NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

We are writing to let you know of a data security incident at Blackbaud Inc., a data service vendor for the Partnership to End Addiction ("Partnership"). Blackbaud is a leading provider of software services and hosts files or backups for hundreds of schools, foundations, and nonprofits like us around the world. We recently determined that this security incident impacted certain donors of the Partnership, so we are reaching out to you.

What Happened?

In May 2020, Blackbaud discovered that an unauthorized third party had removed a copy of certain data, including data from the Partnership and other Blackbaud clients, between February 7, 2020 and May 20, 2020. Blackbaud believes the data was destroyed after Blackbaud made a payment in response to a demand from the unauthorized third party; however, we cannot independently confirm the destruction of the data. Blackbaud has provided additional details about this incident at Blackbaud's website at <https://www.blackbaud.com/securityincident>.

What Information Was Involved?

On December 1, 2020, we determined that the information stored in the database involved in this incident may have included, among other information, your name and financial account and routing numbers from one or more scanned checks. Your Social Security number was not included in the Blackbaud database.

What We Are Doing.

As a client of Blackbaud, we are extremely frustrated by this event and its impact on our donors and we are taking this matter very seriously. Safeguarding your personal information is a top priority for us. Upon learning of this incident, we immediately began working to investigate the incident and to identify and notify individuals affected. To date, we are not aware of any misuse of the compromised information, and as previously stated, Blackbaud has communicated its confidence that the data was destroyed.

Nevertheless, we are offering twelve months of complimentary credit monitoring/identity theft protection services through Experian's® IdentityWorksSM to certain individuals impacted by this incident, including you. You may sign up for this service by following the instructions included in Attachment A.

What You Can Do.

Regardless of whether you elect to enroll in the credit monitoring/identity theft protection service, we recommend that you remain vigilant and regularly review and monitor all of your credit history to guard against any unauthorized transactions or activity. We also recommend that you closely monitor your account statements and notify your financial institution if you suspect any unauthorized activity.

Additionally, it is important to be aware that any time personal information about you is potentially exposed, scammers may attempt to contact you to gather additional personal information about you by pretending to be a reputable source you would otherwise trust. We recommend you review the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's advice on how to recognize and avoid these types of scams, which you can find here: <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/how-recognize-and-avoid-phishing-scams>. Attachment B contains more information about steps you can take to protect yourself against fraud and identity theft.

For More Information.

Please be assured that we are taking steps to address the incident and to protect the security of your data. If you have any questions about this notice or the incident, please feel free to contact us at 212-841-5213.

Yours very truly,

Creighton Drury

Additional Information

To protect against possible fraud, identity theft or other financial loss, we encourage you to remain vigilant, to review your account statements and to monitor your credit reports. Provided below are the names and contact information for the three major U.S. credit bureaus and additional information about steps you can take to obtain a free credit report, and place a fraud alert or security freeze on your credit report. If you believe you are a victim of fraud or identity theft you should consider contacting your local law enforcement agency, your State's attorney general, or the Federal Trade Commission.

INFORMATION ON OBTAINING A FREE CREDIT REPORT

U.S. residents are entitled under U.S. law to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit bureaus. To order your free credit reports, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll-free (877) 322-8228.

INFORMATION ON IMPLEMENTING A FRAUD ALERT, CREDIT FREEZE, OR CREDIT LOCK

To place a fraud alert, credit freeze, or credit lock on your credit report, you must contact the three credit reporting agencies below:

Equifax:
Equifax Information
Services LLC
P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348
1-888-298-0045
www.equifax.com

Experian:
Credit Fraud Center
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
1-888-397-3742
www.experian.com

TransUnion:
Fraud Victim Assistance
Department
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19022-2000
1-800-680-7289
www.transunion.com

Fraud Alert: Consider contacting the three major credit reporting agencies at the addresses below to place a fraud alert on your credit report. A fraud alert indicates to anyone requesting your credit file that you suspect you are a possible victim of fraud. A fraud alert does not affect your ability to get a loan or credit. Instead, it alerts a business that your personal information might have been compromised and requires that business to verify your identity before issuing you credit. Although this may cause some short delay if you are the one applying for the credit, it might protect against someone else obtaining credit in your name.

To place a fraud alert, contact any of the three major credit reporting agencies listed above and request that a fraud alert be put on your file. The agency that you contacted must notify the other two agencies. A fraud alert is free and lasts 90 days, but can be renewed.

Credit Freeze: A credit freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report until the freeze is lifted. When a credit freeze is in place, no one—including you—can open a new account. As a result, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit, mortgages, employment, housing, or other services.

Placing a credit freeze is free. To place a credit freeze, contact all three credit reporting agencies listed above and provide the personal information required by each agency to place a freeze, which may include:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security Number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.); and
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, a copy of either a police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

When you place a credit freeze, you will be provided a PIN to lift temporarily or remove the credit freeze. A credit freeze generally lasts until you lift or remove it, although in some jurisdictions it will expire after seven years.

Credit Lock: Like a credit freeze, a credit lock restricts access to your credit report and prevents anyone from opening an account until unlocked. Unlike credit freezes, your credit can typically be unlocked online without delay. To lock your credit, contact all three credit reporting agencies listed above and complete a credit lock agreement. The cost of a credit lock varies by agency, which typically charges monthly fees.

You may also contact the U.S. Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") for further information on fraud alerts, credit freezes, credit locks, and how to protect yourself from identity theft. The FTC can be contacted at 400 7th St. SW, Washington, DC 20024; telephone 1-877-382-4357; or www.consumer.gov/idtheft.
