Re: Massachusetts Notice

Dear <<Name 1>>:

On behalf of Telmate, LLC, we write to inform you of an incident that may have involved personal information about you. We deeply regret that this incident occurred and take seriously the security of personal information.

We recommend that you review the information provided in this letter for some steps that you may take to protect yourself against any potential misuse of your personal information. As a precaution, we have arranged for you, at your option, to enroll in a complimentary credit monitoring service for two years through Equifax. You have until July 31, 2021 to activate the free credit monitoring service by using the following activation code: <<Activation Code>>. To enroll, call 1-866-237-5873 (Monday - Friday 9am-9pm EST, Saturday - Sunday 9am-6pm EST) or go to: www.equifax.com/activate.

In addition, you should remain vigilant, including by regularly reviewing your account statements and credit reports. If you discover any suspicious or unusual activity on your accounts or suspect identity theft or fraud, be sure to report it immediately to your financial institutions. You also may contact the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") or law enforcement to report incidents of identity theft or to learn about steps you can take to protect yourself from identity theft. To learn more, you can go to the FTC's Web site, at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or call the FTC, at 1-877 IDTHEFT (438-4338).

You may periodically obtain credit reports from each nationwide credit reporting agency. If you discover information on your credit report arising from a fraudulent transaction, you should request that the credit reporting agency delete that information from your credit report file. In addition, under federal law, you are entitled to one free copy every 12 months of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting companies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report by going on the Internet to www.AnnualCreditReport.com or by calling 1-877-322-8228. You may contact the nationwide credit reporting agencies as indicated below:

Equifax

P.O. Box 740241
Atlanta, GA 30374-0241
www.equifax.com

Experian

TransUnion

Fraud Victim Assistance Division
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19022

In addition, you can add a fraud alert to your credit report file to help protect your credit information. A fraud alert can make it more difficult for someone to get credit in your name because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, but it also may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may place a fraud alert in your file by calling just one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. As soon as that agency processes your fraud alert, it will notify the other two credit reporting agencies, which then must also place fraud alerts in your file.

Under Massachusetts law, you have the right to obtain a police report in regard to this incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it.

Massachusetts law also allows consumers to place a security freeze on their credit reports. A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, mortgages, employment, housing or other services.

You may place, lift or remove a credit freeze for free. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you must call, make a request online or send a written request to each of the three major consumer reporting agencies listed above.
