RE: NOTICE OF ATTEMPTED DATA BREACH

Dear _____,

On behalf of AmeriGas Propane, we are writing to inform you about a recent incident that may have affected some of your information. AmeriGas has addressed the situation and has engaged outside counsel as well as our Security & Compliance team to assist with its response. While we are glad the issue is now resolved, we sincerely apologize for any concern and inconvenience it could cause.

WHAT HAPPENED

We recently detected that there were unauthorized disclosures of credit card information to one of our customer service agents. We do not know whether your credit card information was shared but are writing in an abundance of caution. We investigated the issue as a precaution to further secure your information. The agent involved has been terminated and we have already implemented additional safeguards.

WHAT INFORMATION WAS INVOLVED

Customers can make secure payments by telephone through a secure, tokenized (masked) dialing process, but credit card information should not be shared verbally over the phone. We have determined that credit card information that was verbally provided by telephone to the customer service agent may have been used by the agent to make unauthorized charges to your credit card.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

While we have no indication that your information was misused in any way, you should always remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by regularly reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports. If you discover any suspicious or unusual activity on your accounts or suspect identity theft or fraud, report it immediately to your financial institutions. In addition, you may contact the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) or law enforcement to report incidents of identity theft. To learn about steps you can take to protect yourself from identity theft go to the FTC's Website, at www.identitytheft.gov, call the FTC at (877) IDTHEFT

(438-4338) or write to Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

Under federal law, you are entitled to one free copy of your credit report every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report by going to www.AnnualCreditReport.com or by calling (877) 322-8228. You may contact the nationwide credit reporting agencies at:

--	--	---

It is required by state law that you are informed of your right to obtain a police report if you are a victim of identity theft.

You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report by contacting each of the credit bureaus listed above. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you may be able to use an online process, an automated telephone line or a written request. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. The security freeze will be at no cost to you.

You may obtain additional information from the FTC and the credit reporting agencies about fraud alerts and security freezes. A fraud alert can make it more difficult for someone to get credit in your name because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, but it also may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may place a fraud alert in your file by calling just one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies listed above. As soon as that agency processes your fraud alert, it will notify the other two agencies, which then must also place fraud alerts in your file. In addition, you can contact the nationwide credit reporting agencies regarding if and how you may place a security freeze on your credit report to prohibit a credit reporting agency from releasing information from your credit report without your prior written authorization.
