Re: Notice of [Extra2]

Sample A. Sample

We are writing to inform you that some of your personal information was recently impacted when we were the victim of a cybersecurity attack. Please read this notice carefully, as it provides up-to-date information on what happened and what we are doing, as well as information on how you can obtain complimentary credit monitoring.

What happened?

On April 4, 2024, The Boxoffice Company identified a disruption to our services related to a compromise of some of our systems. Once we identified the unauthorized activity, we promptly took steps to shut it down and successfully ejected the unauthorized actor from our environment. A forensic firm was engaged to investigate what happened and what data may have been affected. We also notified law enforcement and are working to add further protections to harden our systems.

What personal information was involved?

During the incident, the unauthorized actor downloaded some company files. Once we identified the affected files, we began a process to determine whether any personal information was affected and to whom it relates.

We recently determined that your [Extra1] was downloaded on April 4, 2024.

What we are doing:

We are working with cybersecurity experts to deploy additional safeguards onto our systems, including rotating credentials, reinforcing our security practices, and actively reviewing our systems to enhance security monitoring and controls. The Company has also rebuilt the entire environment in a new cloud infrastructure with significant security and operational improvements.

We are also offering you a complimentary 24-month membership to Experian IdentityWorks, which provides you with identity detection and resolution of identity theft.

To activate your membership and start monitoring your personal information please follow the steps below:

- Ensure that you enroll by: September 30, 2024 (Your code will not work after this date.)
- Visit the Experian website to enroll: <https://www.experianidworks.com/credit>
- Provide your activation code: ABCDEFGHI

0000001

Please see Attachment A for additional details regarding these services. You must enroll by September 30, 2024, to receive these services.

What you can do:

It is always a good idea to remain vigilant against threats of identity theft or fraud and to regularly review and monitor your account statements and credit history for any signs of unauthorized transactions or activity. You can also enroll in the Experian service being offered to you. Additional information about how to protect your identity and personal information is contained in Attachment B in this mailing.

For more information:

A dedicated call center is also being set up to answer your questions about this incident. You may call it toll free at 1-833-931-5888, Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. ET (excluding major U.S. holidays).

Sincerely,

Stan Ruskowski
President, The Boxoffice Company

Attachment B – MORE INFORMATION ABOUT IDENTITY PROTECTION

INFORMATION ON OBTAINING A FREE CREDIT REPORT

U.S. residents are entitled under U.S. law to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit bureaus. To order your free credit reports, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll-free (877) 322-8228.

INFORMATION ON IMPLEMENTING A FRAUD ALERT OR SECURITY FREEZE

You can contact the three major credit bureaus at the addresses below to place a fraud alert on your credit report. A fraud alert indicates to anyone requesting your credit file that you suspect you are a possible victim of fraud. A fraud alert does not affect your ability to get a loan or credit. Instead, it alerts a business that your personal information might have been compromised and requires that business to verify your identity before issuing you credit. Although this may cause some short delay if you are the one applying for the credit, it might protect against someone else obtaining credit in your name.

A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit, mortgages, employment, housing, or other services. A credit reporting agency may not charge you to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze.

To place a fraud alert or security freeze on your credit report, you must contact the three credit bureaus below:

Equifax	Experian	TransUnion
Consumer Fraud Division	Credit Fraud Center	TransUnion LLC
P.O. Box 740256	P.O. Box 9554	P.O. Box 2000
Atlanta, GA 30374	Allen, TX 75013	Chester, PA 19022-2000
(888) 766-0008	(888) 397-3742	(800) 680-7289
www.equifax.com	www.experian.com	www.transunion.com

To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security Number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, the addresses where you have lived over those prior five years;
5. Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill; and
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.).

You may also contact the U.S. Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") for further information on fraud alerts, security freezes, and how to protect yourself from identity theft. The FTC can be contacted at 400 7th St. SW, Washington, DC 20024; telephone +1 (877) 382-4357; or www.consumer.gov/idtheft.
