NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Dear Customer:

We recently detected unauthorized activity on your T-Mobile account, during which an unknown actor would have had access to your personal information, including customer account personal identification number (PIN). T-Mobile quickly identified and shut down this unauthorized activity; however, we recommend that you change your customer account PIN.

What Happened?

On August 31, 2020, an unknown actor gained access to certain account information. It appears the actor may then have used this information to port your line to a different carrier without your authorization. T-Mobile identified this activity-terminated the unauthorized access, and implemented measures to protect against reoccurrence.

What Information Was Involved?

The information accessed may have included full name, address, phone number, account number, driver's license number, PIN, and number of lines subscribed to.

What We Are Doing

We are offering you two years of free credit monitoring and identity theft detection services, provided by myTrueIdentity, from Transunion. Your activation code is _____. Please enroll by _____ at www.mytrueidentity.com. Attached is a Step-by-Step Enrollment Guide as well as a How-To for signing up for Credit Monitoring Services.

What You Can Do

While we have no further evidence that the information accessed has been misused, we recommend that, if you have not already done so, you contact Customer Care for help recovering your line if necessary and review your account information and, as noted above, change the PIN on your account. We also encourage you to update your account passwords and confirm you have appropriate security for your email, financial, and other accounts. For assistance, you can reach Customer Care by dialing 611 from your phone or by calling 1-800-937-8997 from any phone. For additional resources regarding security on your account, please review our Privacy Resources at: <https://www.t-mobile.com/responsibility/privacy>.

We urge you to remain vigilant in monitoring any potentially unauthorized credit activity associated with your identity. You may obtain additional information about the risks of identity theft from the FTC at 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338) or at <http://www.ftc.gov/idtheft>. If you suspect that you are the victim of identity theft or fraud, you have the right to file a report with the police or law enforcement. In addition, you may contact the FTC or your State Attorney General to learn more about the steps you can take to protect yourself against identity theft.

If you have questions about myTrueIdentity, need help understanding something on your credit report, or suspect that an item on your credit report may be fraudulent, please contact TransUnion's customer care at 1-855-288-5422 using passcode _____.

You may wish to place a fraud alert with the three major credit bureaus which we have listed below. A fraud alert lets creditors know to contact you before opening new accounts in your name. You can call any one of the three credit bureaus at the number below to place a fraud alert on your credit file without charge, and they will contact the other two bureaus on your behalf. Additionally, some states allow residents to place a no-cost "freeze" on their credit file with the credit bureau.
