THIS FORM MAY BE REQUIRED IN CASES SUBJECT TO MASS. R. CIV. P. 55.1(d)

The affiant in this action states that the defendant's residential address was re-verified by within three months prior to the request for default judgment by at least one of the following three methods, as indicated below (check 1, 2 or 3):

1. Receipt of correspondence from the defendant with that return address OR other verification from the defendant within the three-month period that such address is current. Such other verification from defendant was obtained as follows:

_____
_____

Date of this verification: _____

2. Certified mail receipt signed by the defendant with that address within the three-month period.

Date of this verification: _____

3. Letter sent by first-class mail to that address for the defendant that has not been returned to sender by the postal service, AND verifying the same address as current using a paid subscriber-based commercial online database AND:

- A municipal record, such as a street list or tax records, namely:

OR

- A state motor vehicle registry record, namely:

- Neither a municipal record nor a state motor vehicle registry record is available.

If any database or municipal or state record used shows more than one address for the defendant during the last 12 months, the basis for selecting the address(es) to be used for service is:

Date of this verification: _____

The affiant also states that the documents reflecting the verification method(s) indicated above are attached to this affidavit.
