reasons as provided in paragraph (1) of section twenty-seven C. The clerk or register shall then forward the affidavit and request, the court's findings and reasons for denial and any other documents on file relevant to the appeal, to the clerk of the court hearing the appeal, who, upon receipt thereof, shall set the matter down for speedy hearing and send notice to the parties. The court denying the request may, with or without motion, stay proceedings pending appeal; and the court hearing the appeal may enter or revoke such a stay. The decision of the court hearing the appeal shall be final with respect to such request.

Section 27E. Any party on whose behalf any fees or costs have been waived or paid by the commonwealth pursuant to sections twenty-seven C or twenty-seven F, or both, shall repay the total amount thereof to the clerk or register of the court if said party shall have recovered, as a result of the proceeding in which said fees or costs were waived or paid, an amount in excess of three times the total amount of said fees and costs. In any case in which any fees or costs have been so waived or paid, the court, upon the waiver or payment of any such fees or costs shall notify all parties of the total amount of said fees and costs to date and that any money judgement or settlement in favor of the party for whom said fees or costs were waived or paid which exceeds three times the total amount thereof shall be deposited with the clerk or register of the court in the following manner. The clerk or register shall notify all parties when the total amount of fees and costs has been so reimbursed. When said notification is received by the party obligated to pay such judgement or settlement or portion thereof, or if no such notification is received after the expiration of thirty days after the payment by said party of such fees or costs or his share thereof, said party shall promptly forward the remainder of the judgement or settlement to the party entitled to it. This procedure shall not be construed to excuse any person on whose behalf any fees or costs have been waived or paid from the obligation to repay the same as provided in this section.

Section 27F. The court may, upon its own motion or that of any party, order that the document, service or object for which a normal or extra fee or cost would be charged shall be provided by an alternative means at lower or no cost, if the substitute thereby provided is substantially equivalent and the provision thereof does not materially impair the rights of any party. In any such order the court may direct payment by the commonwealth of the cost of any substitute to the same extent that the court would but for this section have ordered payment by the commonwealth for the document, service or object in question.

Section 27G. The clerk shall receive from any indigent party or his attorney all bills and vouchers for any document service or object rendered to said party for which an order for payment by the commonwealth has been issued, and shall transmit said bills and vouchers and an attested copy of said order to the state treasurer.

(1) Sets forth or otherwise enables the creditor to identify the name and account number, if any, of the customer,

(2) Indicates the customer's belief that the periodic statement contains a billing error and the suspected amount of such error, and (2¹/₂) The disclosure required by clause (9) of subsection (b) may be made on the reverse side of the periodic statement, and.

SECTION 6. Said chapter 140C is hereby further amended by inserting after section 9A, inserted by chapter 109 of the acts of 1975, the following section:-

Section 9B. (a) After the creditor receives proper written notification of a billing error, unless the customer has subsequently agreed that the periodic statement is correct, the creditor shall:

(1) Not later than thirty days after receipt of such notification, mail or deliver written acknowledgment thereof to the customer's current designated address, unless the appropriate actions in clause (2) are taken within such thirty day period; and

(2) Resolve the dispute not later than two complete billing cycles, in no event more than ninety days, from the date of receipt of the notice of billing error and prior to any action by the creditor to collect any portion of the amount indicated by the customer as being a billing error or other charges computed on such disputed amount by:

(i) Correcting the customer's account in the full amount indicated by the customer to have been erroneously billed in accordance with clause (2) of subsection (b) and mailing or delivering to the customer a written notification of corrections; or

(ii) Correcting the customer's account by a differing amount from that indicated by the customer as being erroneously billed in accordance with clause (2) of subsection (b) and mailing or delivering to the customer an explanation of the change, accompanied by copies of documentary evidence of the customer's indebtedness if such evidence is requested by the customer; or

(iii) Mailing or delivering a written explanation or clarification to the customer, after having conducted a reasonable investigation, setting forth, to the extent applicable, the reasons why the creditor believes the amount was correctly shown on the periodic statement and, if the customer so requests, furnishing copies of documentary evidence of the customer's indebtedness with respect to the alleged billing error. In any case where the customer alleges that the periodic statement reflects property or services not delivered to the customer or his designee in accordance with any agreement made in connection with the transaction giving rise to the disputed amount, a creditor may not construe such amount to be correctly shown on the periodic statement unless the creditor determines, upon investigation, that such property or services were actually delivered, mailed, or otherwise sent to the customer or his designee and provides the customer with a written statement explaining such determination. In any case where the customer alleges that an amount of a transaction reflected on the periodic statement is incorrect because the person honoring the credit card has made an incorrect report to the card issuer of the amount which should have been charged, the card issuer may not construe such amount to be correctly reflected on the periodic statement unless the creditor determines, upon investigation, that the correct amount is shown on the periodic statement and provides the customer with a written statement explaining such determination.

(3) If, despite the establishment by the creditor of procedures reasonably adapted to assure compliance with clause (2) the creditor or his agent, within two business days after receiving proper written notification of a billing error pursuant to this section, inadvertently takes action to collect in contravention of said clause (2), such inadvertent action to collect will not be considered in violation of said clause (2).

(4) A notice on a subsequent billing statement clearly identifying any amount credited to the customer's account in response to a proper written notification of a billing error is one type of a proper transmittal of a written notification of corrections.

(b) (1) When a minimum periodic payment is permitted, the customer may withhold that portion of the minimum periodic payment which the customer believes is related to the amount in dispute. When the disputed amount is only a part of the total amount of an item, the customer remains obligated to pay the amount not in dispute, and any minimum periodic payment and finance charges, late payment charges, or other charges may be collected on the undisputed amount. If, at the completion of the procedure pursuant to subsection (a), it is determined that the customer owes some or all of the disputed amount, the creditor may require payment of any minimum periodic payment amounts which the customer did not pay because of the dispute. The creditor may not accelerate the customer's entire debt solely because the customer has exercised rights provided by this chapter.

(2) With respect to billing error, the creditor must credit the customer's account in any amount the customer does not owe, plus any finance charges, late payment charges, or other charges imposed as a result of such billing error.

(3) After or upon completion of the dispute procedure prescribed by subsection (a):

(i) If the initial periodic statement is determined to be without error with regard to the disputed item, the creditor shall promptly mail or deliver to the customer written notification of the amount owed with regard to the disputed item, unless such notification is not required by subsection (a), or

(ii) If the initial periodic statement is determined to be in error with regard to the disputed item and the creditor normally allows a period for the customer to pay such an item without incurring additional finance charges, late payment charges, or other charges, the creditor shall mail or deliver to the customer written notification of the total amount which the customer owes with regard to the disputed item and shall allow the customer the same number of days thereafter as he customarily or by credit agreement allows, whichever is longer, but in no case less than ten days, for the customer to pay undisputed amounts, or

(iii) If the initial periodic statement is determined to be in error with regard to the disputed item and the creditor normally does not allow a period for the customer to pay such an item without incurring additional finance charges, late payment charges, or other charges, the creditor shall promptly mail or deliver to the customer a notice of the total amount which the customer owes with regard to the disputed item.

(4) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit the mailing or delivery of periodic statements, which include disputed amounts, to the customer, provided that the creditor indicates on the face of the periodic statement that payment of the amount in dispute is not required pending the creditor's compliance with the provisions of this section.

(5) Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit any action by a creditor to collect any amount which has not been indicated by the customer to contain a billing error.

(c) (1) In the case of credit card plans where the cardholder has agreed to permit the card issuer to periodically pay the cardholder's indebtedness by deducting the appropriate amount from the cardholder's deposit account held by the card issuer, if the card issuer receives a proper written notification of a billing error within sixteen days from the date of mailing or delivery of the periodic statement on which the suspected billing error first appears, the card issuer shall:

(i) Prevent the automatic debiting of any disputed amounts if receipt of such notification precedes the automatic debiting of the cardholder's account or

(ii) Restore, no later than two business days after receipt of the notice, to the cardholder's deposit account any portion of the disputed amount which was previously deducted, if receipt of such notification follows the automatic debiting of the cardholder's account for any disputed amounts.

(2) Nothing in this subsection shall limit the cardholder's right to dispute an amount he believes to be in error within sixty days of the mailing or delivery of the erroneous periodic statement, as otherwise provided in this section.

(d) A creditor may not, prior to complying with the requirements of subsections (a) and (b), restrict or close an account with respect to which the customer has indicated a belief that such account contains a billing error solely because of the customer's refusal or failure to pay the amount indicated to be in error. This subsection shall not prohibit the creditor from applying any such amount to the customer's credit limitations.

(e) (1) After receiving a proper written notification of a billing error pursuant to this section neither the creditor nor his agent may directly or indirectly threaten to report adversely to any person on the customer's credit standing or credit rating because of the customer's failure to pay the amount specified in such notification as being a billing error, or any finance charges, late payment charges, or other charges imposed thereon, nor shall such amount be reported as delinquent to any third person unless such amount remains unpaid after the creditor has complied with all the requirements of this section and has allowed such customer the same number of days thereafter to pay as he customarily or by credit agreement allows, whichever is longer, but in no case less than ten days, for such customer to pay undisputed amounts so as to avoid the imposition of additional finance charges, late payment charges, or other charges. If, after establishment by the creditor of procedures reasonably adapted to assure compliance with this clause, the creditor or his agent, within two business days after receiving proper written notification of a billing error pursuant to this section, inadvertently takes action in contravention of this clause, such inadvertent action will not be considered in violation of this clause. Nothing in this clause prohibits a creditor from reporting the disputed amount or account as being in dispute; provided, that the creditor notifies the customer in writing of the name and address of each party to whom the creditor is reporting information concerning the disputed amount.

(2) If, within the time limit allowed for payment in clause (1), the creditor receives a further written notification from the customer that any portion of a billing error resolved under subsection (a) is still in dispute, the creditor may not report to any third party that such disputed amount is delinquent unless the creditor also reports that the amount or account is in dispute and, at the same time, notifies the customer in writing of the name and address of each party to whom the creditor is reporting information concerning the disputed amount. If, pursuant to clause (1) and this clause, a creditor has reported a disputed amount as being delinquent to any third person, the creditor shall report promptly in writing to any such person subsequent resolution of the reported delinquency. In writing shall include transmission by computer communication.

(3) If a creditor has reported an amount as being delinquent to any third person who is in the business of collecting and disseminating information relating to the credit of customers, and such amount is subsequently disputed by the customer in accordance with the requirements of subsection (v $\frac{1}{2}$) of section one, the creditor shall, within one billing cycle after receipt of proper written notification of the billing error, mail or deliver a written notice to each such third person to whom the delinquency was reported that the amount is in dispute. Written notice shall include transmission by computer communication.

(f) (1) Any creditor who fails to comply with the requirements of this section forfeits any right to collect from the customer the amount indicated by the customer to be a billing error and any finance charges, late payment charges, or other charges imposed thereon, provided that the amount so forfeited under this section shall not exceed fifty dollars for each item or transaction on a periodic statement indicated by the customer to be a billing error. In no case shall a creditor forfeit any amount for an error in a total figure or subtotal figure reflected on a statement which is caused solely by an error in another item which is the subject of a dispute, nor shall a creditor suffer any forfeit more than once for any item or transaction which may appear on a periodic statement.

(2) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit a customer's right under the provisions of section ten.

(g) This section does not apply to credit other than open end, whether or not a periodic statement is mailed or delivered, unless it is consumer credit extended on an account by use of a credit card.

Chap. 486. AN ACT CREATING THE BAYSIDE RESOURCE RECOVERY COUNCIL.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby created the Bayside Resource Recovery Council as a body corporate and politic and a public instrumentality. The council shall be subject to, and have the powers and duties conferred by, the provisions of this chapter.

SECTION 2. It is hereby declared that there currently exists a need for modern resource recovery facilities throughout the commonwealth, and especially in Essex county and its environs. Present facilities, including sanitary landfills, have proved to be inadequate and communities are unable to dispose of waste in a manner such that the environment is and will be properly maintained. In addition, since energy is currently in short supply and available only at high cost in the area, there is a need for the creation of new energy sources which reduce the demand for reliance on fossil fuels, a depletable resource. Solid waste is a reliable fuel, a renewable resource and increasing in quantity. In an effort to find new ways and means to meet the needs of the commonwealth, a new resource recovery facility is proposed to be constructed in the city of Beverly. Cities and towns in the vicinity propose to enter into long-term contracts with the facility for the disposal of solid waste and the sale of energy. It is the purpose of this chapter to create a council especially empowered to oversee, administer, and, as necessary, amend and extend such contracts in order to promote the public welfare of the region by facilitating the resolution of any environmental, structural, economic, or other problems which may arise from time to time concerning operations at the facility.

SECTION 3. The following words as used in this chapter shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the following meanings:

"Council", the Bayside Resource Recovery Council, created by this chapter to carry out the purposes expressed in section two hereof. The council shall be deemed to be an instrumentality within the meaning of chapter one hundred and eighteen C of the General Laws but chapter thirty-one of the General Laws and rules made thereunder shall not apply to any officer, agent or employee of the council.

"Facility", the resource recovery plant to be constructed in the city of Beverly on a site adjoining Elliott Street in said city and to have a planned maximum capacity of disposing of an average of approximately five hundred tons of solid waste in a twenty-four hour period.

"Long-Term Contract", a contract between a city or town and the operator of the facility, which commits the city or town to usage of the facility for a period of twenty or more years and which is authorized by a majority vote as defined in section one of chapter forty-four of the General Laws.

"Operator", the entity which operates the facility.

SECTION 4. The city of Beverly and any other city or town may enter into a long term contract; provided, however, that no such other city or town shall enter into a long term contract if, in the judgment of the operator of the facility, after making appropriate allowance for anticipated growth in production of solid waste from such cities and towns, any tonnage commitments under such a contract, when added to the tonnage commitment under the long term contract into which the city of Beverly shall have entered, will exceed the maximum capacity of the facility.

SECTION 4A. The council shall be composed of representatives of those cities and towns which enter into long term contracts. The council shall have no power to act under this act unless and until the city of Beverly becomes a member by entering into a long term contract.

The representatives of each city which has entered into a long term contract shall be the mayor of such city or a financial officer of such city designated by the mayor. The representative of each town which has entered into a long term contract shall be the chairman of the board of selectmen of such town or another selectman or financial officer of such town designated by the board of selectmen.

The representative of the city of Beverly shall be the chairman of the council. The council shall have the power to appoint agents, subcommittees and officers, including a secretary.

Meetings of the council shall be held at times and places to be designated by the chairman, by a majority of the council, or as stated in a written request to the chairman by the operator ten days prior to the requested date of the meeting. The provisions of sections twenty-three A to twenty-three C, inclusive, of chapter thirty-nine of the General Laws shall apply to the meetings of the council.

The council shall meet at least once annually, in February, at Beverly city hall unless the chairman or a majority of the council shall specify another place. Within ninety days after each June thirtieth, the council shall publish and mail to each member, the city or town designating each member, the operator and all other parties requesting the same, an annual report setting the activities of the council during the preceding year.

Individual members shall not be liable for their actions on the council except for gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Members shall not be entitled to compensation for their services on the council whether as members, officers or otherwise, but shall be entitled to reimbursement from the city or town appointing them to the council for all necessary out-of-pocket expenses, including travel expenses, incurred in the course of their duties as such members.

SECTION 5. The council is hereby authorized and required, within the limitations stated herein:-

(i) To cooperate with the owner of the facility and the operator in efforts to promote proper treatment of solid waste in the region and comply with pertinent environmental standards relating thereto;

(ii) To act on behalf of all cities and towns which have entered into long term contracts with the operator in administering, overseeing and, subject to the provisions of section six, amending and extending one or more of the long term contracts with the operator; such amendments may include, but are not limited to, adjustments in the rates charged by the operator for solid waste disposal;

(iii) To accept contributions of funds for any lawful purpose;

(iv) To employ attorneys, accountants, consultants and other agents or employees and to compensate them with any available funds;

(v) To do all things necessary or convenient in order to fulfill the purposes of this chapter.

All actions of the council shall be taken by a vote of a majority of the entire membership of the council. Each member shall have one vote except that the chairman shall have a second vote on any question as to which there is a tie vote after the chairman has cast his first vote. All votes shall be taken by recorded roll call. If the operator shall conclude that an amendment to one or more of the long term contracts is necessary to permit the continued safe and efficient operation of the facility, the operator shall submit the amendment to the council. If the council shall approve such amendment, it shall submit the amendment to each city or town which is a party to the contract or contracts to be amended. Each such city or town shall, by majority vote, accept or reject the amendment within sixty days.

The council shall determine at its annual meeting but in any event not later than February twenty-eighth in each year the amount required for the performance of its duties under the first paragraph of section 5 for the twelve month period commencing the following July first and shall certify such amount to the operator and to the cities and towns designating the members of the council. A majority of such cities and towns may, by action of the city council in the case of a city or of the board of selectmen in the case of a town, amend the amount so determined by instructing their representatives to so vote not later than the March thirty-first next following such February twenty-eighth. Not later than the April fifteenth next following such March thirty-first the council shall certify the amended amount to the operator and to the cities and towns designating the members of the council. The amount or the amended amount, as the case may be, so certified shall be apportioned among the cities and towns designating the numbers of the council in the same proportions as the tonnages of solid waste to be delivered to the facility or otherwise paid for by each such city and town during such twelve month period under the long term contract to which each such city and town is respectively a party are of the aggregate tonnages of solid waste to be so delivered or otherwise paid for during such twelve-month period under all such long term contracts. Not later than the April fifteenth mentioned above the council shall certify to each such city and town the amount so apportioned to it. Amounts so payable shall be paid to the treasurer of the city of Beverly for the account of the council. The amounts so received by said treasurer shall be held by him separate and apart from other funds in his custody and shall be disbursed by him in payment of expenses incurred by the council as certified by its chairman with respect to such twelve month period in the exercise of its powers and performance of its duties hereunder.

SECTION 6. At or before the expiration of any long term contract, a member city or town may elect to extend, for a period not to exceed ten years, its participation in the council and to enter into an extension of a long term contract. Any amendment to a long term contract, except as provided in section five, shall be approved by each city and town which is a party to such contract and the operator; provided, however, that the council may without the approval of the member city or town amend a long term contract only as necessary to comply with any general or special law of the commonwealth, and any federal law or rule or regulation promulgated by the United States Environmental Protection Agency or any other agency of the United States having jurisdiction over the operation of the facility or the disposal of solid waste.

Nothing in this act, however, shall be deemed to obviate the necessity of procuring the consent to any amendment or extension of a long term contract, wherever the same is required by law or existing contracts, indentures, bonds or other legal instruments, of the city of Beverly acting by and through its Industrial Development Financing Authority, the trustee for holders of bonds issued by the city of Beverly, the operator and other parties in interest other than the cities and towns which are parties to long term contracts.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section four of chapter forty of the General Laws, a city or town is authorized to enter into a long term contract for an initial period not in excess of thirty-five years, or into an extension or extensions of a long term contract for a period or periods which together with the initial period do not exceed thirty-five years, or into an amendment of a long term contract extending the initial period thereof not in excess of thirty-five years.

SECTION 7. The chairman or secretary of the council shall keep a record of each action of the council, shall periodically notify each city and town of such actions, and shall maintain a central registry of all long term contracts and other contracts and amendments and extensions thereto which shall be available for public inspection.

SECTION 8. No member of the council shall either directly or indirectly be in any manner personally interested in any contract or agreement with the operator for any matter or cause whatsoever other than in his representative capacity.

SECTION 9. Notwithstanding any provision of chapter sixteen of the General Laws to the contrary, the council may agree that the operator should make payments to the city of Beverly out of payments received by the operator from users of the facility and the city may receive such payments from the operator in lieu of taxes and assessments, which payments from the operator may be based upon valuation of the property, gross receipts, net receipts, a combination of these factors or any other similar basis. Any in lieu of tax payments to be made by the operator pursuant to any such agreement shall be added to the price paid by users of the facility on the basis of the tonnage of solid waste which such user delivers to the facility or some other reasonable basis. The provisions of the first paragraph but not the provisions of the succeeding paragraphs of section twenty of chapter forty D of the General Laws shall apply to the facility and the operator.

SECTION 10. This act, being necessary for the welfare of the commonwealth and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to accomplish its purpose.

SECTION 11. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

The Authority shall forward its contribution, together with all amounts withheld from the salaries or wages of its employees as provided in paragraph (a) of section eight of said chapter thirty-two A and all amounts paid by an employee as provided in paragraph (b) of said section, to the state employees group insurance commission at such time and in such manner as said commission may prescribe.

Each employee of the Authority as of January first, nineteen hundred and seventy-nine, and each employee of the Authority thereafter shall become a member of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system. All others who are members of the state employees' retirement system on account of employment by the Authority shall continue to be members thereof and subject to the laws applicable thereto. The Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system shall reimburse the commonwealth for the Authority's proportionate share of any amounts expended by the commonwealth under the provisions of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws for retirement allowances to or on account of the Authority's employees.

Whenever a person who is a member of the state employees' retirement system on account of employment by the Massachusetts Port Authority shall become a member of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system pursuant to this section, that employee shall be entitled to all creditable service and all rights and benefits to which he was entitled as a member of the state employees' retirement system. Within ninety days of such transfer by a member of the state employees' retirement system to the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system, the amount of the accumulated total deductions credited to his account in the annuity savings fund of the state employees' retirement system shall be transferred and credited to the annuity savings fund of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system.

Anything to the contrary in section twenty-two of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws notwithstanding, the amount to be appropriated by the Massachusetts Port Authority for any fiscal year for the pension fund as described in subparagraph (3) of said section 22 shall be the sum of (a) the normal pension cost, as hereinafter defined, incurred by the authority for that year plus (b) the amount necessary to amortize in equal annual installments over a period of twenty years the unfunded past service liability of the authority as of July first, nineteen hundred and seventy-eight. For purposes of this section the term "past service liability" of the Authority shall mean the excess of the present value of all future pension benefits payable by the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system as determined under the entry age normal actuarial cost method with frozen initial liability over the present value of all future normal costs. The terms "unfunded past service liability" shall mean the past service liability less the assets of the system. The term "normal pension cost" as applied to the authority for any year shall mean the amount, as determined under the entry age normal actuarial cost method with frozen initial liability, required to finance pension benefits earned by Authority employees during that year as members of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system.

Any funds paid into the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system pursuant to this section or any provision of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws shall be used solely for the purpose of paying the costs of operation of the system. The provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed to constitute a contractual right and benefit on behalf of members of the system who are or may be retired pursuant to said chapter thirty-two, and no amendment or alteration shall be made which would result in a diversion of said fund for other purposes.

Every person who immediately prior to being transferred to the authority was subject to the provisions of sections fifty-six to sixty, inclusive, of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws, shall continue subject to the provisions of said sections; provided, however, that the words "retiring authority", as used in said sections shall mean the members of said Authority; and provided further, that the amount of all retirement allowances payable under said sections by virtue of this act shall be paid by the Authority, and the commonwealth shall reimburse the Authority for its proportionate share of any amounts so paid. Upon the retirement of any such person under said sections fifty-six to sixty, inclusive, the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement board shall refund to the person so retired the amount of his accumulated deductions.

SECTION 21. Chapter 465 of the acts of 1956 is hereby amended by striking out section 25 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

(b) Should the general court dissolve the Authority under the provisions of subparagraph (a), the members of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system on the effective date of the dissolution of the authority who do not then transfer to or enter service in a governmental unit in which a contributory retirement system established under the provisions of sections one to twenty-eight, inclusive, of said chapter thirty-two, or under corresponding provisions of earlier laws or of any special law, shall continue to be members of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system and shall then be entitled to apply for and receive retirement allowances from such system in the amounts, upon the terms, subject to the conditions and with all of the related rights provided by and under sections six, seven, ten and twelve of said chapter thirty-two.

(c) Effective upon the date of dissolution of the Authority (1) the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system shall continue under the provisions of sections 1 to 28 inclusive of said chapter 32; (2) the management of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system shall be transferred to the state board of retirement provided for in section eighteen of chapter ten of the General Laws which board shall have with respect thereto the general powers and duties set forth in subdivision (5) of section twenty of said chapter thirty-two; (3) all data, files, papers and records and other materials of the retirement board provided for in paragraph (b) of subdivisions (4 7/8) of said section twenty shall be transferred to and held by the state board of retirement; (4) the funds of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system in the custody of the secretary-treasurer of the Authority shall be transferred to the state treasurer who shall thereafter be and perform the duties of the treasurer-custodian of such funds which shall then be held by him for the exclusive benefit and use of the members of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system and their beneficiaries; and (5) the retirement board provided for in said paragraph (b) of subdivision (4 7/8) shall be abolished; provided, however, that the members and officers thereof shall continue to be authorized to do all such things and take all such action as may be necessary or desirable to be done or taken by them to effectuate the transfers to be made pursuant to this section.

(d) Effective upon the date of dissolution of the Massachusetts Port Authority or a default in its obligations under chapter thirty-two of the General Laws, the payment of all annuities, pensions, retirement allowances and refunds of accumulated total deductions and of any other benefits granted under the provisions of sections one to twenty-eight, inclusive, of said chapter thirty-two are hereby made obligations of the commonwealth in the case of any such payments from funds of the Massachusetts Port Authority employees' retirement system.

Chap. 494. AN ACT FURTHER REGULATING THE CONDUCT OF HORSE AND DOG RACING.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to provide forthwith for the continuation of the racing industry in the commonwealth and the revenue to the commonwealth from taxes on said industry, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. It is hereby declared, that the continued operation of the racing industry in the commonwealth is a matter of public interest; that several factors have contributed to said industry's decline and possible demise, namely: high pari-mutuel commissions for the commonwealth, small purses for horse and dog owners, rapidly increased interstate competition, uncoordinated expansion, and rapidly escalating costs for the industry; that several existing laws of the commonwealth prevent the industry from restoring itself; that the commonwealth, being the recipient of over thirty million dollars annually in revenue, must assume a large share of responsibility in restoring said industry to a healthy position; and that, therefore, it is the intent of this act to redistribute the authorized racing dates within the commonwealth in a manner consistent with the best interests of racing and the public, to improve the quality of racing in the commonwealth, to insure that facilities at the racetracks are maintained in a condition consistent with public safety and convenience and humaneness to the racing animals, to instill public confidence in the integrity of the sport, to encourage bettors to patronize racetracks within the commonwealth rather than those of bordering states, to assure the retention of existing jobs and to provide new employment in said industry and ultimately to increase the revenue paid to the commonwealth from a growing industry.

SECTION 2. Section 48 of chapter 6 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the fourth paragraph, as most recently amended by section 1 of chapter 960 of the acts of 1977, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

The commission may appoint and remove a secretary and other assistants who shall not be exempt from the provisions of chapter thirty-one. The commission shall employ an auditor, who shall be a certified public accountant, who shall devote full time during normal business hours to the duties of the position, and who shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter thirty-one and section nine A of chapter thirty. The auditor shall serve at the pleasure of the commission, which shall determine his salary in accordance with the provisions of chapter thirty. The commission may also appoint the following positions which shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter thirty-one and section nine A of chapter thirty:- one semi-senior accountant, the junior accountants, the senior bookkeepers, the senior chemists, the assistant chemists, one head clerk, the principal clerks, the senior clerks, the junior clerks, the chief of laboratory, the laboratory technicians, the supervisors of licenses and registration, state racing commission and one head administrative assistant.

SECTION 3. Section 2 of chapter 128A of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the second paragraph, as most recently amended by chapter 43 of the acts of 1971, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

Such application shall be filed with the commission on or before the first day of October of the calendar year preceding the calendar year for which application requests a license to be issued under this chapter; and the commission shall grant or dismiss such application not later than the fifteenth day of November next following; provided, however, that a supplementary application by a licensee for a subsequent license in the calendar year for which a license had theretofore been issued to such licensee and relating to the same premises as were specified in the previously issued license, and supplementary applications by a licensee for additional licenses under section four, may be filed with the commission at any time prior to the expiration of said calendar year for which a license had theretofore been issued to said licensee; and the commission shall grant or dismiss such applications within thirty days of the date of filing. Such applications shall be signed and sworn to, if made by an individual, by such individual; if made by two or more individuals or a partnership, by one of such individuals or by a member of such partnership, as the case may be, if made by a trust, by a trustee of such trust, and, if made by an association or corporation, by the president or vice president thereof. The commission may prescribe forms to be used in making such applications.

With such application there shall be delivered to the commission a certified check or bank draft, payable to the commission, weekly in advance for the full amount of the license fee required by this chapter.

SECTION 4. Said chapter 128A is hereby further amended by inserting after section 5A the following section:-

Section 5B. (a) One-quarter of one per cent of the total amount deposited at all racing meetings by the patrons wagering at such meetings shall be used to reimburse the commonwealth for funds appropriated by the general court for the operation and general administration of the commission for the fiscal year next following the calendar year in which said total amount was wagered. Said one-quarter of one per cent shall be retained by the commission from the sums paid daily to the commission pursuant to section five and shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(b) The commission is hereby authorized to make an assessment in each fiscal year against each licensee conducting a racing meeting in the commonwealth. Said assessment shall be made at a rate as shall be determined and certified annually by the commission as sufficient to produce revenue to reimburse the commonwealth for funds appropriated for the operation of the commission; provided, however, that the total assessment for all licensees, not including the revenues received pursuant to paragraph (a), shall not exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Said assessment shall be made proportionately against each licensee on the basis of the amount withheld by each licensee less the sum paid to the commission as determined by section five. Each licensee against whom an assessment is made shall pay over daily to the commission a pro rata share of the assessment determined by dividing the total assessment of that license by the number of dates granted to the licensee pursuant to section three. If the commission fails to expend in any fiscal year the total amount assessed under this paragraph, any amount unexpended shall be credited against the assessment to be made in the following year and the assessment in such following year shall be reduced by such unexpended amount; provided, however that, if no racing dates are granted in the following year to any licensee, the portion of unexpended funds due such licensee as a credit shall, at the request of such licensee to the state treasurer, be refunded.

SECTION 5. Section 6 of said chapter 128A, as appearing in section 3 of chapter 374 of the acts of 1934, is hereby amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following paragraph:-

Within sixty days after the close of a racing meeting, each licensee conducting a horse or dog racing meeting shall submit, on forms prescribed by the commission, financial statements certified to the commission by a certified public accountant; provided, however, that said licensee with the prior written approval of the commission, may submit said statements annually within sixty days after the close of its fiscal year, if any. The commission, or its duly authorized representatives, shall at all reasonable times have access to all records and books of the licensee for the purpose of examining and certifying the same.

SECTION 6. Said chapter 128A is hereby further amended by striking out sections 7 and 8 and inserting in place thereof the following two sections:-

Section 7. The commission shall appoint one steward to each track licensed to conduct racing meetings, who shall not be subject to chapter thirty-one or section nine A of chapter thirty. The commission shall assign, by regulation, duties to be performed by him. The compensation of the commission-appointed steward shall be fixed by the commission.

The commission may also appoint one or more other representatives to attend each racing meeting held or conducted under a license issued under this chapter, and the appointment of said representatives shall not be subject to chapter thirty-one or section nine A of chapter thirty. The compensation and duties of each such representative shall be fixed by the commission.

Each such representative appointed by the commission to attend a racing meeting shall have full and free access to the space or enclosure where the pari-mutuel or certificate system of wagering is conducted or supervised for the purpose only of ascertaining whether or not the provisions of this chapter are being properly observed. He shall also, for the same purpose only, have full and free access to the books, records and papers pertaining to such pari-mutuel or certificate system of wagering. All employees of the commission assigned to the tracks for security purposes and all police officers assigned to the commission shall be under the control and authority of one of the representatives of the commission at each track. Said representative shall have full and free access to any other areas used in connection with the conduct of racing. He shall investigate, ascertain and report to the commission in writing under oath as to whether or not he has discovered any violation at such meeting of any of the provisions of this chapter, and, if so, the nature and character of such violations. Such report shall be made within ten days after the termination of the duties of such representative at any racing meeting.

If any such report shows any violation of this chapter, the commission shall transmit a copy of such report to the attorney general for such action as he shall deem proper.

Section 8. The commission shall apply to the department of public safety for the assignment of a complement of police officers to the commission on a regular basis and said department shall assign such complement to the commission. The commission shall assign such police officers to guard and protect the lives and safety of the public, property and the animals to be raced at any such meeting, and to perform any such other duties which may be required by said commission in order to maintain fair and honest pari-mutuel racing at any such meeting. The police officers so assigned shall, except in the case of an emergency, and while on duty at any such racing meeting, be subject to the operational authority of the commission; provided, however, that such assignment or reassignment shall not in any way impair any rights to which any officer may be entitled.

The commission shall from funds available pay to the department of public safety the cost of the salaries of the police officers so assigned from funds appropriated to the commission.

All assignments and reassignments to the commission, except as the commissioner of public safety shall determine that an emergency exists or is threatened, shall be subject to the approval of the racing commissioner. Nothing herein shall prevent licensees from applying to the metropolitan district commission police if they have jurisdiction in the area where a racing meeting is to be held, or to the police department of a city or town wherein a racing meeting is to be held, in order that such police agency may furnish a police detail for safety or traffic purposes at any racing meeting authorized by this chapter. The total cost for any such police detail shall be a sum equal to the salaries of the police officers comprising such detail, plus a sum to cover the administrative expenses incurred by the department of each such police officer.

The commission shall employ as many veterinarians, chemists and laboratory technicians as it deems necessary to insure the legitimate performance of the animals to be raced at any racing meetings authorized by this chapter and to protect the health of such animals and the department of public safety shall provide that such veterinarians, chemists and laboratory technicians shall have access to the department's laboratory facilities.

SECTION 7. Said chapter 128A is hereby further amended by striking out section 9A, as amended by chapter 454 of the acts of 1956, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Such rules and regulations shall also provide for the fingerprinting of all licensees. Every person so licensed shall be required to display and wear a badge containing a photograph. Such rules and regulations may also provide for the suspension and revocation of licenses so granted and for the imposition on persons so licensed of reasonable forfeitures and penalties for the violation of any rule or regulation prescribed by the commission and for the use of the proceeds of such penalties and forfeitures.

The commission shall have access to criminal offender record information of applicants for any license granted pursuant to this chapter, including officers, directors and beneficial owners of ten per cent or more of the stock of a corporation applying for such a license, and for applicants for employment by the commission. Such access shall be exercised in accordance with sections one hundred and sixty-seven to one hundred and seventy-eight, inclusive, of chapter six.

SECTION 7A. Said chapter 128A is hereby further amended by inserting after section 9A the following section:-

A copy of every such rule, regulation or condition shall be filed with the clerk of the senate and shall be forthwith referred by him to the joint committee on government regulations.

Said committee shall file a written report with the clerk of the senate within thirty days after the filing of the copy thereof with said clerk, stating whether said rules, regulations and conditions are consistent with the statutory provisions under which they were promulgated.

Said rules, regulations and conditions shall take effect unless

If the general court prorogues within sixty days of the filing, with the clerk of the senate of such rules, regulations and conditions, the clerk of the senate shall refer the same to the committee on government regulations the next session of the general court.

The clerk of the senate shall notify the commission of the action taken thereon by the general court.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, or any other general or special law or rule or regulation to the contrary, the commission may adopt emergency rules or regulations. Such emergency rules or regulations shall be duly promulgated and take effect after a finding by the commission that any delay in the effective date or the application of said rule or regulation would:

- (a) seriously injure an important public interest.
- (b) substantially frustrate legislative policies, or
- (c) seriously damage a person or class of persons without serving any important public interest.

The commissioner shall file a copy of any such emergency rule or regulation accompanied with such findings pertinent thereto with the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives and the clerk of the senate shall forthwith refer such emergency rule or regulation to the joint committee on government regulations.

SECTION 8. Said chapter 128A is hereby further amended by striking out section 10A, inserted by chapter 102 of the acts of 1960, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 10A. Any commissioner or representative of the commission or any person licensed to conduct a horse or dog racing meeting, including racing meetings conducted in connection with state or county fairs, shall have the right to refuse admission to or eject from its premises any person whose presence on said premises is detrimental, in the sole judgement of the commissioner or representative of the commission or of said licensee, to the proper and orderly conduct of a racing meeting. Any person who has been notified by any commissioner or representative of the commission or a licensee of a racing meeting not to enter or attempt to enter its premises and who thereafter, without the express approval of any commissioner or representative of the commission or the licensee, enters or attempts to enter such premises while a racing meeting is being conducted therein, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both. Any person so excluded by any commissioner or representative of the commission or by a licensee shall have a right of appeal to the commission. The commission shall hold a hearing within ten days after any such person requests an appeal and may after such hearing by vote allow such person admission to such meeting.

SECTION 9. Said chapter 128A is hereby further amended by inserting after section 11B the following section:-

Section 11C. Except in the case of a publicly held corporation, no person, firm, partnership, trust, association or corporation who has been granted a license to conduct a horse or dog racing meeting, or an officer, director or the beneficial owner of ten per cent or more of the stock of a corporation holding such a license, shall sell, transfer, convey or cause to be transferred, singly or in concert with others, more than ten per cent of the value or stock of the facility or corporation so licensed without first obtaining the written approval of the commission.

The commission shall approve such sale, transfer or conveyance unless it finds that the consideration therefor is (i) inadequate or (ii) without good cause, (iii) that the sale or transfer results in an undesirable concentration of ownership of racing facilities within the commonwealth, or (iv) that the sale or transfer has an adverse impact upon the integrity of the racing industry. A publicly held corporation, shall, prior to the sale, transfer or conveyance of more than ten per cent of the stock of the corporation, file notice of such action with the commission. A copy of any filing required by state or federal securities law regarding notice of such sale, transfer or conveyance shall be simultaneously filed with the commission. The commission shall have the same rights as to transferees as it would have with respect to original applicants for licensure.

SECTION 10. Notwithstanding the provisions of section four of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A, during the calendar year nineteen hundred and seventy-eight through nineteen hundred and eighty-three, the fee for the license provided for in section three of said chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A of the General Laws shall not exceed one thousand dollars for each day of any horse or dog racing meeting. Nothing in this section shall affect the fee paid pursuant to section two of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A for horse or dog racing held in connection with a state or county fair; provided, that said racing is conducted at a racetrack owned and operated by said fair. Said fees shall from time to time be fixed and established by the state racing commission after a public hearing. In fixing and establishing said fee, said commission shall consider the cost to the commonwealth of regulating the conduct of racing, the size of the attendance, the amount wagered and other relevant factors.

SECTION 11. During the calendar years nineteen hundred and seventy-eight through nineteen hundred and eighty-three, each running horse track licensee under section three of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A, other than a licensee holding a racing meeting in connection with a state or county fair, shall daily pay their respective portions of the so-called breaks, as defined in section five of said chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A into a trust fund to be known as the Running Horse

Capital Improvement Trust Fund under the direction and supervision of the state racing commissioners, as they are individuals, as trustees of said trust. Said trustees shall deposit such monies in one or more banks, at interest, within the commonwealth.

Said trustees may expend without appropriation all or any part of the Running Horse Capital Improvements Trust Fund to a running horse track licensee for use as all or part of a capital expenditure for alterations, additions, replacements, changes, improvements or major repairs to or upon the property owned or leased by such licensee and used by it for the conduct of racing; provided, however, that no licensee shall receive an amount in excess of the amount attributable to said licensee in such trust fund. Said commission may prescribe terms and conditions for such grant. Such licensee shall comply with all applicable provisions of chapter one hundred and forty-nine of the General Laws unless such compliance is waived by the commission in writing for cause.

No such expenditure for capital improvements shall be approved by the trustees if such improvements are to be accomplished pursuant to a contract with a person, corporation, partnership, trust or any combination of the same or any other entity owned wholly or in part by a person, corporation, partnership, trust or any combination of the same or any other entity which owns or operates or hold any interest in any racetrack in the commonwealth.

Nothing herein contained shall preclude a running horse track from making capital improvements not funded in whole or in part from such funds; provided, however, that all sums approved by said commission hereunder shall be expended in their entirety for capital improvements; and provided, further, that any revision by said licensee in the making of capital improvements as hereinbefore provided, shall require separate written approval by the trustees therefor. All financial statements required under section six of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A of the General Laws shall be accompanied by a statement signed under the pains and penalties of perjury by the chief financial officer of the licensee, setting forth the capital improvements made with funds obtained under this section and further certifying that such expenditures are treated as capital expenditures in the accompanying financial statement.

Funds deposited by licensees and the commission in the Running Horse Capital Improvement Trust Fund shall remain in said fund until expended under this section; provided, however, that any amount in said account as of December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and eighty-three which has not been so expended or as to which no binding commitment has been made by said trustees shall thereupon be deposited in the General Fund.

SECTION 12. During the calendar years nineteen hundred and seventy-eight through nineteen hundred and eighty-three, each harness horse track licensee under section three of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A, other than a licensee holding a racing meeting in connection with a state or county fair shall daily pay their respective portions of the so-called breaks, as defined in section five of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A into a trust fund to be known as the Harness Horse Capital Improvements Trust Fund under the direction and supervision of the state racing commissioners, as they are individuals, as trustees of said trust. Said trustees shall deposit such monies in one or more banks, at interest, within the commonwealth.

Said trustees may expend without appropriation all or any part of the Harness Horse Capital Improvements Trust Fund to a harness horse track licensee for use as all or part of a capital expenditure for alterations, additions, replacements, changes, improvements or major repairs to or upon the property owned or leased by such licensee and used by it for the conduct of racing; provided, however, that no licensee shall receive an amount in excess of the amount attributable to said licensee in such trust fund. Said trustees may prescribe terms and conditions for such grant. Such licensee shall comply with all applicable provisions of chapter one hundred and forty-nine unless such compliance is waived by the commission in writing for cause. No such expenditure for capital improvements shall be approved by the trustees if such improvements are to be accomplished pursuant to a contract with a person, corporation, partnership, trust or any combination of the same or any other entity owned wholly or in part by a person, corporation, partnership, trust or any combination of the same or any other entity which owns or operates or holds any interest in any racetrack in the commonwealth.

Nothing herein contained shall preclude a harness horse track licensee from making capital improvements not funded in whole or in part from such funds; provided, however, that all sums approved by said commission hereunder shall be expended in their entirety for capital improvements; and provided, further, that any revision by said licensee in the making of capital improvements as hereinbefore provided shall require separate written approval by the trustees therefor. All financial statements required under section six of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A of the General Laws shall be accompanied by a statement signed under the pains and penalties of perjury by the chief financial officer of the licensee, setting forth the capital improvements made with funds obtained under this section and further certifying that such expenditures are treated as capital expenditures in the accompanying financial statement.

Funds deposited by licensees and the commission in the Harness Horse Capital Improvement Trust Fund shall remain in said fund until expended under this section; provided, however, that any amount of said account as of December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and eighty-three which has not been so expended or as to which no binding commitment has been made by said trustees shall thereupon be deposited in the General Fund.

SECTION 13. Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause (5) of the first paragraph of section two and of clauses (a) to (g), inclusive, of the third paragraph of section three of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A of the General Laws, during the calendar year nineteen hundred and seventy-eight through nineteen hundred and eighty-three, licenses to conduct racing meetings shall only be issued under the following conditions:

- (a) no license shall be issued for more than an aggregate of two hundred race days in any one year at all running horse racing meetings combined, not including running horse racing meetings held in connection with state or county fairs during the calendar year nineteen hundred and seventy-six or nineteen hundred and seventy-seven at a racetrack owned and operated by said fair or at a racetrack in Berkshire county;

(b) no license shall be issued for more than an aggregate of three hundred and ten racing days in any one year at all harness horse racing meetings combined, including harness horse racing meetings at state or county fairs; provided, however, that one hundred and thirty such days may be awarded only for racing in Hampden county during the period between the first day of January and the fourteenth day of April and between the twenty-second day of October and the thirty-first day of December, and that the remaining one hundred and eighty such days may only be awarded during the period between the fifteenth day of April and the twenty-first day of October in any one year; provided, further, however, that ten of such remaining days may only be awarded in connection with a state or county fair;

(c) no licenses shall be issued for more than an aggregate of eight hundred and eighty racing days in any one year at all dog racing meetings combined, excluding dog racing meetings conducted at a racetrack owned and operated by a state or county fair in Essex county; provided, however, that two hundred and ten such days may be awarded only for racing in Hampden county during the period between April fifteenth and October twenty-first, and not more than four hundred of the remaining such days may be awarded in any one county; and provided, further, that in Bristol county, not more than two hundred and thirty days, inclusive of fairs, may be held between January first and July seventh, and that not more than one hundred and seventy days, inclusive of fairs, may be held between August fourteenth and December thirty-first; and provided, further, that the remaining two hundred and seventy such days may only be awarded during forty-five weeks in any calendar year;

(d) licenses shall permit racing meetings only between the hours of ten o'clock ante meridian and twelve o'clock midnight. The state racing commission shall grant authorized dates at such times that are consistent with the best interest of racing and the public; provided, however, that dates for racing meetings held in connection with a state or county fair may only be awarded during the period between June fifteenth and October fifteenth; provided further, however, that no such dates may be awarded in Bristol, Norfolk or Plymouth counties during the period between the eighth day of July and the thirteenth day of August; and, provided further, however, that except for racing meetings held in connection with a state or county fair during the calendar year nineteen hundred and seventy-seven at a racetrack owned and operated by said fair and meetings held after seven o'clock postmeridian on a Saturday or a legal holiday, no licenses shall be issued to permit racing at racetracks at the same time of day within twenty miles of one another. Said commission may, in its discretion, on written application from a racing licensee made at least seven days prior to the date or dates of any proposed change of time stated in said racing license and without necessity for any further public hearing, change the hours of conducting such race meeting between any of the aforesaid hours, notwithstanding the hours set forth on the license; provided, however, that if, by reason of national emergency, night illumination is forbidden by public authority, then said commission may, in its discretion, issue a license to permit racing at such hours as said commission may determine between the hours of ten o'clock ante meridian and twelve o'clock midnight. For the purpose of imposing the fee provided for in section ten of this act, computing the sums payable to the racing commission pursuant to section fourteen of this act, and counting the number of days authorized by clauses (a), (b) or (c) of this section, any racing held after seven o'clock postmeridian on the same day on which racing is held at the same racetrack prior to that hour shall be considered a separate day of racing; said commission shall not grant a license for more than one performance on a Sunday to any licensee if another licensee, excluding a state or county fair who raced during the calendar year nineteen hundred and seventy-seven at a racetrack owned and operated by said fair, within twenty miles has applied for a license for a performance on said Sunday; in such case, said commission shall award each competing licensee a license for one performance on said Sunday;

(e) no licenses shall be issued to permit running horse race meetings to be held or conducted, except in connection with a state or county fair, at the same time at more than one racetrack within the commonwealth, nor at any time at a racetrack located within fifty miles of another racetrack within the commonwealth, one mile or more in circumference; provided, that licenses may be issued to permit such meetings to be held or conducted at the same time at not more than two racetracks if such tracks are seventy-five miles apart;

(g) no license shall be issued to any person who is in any way in default, under the provisions of this act, in the performance of any obligation or in the payment of any debt to the racing commission; provided, however, that no license shall be issued to any person who has, within ten years of the time of filing the application for such license, been convicted of violating the provisions of section five of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight A of the General Laws; and

SECTION 19. The provisions of this act are severable, and if any provision or its application to any set of facts or circumstances shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision of such court shall not impair any of the remaining provisions or the application of said provision to any other set of facts or circumstances.

Chap. 495. AN ACT AMENDING THE LAW RELATING TO INDUSTRIAL REVENUE FINANCING.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purposes which are to clarify the law relating to the issue of revenue bonds for industrial development, to strengthen and add needed flexibility to such law so as to facilitate its use in overcoming substantial existing unemployment and avoiding future unemployment, to authorize the financing of additional pollution control facilities and solid waste disposal facilities under such law in order to reduce the cost of pollution control and the cost of energy for substantial existing and future needs of the commonwealth, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

An industrial development financing authority is a board of the municipality and not a separate entity. Programs and activities authorized under this chapter are to be carried out by an authority in the name and on behalf of a municipality or municipalities and contracts made, property acquired and earnings, if any, in connection with a project are those of the municipality by and through which the authority acts.

The commonwealth reserves the power at its discretion, and at any time to alter or change the structure, organization programs or activities of an industrial development financing authority, including the power to terminate the authority, subject to any limitation on the impairment of contracts entered into by the municipality acting by and through the authority. Any net earnings of a municipality acting by and through an industrial development financing authority, beyond that necessary for retirement of indebtedness incurred by it or to implement the public purpose or program of the municipality acting by and through the authority may not inure to the benefit of any person other than the municipality. Upon dissolution of an industrial development financing authority, title to all property owned by the municipality acting by and through the authority shall continue to be vested in the municipality. In the case of a consolidated authority, the property shall be divided upon dissolution among the municipalities represented by it in such proportions as the municipalities may from time to time agree or, in the absence of such agreement, in the proportions prescribed by section eight to the extent the same are applicable or, to the extent said proportions are not applicable in proportions determined by the finance board to be equitable.

SECTION 3. Section 3 of said chapter 40D is hereby amended by striking out, the second paragraph, as appearing in section 1 of chapter 772 of the acts of 1967, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

Membership on the board of directors of an industrial development financing authority shall be restricted to residents of the municipality or in case of a consolidated authority to residents of the constituent municipality from which they are appointed. No officer, director, agent, partner, stockholder, creditor or employee of a user may be a director of such authority. No person shall be disqualified from serving as a director by reason of holding any other appointive or elective office in the municipality.

SECTION 4. Section 4 of said chapter 40D is hereby amended by striking out the second paragraph, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

A director who ceases to be a resident of the city or town shall be removed upon the date of his change of residence by operation of law. A director who becomes a director, officer, agent, partner, stockholder, creditor or employee of a user shall thereupon be removed by operation of law.

SECTION 5. Section 6 of said chapter 40D is hereby amended by striking out the second paragraph, as amended by chapter 887 of the acts of 1975, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

In any city or town having a population of fifty thousand or more, no director, officer, agent or employee of an authority shall, directly or indirectly, have any financial interest in any property to be included in, or any contract for property or materials to be furnished or used in connection with, any project of such authority or any user. In any city or town having a population of less than fifty thousand, no member of an authority who is a director, officer, agent, partner, stockholder, creditor or employee of a prospective user may vote or participate in any way in making a determination to approve the sale of a municipal bond issue the proceeds of which will be used by said prospective user. Whoever violates any provision of this paragraph shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year or both.

SECTION 6. Said chapter 40D is hereby further amended by striking out section 7, as most recently amended by section 4 of chapter 206 of the acts of 1977, and inserting in place thereof, the following section:-

Section 7. (a) For the purpose of carrying out a project as authorized by this chapter, a municipality acting by or through an industrial development financing authority shall have the following powers to the extent that the same are not elsewhere in this chapter expressly limited:

(i) to acquire, purchase, hold, lease as lessee and use any franchise, facilities, or property, real, personal or mixed, tangible or intangible, wherever located, within the municipality or contiguous thereto or any interest therein necessary or desirable for carrying out the purposes of the authority, and to sell, mortgage, lease as lessor, transfer and dispose of any property or interest therein at any time acquired by it;

(ii) to construct and to improve, maintain and repair industrial development pollution control and solid waste disposal facilities;

(iii) to issue bonds as herein provided;

(iv) to make contracts of every name and nature and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient for the carrying on of its business;

(v) without limitation of the foregoing, to borrow money and accept grants from and to enter into contracts, leases or other transactions with the commonwealth or its agencies or instrumentalities, any federal agency, any municipality, bank or other financial institution, corporation or other authority organized under this chapter;

(vi) to pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber all or any of the revenues or receipts or property or interests in property of the authority as security for bonds of the authority;

(vii) in the event of a default by a user under a financing document to do all things deemed by it necessary or desirable to preserve, protect or operate any project or other property furnished as security under such financing document and the rights of the holders of any bonds secured by the revenues from such financing document;

(viii) to loan the proceeds of any issue of bonds to a user in order to finance the cost of a project, which loan may be either unsecured or secured by an interest in the project or other tangible or intangible property or by a combination of the foregoing.

(b) An authority shall have no power at any time or in any manner on behalf of a municipality or otherwise to exercise the power of eminent domain and nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to confer upon any municipality any power to take any property or interest therein by eminent domain. An authority shall have no power to pledge the faith and credit or taxing power of the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof. No such authority shall engage in the usual promotion of industrial development activities.

(c) Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to permit the financing by a municipality of a plant for the manufacture or distribution of gas or electricity except (i) back-up power generating or distribution facilities or other facilities for the supply of gas or electricity to occupants of an industrial development project financed under this chapter, (ii) pollution control facilities, and (iii) solid waste disposal facilities.

SECTION 7. Said chapter 40D is hereby further amended by striking out section 8, as amended by chapter 245 of the acts of 1973, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 8. Any financing document authorized by this chapter shall:

(i) be for a term not in excess of ninety-nine years;

(ii) provide for payments sufficient to amortize the principal and interest of all bonds and other obligations of the municipality issued or incurred to pay the cost of the project and current expenses of the municipality incurred in connection therewith; and

(iii) provide in the case of the lease of a project by the municipality to a user that the lessee shall pay to the municipality acting by and through an authority or otherwise assume and pay all other cost of maintaining and operating the project including taxes and assessments on the lessee's interest in the project or excises as hereinafter in this chapter provided.

Any financing document may contain any other provision deemed necessary or desirable by the authority, including without limitation, in the case of the lease of a project by the municipality to a user, renewal or purchase options but any purchase option shall provide at a minimum for payment sufficient to reimburse the authority for all its current expenses incurred in connection with the project and to pay in full all bonds and other obligations of the authority together with interest thereon issued or incurred in connection with the project and unpaid at the time such option is exercised together with premiums, if any, payable in the event such bonds are called for redemption at the earliest practicable date. Any such purchase option may provide for payment of no additional consideration if all such expenses, bonds, or other obligations and interest have been paid in full when such option is exercised.

Any amounts paid by a user under any renewal or purchase option in excess of that necessary to pay such expenses, bonds or other obligations and interest shall be paid over on receipt by the authority, or directly, if the existence of the authority has terminated, to or for the account of the municipality which established the authority. If the authority is a consolidated authority, such payments shall be divided among the municipalities establishing such consolidated authority in such proportions as they may from time to time agree or, in the absence of agreement, in proportion to the average assessed value of the leased property for the three years next preceding the acquisition thereof by the constituent municipalities acting by and through the consolidated authority.

SECTION 8. Section 9 of said chapter 40D, as appearing in section 1 of chapter 772 of the acts of 1967, is hereby amended by striking out the fourth and fifth sentences and inserting in place thereof the following two sentences:- Such trust agreement may pledge or assign the interest of the municipality acting by and through the authority as lessor, seller, mortgagee or lender under the financing document and may convey or mortgage any project or other property held thereunder or any part thereof. Such trust agreement shall contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the issuing municipality in relation to the construction, acquisition, equipping or improvement of any project or other property held under the financing document and the duties to be imposed on a user or other party with respect thereto, including the improvement, maintenance, operation, repair and insurance thereof, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys and may contain provisions for the employment of consulting engineers and other experts and specialists in connection with such projects or property.

SECTION 9. Said chapter 40D is hereby further amended by striking out section 10, as most recently amended by chapter 325 of the acts of 1975, and inserting in place thereof, the following section:-

Section 10. All bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board of the issuing authority. The principal amount of each issue of bonds shall be sufficient after due allowance for bond discount and expense to pay the estimated cost of the project or projects on account of which such bonds shall be issued, less amounts, if any, contributed or to be contributed from other sources to pay the cost of such project or projects.

All bonds shall mature at such time or times not exceeding fifty years from their date, as may be determined by the authority, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the authority prior to the issuance of the bonds. Each issue of bonds shall be serial or term or a combination of both types, but in either case amortization of principal shall be scheduled to occur at least annually, beginning not later than three years after the date of the bonds or the date or estimated date of completion of the project, whichever is later, or at such later time as the finance board deems reasonable. The principal to be amortized in any year, together with the interest or estimated interest to come due in such year, shall not be more than two and one half times the principal to be amortized and interest or estimated interest to come due in any earlier year in which principal is required to be amortized. The term of the bonds shall not exceed the useful life of the project or, if issued to finance more than one project, the average useful life of the projects being financed, plus in either case the period if any from the date of the bonds to the estimated date of completion of the project, or such longer term as the finance board deems reasonable. A determination by the authority, if made, shall be conclusive evidence of the useful life of the project or the average useful life of the projects being financed, as the case may be. In determining the reasonableness of commencing amortization after the three year period or of continuing amortization beyond the estimated useful life, the finance board may take into account such factors as it deems relevant, including, without limitation, the financial capability of the user.

The authority shall determine the form and the manner of execution of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest, which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the commonwealth. In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter or any recitals in any bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter, all such bonds shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments under the laws of the commonwealth. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form or both, as the authority may determine, and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest, and for the interchange of coupon and registered bonds. The authority may sell such bonds in such manner, either at public or private sale, and for such price as it may determine to be for the best interests of the municipality.

Bonds issued under this chapter shall not constitute a debt or pledge of the faith and credit of the issuing municipality, but such bonds shall be payable solely from the income or revenues received under a financing document or in connection with a project or projects or from funds derived from the issuing or refunding bonds authorized under section seventeen. All such bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that the bonds are not an obligation of the issuing municipality but are payable solely from the rents or other revenues pledged for their payment.

Prior to the preparation of the definitive bonds, the issuing municipality may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when the same are available for delivery and which shall be deemed to be of the same series as said definitive bonds. The municipality may also provide for the replacement of any bonds which shall become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost. Bonds may be issued under the provisions of this chapter without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board, bureau or agency of the commonwealth or the governing body, and without any other proceedings or the happenings of any other conditions or things other than those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by this chapter, including a receipt of a certificate of convenience and necessity from the department of commerce and development.

Such bonds shall not be included in computing the borrowing capacity of a municipality under chapter forty-four or any other limitation on the issuing of general indebtedness by a municipality and shall not be subject to the provisions of any other general or special law or chapter provision relating to the issuance or sale of bonds or notes by a municipality.

Not more than fifty per cent of any series of bonds shall be sold by an authority acting for and in behalf of a municipality or by underwriters acting as first purchasers thereof to a user of a project financed by the proceeds of such series of bonds.

SECTION 10. Section 12 of said chapter 40D is hereby amended by striking out subsections (2) and (3) and inserting in place thereof the following two subsections:-

(2) The department of commerce and development shall have issued a certificate of convenience and necessity therefor. To obtain such certificate of convenience and necessity, an authority shall first submit to the state industrial finance board, hereinafter called the finance board, an application therefor in such form and containing such information, data and exhibits as may from time to time be prescribed by the finance board, to which application shall be appended as part thereof, in substantially the form proposed to be executed, copies of the trust indenture or agreement, including the form of bonds, securing the bonds which are the subject of the petition, the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance of the bonds in question and the financing document.

None of the documents constituting the application need set forth the price at which the bonds are to be sold or matters dependent on such price, such as, but not limited to, redemption provisions.

The finance board shall review the complete application and shall refer it to the department of commerce and development with a favorable recommendation, if it finds that:

(a) the user is a responsible party;

(b) the provisions of the financing document are reasonable and proper, and in making such determination the finance board may take into account such factors as it deems relevant including, without limitation, the remedies of the municipality upon default of the user;

(c) in the case of the lease or sale of a project by the municipality to a user, the provisions of the lease or installment sale agreement relative to the rights of the municipality and the lessee or purchaser, as the case may be respecting the disposition of the project upon payment in full with interest of all the bonds are in the public interest;

(d) the trust agreement protects the public interest affected by its provisions;

(e) the project will provide employment, or security against loss of employment, having a reasonable relationship to the principal amount of the bonds to be issued therefor, taking into account, among other things, the investment per employee of comparable industrial facilities;

(f) adequate provision is being or will be made to meet any increased demand upon community public facilities that might result from the project;

(g) the size and scope of the project is such that a definite benefit to the economy of the commonwealth may reasonably be expected to result from the construction or improvement thereof;

(h) the bonds, the trust agreement and the financing document comply with the provisions of this chapter;

(i) in cases where the project consists of or includes the acquisition, equipping or improvement of existing facilities and such acquisition, equipping or improvement is not incidental to the construction and equipping of entirely new facilities, the completed project will be of suitable type and scope for its intended purpose;

(j) the payments under the financing document are adequate to pay the current expenses of the authority in connection with the project and the principal of the bonds as they come due and interest thereon;

(k) the project has, so far as feasible, been located in a low income area of a municipality so that employment opportunities will become available to residents of such area, and, in the case of a project including a commercial enterprise which is not otherwise qualified as an industrial enterprise or incidental thereto, the project is located in a predominantly commercial area for which a commercial area revitalization plan has been adopted by the governing body of the municipality and approved by the secretary of communities and development and the project is consistent with the plan. The purposes of a commercial area revitalization plan shall be to prevent or arrest and reverse the decay of the area covered by the plan. The plan shall describe the area and set forth the development or redevelopment, including public improvements, proposed to carry out the purposes of the plan. Nothing herein shall preclude the undertaking of such development or redevelopment through urban renewal or an economic development and industrial corporation or by other means, subject to the laws applicable thereto. In exercising the power of approval granted by this clause, the secretary shall, among other lawful and relevant considerations, seek to avoid and correct the deterioration of older commercial centers which results from the movement of commercial enterprise to previously noncommercial areas.

The finance board shall consult with the appropriate local and regional planning agencies to ascertain the relationship of a proposed project to any existing state, local or regional comprehensive plan.

Such review shall be accomplished as expeditiously as practicable and in any event the finance board shall make a favorable or unfavorable recommendation with respect to the application within twenty days, Sundays and holidays excluded, of its submission. If the finance board make an unfavorable recommendation, it shall state its reasons therefor and offer the applicant an opportunity to submit an application amended so as to meet the finance board's objections. A favorable recommendation may contain such conditions as the finance board deems in the public interest, such as, but not limited to, a requirement that contracts for the construction of the project or for the acquisition of materials therefor let by the authority be awarded as a result of competitive bidding. The finance board may not, however, in any way require that any contract let by a user be made the subject of competitive bidding.

Upon receipt of a favorable recommendation from the finance board, the department of commerce and development shall promptly issue a certificate of convenience and necessity which shall be made subject to the conditions recommended by the finance board. No certificate of convenience and necessity shall be issued in the absence of a favorable recommendation of the finance board.

The issuance of a certificate of convenience and necessity shall conclusively evidence that the finance board has made such determinations of facts or circumstances, has given such approvals and has reached such opinions as are prerequisite to the issuance of such certificate.

(3) The bonds, the financing document, the trust agreement and the bond issue resolution, as executed or adopted as the case may be, are substantially in the form submitted to the finance board.

SECTION 11. Section 14 of said chapter 40D, as appearing in section 1 of chapter 772 of the acts of 1967, is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:- All rentals or other monies payable under a financing document shall be paid to the trustee under the trust agreement securing the bonds.

SECTION 12. Said chapter 40D is hereby further amended by striking out section 18, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 18. All monies of any authority from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority, except the proceeds of bonds and rentals or other revenues from a project or under a financing document which secures bonds, which shall be paid as provided in the trust agreement securing such bonds. Such monies shall be deposited in the first instance by the treasurer in one or more banks or trust companies in one or more special accounts, and each of such special accounts to the extent the same is not insured shall be continuously secured by a pledge of direct obligations of the United States of America, of the commonwealth or of the municipality in which the authority is established, having an aggregate market value exclusive of accrued interest, at all times at least equal to the balance on deposit in such account. Such securities shall either be deposited with the treasurer, or be held by a trustee or agent satisfactory to the authority. All banks and trust companies are authorized to give such security for such deposits. The monies in said accounts shall be paid out on the warrant or other order of the chairman of the authority, or of such other person or persons as the authority may authorize to execute such warrants or orders. Every authority shall file an annual report with the department of commerce and development and with the municipality creating the authority on forms prepared and distributed by the said department. Every authority in a municipality which has issued bonds under this chapter shall have its books, accounts and records audited annually by a certified public accountant and a copy of his audit report shall be attached to and be made a part of the aforesaid annual report. A concise financial statement shall be published annually, at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the city or town in which the principal office of the authority is located. If such publication is not made by the authority, the city or town shall publish such statement at the expense of the authority. If the authority fails to make such an audit, then the controller, auditors or accountant designated by the municipality are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine at the expense of the authority the accounts and books of the authority, including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, financing documents, sinking funds, investments and other matters relating to its finances, operations and affairs.

The state auditor shall have the right to examine the books, accounts and records of any authority.

SECTION 13. Said chapter 40D is hereby further amended by striking out section 19, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 19. Any municipality may appropriate money for the benefit of an authority for organizational expenses, and for operating expenses and to transfer for use by any such authority, with or without consideration, any interest in real or personal property or interest therein for facilities, not directly related to a particular project or projects. Any municipality may appropriate money for planning and other preliminary expenses for a particular project or projects; provided, however, that such municipality shall be reimbursed from the proceeds of bonds issued to finance such project for all such advances.

SECTION 14. Section 21 of said chapter 40D, inserted by section 2 of chapter 1017 of the acts of 1971, is hereby amended by striking out paragraph (a) and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:- (a) A municipality acting by and through an authority may finance solid waste disposal facilities in the same manner provided by this chapter for industrial development facilities, except as otherwise hereinafter provided.

SECTION 15. Said section 21 of said chapter 40D, as so inserted, is hereby further amended by striking out paragraphs (g) and (h) and inserting in place thereof the following two paragraphs:-

(g) All cities, towns and other public agencies and private parties are authorized from time to time to contract with users or operators of solid waste disposal facilities established or to be established under the provisions of this section for the disposal of refuse, garbage and waste or for the purchase or use of by-products or residue resulting from the operation of such facilities. Such contracts may be for such periods as agreed upon by the parties and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may include provisions for the delivery of minimum amounts of refuse, garbage and waste and payments for the use of the facilities to be based thereon, unit prices which may be graduated, and adjustments thereof. Such payments, unit prices or adjustments need not be specifically stated in said contract but may be determined by formulae if set forth therein. Such contracts may include provisions for arbitration and reasonable restrictions against other disposal by cities, towns, or other public agencies of the substances covered thereby while the contract is in force and disposal under the contract is practicable. In the case of a city or town, such contracts may be entered into by officers acting under the authority of the city council of a city or the town meeting in the case of a town, which authorization may be general. The obligations represented by the payments to be made in such a contract shall not be included in any determination of the borrowing capacity of such city or town under any limitation on its indebtedness. Such a contract shall not be subject to section four of chapter forty and shall not be precluded by the acceptance of section nine A of chapter ninety-two. To the extent of uncommitted capacity, any municipality shall be entitled to contract with a user or an operator of solid waste disposal facilities established or to be established hereunder.

(h) The establishment and operation of solid waste disposal facilities hereunder shall be subject to applicable laws except as otherwise provided herein. Reasonable requirements may be imposed thereon by proceedings or regulations pursuant to section one hundred and fifty-A of chapter one hundred and eleven but the assignment of a site may not be rescinded, other than on appeal from the original assignment, pursuant to said section or otherwise. In the event that solid waste disposal facilities financed in whole or in part hereunder include or are to include facilities for the production of steam as a by-product, either the financing authority or a corporation, whether domestic or foreign, or other person owning, occupying or operating the facilities shall have the powers granted by section twelve of chapter one hundred and fifty-eight but the production and sale of such steam and the foregoing grant of powers shall not cause such a corporation to be otherwise subject to chapter one hundred and fifty-eight or excluded from chapter one hundred and fifty-six or one hundred and fifty-six B or cause such a corporation to be deemed a heat or power company for the purposes of the corporation laws of the commonwealth.

SECTION 16. Said chapter 40D is hereby further amended by striking out section 22, as amended by section 4A of chapter 206 of the acts of 1977, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 22. (a) A municipality acting by and through an authority may finance pollution control facilities in the same manner provided by this chapter for industrial development facilities, except as otherwise hereinafter provided.

(b) The requirements of clauses (e), (g), (i), and (k) of subsection (2) of section twelve shall not apply to projects for pollution control. It shall be necessary, however, that the state industrial finance board find that a substantial public benefit will result from the project and in the case of pollution control facilities for water, the division of water pollution control in the department of environmental quality engineering, or, in the case of pollution control facilities for air, the commissioner of environmental quality engineering, has found that the project as designed is in furtherance of the purpose of abating or controlling water pollution or air pollution, as the case may be.

(c) An authority having industrial development powers or solid waste disposal powers, heretofore or hereafter organized, shall also have pollution control powers under this section but the provisions of this section shall not affect the power of a municipality, acting by and through an authority, to finance pollution control facilities as a part of an industrial development project or solid waste disposal project.

Chap. 496. AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE MASSACHUSETTS INDUSTRIAL FINANCE AGENCY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections eleven and twelve of chapter twenty-three A of the General Laws are hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. Section 13 of said chapter 23A, as appearing in section 2 of chapter 772 of the acts of 1967, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 2 and 3, the words "section eleven and under the provisions of".

SECTION 3. Chapter 23A of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out sections 29 to 35, inclusive, and inserting in place thereof the following ten sections:-

Section 29. It is hereby found and declared that:

The high cost as well as the lack of availability of industrial loans for small and medium size businesses makes it difficult for the thousands of these industrial enterprises in Massachusetts to hold their present employment levels or to expand employment.

As a result of the continuing increase in the costs of construction or rehabilitation, municipal taxes, heating and electricity expenses, maintenance and repair expenses and the cost of land, the commonwealth suffers from structural economic weaknesses which contribute to chronic unemployment and underemployment.

The lack of gainful employment puts additional pressure on the state's welfare programs and increases the cost of unemployment compensation to the existing enterprises of the commonwealth.

The cost of facilities to abate pollution and protect the safety of workers has been close to prohibitive for existing enterprises and has added to the disincentives for capital expansion and employment growth within the commonwealth.

It is an important function of government to increase opportunities for gainful employment and improve living conditions, assist in promoting a balanced and productive economy consistent with modern environmental standards, to obtain, analyze and disseminate meaningful economic data and encourage the flow of private capital for investment in productive enterprises and otherwise to improve the prosperity, health and general welfare of the inhabitants of the commonwealth.

The availability of financial assistance and suitable facilities are important inducements to industrial and commercial enterprises to remain and locate in the commonwealth.

Therefore, it is in the best public interest of the commonwealth to promote the prosperity and general welfare of all citizens by stimulating industrial growth and expansion by encouraging a larger flow of private investment funds from banks, investment houses, insurance companies and other financial institutions, including pension retirement funds, to help satisfy the need for industrial expansion.

The continuation of the powers of the Massachusetts Industrial Mortgage Insurance Agency and the establishment of the Massachusetts Industrial Finance Agency for such purpose and for the purpose of carrying out the additional powers herein granted is necessary to encourage and promote the provisions of productive and environmentally sound economic facilities in areas of the state, including especially areas of high unemployment, where such facilities are needed to meet the aforesaid needs.

The advantages of this program to the general public would include an increase in the gainful employment of the citizens; a decrease in welfare and unemployment compensation costs; an increase in the tax base of the commonwealth; an increase in the inventory of industrial sites and modern industrial buildings suitable to house new or expanding industrial enterprises; the expansion, reclamation or renovation of existing buildings to house new or expanding industrial and recreational enterprises and lower cost capital for the abatement of industrial air and water pollution and general improvement for the disposal of industrial waste.

It is therefore expressly declared that the provisions of sections twenty-nine to thirty-eight, inclusive, and the powers therein conferred upon the agency constitute a needed program in the public interest and serve a necessary and valid public purpose for which public money may be expended or invested.

There is hereby established an industrial mortgage insurance fund to which shall be credited all premiums received by the agency, any other sums realized by the agency pursuant to its industrial mortgage loan insurance agreements, whether by way of subrogation or otherwise, and any state appropriations or other monies made available to the fund. The fund shall be held in the custody of one or more banks or trust companies having a principal place of business in the commonwealth. The fund shall be held for the security of the holders of industrial mortgage loans insured under section thirty-four. Income earned by the fund may be used for the purposes of the agency. The trust agreement may pledge premiums and other monies which are to be deposited in the fund. Such pledge shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made. The premiums and other monies so pledged and thereafter received by the fund or by the trustees in its behalf shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge and shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind against the fund, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof.

Section 34. (a) The agency is empowered:-

(1) to provide insurance of loans, or their debt service, made to finance the acquisition, construction or alteration, or any combination thereof, of industrial development facilities, pollution control facilities, and solid waste disposal facilities;

(2) to enter into agreements for such insurance;

(3) to fix a rate or rates of premiums for such insurance; and

(4) to exercise such other powers as are necessary or incidental to the foregoing.

(b) The insurance provided by the agency shall be payable solely from the industrial mortgage insurance fund established by section thirty-three and shall not constitute a debt or pledge of the faith and credit of the commonwealth or of any subdivision thereof.

(c) The board shall not approve the insurance of a loan unless it makes the following findings:-

(1) that the loan is to be secured by a first mortgage of real or personal property or both satisfactory to the board; or by the assignment of the interest of the lessee under a real estate lease for not less than ninety-nine years, having a period of not less than seventy-five years to run from the date of the loan;

(2) that the mortgagor and mortgagee are responsible parties;

(3) that the occupant of the project or projects is a responsible industrial occupant;

(4) that the provisions of the mortgage loan are reasonable and proper, and in making such determination the board may take into account such factors as it deems relevant including, without limitation, the provisions for maintaining, insuring and repairing the project by the mortgagor and the remedies of the board upon default of the mortgagor;

(5) that the project will provide or retain employment having a reasonable relationship to the principal amount of loans to be insured thereof, taking into account, among other things, the investment per employee of comparable industrial facilities;

(6) that adequate provision is being or will be made to meet any increased demand upon community public facilities that might result from the project;

(7) that the size and scope of the project is such that a definite benefit to the economy of the commonwealth may reasonably be expected to result from the construction or improvement thereof; and the employment created shall be substantially primary employment;

(8) that the principal amount of the loan does not exceed ninety per cent of the value of the industrial development facility and eighty per cent of the cost of the machinery and equipment;

(9) that the duration of the loan shall not exceed thirty years on an industrial development facility exclusive of machinery and equipment and fifteen years on machinery and equipment; and that the authorization provisions are satisfactory to the board;

(10) that the insurance or loan agreement provides for subrogation on terms satisfactory to the board upon payment of insured debt service from the fund;

(11) that the public interest is adequately protected by the terms of the loan and of the insurance agreement;

(12) that the insurance of the loan will not cause the insured debt service coming due in any one calendar year on account of an insured loan or loans for any one mortgagor to exceed twenty per cent of the amount in the fund when the finding is made; and

(13) that the insurance of the loan will not cause the balance of all insured loans to exceed nine times the amount in the mortgage insurance trust fund when the finding is made.

In addition to the above, the board shall not authorize insurance of a loan for pollution control facilities unless it makes the finding which the finance board is required to make under paragraph (b) of section twenty-two of chapter forty D.

The board shall consult with the appropriate local and regional planning agencies to ascertain the relationship of a proposed project to any existing local or regional comprehensive plan; that, so far as feasible, the project is to be located in an area of generally high unemployment; and that employment opportunities will become available to the residents of such area.

As used in this section, the terms "industrial development facilities" or "facilities" shall, unless the context requires otherwise, mean industrial enterprises, recreation or research and development enterprises or parts thereof, including any or all buildings, docks, wharves, improvements, additions, extensions, replacements, appurtenances, lands, rights in land, riparian rights, water rights, franchises, machinery, equipment, furnishings, landscaping, utilities, approaches, roadways, pollution control facilities and other facilities necessary or desirable in connection therewith or incidental thereto, such as, but not limited to, office, warehouse, terminal, transportation and backup power generating facilities, and solid waste disposal facilities.

Section 35. (a) The agency may finance industrial development facilities and pollution control facilities and waste disposal facilities and exercise the powers of an industrial development financing authority under the provisions of chapter forty D throughout the commonwealth and may issue bonds in furtherance of its purposes in the same manner provided by said chapter for local authorities. For this purpose the provisions of said chapter relating to local authorities and to municipalities acting by and through them and to their bonds shall apply to the agency and its bonds except as otherwise provided in this section. The powers of municipalities acting by and through local authorities under chapter forty D shall not be affected by the provisions of this section, which shall be deemed to provide an alternative means of financing.

(b) The following provisions of chapter forty D shall not apply to the agency: sections two, three, four, five, six, the third paragraph of section eight, the fourth paragraph of section ten, section twelve, except the findings required to be made under subsection (2), the sixth to eleventh sentences, inclusive, of sections eighteen, nineteen and twenty-one. No amendment of chapter forty D shall apply to the agency or its powers hereunder unless specifically made applicable thereto.

(c) No bonds shall be issued under the chapter unless the agency shall have first made the findings required to be made by the finance board in chapter forty D, except that in the case of bond anticipation financing no findings shall be required concerning a trust agreement as specified in clauses (d) and (h) of subsection (2) of section twelve of said chapter forty D.

(d) Bonds issued by the agency shall not constitute a debt or a pledge of the faith and credit of the commonwealth, but shall be payable solely from the sale or lease of a project or projects and the other income or revenues derived therefrom or under a financing document in connection therewith or from funds derived from the issuing of refunding bonds authorized by section seventeen of chapter forty D. All bonds issued by the agency shall contain on their face a statement to the effect that the bonds are not an obligation of the commonwealth but are payable solely from the funds specifically pledged for their payment.

(e) The agency may combine for the purposes of a single offering the bonds of more than one project.

(f) The agency may insure the bonds which it issues pursuant to section thirty-four, whether such bonds be those of a single project or more than one project combined in a single offering.

(g) The agency shall inform sponsors of projects in appropriate cases of available federal programs to guarantee or otherwise assist in financing certain types of activities and shall assist sponsors in such cases in implementing such programs through commercial and investment bankers.

(h) (1) When the agency receives an inquiry from a potential sponsor of a project, it shall promptly notify in writing (a) the industrial development financing authority if such an authority exists in its city or town where such project is proposed to be financed; or (b) the mayor or board of selectmen in said city or town where no such authority exists.

(2) In the case of a city or town having an industrial development financing authority the agency shall provide such authority with all practicable assistance in completing the said project promptly. If, however, the board of the agency shall find that such local authority has not acted in a timely fashion in processing the application of the project's sponsor or other aspects of the project without reasonable grounds for such delay, the agency may undertake the financing of the project directly with the sponsor without the intervention of the local authority.

(3) At any time a city or town may request the agency to assume the role of an authority in financing a project.

(4) If a city or town having an industrial development finance authority has rejected, in a timely fashion, a proposed project, it shall notify the agency of that rejection, and the agency shall not undertake that project in that city or town.

Section 36. The bonds of the agency and any loan or extension of credit which is the subject of insurance pursuant to sections thirty-three and thirty-four, shall be legal investments in which all public officers and public bodies of the commonwealth, its political subdivisions, all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, banking associations, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including cooperative banks, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the commonwealth, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control, or belonging to them. The bonds and any loan or extension of credit which is the subject of insurance pursuant to sections thirty-three and thirty-four are also hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by all public officers and bodies of the commonwealth or any agency or political subdivisions thereof and all municipalities and public corporations for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the commonwealth is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

Section 37. The agency shall annually submit to the governor, the chairman of the senate ways and means committee, the chairman of the house ways and means committee, the commissioner of administration, and the comptroller within ninety days after the end of its fiscal year, a complete and detailed report setting forth its fiscal year, a complete and detailed report setting forth its operation and accomplishments; its receipts and expenditures during such fiscal year in accordance with the categories and classifications established by the agency for its operating and capital outlay purposes; and its assets and liabilities at the end of the fiscal year, including a schedule of its loans insured and commitments and the status of the funds.

Section 38. The books and records of the agency shall be subject to an annual audit by the auditor of the commonwealth.

SECTION 4. Section 1 of chapter 40D of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out clause (h), as appearing in section 1 of chapter 772 of the acts of 1967.

SECTION 5. The first paragraph of subsection (2) of section 12 of said chapter 40D, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 4, the words "state industrial finance board, hereinafter called the finance board" and inserting in place thereof the words:- board of directors of the Massachusetts Industrial Finance Agency, hereinafter called the MIFA board.

SECTION 6. The second paragraph of said section 12 of said chapter 40D is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 1, 7, 39, 45, 48, 49 and 53, the word "finance" and inserting in place thereof the word:- MIFA.

SECTION 7. All persons appointed to the board of directors of the Massachusetts Industrial Mortgage Insurance Agency before the effective date of this act shall be deemed to have been appointed to the board of directors of the Massachusetts Industrial Finance Agency as of the effective date of this act, and their term of office in the latter position shall expire on the day their term of office in the former position would have expired.

SECTION 8. The provisions of sections twenty-nine to thirty-eight, inclusive, of chapter forty D, inserted by section three of this act, being necessary for the welfare of the commonwealth and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect their purpose.

The MTDC is hereby placed in the executive office of manpower affairs but shall not be subject to the supervision or control of said office or of any board, bureau, department or other agency of the commonwealth except as specifically provided in this chapter.

The corporation shall be governed and its corporate powers exercised by a board of directors, which shall consist of eleven directors: the secretary of manpower affairs, the secretary of administration, one person appointed by the governor who is a cabinet secretary or officer of the commonwealth having experience appropriate to the functions of MTDC, provided that any of the foregoing persons may designate another person from time to time to act in his place for a particular purpose, including the right to attend and vote at a specific meeting of the board, and eight other members appointed by the governor, including persons having skills and experience in providing capital to new, innova-

The president of the corporation shall be appointed with his salary established by the board and shall serve at the pleasure of the board. The president shall be the chief executive, administrative and operational officer of the corporation and shall direct and supervise administrative affairs and the general management of the corporation. The president may, subject to the general supervision of the board, employ other employees, consultants, agents, legal counsel and advisors, and shall attend meetings of the board.

Neither the corporation nor any of its officers, agents, employees, consultants or advisors shall be subject to the provisions of sections nine A, forty-five, forty-six and fifty-two of chapter thirty, or, to chapter thirty-one, or to the provisions of chapter two hundred of the acts of nineteen hundred and seventy-six.

The board annually may elect one of its members as vice-chairman, shall elect a secretary and a treasurer, and may elect or appoint other officers as it may deem necessary, none of whom, other than the vice-chairman, need be members of the board. Board members and officers who are not regular, compensated employees of the MTDC shall not be liable to the commonwealth, to the MTDC or to any other person as a result of their activities, whether ministerial or discretionary, as such board members or officers except for willful dishonesty or intentional violations of law. its property in such amounts, and from such insurers, as may be necessary or desirable;

(n) to accept any and all donations, grants, bequests and devises, conditional or otherwise, of money, property, service or other things of value which may be received from the United States or any agency thereof, any governmental agency, or any institution, person, firm or corporation, public or private, to be held, used or applied for any or all of the purposes specified in this act, in accordance with the terms and conditions of any such grant. (u) exercise any other powers of a corporation organized under chapter one hundred and fifty-six B.

Section 4. There is hereby established an investment fund to which shall be credited any state appropriations or other moneys made available to the fund.

The corporation shall hold the investment fund in an account or accounts separate from other funds. The corporation shall invest and reinvest the fund and the income thereof, in only two ways: (1) in the purchase of qualified securities issued by enterprises for the purpose of raising seed capital, provided that such investment complies with the requirements of this chapter and the board makes the findings in connection with such investment required by this section five; and (2) in the purchase of such securities as may be lawful investments for fiduciaries in the commonwealth. All appropriations, grants, contractual reimbursements and all other funds designated for this purpose, and the proceeds of all investments made pursuant to the preceding sentence, may be used to pay for the proper general expenses of the MTDC.

Unless otherwise specified, all moneys of the MTDC from whatever source derived shall be paid to the treasurer of the MTDC. Said moneys shall be deposited in the first instance by the treasurer in one or more national banks, trust companies or banking companies in compliance with section thirty-four of chapter twenty-nine. Funds in said accounts shall be paid out on the warrant or other order of the treasurer of the MTDC or of such other person or persons as the board may authorize to execute such warrants or orders.

The corporation shall purchase qualified securities issued by an enterprise only after (a) receipt of an application from the enterprise which contains a business plan including a description of the enterprise and its management, product and market, a statement of the amount, timing and projected use of the capital required, a statement of the potential economic impact of the enterprise, including the number, location and types of jobs expected to be created, and such other information as the board shall request, and (b) approval of the investment by the board after the board shall find, based upon the application submitted by the enterprise and such additional investigation as the staff of the MTDC shall make, and incorporate in its minutes that:

(1) the proceeds of the investment will only be used to cover the seed capital needs of the enterprise except as hereinafter authorized;

(2) the enterprise has a reasonable chance of success;

(3) MTDC participation is necessary to the success of the enterprise because funding for the enterprise is unavailable in the traditional capital markets, or because funding has been offered on terms that would substantially hinder the success of the enterprise;

(4) the enterprise has the reasonable potential to create a substantial amount of primary employment within the commonwealth and this employment, so far as feasible, may be expected to be for residents of target areas as defined in chapter forty F; and offers employment opportunities to unskilled and semiskilled individuals;

(5) the entrepreneur and other founders of the enterprise have already made or are prepared to make a substantial financial and time commitment to the enterprise;

(6) the securities to be purchased are qualified securities;

(7) there is a reasonable possibility that the MTDC will recoup at least its initial investment; and

(8) binding commitments have been made to the MTDC by the enterprise for adequate reporting of financial data to the MTDC, which shall include a requirement for an annual or other periodic audit of the books of the enterprise, and for such control on the part of the MTDC as the board shall consider prudent over the management of the enterprise, so as to protect the investment of the MTDC, including, in the discretion of the board and without limitation, right of access to financial and other records of the enterprise.

If the MTDC makes a direct investment, the board shall also find that:

(9) a reasonable effort has been made to find a professional investor to make an investment in the enterprise as a co-venture, and that such effort was unsuccessful. Such findings when made by the board shall be conclusive.

The corporation shall not make investments in qualified securities issued by enterprises in excess of the following limits:

(1) Not more than five hundred thousand dollars shall be invested in the securities of any one enterprise, except that not more than a total of one million dollars may be invested in the securities of any one enterprise, if the board shall find, after the initial investment by the MTDC, that additional investments in such enterprise are required to protect the initial investment of the MTDC and the other findings set forth above are made as to the additional investment.

(2) The MTDC shall not own securities representing more than forty-nine per cent of the voting stock of any one enterprise at the time of purchase by the MTDC, after giving effect to the conversion of all outstanding convertible securities of the enterprise, except that in the event of severe financial difficulty of the enterprise, threatening, in the judgment of the board, the investment of the MTDC therein, a greater percentage of such securities may be owned by the MTDC.

(3) Not more than twenty per cent of the assets of the MTDC shall at any time be invested in direct investments. For this purpose, the good faith determination of the board of the value of such assets shall be conclusive.

(4) At least fifty per cent of all MTDC investments for the previous year shall be made in enterprises that will locate in target areas as defined in chapter forty F.

Section 5. The MTDC is hereby specifically authorized to operate as a licensed small business investment corporation under the provisions of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, Public Law 85-699, as amended from time to time, if it can qualify thereunder and if the board shall determine that such operation would reasonably serve to carry out the purposes of the MTDC. In the alternative, the board shall be authorized, in its discretion, to establish a subsidiary corporation to operate as a licensed small business investment corporation under said Act, and to make investments in qualified securities of enterprises through such subsidiary, provided that all such investments could be made by the MTDC directly and all of the requirements of section five shall be complied with.

Section 6. The MTDC shall annually submit a complete and detailed report of the corporation's activities within ninety days after the end of the fiscal year to the clerk of the house of representatives and to the clerk of the senate.

Section 7. The books and records of the MTDC shall be subject to an annual audit by the auditor of the commonwealth and an annual audit by an independent auditor.

Section 8. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.

Section 9. In making his initial appointments to the board of directors of the Massachusetts Technology Development Corporation, the governor shall select the appointed members from among the members of the board of directors of the Massachusetts Science and Technology Foundation holding such position on the effective date of this act who also meet the qualifications for members of the Board of the Massachusetts Technology Development Corporation as specified in section three.

SECTION 2. Chapter eight hundred and forty-three of the acts of nineteen hundred and sixty-nine is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. Effective upon the commencement of actual operation by the Massachusetts Technology Development Corporation, the Massachusetts Science and Technology Foundation, established by chapter eight hundred and forty-three of the acts of nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, shall forthwith be abolished and dissolved, all of its rights and assets shall be deemed to be transferred to the Massachusetts Technology Development Corporation, and all of its remaining liabilities shall be deemed to be assumed by the Massachusetts Technology Development Corporation, all without the further act or instrument of any person or entity, public or private. All contracts and obligations of the Massachusetts Science and Technology Foundation duly in effect prior to the effective date of this act shall continue in full force and effect. All books, papers, records, documents, plans and property in the custody of the Massachusetts Science and Technology Foundation immediately prior to the effective date of this act shall continue in the custody and control of the board of the MTDC.

Chap. 498. AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE CORPORATION.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 40G the following chapter:-

CHAPTER 40H.

COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE CORPORATION.

Section 1. It is hereby found and declared that the commonwealth has already designated certain chronically depressed areas, and may hereafter designate other such areas, as target areas; the development of these target areas will promote employment and the fuller utilization of local resources and will enhance the fiscal health of the commonwealth and its cities and towns; the commonwealth has already implemented policies designed to provide capital and other financial assistance to community development corporations and other organizations seeking to alleviate the debilitating conditions characterizing these target areas, but the lack of technical assistance to these organizations inhibits the commonwealth's ability to redevelop such areas. Therefore it is found that it is in the public interest of the commonwealth to promote the prosperity and general welfare of its citizens, a public purpose for which public money may be expended, to provide technical assistance to community development corporations and other organizations, and the creation of the Community Economic Development Assistance Corporation will assist in serving this public purpose.

Section 2. The following terms as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings, except when the context clearly indicates otherwise:-

"Board", the board of directors of the CEDAC.

"CDC", a community development corporation, as defined in section one of chapter forty F.

"Corporation" or "CEDAC", the Community Economic Development Assistance Corporation.

"Eligible organization", a CDC or any other nonprofit organization which the board determines to be engaged in activities intended to contribute to the development and economic well being of a target area, and to increase or retain primary employment and capital in a target area. Such assistance shall include, but is not limited to, assistance with respect to organizational development, economic development planning, financial planning or packaging, the development of grant or other applications, market research, business plan development or review, management training, and such accounting and legal services as may be necessary to enhance or render effective any of the foregoing. (c) Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of five members shall be necessary for any action to be taken by the board. The members of the board shall serve without compensation, but each member shall be entitled to reimbursement for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties.

(d) The provisions of chapter two hundred sixty-eight A shall apply to all directors, officers and employees of CEDAC, except that the corporation may purchase from, sell to, borrow from, loan to, contract with or otherwise deal with any eligible organization in which any director of the corporation is in any way interested or involved; provided, that such interest or involvement is disclosed in advance to the members of the board and recorded in the minutes of the board; and provided, further, that no director having such an interest or involvement may participate in any decision of the board relating to such eligible organization.

projects intended to contribute to the public purposes of this chapter generally, provided that preference shall be given to projects in which community controlled organizations or community action programs have, or will have, an ownership interest, and provided, further, that before providing technical assistance to a particular eligible organization CEDAC shall find and incorporate in its minutes that (1) the eligible organization is devoting a substantial part of its efforts to activities intended to contribute to the redevelopment and economic well being of target areas and to increase or retain primary employment and capital in target areas; (2) the technical assistance shall be used solely for a particular project which meets the following standards:

(i) the project is within a target area and may reasonably be expected to contribute to the redevelopment and economic well being of the target area within which it is located and to increase or maintain threatened primary employment and capital within such target area;

(ii) the project has provided reasonable assurance that it will conform to all applicable environmental, zoning and building laws;

(iii) the benefits of the project, including the addition or retention of primary employment and of capital in the project's target area, shall primarily accrue to the residents of such target area;

(iv) there is a reasonable expectation that the project will be successful, and that the eligible organization and project participants are responsible parties;

(v) the private sector has not provided sufficient primary employment opportunities in the project's target area;

(vi) alternative sources, including other agencies and subdivisions of the commonwealth and of the federal government, for technical assistance have been sought and are either insufficient or unavailable to meet the needs of the project;

(vii) the technical assistance to be provided is essential to the success of the project; and

(viii) provision has been made for the active participation of residents of the target area in the project; and (3) adequate provisions have been made for reporting by the eligible organization and the project concerning the manner in which the technical assistance is used and the extent to which it achieves its intended results.

Such findings by CEDAC shall be conclusive.

In providing technical assistance to eligible organizations, CEDAC shall give preference to projects which provide potential benefits in addition to those listed herein.

SECTION 3. The shareholders of the corporation are hereby constituted a body corporate under the name of the Lawrence

CHAPTER 258.

CLAIMS AND INDEMNITY PROCEDURE FOR THE COMMONWEALTH, ITS MUNICIPALITIES, COUNTIES AND DISTRICTS AND THE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES THEREOF.

Section 1. As used in this chapter the following words shall have the following meanings:-

"Acting within the scope of his office or employment", acting in the performance of any lawfully ordered military duty, in the case of an officer or soldier of the military forces of the commonwealth.

"Executive officer of a public employer", the secretary of an executive office of the commonwealth, or in the case of an agency not within the executive office, the attorney general; the adjutant general of the military forces of the commonwealth; the county commissioners of a county; the mayor of a city, or as designated by the charter of the city; the selectmen of a town or as designated by the charter of the town; and the board, directors, or committee of a district in the case of the public employers of a district, and, in the case of any other public employer, the nominal chief executive officer or board.

"Public attorney", the attorney who shall defend all civil actions brought against a public employer pursuant to this chapter. In the case of the commonwealth he shall be the attorney general; in the case of any county he shall be the district attorney as designated in sections twelve and thirteen of chapter twelve; in the case of a city or town he shall be the city solicitor or town counsel, or, if the town has no such counsel, an attorney employed for the purpose by the selectmen; in the case of a district he shall be an attorney legally employed by the district for that purpose. A public attorney may also be an attorney furnished by an insurer obligated under the terms of a policy of insurance to defend the public employer against claims brought pursuant thereto.

"Public employee", elected or appointed, officers or employees of any public employer, whether serving full or part-time, temporary or permanent, compensated or uncompensated, and officers or soldiers of the military forces of the commonwealth.

"Public employer", the commonwealth and any county, city, town or district, and any department, office, commission, committee, council, board, division, bureau, institution or agency thereof exercises direction and control over the public employee, but not a private contractor with any such public employer, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, the Massachusetts Port Authority, the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, or any other independent body politic and corporate.

Section 2. Public employers shall be liable for injury or loss of property or personal injury or death caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any public employee while acting within the scope of his office or employment, in the same manner and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances, except that public employers shall not be liable to levy of execution on any real and personal property to satisfy judgment, and shall not be liable for interest prior to judgment or for punitive damages or for any amount in excess of one hundred thousand dollars. The remedies provided by this chapter shall be exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding by reason of the same subject matter against the public employer or, the public employee or his estate whose negligent or wrongful act or omission gave rise to such claim, and no such public employee or the estate of such public employee shall be liable for any injury or loss of property or personal injury or death caused by his negligent or wrongful act or omission while acting within the scope of his office or employment; provided, however, that a public employee shall provide reasonable cooperation to the public employer in the defense of any action brought under this chapter. Failure to provide such reasonable cooperation on the part of a public employee shall cause the public employee to be jointly liable with the public employer, to the extent that the failure to provide reasonable cooperation prejudiced the defense of the action. Information obtained from the public employee in providing such reasonable cooperation may not be used as evidence in any disciplinary action against the employee. Final judgment in an action brought against a public employer under this chapter shall constitute a complete bar to any action by a party to such judgment against such public employer or public employee by reason of the same subject matter.

Section 3. All civil actions brought against a public employer on a claim for damages cognizable under this chapter shall be brought in the county where the claimant resides or in the county where such public employer is situated, except that in the case of the commonwealth such civil actions shall be brought in the county where the claimant resides or in Suffolk county. The superior court shall have jurisdiction of all civil actions brought against a public employer.

Section 4. A civil action shall not be instituted against a public employer on a claim for damages under this chapter unless the claimant shall have first presented his claim in writing to the executive officer of such public employer within two years after the date upon which the cause of action arose, and such claim shall have been finally denied by such executive officer in writing and sent by certified or registered mail, or as otherwise provided by this section. The failure of the executive officer to deny such claim in writing within six months after the date upon which it is presented, or the failure to reach final arbitration, settlement or compromise of such claim according to the provisions of section five, shall be deemed a final denial of such claim. No civil action shall be brought more than three years after the date upon which such cause of action accrued. Disposition of any claim by the executive officer of a public employer shall not be competent evidence of liability or amount of damages.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to such claims as may be asserted by third-party complaint, cross-claim or counter-claim.

Section 5. The executive officer of a public employer may arbitrate, compromise or settle any claim for damages under this chapter; provided, that any award, compromise or settlement in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars shall be made only with the prior approval of the public attorney for such public employer; provided further, however, that in any case where the public employer is the commonwealth, any award, compromise or settlement in excess of twenty thousand dollars shall be made only with the prior approval of the secretary of administration and finance. The executive officer shall not arbitrate, compromise or settle any such claim before it has been presented to him in writing or after six months have passed from the date upon which such claim was presented to him.

The acceptance by the claimant of any such award, compromise or settlement shall be in writing and shall, except when procured by fraud, be final and conclusive on the claimant, and shall constitute a complete release of any claim against the public employer or against the public employee whose negligent or wrongful act or omission gave rise to such a claim, and a complete bar to any action by the claimant against such public employer or public employee, by reason of the same subject matter.

Section 6. The public attorney shall defend all civil actions brought against a public employer pursuant to this chapter. Service of process for such civil action shall be made upon the public attorney or, where no such public attorney has been employed for such purpose at the time service is made, service shall be made upon the executive officer of such public employer.

Section 7. Any award, compromise or settlement of a civil action brought under this chapter in excess of twenty thousand dollars which has been approved by a public attorney for a public employer, or, in the case where the public employer is the commonwealth, approved by the secretary of administration and finance, shall be made final only after approval of same by a judge of the superior court having jurisdiction over the action.

The acceptance by the claimant of any such award, compromise or settlement shall be in writing and shall, except when procured by fraud, be final and conclusive on the claimant, and shall constitute a complete release of any claim against the public employer or against the public employee whose negligent or wrongful act or omission gave rise to such claim, and a complete bar to any action by the claimant against such public employer or public employee, by reason of the same subject matter.

Section 8. A public employer may procure insurance for payment of damages incurred pursuant to this chapter.

Section 9. Public employers may indemnify public employees from personal financial loss and expenses, including legal fees and costs, if any, in an amount not to exceed one million dollars arising out of any claim, action, award, compromise, settlement or judgment by reason of an intentional tort, or by reason of any act or omission which constitutes a violation of the civil rights of any person under any federal or state law; if such employee or official at the time of such intentional tort or such act or omission was acting within the scope of his official duties or employment. No such employee or official shall be indemnified under this section for violation of any such civil rights if he acted in a grossly negligent, willful or malicious manner.

Section 10. The provisions of sections one to eight, inclusive, shall not apply to:-

(a) any claim based upon an act or omission of a public employee when such employee is exercising due care in the execution of any statute or any regulation of a public employer, or any municipal ordinance or by-law, whether or not such statute, regulation, ordinance or by-law is valid;

(b) any claim based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function or duty on the part of a public employer or public employee, acting within the scope of his office or employment, whether or not the discretion involved is abused;

(c) any claim arising out of an intentional tort, including assault, battery, false imprisonment, false arrest, intentional mental distress, malicious prosecution, malicious abuse of process, libel, slander, misrepresentation, deceit, invasion of privacy, interference with advantageous relations or interference with contractual relations;

(d) any claim arising in respect of the assessment or collection of any tax, or the lawful detention of any goods or merchandise by any law enforcement officer.

Section 11. If the judgment in any action brought under this chapter is in favor of the public employer, judgment for costs and execution thereon may issue in favor of the public employer, if the court finds the action brought by the claimant to have been frivolous or in bad faith, and final judgment on the action shall be a bar to any other or further action being brought on the same claim or subject matter.

SECTION 16. This act shall take effect upon its passage and shall apply to all causes of action arising on or after August sixteenth, nineteen hundred and seventy-seven.

SECTION 17. The provisions of chapter eight hundred and eighty of the acts of nineteen hundred and seventy-seven shall not apply to causes of action arising on or after August sixteenth, nineteen hundred and seventy-seven.

SECTION 18. The provisions of this act shall be construed liberally for the accomplishment of the purposes thereof but shall not be construed to supersede or repeal section eighteen of chapter eighty-one and sections fifteen to twenty-five, inclusive, of chapter eighty-four of the General Laws. Any other provision of law inconsistent with any other provisions of this chapter shall not apply.

SECTION 19. If any provisions of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, the remainder of this act or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than to those to which it is held invalid shall not be affected thereby.

SECTION 18. Chapter 4 of the acts of 1976 is hereby amended by inserting after section 10 the following section:-

Section 10A. Whenever the governor and the state treasurer shall have determined it to be in the best interests of the commonwealth to refund outstanding bonds issued during March of nineteen hundred and seventy-six pursuant to section ten of this act, the state treasurer may with the approval of the governor, issue and sell bonds in an amount not to exceed six hundred and seventy-two million dollars for the purposes of purchasing, funding or refunding all or any of the principal of and the interest payable with respect to such outstanding bonds to the redemption or maturity dates thereof, together with any sinking funds with respect thereto, redemption premiums, if any, all expenses incidental to the calling, retirement or payment of the outstanding bonds and to the issuance of the refunding bonds including, without limitation, bond discount, and any amount necessary for the payment of interest upon the refunding bonds issued pursuant to this section from the date of their sale to the date of maturity of the outstanding bonds to be refunded or to the date upon which the outstanding bonds to be refunded will be paid pursuant to the call thereof or any agreement with the holders thereof.

All bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be designated on their face "General Obligation Debt Service Refunding Bond". Such bonds may be issued and sold at par or discount, at public or private sale, registered or with interest coupons attached, and may be subject to call for redemption at any time or from time to time, with or without premium. Such bonds may be issued on a serial payment plan or may be issued as term bonds, or in any combination thereof, and section forty-nine of chapter twenty-nine of the General Laws shall not apply to the repayment provisions of any term bonds. The rate or rates of interest shall be as the state treasurer shall designate or approve, and the bonds shall be sold at such interest costs as he and the governor shall approve. Except as may be otherwise provided in this section, all of the terms and conditions of the issue and sale of such bonds, and of such bonds, shall be as the state treasurer shall determine to be in the best interests of the commonwealth. Section fifty-three of said chapter twenty-nine shall not apply to any such sale.

If any bonds are issued hereunder as term bonds, the state treasurer may establish or cause to be established a reserve or sinking fund for the payment or redemption of any such term bonds and for the payment of interest thereon. Payments to any such reserve or sinking fund of amounts available for the payment of principal and interest, according to a schedule established by the state treasurer at the time any such term bonds are issued, shall for all purposes, including the purposes of section fifty of said chapter twenty-nine, be deemed to be serial payments of the bonds, and the full faith and credit of the commonwealth is pledged to the making of such payments. Amounts in such reserve or sinking funds may be invested as provided in the following paragraph, and earnings thereon may be taken into account in establishing or making payments to any such reserve or sinking fund. Payments from any such reserve or sinking fund for the payment or redemption of bonds and the payment of interest thereon shall be made without further appropriation or authorization by any officer of the commonwealth.

Pending the application of the proceeds of bonds issued in accordance with this section, such proceeds, together with investment earnings thereon, and amounts in any reserve or sinking fund established in accordance with the preceding paragraph, together with investment earnings thereon, shall be held by the state treasurer in trust, or may be deposited by the state treasurer in trust, on such terms as the state treasurer shall approve, with a trustee or escrow agent, which trustee or escrow agent shall be a banking institution or trust company with trust powers having a paid-up capital and surplus of not less than fifty million dollars, for investment in (i) direct obligations of, or obligations the payment of the principal and interest of which are unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States of America; (ii) obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association, the Federal Financing Bank, the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks, Federal Banks for Cooperatives, Federal Land Banks, Federal Home Loan Banks, Farmers Home Administration and Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, or by any other agency or corporation which has been or is hereafter created pursuant to an act of Congress of the United States as an agency or instrumentality thereof; (iii) housing authority bonds issued by public agencies or municipalities and fully secured as to the payment of both principal and interest by a pledge of annual contributions under an annual contributions contract or contracts with the United States of America or project notes issued by public agencies or municipalities and fully secured as to the payment of both principal and interest by a requisition or payment agreement with the United States of America; (iv) interest-bearing time deposits or certificates of deposit of banking institutions or trust companies organized under the laws of any state of the United States or any national banking association, provided that such deposits or certificates shall be continuously and fully secured by obligations described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) having a market value, exclusive of accrued interest, at least equal to the aggregate amount of such deposits and certificates; or (v) any of the securities described in clauses (i) to (iii), inclusive, which are subject to repurchase agreements with any bank or trust company organized under the laws of any state of the United States or any national banking association. Such proceeds, including the earnings from any such investments, shall be applied for the purposes specified in this section; provided, however, that net earnings on investments or proceeds of bonds issued in accordance with the provisions of this section not used for such purposes shall be deposited by the state treasurer in the general fund.

In connection with the issuance of bonds pursuant to this section and to induce the purchase of such bonds, the state treasurer may covenant on behalf of the commonwealth from time to time with the purchasers or with the holders of such bonds or with a trustee or trustees, which trustee or trustees shall be banking institutions or trust companies with trust powers having paid up capital and surplus of not less than fifty million dollars, for the benefit of such holders with respect to the proceeds and investment earnings thereon of bonds issued pursuant to this section, to mandatory and voluntary redemptions, the prices thereof and the manner of notice therefor, to the operation of and investment of amounts in any reserve or sinking fund, to the terms of other bonds and the amount and terms of notes which may be issued or guaranteed by the commonwealth for purposes of housing projects under chapter one hundred and twenty-one B of the General Laws, provided that any covenant regarding the amount of said notes shall not include any provision restricting the amount of notes that may be issued or guaranteed for such purposes to any amount of notes less than that amount authorized by the provisions of said chapter one hundred and twenty-one B in effect on March ninth, nineteen hundred and seventy-six; and to any other matter appropriate and proper and not inconsistent with law in connection with the bonds. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the state treasurer shall so covenant, on such terms as he deems to be in the best interests of the commonwealth to the effect that, subject to appropriation, the aggregate net difference between (i) the annual debt service, consisting of principal, interest and sinking fund payments, if any, required to be paid by the commonwealth for each year that any of such bonds is to remain outstanding with respect to the refunding bonds being issued pursuant to this section; and (ii) the annual debt service, consisting of principal, interest and sinking fund payments, if any, which, but for the refunding thereof, would be required to be paid by the commonwealth for each year that any of such refunded bonds is to or would remain outstanding with respect to the outstanding bonds being refunded shall be applied, in addition to any sums otherwise applied or required to be applied by the commonwealth for such purpose, for the purpose of establishing a fund to accumulate assets in advance of the payment of retirement allowances, provided that such monies shall be used solely for the purpose of offsetting the anticipated future cost of funding the contributory retirement systems of the state employees and teachers as defined in section one of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws. Such covenant may provide for the deposit of such aggregate net difference on such schedule as the state treasurer deems to be in the best interests of the commonwealth; provided, however, that any such schedule shall require such payments to be made to the greatest extent practicable in the years in which such savings are realized, taking into account years, if any, in which the debt service on the refunding bonds exceeds debt service on the refunded bonds. Such covenants may appear on the bonds or may be included in a separate contract or trust indenture, a copy of which shall be available for public inspection at the office of the state treasurer, in which case reference to such contract or indenture on the bonds shall be sufficient to incorporate its terms into the bonds and shall be full notice of the terms thereof to any holder of a bond. As recommended by the governor in a message to the general court dated July first, nineteen hundred and seventy-eight in pursuance of Section 3 of Article LXII of the Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, the bonds issued pursuant to this section, whether term bonds or on the serial payment plan, shall be for a term not exceeding thirty years.

Before the issue and sale of bonds issued pursuant to this section, the state treasurer shall have advised the general court, by filing a report with the clerks of the house of representatives and the senate, of the manner in which the discretion conferred upon the state treasurer by this section has been or will be exercised, except as to any discretionary matters which cannot reasonably be determined until a subsequent time. In exercising the discretion conferred by this section the state treasurer shall invite and consider proposals from interested underwriters, and, if any bonds issued pursuant to this section are to be issued and sold at private sale, the state treasurer shall, at least five days before the execution of a purchase agreement with respect to such sale, have advised the general court in the manner aforesaid of the procedure employed in selecting a managing underwriter or underwriters, the identify of such underwriter or underwriters and the reasons for its or their selection.

Any right against the commonwealth of a holder of a bond issued hereunder may be enforced as provided in chapter two hundred and fifty-eight of the General Laws. The pendency of any action pursuant thereto or the existence of a judgment thereunder shall not relieve the obligation of the commonwealth to pay when due the principal of and the interest on bonds issued pursuant to this section, and the full faith and credit of the commonwealth is pledged to such payment.

SECTION 19. Section 4 of chapter 703 of the acts of 1964 is hereby amended by striking out clause (g) and inserting in place thereof the following:

(g) To borrow from time to time to finance and refinance the cost of projects and to refund obligations earlier incurred for such purpose and for refunding, and to sell its bonds and notes therefor, payable solely from its revenues, as provided in section seven;

SECTION 20. Section 10 of said chapter 703 is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:- The commonwealth, acting by and through the trustees, may enter into a contract or contracts with the Authority for state financial assistance in the form of a guarantee by the commonwealth of bonds of the Authority issued for any of the purposes specified in the first sentence of section seven.

SECTION 21. Section 49 of chapter 29 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following two paragraphs:-

Notwithstanding any general or special provision of law to the contrary, a provision in any statute authorizing the state treasurer to issue and sell bonds of the commonwealth providing that such bonds shall bear interest at such rate as the state treasurer, with the approval of the governor, shall fix; or a provision of similar import, shall be construed to provide that such bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as the state treasurer, with the approval of the governor, shall fix.

Unless otherwise specifically provided, a provision in any act authorizing the state treasurer to issue and sell bonds of the commonwealth shall authorize him, with the approval of the governor, to issue and sell bonds subject to call for redemption at any time or from time to time, with or without premium, as he determines to be in the best interest of the commonwealth. The provisions of this section shall apply to all bonds issued after the effective date of this act.

The commonwealth has recognized for many years the special handicaps and obstacles faced by its minority citizens in effecting full participation. Minority business enterprises frequently face special handicaps and problems in achieving viable economic status. Various public and private programs have been initiated to assist minority business enterprises to achieve economic viability, though many businesses have not been adequately informed of these programs because of inadequate coordination and communication efforts, with the result that many services available are never adequately delivered to those who need them. The state government, as the biggest business in the commonwealth of Massachusetts, has a special responsibility to see that all available services and programs are put to the best use. These steps are necessary to guarantee the fullest participation by all citizens of the commonwealth in the economy of the state and to guarantee the fullest benefits to citizens of programs and services available for assistance.

Chap. 553. AN ACT MAKING CERTAIN CORRECTIVE CHANGES
IN THE LAW REGULATING SECURITY DEPOSITS
FOR RESIDENTIAL REAL PROPERTY.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to make certain corrective changes immediately in the law regulating security deposits for residential real property, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 167 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 56B the following section:-

Section 56C. Any bank may establish an account to receive deposits from a lessor acting as a trustee for funds received and held by such trustee pursuant to clause (a) of subsection three of section fifteen B of chapter one hundred and eighty-six. Such account may be established as required by said section fifteen B for the purpose of holding security deposits taken by a lessor of residential dwelling units owned or managed by said lessor, but the terms of said account shall be such as to place said deposit beyond the claim of a creditor of the lessor, including a foreclosing mortgagee or trustee in bankruptcy, and as will provide for the transfer of said deposit to a subsequent owner of any property for which such security deposit was taken. Interest accruing on said deposit shall be paid to the lessor pursuant to the terms of the deposit. Withdrawals and payments made by the bank from said account shall discharge the liability of said bank to all persons.

SECTION 2. Chapter 186 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 15B, as most recently amended by chapter 979 of the acts of 1977, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 15B. (1) (a) No lease relating to residential real property shall contain a provision that a lessor may, except to inspect the premises, to make repairs thereto or to show the same to a prospective tenant, purchaser, mortgagee or its agents, enter the premises before the termination date of such lease. A lessor may, however, enter such premises:

(i) in accordance with a court order;
 (ii) if the premises appear to have been abandoned by the lessee; or
 (iii) to inspect, within the last thirty days of the tenancy or after either party has given notice to the other of intention to terminate the tenancy, the premises for the purpose of determining the amount of damage, if any, to the premises which would be cause for deduction from any security deposit held by the lessor pursuant to this section.

(b) At or prior to the commencement of any tenancy, no lessor may require a tenant or prospective tenant to pay any amount in excess of the following:

(i) rent for the first full month of occupancy; and,
 (ii) rent for the last full month of occupancy calculated at the same rate as the first month; and,
 (iii) a security deposit equal to the first month's rent provided that such security deposit is deposited as required by subsection (3) and that the tenant is given the statement of condition as required by subsection (2); and,
 (iv) the purchase and installation cost for a key and lock.
 (c) No lease or other rental agreement shall impose any interest or penalty for failure to pay rent until thirty days after such rent shall have been due.

(d) No lessor or successor in interest shall at any time subsequent to the commencement of a tenancy demand rent in advance in excess of the current month's rent or a security deposit in excess of the amount allowed by this section. The payment in advance for occupancy pursuant to this section shall be binding upon all successors in interest.

(e) A security deposit shall continue to be the property of the tenant making such deposit, shall not be commingled with the assets of the lessor, and shall not be subject to the claims of any creditor of the lessor or of the lessor's successor in interest, including a foreclosing mortgagee or trustee in bankruptcy; provided, however, that the tenant shall be entitled to only such interest as is provided for in subsection (3) (b).

(2) (a) Any lessor or his agent who receives, at or prior to the commencement of a tenancy, rent in advance for the last month of the tenancy from a tenant or prospective tenant shall give to such tenant or prospective tenant at the time of such advance payment a receipt indicating the amount of such rent, the date on which it was received, its intended application as rent for the last month of the tenancy, the name of the person receiving it and, in the case of an agent, the name of the lessor for whom the rent is received, and a description of the rented or leased premises.

(b) Any lessor or his agent who receives a security deposit from a tenant or prospective tenant shall give said tenant or prospective tenant at the time of receiving such security deposit a receipt indicating the amount of such security deposit, the name of the person receiving it and, in the case of an agent, the name of the lessor for whom such security deposit is received, the date on which it is received, and a description of the premises leased or rented. Said receipt shall be signed by the person receiving the security deposit.

(c) Any lessor of residential real property, or his agent, who accepts a security deposit from a tenant or prospective tenant shall, upon receipt of such security deposit, or within ten days after commencement of the tenancy, whichever is later, furnish to such tenant or prospective tenant a separate written statement of the present condition of the premises to be leased or rented. Such written statement shall also contain a comprehensive listing of any damage then existing in the premises, including, but not limited to, any violations of the state sanitary or state building codes certified by a local board of health or building official or adjudicated by a court and then existing in the premises. Such statement shall be signed by the lessor or his agent and contain the following notice in twelve-point bold-face type at the top of the first page thereof:

"This is a statement of the condition of the premises you have leased or rented. You should read it carefully in order to see if it is correct. If it is correct you must sign it. This will show that you agree that the list is correct and complete. If it is not correct, you must attach a separate signed list of any damage which you believe exists in the premises. This statement must be returned to the lessor or his agent within fifteen days after you receive this list or within fifteen days after you move in, whichever is later. If you do not return this list, within the specified time period, a court may later view your failure to return the list as your agreement that the list is complete and correct in any suit which you may bring to recover the security deposit."

If the tenant submits to the lessor or his agent a separate list of damages, the lessor or his agent shall, within fifteen days of receiving said separate list, return a copy of said list to the tenant which either such lessor's signed agreement with the content thereof or a clear statement of disagreement attached.

(d) Every lessor who accepts a security deposit shall maintain a record of all such security deposits received which contains the following information:-

(i) a detailed description of any damage done to each of the dwelling units or premises for which a security deposit has been accepted, returned to any tenant thereof or for which the lessor has brought suit against any tenant;

(ii) the date upon which the occupancy of the tenant or tenants charged with such damage was terminated; and

(iii) whether repairs were performed to remedy such damage, the dates of said repairs, the cost thereof, and receipts therefor.

Said record shall also include copies of any receipt or statement of condition given to a tenant or prospective tenant as required by this section.

Said record shall be available for inspection upon request of a tenant or prospective tenant during normal business hours in the office of the lessor or his agent. Upon a wrongful failure by the lessor or his agent to make such record available for inspection by a tenant or prospective tenant, said tenant or prospective tenant shall be entitled to the immediate return of any amount paid in the form of a security deposit together with any interest which has accrued thereon.

The lessor or his agent shall maintain said record for each dwelling unit or premises for which a security deposit was accepted for a period of two years from the date of termination of the tenancy or occupancy upon which the security deposit was conditioned.

(3) (a) Any security deposit received by such lessor shall be held in a separate, interest-bearing account in a bank, located within the commonwealth under such terms as will place such deposit beyond the claim of creditors of the lessor, including a foreclosing mortgagee or trustee in bankruptcy, and as will provide for its transfer to a subsequent owner of said property. A receipt shall be given to the tenant within thirty days after such deposit is received by the lessor which receipt shall indicate the name and location of the bank in which the security deposit has been deposited and the amount and account number of said deposit. Failure to comply with this paragraph shall entitle the tenant to immediate return of the security deposit.

(b) A lessor of residential real property who holds a security deposit pursuant to this section for a period of one year or longer from the commencement of the term of the tenancy shall, beginning with the first day of the tenancy, pay interest at the rate of five per cent per year, payable to the tenant at the end of each year of the tenancy. Such interest shall be paid over to the tenant each year as provided in this clause, provided, however, that in the event that the tenancy is terminated before the anniversary date of the tenancy, the tenant shall receive all accrued interest within thirty days of such termination. Such interest shall be beyond the claims of such lessor, except as provided for in this section. At the end of each year of a tenancy, such lessor shall give or send to the tenant from whom a security deposit has been received a statement which shall indicate the name and address of the bank in which the security deposit has been placed, the amount of the deposit, the account number, and the amount of interest payable by such lessor to the tenant. The lessor shall at the same time give or send to each such tenant the interest which is due or shall include with the statement required by this clause a notification that the tenant may deduct the interest from the tenant's next rental payment. If, after thirty days from the end of each year of the tenancy, the tenant has not received such notice or payment, the tenant may deduct from his next rent payment the interest due.

(4) The lessor shall, within thirty days after the termination of occupancy under a tenancy-at-will or the end of the tenancy as specified in a valid written lease agreement, return to the tenant the security deposit or any balance thereof; provided, however, that the lessor may deduct from such security deposit for the following:

(i) any unpaid rent which has not been validly withheld or deducted pursuant to the provisions of any special or general law and

(ii) any unpaid increase in real estate taxes which the tenant is obligated to pay pursuant to a tax escalation clause which conforms to the requirements of section fifteen C; and

(iii) a reasonable amount necessary to repair any damage caused to the dwelling unit by the tenant or any person under the tenant's control or on the premises with the tenant's consent, reasonable wear and tear excluded. In the case of such damage, the lessor shall provide to the tenant within such thirty days an itemized list of damages, sworn to by the lessor or his agent under pains and penalties of perjury, itemizing in precise detail the nature of the damage and of the repairs necessary to correct such damage, and written evidence, such as estimates, bills, invoices or receipts, indicating the actual or estimated cost thereof. No amount shall be deducted from the security deposit for any damage to the dwelling unit which was listed in the separate written statement of the present condition of the premises which was required to be given to the tenant prior to the execution of the lease or creation of the tenancy pursuant to clause (c) of subsection (2) or any damages listed in any separate list submitted by the tenant and signed by the lessor or his agent pursuant to said clause (c), unless the lessor subsequently repaired or caused to be repaired said damage and can prove that the renewed damage was unrelated to the prior damage and was caused by the tenant or by any person under the tenant's control or on the premises with the tenant's consent.

No deduction may be made from the security deposit for any purpose other than those set forth in this section.

(5) Whenever a lessor who receives a security deposit transfers his interest in the dwelling unit for which the security deposit is held, whether by sale, assignment, death, appointment of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, or otherwise, the lessor shall transfer such security deposit together with any interest which has accrued thereon for the benefit of the tenant who made such security deposit to his successor in interest, and said successor in interest shall be liable for the retention and return of said security deposit in accordance with the provisions of this section from the date upon which said transfer is made; provided however, that the granting of a mortgage on such premises shall not be a transfer of interest. The successor in interest shall, within forty-five days from the date of said transfer, notify the tenant who made such security deposit that such security deposit was transferred to him and that he is holding said security deposit. Such notice shall also contain the lessor's name, business address, and business telephone number, and the name, business address, and business telephone number of his agent, if any. Said notice shall be in writing.

Upon such transfer, the lessor or his agent shall continue to be liable with respect to the provisions of this section until:

(a) there has been a transfer of the amount of the security deposit so held to the lessor's successor in interest and the tenant has been notified in writing of the transfer and of the successor in interest's name, business address, and business telephone number;

(b) there has been compliance with this clause by the successor in interest; or

(c) the security deposit has been returned to the tenant.

In the event that the lessor fails to transfer said security deposit to his successor in interest as required by this subsection the successor in interest shall, without regard to the nature of the transfer, assume liability for payment of the security deposit to the tenant in accordance with the provisions of this section; provided, however, that if the tenant still occupies the dwelling unit for which the security deposit was given, said successor in interest may satisfy such obligation by granting the tenant free occupation and use of the dwelling unit for a period of time equivalent to that period of time for which the dwelling unit could be leased or occupied if the security deposit were deemed to be rent. The liability imposed by this paragraph shall not apply to a city or town which acquires title to property pursuant to chapter sixty or to a foreclosing mortgagee or a mortgagee in possession which is a financial institution chartered by the commonwealth or the United States. The term "rent", as used in the preceding sentence, shall mean the periodic sum paid by the tenant for the use and occupation of the dwelling unit in accordance with the terms of his lease or other rental agreement.

(6) The lessor shall forfeit his right to retain any portion of the security deposit for any reason, or, in any action by a tenant to recover a security deposit, to counterclaim for any damage to the premises if he:

(a) fails to deposit such funds in an account as required by subsection (3);

(b) fails to furnish to the tenant within thirty days after the termination of the occupancy the itemized list of damages, if any, in compliance with the provisions of this section;

(c) uses in any lease signed by the tenant any provision which conflicts with any provision of this section and attempts to enforce such provision or attempts to obtain from the tenant or prospective tenant a waiver of any provision of this section;

(d) fails to transfer such security deposit to his successor in interest or to otherwise comply with the provisions of subsection (5) after he has succeeded to an interest in residential real property; or,

(e) fails to return to the tenant the security deposit or balance thereof to which the tenant is entitled after deducting therefrom any sums in accordance with the provisions of this section, together with any interest thereon, within thirty days after termination of the tenancy.

(7) If the lessor or his agent fails to comply with clauses (a), (d), or (e) of subsection 6, the tenant shall be awarded damages in an amount equal to three times the amount of such security deposit or balance thereof to which the tenant is entitled plus interest at the rate of five per cent from the date when such payment became due, together with court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(8) Any provision of a lease which conflicts with any provision of this section and any waiver by a tenant or prospective tenant of any provision of this section shall be deemed to be against public policy and therefore void and unenforceable.

SECTION 3. Chap. 559. AN ACT FURTHER REGULATING THE DISCLOSURE OF CONSUMER CREDIT COSTS AND TERMS.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is immediately to regulate the disclosure of consumer credit costs and terms, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 140C of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following three subsections:-

(cc) "Regular price", (1) the tag or posted price charged for the property or service if a single price is tagged or posted; or (2) the price charged for the property or service when payment is made by use of an open end credit card account if either (a)

For purposes of this definition, payment by check, draft, or other negotiable instrument which may result in the debiting of a cardholder's open end account shall not be considered payment made by use of that account.

(dd) "Discount", as used in subsection (i) of section three and subsection (b) of section six E, means a reduction made from the "Regular price," as defined in subsection (cc).

(ee) "Surcharge", as used in subsection (i) of section three means any amount added at the point of sale to the "Regular price," as defined in subsection (cc), as a condition or consequence of payment being made by use of an open end credit card account. For purposes of this definition, payment by check, draft, or other negotiable instrument which may result in the debiting of a cardholder's open end account shall not be considered payment made by use of that account.

SECTION 2. Section 3 of said chapter 140C is hereby amended by striking out subsection (i), as amended by section 7 of chapter 52 of the acts of 1977, and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a discount which a creditor offers, allows or otherwise makes available for the purpose of inducing payments for a purchase by cash, check, or similar means rather than by use of an open end credit card account, whether or not a credit card is physically used, is not a finance charge, provided that for purposes of this subsection, payment by check, draft or other negotiable instrument which may result in the debiting of a cardholder's open end account shall not be considered payment by use of that account and provided further that:-

(1) such discount does not exceed five per cent when computed or expressed as a percentage of the regular price of the property or services which are the subject of the transaction; (2) such discount is available to all prospective buyers, whether or not they are cardholders, and such fact is clearly and conspicuously disclosed by a sign or display posted at or near each public entrance to the seller's place of business wherein such discount is offered, and at all locations within the place of business where a purchase may be paid for; and (3) if an offer of property or services is advertised in any medium or if offers are invited or accepted through the mail, over the telephone, or by means other than personal contact between the customer and the creditor offering such a discount, and if customers are allowed to pay by use of a credit card or its underlying account and such fact is disclosed in the advertisement, telephone contact, or in other correspondence, the availability of such a discount must be clearly and conspicuously disclosed in any advertisement for such offerings and, in any case, before the transaction has been completed by use of the credit card or its underlying account. If a price other than the regular price, as defined in subsection (cc) of section one, is disclosed in an advertisement, telephone contact, or other correspondence promoting goods or services for which such a discount is offered, then the advertisement, telephone contact, or other correspondence shall also indicate that such price is not available to credit card purchasers.

With respect to any such discount which is greater than five per cent, the total amount of such discount shall constitute a finance charge under subsection (a) to be disclosed in accordance with subsection (d) of section six.

The availability of any discount may be limited by the creditor offering such discount to certain types of property or services or to certain outlets maintained by that creditor provided that such limitations are clearly and conspicuously disclosed.

No creditor in any sales transaction may impose a surcharge.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, any discount which, pursuant to this subsection, is not a finance charge for purposes of this chapter, shall not be considered a finance charge or other charge for credit under the laws relating to: usury; or disclosure of information in connection with credit extensions; or the types, amounts, or rates of charges, or the element or elements of charges permissible in connection with the extension or use of credit.

SECTION 3. Subclause (i) of clause (2) of subsection (g) of section 6 of said chapter 140C, as appearing in section 14 of said chapter 52, is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:- For transaction in which the creditor and the seller are the same person or related persons, the amount of the transaction, the date on which the transaction took place, and a brief identification of any property or services purchased or an identifying number or symbol reasonably unique for that transaction with that creditor which appears on the document evidencing the transaction given to the customer; provided, that, if the creditor discloses such an identifying number or symbol, the absence of the identification of the property or services otherwise required must be treated as a billing error and as an erroneous billing under section nine B, if the customer submits a proper written notice of a billing error relating to such absence, and the creditor must provide documentary evidence of the transaction to the customer free of charge whether or not the customer requests it.

billing under subsection (b) of said section nine B, and shall supply documentary evidence of the transaction whether or not the customer requests it, within the time period allowed under section said nine B for resolution of a billing error without charge to the customer. If the date of debiting is disclosed, it must be reasonably identified as such on the periodic statement. SECTION 5. Said subsection (g) of said section 6 of said chapter 140C, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out clause (4) and inserting in place thereof the following clause:-

(4) If, despite the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to procure the information required by clauses (1), (2) and (3) such information is unavailable to the creditor, the date of debiting the amount to the account shall be substituted for the date otherwise required, except that the date of debiting need not be provided if an actual copy of the document evidencing the transaction is provided with the periodic statement and the creditor shall disclose as much of the required information as is available and omit any information which is not available; provided, that if the customer submits a proper written notification of a billing error relating to the absence of the primarily required date or other information, such absence shall be treated as a billing error and as an erroneous billing under section nine B, and, unless previously furnished with a periodic statement, documentary evidence of the transaction must be furnished whether or not the customer requests it, within the time period allowed in said section nine B for resolution of a billing error, without charge to the customer.

SECTION 7. Subsection (b) of section 7 of said chapter 140C, as most recently amended by section 8 of chapter 592 of the acts of 1975, is hereby further amended by adding the following clause:-

(8) If the annual percentage rate as disclosed under class (2) is prospectively subject to increase, the following additional disclosures shall be made: (i) the fact that the annual percentage rate is subject to increase and the conditions under which such rate may increase, including: (A) identification of the index, if any, with respect to which such increase in annual percentage rate is tied; and (B) any limitation on such increase; (ii) the manner, such as an increase in payment amounts, number of scheduled periodic payments, or in the amount due at maturity, in which any increase in the annual percentage rate may be effected; (iii) if the obligation is repayable in substantially equal instalments at substantially equal intervals, including those obligations providing for "balloon" payments, and the increase could be effected by an increase in the periodic payment amount, a statement of the estimated increase in the amount of the payment caused by a hypothetical immediate increase of one quarter of one percentage point, based upon the number of scheduled periodic payments and original amount financed disclosed at consummation; (iv) if the obligation is repayable in substantially equal instalments at substantially equal intervals, including those obligations providing for "balloon" payments, and the increase could be effected by an increase in the number of periodic payments, a statement of the estimated increase in the number of periodic payments caused by a hypothetical immediate increase of one quarter of one percentage point, based upon the periodic payment amount and the original amount financed disclosed at consummation.

Any increase in the annual percentage rate within the conditions or limitations disclosed in accordance with the subclause is a subsequent occurrence under subsection (g) of section five and is not a refinancing under subsection (j).

The disclosures required under clauses (iii) and (iv) need be made only in transactions in which a security interest is taken in real property used or expected to be used as the customer's dwelling, and they need not be made in transactions primarily for agricultural purposes, transactions in which the obligation is repayable in substantially equal instalments which do not include repayments of principal or transactions in which disclosures are the result of optional insurance obtain subsequent to original obligation made pursuant to regulations or interpretations promulgated by the commissioner or official interpretations issued by the board and adopted by the commissioner.

For the purpose of this subsection, the phrase "prospectively subject to increase" does not apply to increases in the annual percentage rate upon such occurrences as default, acceleration, late payment, assumption or transfer of property.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 354 of the acts of 1952 is hereby amended by striking out section 17 thereof and inserting in place thereof the following:-

Section 17. Transfer to Commonwealth. When the last of the following to occur, namely: (a) all bonds issued under the provisions of this act and the interest thereon shall have been paid or a sufficient amount for the payment of all such bonds and the interest thereon to the maturity thereof shall have been set aside in trust for the benefit of the bondholders, (b) the tunnels owned and operated by the authority under and pursuant to Chapter 598 of the acts of 1958 have become a part of the state highway system pursuant to section 16 of said chapter 598, and (c) the Authority has contributed to the pension and expense funds of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system established under sections 1 to 28 inclusive of chapter 32 of the General Laws amounts sufficient, in the opinion of the actuary as defined in section 1 of said chapter 32, to cause the amounts then on deposit in said funds to be adequate to provide benefits from said system to persons then and thereafter entitled thereto, as determined under and pursuant to said chapter 32, and to pay or provide for the payment of all future expenses of administration of said system, the turnpike, if then in good condition and repair to the satisfaction of the state department of public works, shall become a part of the state highway system and shall thereafter be maintained and operated by said department free of tolls as may be provided by law, and thereupon the Authority shall be dissolved, all remaining funds of the Authority shall be paid into the treasury of the commonwealth for the credit of the Highway Fund and all machinery, equipment and other property belonging to the Authority shall be vested in the commonwealth and delivered to the state department of public works.

SECTION 2. Anything to the contrary in section 22 of said chapter 32 notwithstanding, the amount to be paid by the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority for any fiscal year for the pension fund of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system shall be the sum of (a) the normal pension cost, as hereinafter defined, incurred by the Authority for that year plus (b) not less than the following percentages of the unfunded past service liability of the Authority calculated in the amount of twenty-one million four hundred eighty-seven thousand and seven hundred dollars as of December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and seventy-seven: for the years nineteen hundred and eighty-three through nineteen hundred and eighty-eight, twenty-seven per cent; for the years nineteen hundred and eighty-nine through nineteen hundred and ninety-four, fifty-three per cent; for the year nineteen hundred and ninety-five until the Authority is dissolved, one hundred and thirty-three per cent; provided, however, that the amount paid in the year in which the Authority shall be dissolved shall be an amount which, in the opinion of the actuary, when added to all other amounts theretofore paid for such purpose, shall be sufficient to amortize the unfunded past service liability of the Authority calculated in such year.

For purposes of this section the term "past service liability" of the authority shall mean the excess of the present value of all future pension benefits payable by the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system as determined under the entry age normal actuarial cost method with frozen initial liability over the present value of all future normal costs. The term "unfunded past service liability" shall mean the past service liability less the assets of the system. The term "normal pension cost" for any year shall mean the amount, as determined under the entry age normal actuarial cost method with frozen initial liability, required to finance pension benefits earned by employees of the Authority during that year as members of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system.

Any balance of the pension fund above the past service liability at the close of business on December thirty-first of any year shall be applied to reduce the payments required in subsequent years pursuant to this section.

SECTION 3. In the fiscal period of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority ending on the date of dissolution of the Authority, the Authority shall pay for the expense fund of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system an amount, in addition to all other amounts payable by the Authority in said period for such fund, sufficient in the opinion of the actuary, as defined in section one of chapter thirty-two, when added to the amount then on deposit in said fund and with the proceeds of investment thereof, to pay or provide for the payment of the expenses of administration of said system thereafter to be incurred. This sum shall become a separate account within the expense fund of the Massachusetts State Employee Retirement System.

SECTION 4. The employees of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority who are members of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system on the effective date of the dissolution of the Authority and who do not then transfer to service in a governmental unit in which a contributory retirement system is established under the provisions of sections one to twenty-eight, inclusive, of said chapter thirty-two, or under corresponding provisions of earlier laws or of any special law, shall continue to be members of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system and shall then be entitled to apply for and receive retirement allowances from such system in the amounts, upon the terms, subject to the conditions and with all of the related rights provided by and under said chapter thirty-two.

SECTION 5. Effective upon the date of dissolution of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority (a) the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system shall continue under the provisions of said chapter thirty-two, (b) the management of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system shall be transferred to the state board of retirement provided for in section eighteen of chapter ten of the General Laws which board shall have respect thereto the general powers and duties set forth in subdivision (5) of section twenty of said chapter thirty-two, (c) all data, files, papers and records and other materials of the retirement board provided for in paragraph (4-½) (b) of said section twenty shall be transferred to and held by the state board of retirement, (d) the funds of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system in the custody of the secretary-treasurer of the Authority and treasurer-custodian of the retirement system shall be transferred to the state treasurer who shall thereafter be and perform the duties of the treasurer-custodian of such funds, which shall be held, administered, invested and maintained as an account separate and apart from all other funds and accounts in his custody or possession as treasurer-custodian of any other retirement system, and (e) the retirement board provided for in said paragraph (4½) (b) shall be abolished; provided, however, that the members and officers thereof shall continue to be authorized to do all such things and take all such action as may be necessary or desirable to be done or taken by them to effectuate the transfers to be made pursuant to this section.

SECTION 6. Effective upon the date of dissolution of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, said chapter thirty-two shall be amended as follows:

(1) Section 11 of subdivision (3) shall be amended by striking out the second paragraph of subdivision (3) and inserting in place thereof the following:- No check which has been issued by the state treasurer in payment of any obligation of the state board of retirement, the teachers' retirement board or the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system under authority of sections 1 to 28, inclusive, or which is issued by any county, city or town treasurer or by the secretary-treasurer of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority or by the treasurer of Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency in payment of any obligation of any retirement system established under this chapter shall be payable later than six years after its date, and the obligation of the commonwealth or of any county, city, town, the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority or the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency represented by any such check shall not be enforceable if such check is not presented for payment within such period. The amount represented by such check shall thereupon be transferred to the pension fund of the retirement system under whose authority the check was originally issued, or its successor in interest.

(2) Section 20 shall be amended by striking out paragraphs (4½) (b), (4½) (c), (4½) (d), (4½) (e) and (4½) (f) thereof.

(5) Section 21 shall be further amended by striking out the fourth sentence of subdivision (2) and inserting in place thereof the following:- The pension fund of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system shall be charged with, and the treasurer-custodian thereof shall pay therefrom to the commonwealth, such proportion of such expenses attributable to such system as shall be determined just and proper by the commissioner, which sum shall be paid to the state treasurer upon notice from the commissioner.

(6) Section 22 shall be further amended by striking out paragraph (7) (e).

(7) Section 23 shall be amended by striking out the first sentence of paragraph (1) (a) and inserting in place thereof the following:- There shall be an unpaid investment committee which shall have general supervision of the investment and reinvestment of the funds of the state employees' retirement system, the funds of the teachers' retirement system and the funds of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority employees' retirement system.

(8) Section 23 shall be further amended by striking out of the heading of subdivision (2) the words "the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority" and by striking out of the first sentence of paragraph (2) (a) the words "the secretary-treasurer of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority" and the words "the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority."

"Commercial property", all real property and improvements which are not used nor held for use for a residential or industrial and manufacturing purpose, including but not limited to any commercial, business, retail, trade, professional service, recreational, artistic, sporting, fraternal, governmental, educational, medical or religious enterprise. Such property may be used for profit or nonprofit purposes and may be expressly exempt from taxation by other provisions of this chapter or of chapter fifty-nine.

"Commissioner", the commissioner of corporations and taxation.

"Industrial and manufacturing property", all real property and improvements which is used or held for use for profit making purposes involving the manufacturing, milling, producing, processing, or fabricating of materials; the extraction or processing of materials which are unserviceable in their natural state to create commercial products or materials; or the mechanical or chemical transformation of materials or substances into new products. Industrial and manufacturing property shall include the storage, transmitting and generating facilities of utilities regulated by the department of public utilities.

"Open space property", all real property and improvements thereto which is used for profit or nonprofit purposes, and which is characterized principally by an open or natural condition and whose preservation provides the public with the benefit of the conservation of natural resources such as air, water and wildlife, or whose preservation contributes to the enjoyment and economic value of surrounding residential, commercial or industrial and manufacturing property. No private association or club shall be deemed owners of "open space property" that discriminates its membership on grounds of race, religion or sex. Such associations shall be deemed owners of "commercial property".

"Parcel", a unit of real property as defined by the assessor in accordance with the deed for such property.

"Residential property", all real property and improvements thereto which is used or held for use for human habitation and which contains a room or group of rooms which form a habitable unit for a person or persons and which has facilities used or intended to be used for living, sleeping, cooking and eating. Residential property includes accessory buildings and property determined by the assessors to be incidental to property used for human habitation if such accessory property is available for use only by the resident, or residents. Residential property shall not include a hotel, motel or lodging house.

Section 2. All real property within the commonwealth shall be subject to valuation and classification by the assessors of the city or town in which the real property is situated. Real property for the purposes of valuation, classification and taxation shall include all land and all buildings and improvements thereon or affixed thereto.

Section 3. The assessors of each city and town shall determine the fair cash valuation and classification of real property for the purposes of taxation according to the valuation and the use of such property on the first day of January of each year.

Section 4. The assessors shall determine the fair cash valuation of all real property according to section thirty-eight of chapter fifty-nine and shall secure an equitable and uniform valuation of all real property situated in the same class.

Section 5. The assessors shall classify all taxable real property according to the following uses:

Class one.

All real property and the improvements thereto, if any, used or held for use for residential purposes, shall be classified as class one property.

Class two.

All real property and the improvements thereto, if any, used or held for use for commercial purposes, shall be classified as class two property.

Class three.

All real property and the improvements thereto, if any, used or held for use for industrial or manufacturing purposes, shall be classified as class three property.

Class four.

Upon approval by the assessors of an application filed in accordance with section six, all real property and the improvements thereto, if any, which is open space property shall be classified as class four property.

Section 6. The eligibility of real property for classifications as class four, open space property, shall be determined for each tax year. Application therefor shall be submitted to the assessors of each city and town in which such land is situated not later than October first of the year preceding the tax year for which such classification is being sought. Application shall be made on a form prescribed by the commissioner and provided for the use of the applicant by said assessors. Such form shall provide for the reporting of such information as the assessor may require to aid him in determining whether such land qualifies for class four classification, and shall provide a statement of the potential tax liability under sections thirty-seven and thirty-eight. The applicant shall sign and certify the accuracy of such application under the penalties of perjury.

Failure to file an application for the classification of property as class four property within the time and in the manner prescribed shall constitute a waiver of the right to such classification.

Section 7. An application for classification of property as class four property shall be allowed or disallowed by the assessors of the city or town in which such land is located within three months of the filing thereof. An application for classification as class four property shall be disallowed by the assessors of the city or town in which such land is located if, in their judgment, such land does not qualify thereunder. The failure of the assessors to allow or disallow any such application within three months following the filing thereof, shall be deemed to be an allowance of such application. The assessors shall within ten days of an allowance, or disallowance, send written notice of such allowance or disallowance by certified mail to the applicant and shall set forth therein the reason or reasons for disallowance together with a statement advising the landowner of his right to appeal therefrom as provided in section fifty-nine of chapter fifty-nine.

With respect to the first application relating to a parcel of land which has been approved, and any subsequent such application after a lapse of time when such land has not been classified as class four property, or after a change of record ownership of such land, the assessors shall forthwith cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds of the county or district in which the city or town is situated a statement of their action which shall constitute a lien upon the land covered by such application for such taxes as may be levied under the provisions of this chapter. The statement shall name the owner or owners of record and shall include a description of the land adequate for identification. Unless such a statement is recorded the lien shall not be effective with respect to a bona fide purchaser or other transferee without actual knowledge of such lien. Upon application by any record owner, such liens shall be released by the assessors with respect to any parcel of land as provided below in this section upon the applicable facts being established by their records or by affidavits or otherwise.

All liens for a conveyance tax under section thirty-seven shall be released upon its being so established that no conveyance or change of use by the owner at the time of such release will result in a conveyance tax under said section or that any such taxes which have become due have been paid.

All liens for roll-back taxes under section thirty-eight, other than roll-back taxes based on a change of use after the date of such release, shall be released upon its being established that no roll-back taxes have become due or that any such taxes which have become due have been paid.

The assessors shall also have the power and authority to release any such liens to correct any errors or omissions. Any release under this section shall be recorded with the registry of deeds.

When any land which has been classified as class four property ceases to be so classified the assessors shall forthwith record in the registry of deeds a statement to that effect which shall include the name of the record owner or owners, the date when such land ceased to be so valued, assessed and taxed and a description of the land adequate for identification.

Section 8. All real property which is exempt from taxation under section five of chapter fifty-nine shall be classified according to guidelines promulgated by the commissioner.

Section 9. Where real property is used for more than one purpose and such use would result in different classifications, then the assessors shall classify such property by determining the percentage of the fair cash valuation of the property which is allocated to each use.

Section 10. All real property situated within the commonwealth shall be subject to taxation, unless such property is expressly exempt, in whole or in part, under this chapter or under section five of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 11. Mortgages upon taxable buildings or other improvements shall be deemed mortgages of real property for the purposes of taxation, and shall be taxed under this chapter.

Section 12. The assessors before making an assessment shall give reasonable notice thereof to all persons subject to taxation of real property in their respective city or town. Such notice shall be posted in one or more public places in each city or town, or shall be given in some other sufficient manner, and shall require said persons to bring to the assessors such lists as may be required under section twenty-nine of chapter fifty-nine. The assessors shall administer such lists in the manner, and under the conditions, specified in sections thirty through thirty-seven, inclusive, of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 13. A board of assessors may request the owner or lessee of any real property to make a written return under oath within sixty days containing such information as may reasonably be required by it to determine the actual fair cash valuation of such property.

Failure of an owner or lessee of real property to comply with such request within sixty days after it has been made shall bar him from any statutory appeal under this chapter, unless the owner or lessee of such real property was unable to comply with such request for reasons beyond his control. If any owner or lessee of real property in a return made under this section makes any statement which he knows to be false in a material particular, such false statement shall bar him from any statutory appeal under this chapter.

Section 14. A board of assessors may require testimony under oath of a taxpayer relative to his written return filed under section thirteen and may also require testimony under oath of any applicant for abatement under section thirty-six.

Section 15. The assessors shall make, on the books furnished under section forty-five of chapter fifty-nine, a list of the valuation, classification and assessment of all real property in their respective city or town. The assessors shall administer such lists in the manner, and under the conditions, specified in sections forty-three, forty-four, forty-six, forty-nine, fifty, fifty-one and fifty-two of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 16. If real property which is liable to taxation is omitted from the annual assessment of taxes or if the taxation of such property is invalid by reason of error or irregularity in the assessment, the assessors may reassess such property or reassess such tax in the manner and under the conditions specified in sections seventy-five through seventy-eight, inclusive, of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 17. There shall be exempt from property taxation, except special assessments, five thousand dollars of the taxable valuation of residential real property. No more than one residential real property exemption shall be allowed to any one residential parcel. This exemption shall be in addition to all exemptions which may be granted under section five of chapter fifty-nine; provided, however, in no instance shall the taxable valuation of such property be reduced below ten per cent of the fair cash valuation of such property, unless such reduction has been caused by the application of clause eighteen of section five of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 18. In determining the taxation of nonexempt real property classified under section five, the assessor shall apply to the fair cash valuation of such property the following percentages:

- Class one, forty per cent;
- Class two, fifty per cent;
- Class three, fifty-five per cent;
- Class four, twenty-five per cent.

Section 19. All real property, which is not totally exempt from taxation, shall be taxed according to the following procedures:

First, the assessor shall determine the fair cash valuation of the property.

Second, the assessor shall determine the classification of the property.

Third, the assessor shall apply the classification ratio to the fair cash valuation of the property. The resulting figure shall determine the taxable valuation for all real property within classes two, three and four.

Fourth, the assessor shall apply the residential exemption to all property in class one. The resulting figure shall determine the taxable valuation for all real property within class one.

Fifth, the assessor shall apply the tax rate, as determined by the city or town, to the taxable valuation to reach the tax which shall be due and payable on such property.

Section 19A. All real and personal property of electric and gas utility companies subject to rate regulation by the department of public utilities or the federal energy regulatory commission, unless such property is otherwise exempted by law, shall be exempt from real and personal property tax under this chapter and under chapter fifty-nine; provided, however, that such utility companies shall be subject to a local excise for the privilege of doing business in a city or town. To compute such excise, the assessor of each city and town in which such utility company property exists shall multiply the current tax rate by the current assessed value of such property, as determined by the state tax commissioner. The current assessed value of such property of such electric and gas utility companies in each city or town shall be determined by multiplying the current net book value of such property by the assessment factor computed by use of the following formula:-

$$F \text{ EQUALS } \frac{AVU}{CVU} \text{ TIMES } \frac{CVN}{AVN}$$

As used in the foregoing formula the following letters shall have the following meanings:-

F, excise assessment factor

AVU, actual assessed value for fiscal year nineteen hundred and seventy-eight, as finally determined under the appeal procedures of chapter fifty-nine, of all real and personal property of utility companies within the city or town.

CVU, net book value for fiscal year nineteen hundred and seventy-eight of all real and personal property of utility companies within the city or town, as determined by the state tax commissioner.

CVN, taxable valuation for fiscal year nineteen hundred and seventy-eight of all real and personal property of non-utilities within the city or town, determined as though chapter fifty-nine A had been applicable thereto.

AVN, actual assessed valuation for fiscal year nineteen hundred and seventy-eight of all real and personal property of non-utilities within the city or town.

Excises so assessed by such city or town for such privilege of doing business shall be paid in accordance with the applicable provisions of chapter fifty-nine and this chapter.

The state tax commissioner may require a utility company subject to such local excise to provide information necessary to establish the net book value of real and personal property in each city and town where such property is located.

Section 20. Except as otherwise provided in section twenty-two, real estate owned in fee or otherwise or held in trust for the benefit of the United States, the commonwealth, or a county, city or town, or any instrumentality thereof, if used in connection with a business conducted for profit or leased or occupied for other than public purposes, shall for the privilege of such use, lease or occupancy, be valued, classified, and taxed annually as of January first to the user, lessee or occupant in the same manner and to the same extent as if such user, lessee or occupant were the owner thereof in fee, whether or not there is any agreement by such user, lessee or occupant to pay taxes assessed under this section; provided, however, that whenever under the constitution and laws of the United States the privilege of such use, lease or occupancy of real estate owned by the United States cannot be taxed as aforesaid, but a leasehold or other interest in such real estate or the ownership of or an interest in buildings and other things erected thereon or affixed thereto, may be taxed, such interest or ownership shall be valued, classified, assessed and taxed to the holder thereof to the extent permitted by such constitution and laws. Except as otherwise provided, a payment purporting to be in lieu of a local tax for a particular year on real estate subject to this section shall be applied in reduction of the tax assessed under this section for such year with respect to such real estate. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section thirty, unless there is a different agreement, no tax assessed under this section shall be retained out of rent or recovered under section thirty.

No tax assessed under this section shall be a lien upon the real estate with respect to which it is assessed; nor shall any such tax be enforced by any sale or taking of such real estate; but the interest of any lessee therein may be sold or taken by the collector of the town in which the real estate lies for the nonpayment of such tax in the manner provided by law for the sale or taking of real estate for nonpayment of annual taxes. Such collector shall have for the collection of taxes assessed under this section all other remedies provided by chapter sixty for the collection of annual taxes upon real estate.

This section shall not apply to a use, lease or occupancy which is reasonably necessary to the public purpose of a public airport, port facility, highway, turnpike, transportation system, park, or similar property which is available to the use of the general public or to easements, grants, licenses or rights of way of public utility companies; to the property of the United States, or any instrumentality thereof, for which payments are made in lieu of taxes in amount equivalent to taxes which might otherwise be lawfully assessed, in behalf of the United States or any instrumentality thereof; or to the property of the United States, or any instrumentality thereof, which is used by the manufacturing corporation so classified under chapter fifty-eight.

Section 21. All interests in real property situated within the commonwealth heretofore or hereafter acquired by any corporation by eminent domain and all such interests in real property heretofore or hereafter purchased by any corporation when it could have been acquired by eminent domain shall, unless expressly exempt by the charter of such corporation or by statute, be taxed to such corporation. This section shall not apply to real property of the commonwealth or of any of its political subdivisions; nor shall it apply to real property of a railroad corporation, which shall continue to be governed by section eighty-seven of chapter one hundred and sixty and any other provisions of law applicable thereto.

Section 22. Whenever the Congress of the United States has so provided a leasehold interest in real property owned and leased by the United States and in buildings and other things erected thereon or affixed thereto shall be assessed and taxed to the lessee or his assigns to the extent so provided by the Congress. Payment of the aforesaid taxes shall not be enforced by any lien upon or sale of the said real property, but, in the case of any leasehold subject to taxation as aforesaid, the interest of the lessee or lessees or their assigns therein may be sold by the collector of taxes of the city or town in which the real property is situated for the nonpayment of the tax assessed as aforesaid in the manner provided by law for the sale of real property for nonpayment of local taxes. Said collectors shall have for the collection of taxes assessed under this section all other remedies provided by chapter sixty for the collection of taxes by collectors of cities and towns.

Section 23. Property held by a city, town or district including the metropolitan water district, in another city or town for the purpose of a water supply, the protection of its sources or of sewage disposal, or of a public airport if yielding no rent, shall not be liable to taxation therein; but the city, town or district so holding it shall, annually on July first, pay to the city or town where it lies an amount equal to that which such city or town would receive for taxes upon the average of the assessed taxable valuation of the land, which shall not include buildings or other structures except in the case of land taken for the purpose of protecting the sources of an existing water supply, for the three years last preceding the acquisition thereof, the valuation for each year being reduced by all abatements thereon. Whenever a city or town in which such land is located shall have made a general revaluation of all its real property for purposes of taxation, the valuation of such land for the purpose of payments authorized by this section shall be determined by the state tax commission as of January first, between January first and June first, in the year nineteen hundred and seventy and in every fifth year thereafter, so that the payment with respect to such land shall remain substantially the same as that made prior to such revaluation. The city, town or district owning such land, if aggrieved by the determination of the commission, may within three months after written notice thereof appeal to the appellate tax board. Any part of such land or buildings from which any revenue in the nature of rent is received shall be subject to taxation. Revenue received for the use of such areas of land within the property so held for the purpose of a public airport as are used for the take-off and landing of aircraft, including runways and taxi strips, or the use of buildings on such property which are used as a terminal or administration building or for housing, servicing and repairing aircraft, shall not be deemed to be rent or revenue in the nature of rent within the meaning of this paragraph.

If such land is part of a larger tract which has been assessed as a whole, its assessed taxable valuation in any year shall be taken to be that proportional part of the taxable valuation of the whole tract which the value of the land so acquired, exclusive of buildings, bore in that year to the value of the entire estate.

Section 24. The assessors of a city or town where land is acquired by such other city, town or district for water supply or sewage disposal or for a public airport shall, within one year after such acquisition, determine the average taxable valuation of such land under the preceding section and certify the amount so determined to such other city, town or district. The mayor or selectmen, the commissioners or prudential committee of a district, or the metropolitan district commission, within six months after receipt of said certificate, may appeal from such determination to the appellate tax board; and said board shall determine the valuation in the manner provided in the preceding section, and section sixty-five of chapter fifty-nine so far as applicable, shall govern such appeal.

If land within any city or town shall have been taken from it for said purposes, and for any one of the three years prior to the taking no taxes have been collected thereon, the city or town and the board or officer having charge of the land so taken may within six years after the taking agree as to the valuation of the land upon which the annual payment is to be made as aforesaid from the time of the taking, and if they cannot agree the board or officer shall notify the city or town thereof, and thereupon the value shall be determined by the appellate tax board under said section sixty-five of chapter fifty-nine and said notice shall be deemed to be the notice referred to in said section sixty-five of chapter fifty-nine. This and section twenty-three shall apply to property held for the purposes of the metropolitan water supply, except property situated in Ashland, Boylston, Holden, Hopkinton, Sterling or West Boylston, but shall apply only to property acquired by a city, town or district, including the metropolitan water district, prior to January first, nineteen hundred and forty-six.

Section 25. Land acquired on or after January first, nineteen hundred and forty-six, by a municipality or a district, including the metropolitan water district, and held on January first in any year for any public purpose by such municipality, in this section referred to as the holding municipality, or by such district, if such land lies in a municipality other than such holding municipality, or, in the case of land so acquired and held by a district, in a municipality other than the municipality or municipalities in which the district lies or which constitute the district, shall, with all buildings and other things erected thereon or affixed thereto, be exempt from taxation in such year except as hereinafter otherwise provided; but such holding municipality or district shall, on July first of such year, pay to the municipality where such land lies the amount which would be assessable for the next following year upon a valuation equal to the average of the assessed taxable valuations of the land and all buildings and other things erected thereon or affixed thereto on the three assessment dates next preceding the acquisition of the land, the assessed taxable valuation for each assessment date being reduced by all abatements, if any. If land subject to this section was not separately assessed or was exempt from taxation on any of said assessment dates, the assessors shall determine an assessed taxable valuation for the land and all buildings and improvements thereto according to guidelines promulgated by the commissioner. Whenever a city or town in which such land is located shall have made a general revaluation of all its real property for purposes of taxation, the valuation of such land for the purpose of payments authorized by this section shall be determined by the state tax commission as of January first, between January first and June first, in the year nineteen hundred and seventy and in every fifth year thereafter, so that payment with respect to such land shall remain substantially the same as that made prior to such revaluation. The holding municipality or district, if aggrieved by the determination of the commission, may within three months after written notice thereof appeal to the appellate tax board.

The assessors of the municipality where land subject to this section lies shall determine the average taxable valuation in accordance with this section and certify such valuation to the holding municipality or district liable under this section. Such holding municipality or district, if aggrieved by such determination, may within three months, after such certification appeal to the appellate tax board, which shall determine the average taxable valuation in accordance with this section.

If rent or any revenue in the nature of rent is received from any part of any real estate subject to this section, the party yielding such rent or revenue shall be subject to taxation. The tax shall be in addition to the amount payable under this section. Revenue received for the use of such portions of a public airport as are used for the taking off and landing of airplanes, including runways, taxi and transition strips, or revenue received for the use of buildings on a public airport, which are actually and exclusively used for servicing and repairing airplanes, shall not be deemed to be rent or revenue in the nature of rent within the meaning of this paragraph.

Section 26. Taxes on real estate shall be assessed in the town where it lies, to the person who is the owner on January first, and the person appearing of record, in the records of the county, or of the district, if such county is divided into districts, where the estate lies, as owner on January first, even though deceased, shall be held to be the true owner thereof; provided, that whenever the commissioner deems it proper he may, in writing, authorize the assessment of taxes upon real estate to the person who is in possession thereof on January first, and such person shall thereupon be held to be the true owner thereof for the purposes of this section; and provided, further, that whenever the commissioner deems it proper he may, in writing, authorize the assessment of taxes upon any present interest in real estate to the owner of such interest on January first, and taxes on such interest may thereupon be assessed to such person. Real estate held by a religious society as a ministerial fund shall be assessed to its treasurer in the town where the land lies. Buildings erected on land leased by the commonwealth under section twenty-six of chapter seventy-five shall be assessed to the lessees, or their assignees, at the taxable valuation of said buildings. Except as provided in the three following sections, mortgagors or real estate shall for the purpose of taxation be deemed the owners until the mortgagee takes possession, after which the mortgagee shall be deemed the owner.

Whenever the assessors of any town assess a tax on real estate to a person other than the person appearing of record, in the records of the county, or of the district, if such county is divided into districts, where the estate lies, as owner on January first, such assessors shall, if the tax is a lien upon such real estate under section thirty-seven of chapter sixty, unless the commissioner shall certify that the assessors by reasonable diligence cannot ascertain the name of the person so appearing of record, include in such assessment the name of the person so appearing of record without imposing upon him personal liability for the tax.

Whenever the commissioner deems it proper he may, in writing, authorize the assessment of taxes upon real property to persons unknown, provided that the assessors certify to the commissioner that they cannot by reasonable diligence ascertain the name of the person appearing of record.

Real estate permanently restricted under section seventeen B of chapter twenty-one, section one hundred and five of chapter one hundred and thirty, section forty A of chapter one hundred and thirty-one and section thirty-one of chapter one hundred and eighty-four shall be assessed as a separate parcel of real estate. The initial assessment as a separate parcel shall be made on January first of the year next following the conveyance of such permanent restriction.

Section 27. If any person has an interest in real estate, not exempt from taxation under section five of chapter fifty-nine, as holder of a duly recorded mortgage given to secure the payment of a fixed and certain sum of money, the amount of his interest as mortgagee shall be assessed as real estate in the town where the land lies; and the mortgagor shall be assessed only for the taxable valuation of such real estate after deducting the taxable valuation of the interest therein of such mortgagee. If such real estate is situated in two or more towns, the amount of the mortgagee's interest to be assessed in each town shall be proportioned to the taxable valuation of the mortgaged real estate in the respective towns, deducting therefrom the taxable amount of prior mortgages, if any, thereon.

Section 28. If the holder of such mortgage fails to file in the assessor's office a sworn statement of all his estate liable to taxation under the preceding section, including a statement of the full amount remaining unpaid upon such mortgage and of his interest therein, the amount stated in the mortgage shall be conclusive as to the extent of such interest; but his interest in such real estate shall not be assessed at a greater sum than the taxable valuation of the land and the structures thereon or affixed thereto; and the amount of a mortgage interest in an estate divided after the creation of such mortgage need not be apportioned upon the several parts of such estate, except as provided in sections twenty-nine to thirty-five, inclusive. Whenever, in any case of mortgaged real estate, such statement is not brought in, no tax on such real estate for the year then current shall be invalidated for the reason that a mortgagee's interest therein has not been assessed to him.

Section 29. Mortgagors and mortgagees referred to in the two preceding sections shall for the purpose of taxation be deemed joint owners until the mortgagee takes possession; and until such possession is taken by a first mortgagee, an assessor or the collector of taxes, upon application, shall give to any such mortgagee or mortgagor a tax bill showing the whole tax on the mortgaged estate and the amount included in the valuation thereof as the interest of each mortgagee and of the mortgagor respectively. If the first mortgagee is in possession, he shall be deemed sole owner; and any other mortgagee in possession shall be deemed joint owner with prior mortgagees.

Section 30. If a tenant paying rent for real estate is taxed therefor, he may retain out of his rent the taxes paid by him, or may recover the same in an action against his landlord, unless there is a different agreement between them.

Section 31. The undivided real estate of a deceased person may be assessed to his heirs or devisees, without designating any of them by name, until the names of such heirs or devisees appear in the probate court records in the county in which said real estate lies; and each heir or devisee shall be liable for the whole of such tax, and when paid by him he may recover of the other heirs or devisees their respective proportions thereof.

Section 32. The real estate of a person deceased, the right or title to which is doubtful or unascertained by reason of litigation concerning the will of the deceased or the validity thereof, may be assessed in general terms to his estate, and said tax shall constitute a lien upon the land so assessed and may be enforced by sale of the same or a part thereof, as provided for enforcing other liens for taxes on real estate.

Section 33. Wherever real estate has been unassessed because the right or title thereto has been doubtful or unascertained because of missing records or otherwise, and a municipality has conducted a search and has determined the record ownership of said real estate, the said real estate shall become subject to a lien for the expenditures incurred by said municipality in the determination of said ownership. The assessors of said municipality shall forthwith cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district in which the real estate is located a statement containing the name of the owner or owners of said real estate, an adequate description thereof, and the amount of said expenditures incurred, for which amount a lien on said real estate shall become effective as of the time and date of its recording. No such lien shall be effective against a bona fide purchaser or other transferee without notice of such lien. The recording fee for such statement shall be added to and become a part of the expenditures constituting said lien.

Section 34. If real property is divided by sale, mortgage, upon a petition for partition or otherwise, after a tax has been assessed thereon and such division has been duly recorded in the registry of deeds, the assessors, at any time before said real property has been advertised for sale for nonpayment of taxes, upon the written request of the owner or mortgagee of any portion thereof, shall apportion the tax, with costs and interest upon the several parcels thereof, in proportion to the value of each, and only the portion of said tax, interest and costs so apportioned upon any such parcel shall continue to be a lien upon it; and the owners or mortgagees shall be liable only for the tax apportioned upon the parcel owned in whole or in part by them respectively. If a tax so apportioned upon any parcel remains unpaid after such a commitment to the collector, it may be recovered in an action of contract or in any other appropriate action, suit or proceeding brought by the collector either in his own name or in the name of the town against said owners and mortgagees.

Section 35. A person aggrieved by any action of the assessors may within seven days thereafter appeal in like manner as in the case of an overassessment, and the decision upon such appeal shall be final.

Section 36. A person upon whom a tax has been assessed under this chapter, if aggrieved by the determination of the assessors as to their fair cash valuation or classification or by a denial or an exemption for such property, shall have the right to file an application for an abatement under section fifty-nine of chapter fifty-nine. If the assessors deny such application for abatement, the taxpayer shall have the right to appeal such denial under sections sixty through seventy-four, inclusive, of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 37. Any real property which is classified as class four property which is sold for other use within a period of ten years from the earliest date of its uninterrupted class four classification shall be subject to a conveyance tax applicable to the total sales price of such property which tax shall be in addition to such taxes as may be imposed under any provision of law. Said conveyance tax shall be at the following rate: ten per cent if sold within the first year of ownership; nine per cent if sold within the second year of ownership; eight per cent if sold within the third year of ownership; seven per cent if sold within the fourth year of ownership; six per cent if sold within the fifth year of ownership; five per cent if sold within the sixth year of ownership; four per cent if sold within the seventh year of ownership; three per cent if sold within the eighth year of ownership; two per cent if sold within the ninth year of ownership; one per cent if sold within the tenth year of ownership. No conveyance tax shall be imposed under the provisions of this section following the end of the tenth year of ownership. Said conveyance tax shall be due and payable by the grantor at the time of transfer of the property by deed or other instrument of conveyance and shall be payable to the tax collector of the city or town in which the property is entered upon the tax list; provided, that, in the case of taking by eminent domain, the value of the property taken shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of chapter seventy-nine and the amount of conveyance tax, if any, shall be added thereto as an added value; and provided further, that if there is filed with the assessors an affidavit by the purchaser that such land is being purchased for class four use, no conveyance tax shall be payable by the seller by reason of such sale, but if such property is not in fact continued in such use, the purchaser shall be liable for any conveyance tax that would have been payable on such sale as a sale for other use.

If any tax imposed under this section should not be paid, the collector of taxes shall have the same powers and be subject to the same duties with respect to such taxes as in the case of the annual taxes upon real estate, and the law in regard to the collection of the annual taxes, to the sale of land for the nonpayment thereof, and to redemption therefrom, shall apply to such taxes so far as the same are applicable. Any property which is classified as class four property, if changed by the owner thereof to another use within a period of ten years from the date of its acquisition by said owner, shall be subject to the conveyance tax applicable hereunder at the time of such change in use as if there had been an actual conveyance, and the value of such property for the purpose of determining a total sales price shall be fair cash value as determined by the assessors of the city or town.

Section 38. Whenever property which is classified as class four property no longer qualifies as class four property it shall be subject to additional taxes, hereinafter referred to as roll-back taxes, in the current tax year in which it is disqualified and in such of the four immediately preceding tax years in which the land was so classified, provided, that such roll-back taxes shall not be applicable unless the amount thereof as computed pursuant to this section, exceeds the amount, if any, imposed under the provisions of section thirty-seven and, in such case, the property shall not be subject to the conveyance tax imposed under said section thirty-seven and, provided further, that no roll-back taxes shall be applicable if the property involved is purchased for a public purpose by the city or town in which it is situated. For each year, the roll-back tax shall be an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the taxes paid or payable in accordance with class four property and that taxes that would have been paid or payable had the property been classified according to the new use.

Section 39. The assessment, collection, apportionment and payment of the roll-back taxes imposed by section thirty-eight shall be governed by the procedures provided for the assessment and taxation of omitted property under section seventy-five of chapter fifty-nine. Such procedures shall apply to each tax year for which roll-back taxes may be imposed notwithstanding the limitation set forth in said chapter fifty-nine with respect to the periods for which omitted property assessments may be imposed.

Section 40. Certificates as to Conveyance or Roll-Back Taxes. In connection with any proposed or completed sale or other transfer of any real property which has been classified as class four property the owner of record of the land may apply to the board of assessors for a certificate of the amount of conveyance tax and roll-back tax, if any, payable by reason of such sale or other transfer, or that no such tax will or has so become payable and stating the amount of any conveyance or roll-back taxes that have theretofore become payable with respect to such real property and such a certificate shall be provided to the applicant within twenty days after application therefor. Such certification may be recorded with the registry of deeds; and upon recording of such a certificate that no such tax will or has so become payable, or a certificate by the collector of taxes that the amount of tax stated in such certificate of the board of assessors has been paid, all liens on such real property for taxes under this chapter shall terminate, except that any liens for any roll-back taxes assessed by reason of such real property ceasing to qualify for valuation, assessment and taxation under this chapter after the date of such sale or other transfer, shall continue. In connection with the issuance of such a certificate, the assessors may rely upon their own records, affidavits and other information as they may deem appropriate. The assessors shall charge six dollars for each certificate so issued, and the money so received shall be paid into the town treasury.

Section 41. Whoever willfully conceals, transfers, or misrepresents any real property with the intent to evade proper valuation, classification or assessment of real property shall be penalized under the provisions of sections eighty-nine, ninety, and ninety-one of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 42. Classification of real property shall be implemented on January first, nineteen hundred and seventy-nine; provided however, that no city or town shall classify real property until all real property located within such city or town has been assessed at fair cash valuation as mandated by law and such assessment has been certified by the commissioner.

SECTION 39. Section 3A of chapter 60 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by section 5 of chapter 831 of the acts of 1974, is hereby further amended by striking out the second, third and fourth sentences and inserting in place thereof the following three sentences:-

Every tax bill or notice shall also contain a statement indicating the provisions of law governing interest on the tax to which the bill or notice relates. Every bill or notice for a real property tax shall have printed thereon in a conspicuous place the school rate, the general tax rate and the total tax rate of the town, as determined by the assessors. In addition, every bill or notice for a tax upon real property shall, by street and number, or if no street number has been assigned, by lot number or by name of property or otherwise, describe in a manner sufficient to identify it, each parcel of real property separately assessed and shall state for each such parcel the fair cash valuation of the land, the fair cash valuation of the buildings and other improvements erected thereon and affixed thereto, the classification of the property, the five thousand dollar residential exemption, if any, the taxable valuation of the property and the tax due and payable on such property.

SECTION 40. This act shall take effect upon the ratification at the biennial state election to be held in the year nineteen hundred and seventy-eight of a legislative amendment, entitled "Proposal for a legislative amendment to the Constitution authorizing the classification of property according to its use for the purpose of taxation?" This act shall be applicable to property taxes assessed for the fiscal year beginning nineteen hundred and eighty. If such amendment is not ratified this act shall be null and void.

SECTION 41. The commissioner of corporations and taxation shall, not later than the first Wednesday of December in the years nineteen hundred and seventy-nine and nineteen hundred and eighty, file a report with the clerks of the house and the senate on the effect of the provisions of this act on the property taxpayers of the commonwealth. Said report shall include but not be limited to an analysis of the property tax bills for each class of property established under the provisions of this act, for the commonwealth as a whole and each city and town thereof. Said analysis shall include but not be limited to a statement, for each of said classes of property, of the average tax bill and the proportion of the total property tax burden each of said classes of property bears to the whole: (1) before one hundred per cent valuation for those cities and towns which were not at one hundred per cent valuation as of January first, nineteen hundred and seventy-five, (2) after one hundred per cent valuation but before implementation of the provisions of this act, and (3) after implementation of the provisions of this act. Said report shall also include but not be limited to an analysis of the implementation of the provisions of this act including without exclusion the names of the cities and towns which have not been certified under the provisions of section fifty-three of this act.

SECTION 42. This act shall terminate June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eighty-four.

Approved July 24, 1978

SECTION 4. Section 18 of said chapter 59 is hereby amended by striking out clause First and inserting in place thereof the following clause:-

SECTION 5. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 60A the following chapter:-

CHAPTER 60B.

Excise on Boats, Ships and Vessels in lieu of Local Property Tax.

As used in this chapter, the following words shall, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:

Section 1. "Vessel", every watercraft, including documented boats and ships, used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, and includes all equipment, including mode of power, and furnishings that are normally required aboard the vessel during accomplishment of the functions for which the vessel is being utilized.

"Habitually moored or docked", the place where the owner has usual mooring or dockage for the summer season.

"Principally situated", for a registered ship or vessel where it is registered, and for a non registered ship or vessel, whether documented or not, the city or town in Massachusetts where it is principally located during the calendar year.

Section 2. (a) Except as hereinafter provided there shall be assessed and levied by each city and town in each fiscal year on every vessel, and its equipment, for the privilege of using the waterways of the commonwealth, an excise measured by the value thereof, as hereinafter defined and determined, at the rate of ten dollars per thousand of valuation.

(b) Any person who owns such a vessel on July first shall annually, on or before August first, make a return on oath to the assessors of the city or town where such vessel is habitually moored or docked, or in the case of a vessel which has no mooring or docking space, where said vessel is principally situated, setting forth the vessel's registration or documentation number, if any; an adequate description, as well as the owner's estimate of the fair cash value of said vessel and any engine or motor used to propel said vessel, as of the next preceding July first; and the place of habitual mooring or docking or other principal location of said vessel.

(c) For the purpose of computing the excise under this chapter the value of each such vessel, and its equipment, shall be deemed to be the fair cash value as determined by the assessors of each city and town, but not in excess of the following values:

LENGTH OF VESSEL (Overall center line Length excluding bowsprits, boomkins and similar extensions)	VALUATIONS OF VESSELS (based on age of vessel)
	Under 4 Years of age	4 thru 6 Years of age	7 or More Years of age

(d) The payment of such excise shall exempt such owner from any other tax applicable to said vessels and their equipment under chapter fifty-nine.

(e) If an owner fails to make such a return within the time herein provided, the assessors may abate the tax otherwise imposed by this chapter if such owner provides the assessors with a reasonable excuse for failure to file such return and if the return is filed on or before October thirty-first of the year in which the tax is assessed; but no abatement hereunder shall reduce the tax otherwise imposed to an amount less than the sum of the excise imposed by this section plus fifty per cent thereof.

(f) Said excise shall be assessed in the city or town where the vessel is habitually moored or docked, or in the case of a ship or vessel which has no mooring or docking space, where the ship or vessel is principally situated.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the board of assessors from granting an abatement in any case in which the excise aforesaid is, in the opinion of the board, excessive.

(h) If during any fiscal year ownership of a boat subject to an excise under this chapter is transferred by sale or otherwise, or if during any fiscal year the owner of a boat subject to such an excise removes to another state and registers a boat in such other state and surrenders or does not renew his registration in this state, the excise under this chapter shall be reduced, upon application, by an abatement equal to that proportion of an excise under this chapter on such boat for the full fiscal year which the number of days in said year remaining after the day in which such transfer by sale or otherwise or such surrender or expiration of registration occurs bears to three hundred and sixty-five.

(i) All sums received from the excise imposed under this chapter shall be paid into the treasury of the city or town and fifty per cent of said excise shall be credited to the municipal waterways improvement and maintenance fund established under the provisions of clause (72) of section five of chapter forty.

Section 3. The excise imposed by this chapter shall not apply to vessels described in section eight of chapter fifty-nine and in section sixty-seven of chapter sixty-three; to vessels owned by the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof; to law enforcement vessels; to vessels under construction; to ferries; to boats, fishing gear and nets owned and actually used by the owner in the prosecution of his business if engaged exclusively in commercial fishing, with a total value of ten thousand dollars or less; nor to other vessels with a value of one thousand dollars or less. Said exemptions shall not subject said vessels and their equipment to any other tax under section four of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 4. The board of assessors, upon assessing the excise imposed by this chapter, shall commit the same to the collector of taxes with their warrant for the collection thereof. The collector of taxes shall seasonably notify the owner of the excise assessed and the due date, but failure to receive notice shall not affect the validity of the excise. Said excise shall be due and payable at the expiration of sixty days from the date upon which the notice was issued by the collector pursuant to this chapter.

Section 5. The provisions of law relative to the collection, payment, abatement, verification and administration of the motor vehicle excise imposed under chapter sixty A shall so far as pertinent apply to the excise imposed under this chapter.

Section 6. The commissioner of corporations and taxation shall annually transmit to the director of marine and recreational vehicles a list of all ships or vessels documented as of July first under the laws of the United States whose owners reside in Massachusetts. The boat list shall include for each boat the name and residence of the registered owner, the documentation number, type, length, and model year of the boat and type and horsepower of the engine or motor used to propel said boat and the city or town in which it is habitually moored or docked.

SECTION 6. The first paragraph of section 11 of chapter 90B of the General Laws, as amended by chapter 804 of the acts of 1973, is hereby further amended by striking out the second, third, fourth and fifth sentences and inserting in place thereof the following:-

He shall (1) submit to the secretary for his approval a numbering system for motorboats, (2) require that all applications for number, certificates of number, and reports of boating accidents contain the same information as that contained in similar documents of the coast guard, and (3) compile on or before December thirty-first of each year lists of all snow vehicles and recreational vehicles and on or before September thirtieth of each year lists of all boats registered as of the previous July first under the provisions of this chapter. The boat lists shall include for each boat the name and residence of the registered owner, the registration number, make, type, length, model year of the boat and the make, type, horsepower and model year of the engine or motor used to propel said boat and, if appropriate, the city or town in which it is habitually moored or docked, or with respect to trailered boats, the city or town where registered.

The snow vehicle and recreational vehicle lists shall include for each vehicle the name and residence of the registered owner, the registration number, type, size and model year and the city or town in which the vehicle is customarily kept. (Chapter 366); were passed, but failed to receive executive approval; as, however, they were not returned, with objections thereto, within ten days after they had been received in the Executive Department, the General Court not having been dissolved in the meantime, said Acts have the force of law, under the provisions of the Constitution governing such cases and have been so certified.

The Governor returned 4 Acts with his objections thereto in writing. Upon said 3 Acts his objections were sustained and upon 1 Act his objections were not sustained.

Three (3) Acts entitled "An Act Making Appropriations for the Fiscal Year Ending June the Thirtieth, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight to Provide for Supplementing Certain Existing Appropriations and for Certain New Activities and Projects."; "An Act Relative to the Sale of Certain Alcoholic Beverages by Wholesalers and Importers."; and "An Act Providing that Persons Under the Age of Eighteen Shall Wear Protective Headgear While Operating or Riding as a Passenger on a Motorcycle." were returned by him with his objections thereto, to the Branch in which they originated, were reconsidered and, the vote being taken on their passage, the objections of the Governor thereto notwithstanding, they were rejected and said Acts thereby became void.

One (1) Act entitled "An Act Authorizing and Directing the Department of Public Health to Make Certain Determinations of Need Relative to Sacred Heart Home." (Chapter 137) was passed and laid before the Governor for his approval, was returned by him with his objections thereto, to the Branch in which it originated, was reconsidered, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and, the vote being taken on its passage, the objections of the Governor thereto notwithstanding, it was passed and said Act has thereby the force of law.

Thirty-three (33) Acts, Chapters 11, 21, 30, 55, 73, 77, 78, 91, 103, 118, 120, 124, 146, 160, 172, 177, 201, 205, 221, 232, 234, 282, 300, 329, 351, 356, 384, 401, 459, 506, 542, 543 and 567, and two (2) Resolves, Chapters 5 and 9, were declared to be emergency laws by the Governor in accordance with the provisions of the Forty-eighth Amendment to the Constitution, the Referendum II, Emergency Measures.

Forty (40) Acts, having been passed by the General Court and the General Court having prorogued, failed to become effective as they did not receive executive approval within ten days.

The General Court was prorogued on Wednesday, July 12, 1978 at 5:26 A.M., the session having occupied 190 days.

Question No. 1 (Article CXII)

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution

Do you approve of the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution summarized below, which was approved by the General Court in joint sessions of the House of Representatives and Senate on May 28, 1975, by a vote of 220-53, and on September 7, 1977, by a vote of 243-20?

SUMMARY

The proposed constitutional amendment would permit the legislature to establish as many as four different classes of real property for tax purposes. Property in any one class would be required to be assessed, rated and taxed proportionately but property in different classes could be assessed, rated and taxed differently. The legislature could grant reasonable exemptions. The constitution presently requires all property (other than wild lands, forest lands and certain agricultural and horticultural lands) to be assessed and rated equally at full value for tax purposes.

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution

SUMMARY

Do you approve of the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution summarized below, which was approved by the General Court in joint sessions of the House of Representatives and Senate on June 26, 1976, by a vote of 244-6, and on August 10, 1977, by a vote of 253-1?

The proposed constitutional amendment would require the Secretary of the Commonwealth to send information about questions that will appear on the state election ballot to each person eligible to vote in the Commonwealth, or to every residence in the Commonwealth where one or more eligible voters live. Presently, the Constitution requires the Secretary to send this information to each registered voter in the Commonwealth.

Question No. 4 (Article CIX)

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution

Do you approve of the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution summarized below, which was approved by the General Court in joint sessions of the House of Representatives and Senate on May 26, 1976, by a vote of 266-0, and on August 10, 1977, by a vote of 258-0?

SUMMARY

The proposed constitutional amendment would require that in the taking of the state census, residence be determined in accordance with the standards used by the United States when taking the federal census. Under the federal standards, residence is based upon where a person spends most of his or her time whereas under present state standards residence is based upon legal domicile. The standards would be subject to any exceptions which the legislature might enact.

Question No. 7 (Article XLI)

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution

Do you approve of the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution summarized below, which was approved by the General Court in joint sessions of the House of Representatives and Senate on August 11, 1976, by a vote of 248-5, and on May 24, 1978, by a vote of 257-0?

SUMMARY

The proposed constitutional amendment would give the legislature the power to establish a different method of property taxation for land which is used for recreational purposes and for land preserved in its natural state. It would add these two categories to the existing constitutional provision which allows the legislature to tax wild and forest land differently. The amendment's stated purpose is to develop and conserve natural resources and the environmental benefits of recreational land.
