101 CMR 337.00: Rates for Dialysis Treatments and Home Dialysis Supplies

Effective January 1, 2025

Clarification on Individual Consideration Payment Methodology

Summary

In accordance with 101 CMR 337.01(6), the Executive Office of Health and Human Services (EOHHS) is adding the following definition of individual consideration (IC) payment methodology to 101 CMR 337.02 to clarify 101 CMR 337.01(5)(d) and associated IC rates issued via Administrative Bulletin 25-18.

Individual Consideration (IC)

For service codes under 101 CMR 337.00 for which no rate is listed and that EOHHS has designated "IC," the purchaser determines the payment amount on an IC basis upon receipt of a bill and supporting documentation describing the services/items rendered. In determining the appropriate payment, the purchaser considers

- (a) the time required;
- (b) the degree of skill required;
- (c) the severity and complexity of the patient's condition;
- (d) the cost of goods supplied, including catalog prices and, where applicable, invoices; and
- (e) the policies, procedures, and practices of other third-party purchasers of care (governmental and private).
