Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear ██████████:

We are writing to let you know about a data security incident that involved your personal information. We wanted to provide you with information about the event, our response, and steps you may wish to take to better protect against the possibility of identity theft and fraud.

What Happened? Back in April 2021 when Fidelity notified us that they would no longer be in the payroll processing business, Tax Technologies, Inc. (“TTI”) entered into a transition agreement with Paycor, a payroll processing service company. As part of the implementation, employee data was uploaded to the Paycor systems directly from Fidelity. The implementation did not go as expected and TTI made the decision not to use Paycor and selected ADP as our new service provider effective January 2022. Paycor was informed of our decision and they provided confirmation that our account was terminated.

On December 18, 2023, Paycor notified us that our employees’ information was compromised as a result of data breach that took place on or about May 31, 2023. Progress Software announced that it had discovered a previously unknown “zero-day” cyber vulnerability in its MOVEit Transfer software, which was being utilized by Paycor. None of TTI’s systems were involved in this incident.

What Information was Involved? Paycor notified us that the data accessed included your: full name, state of residence, date of birth and Social Security number.

What We Are Doing. TTI values your privacy and deeply regrets that this incident occurred. After receiving notification from Paycor, TTI conducted an investigation to determine the scope of the incident and to confirm that TTI’s internal systems were not affected. TTI is also in the process of submitting a written demand to Paycor for further information related to the incident and for the removal of all TTI data from Paycor’s, and Paycor’s vendor’s, systems. TTI is reviewing our existing policies and procedures and will be implementing additional security measures designed to help prevent the recurrence of such events and to better protect the privacy of TTI’s valued employees in the future.

What You Can Do. We want to make sure our employees are protected against the risk of identity theft and the unauthorized use of their personal information. Please review the attachment to this letter (Steps You Can Take to Further Protect Your Information) for further information on steps you can take to protect your information, and how to receive free credit monitoring for 18 months.

For More Information. Please reach out if you have any further questions. You may contact Paul Neumann at (704) 727-6936 between 7:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. EST, Monday through Friday.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience or concern this incident has caused.

Sincerely,

Paul Neumann
HR Manager

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO FURTHER PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity

We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission.

To file a complaint with the FTC, go to www.ftc.gov/idtheft or call 1-877-ID-THEFT (877-438-4338). Complaints filed with the FTC will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, which is a database made available to law enforcement agencies.

You have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without your express authorization. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a security freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a security freeze, please contact the major consumer reporting agencies listed below:
