NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

We are contacting you about a data breach that has occurred at Mid America Mortgage, Inc..

What Happened?

On October 13, 2021, a spreadsheet was mistakenly e-mailed to two individual's e-mail addresses and sent to three e-fax numbers. At this time, we have no reason to believe the information has been or will be misused.

What Information Was Involved?

This incident involved your Name and Loan Number.

What We Are Doing

All recipients have been contacted and instructed to permanently delete the information.

What You Can Do

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recommends that you place a free fraud alert on your credit file. A fraud alert tells creditors to contact you before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. Contact any one of the three major credit bureaus. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts. The initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You can renew it after one year.

TransUnion: transunion.com/credit-help or (link is external) 1-888-909-8872

Ask each credit bureau to send you a free credit report after it places a fraud alert on your file. Review your credit reports for accounts and inquiries you don't recognize. These can be signs of identity theft. If your personal information has been misused, visit the FTC's site at IdentityTheft.gov to report the identity theft and get recovery steps. Even if you do not find any suspicious activity on your initial credit reports, the FTC recommends that you check your credit reports periodically so you can spot problems and address them quickly.

You may also want to consider placing a free credit freeze. A credit freeze means potential creditors cannot get your credit report. That makes it less likely that an identity thief can open new accounts in your name. To place a freeze, contact each of the major credit bureaus at the links or phone numbers above. A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it.

We have attached information from the FTC's website, IdentityTheft.gov/databreach, about steps you can take to help protect yourself from identity theft. The steps are based on the types of information exposed in this breach.

For any questions or concerns, please call our customer service line at 888-845-6535.
