Emergency Policy on Teletherapy for
Applicant Experience and Supervision Hours

At its meeting on November 20, 2020, the Board of Registration of Allied Mental Health and Human Services Professions voted to extend the following policy:

Because of the current declared state of emergency in Massachusetts, to the extent applicable for applicants of all license types, teletherapy sessions and supervision through video conferencing or telephone that occurred or will occur from March 10, 2020 through August 31, 2021 will be accepted toward experience hours and Direct Client Contact Experience or supervision requirements.
