RE: Important Security and Protection Notification
Please read this entire letter.

Dear [REDACTED]:

We are writing to inform you about a data security incident that occurred at Robert Half International Inc. (Robert Half). The incident involved a Robert Half employee with your same last name [REDACTED] who mistakenly received your Robert Half W-2 (which included your social security number and address) in the mail. Your W-2 was in a separate envelope that was apparently stuck to the envelope containing [REDACTED] W-2. [REDACTED] mistakenly opened your envelope as she did not see your first name and only the last name. We understand [REDACTED] notified you of the mistake and at your request shredded the document. [REDACTED] also made the company aware of the mistake and has assured us that she has not used or recorded any of your personal information. We deeply regret this error. Please be assured that we have taken every step necessary to address this incident. Out of an abundance of caution, we have arranged for a credit monitoring product to be provided to you for 24 months at our cost as described below.

Security/Credit Freeze

You have the right to put a security freeze, also known as a credit freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to access your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact all three major consumer reporting agencies listed below.
