Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear

We are writing to inform you of a recent data security incident experienced by Carnegie Hill Endoscopy, LLC that may have impacted a limited amount of your protected health information described in more detail below. We take the privacy and security of your information seriously, and sincerely apologize for any concern or inconvenience this may cause you. This letter contains information about steps you can take to protect your information and resources we are making available to help you.

What Happened:

On November 24, 2021, we learned that documents that were supposed to be shredded were inadvertently placed in the regular trash bin. The trash bin was picked up that same day and sent to the trash facility. There is no evidence that your information was compromised, but we wanted to let you know about this incident out of an abundance of caution.

What Information Was Involved:

The documents may have contained your name and date of birth, medical appointment information such as date of service and name of your provider, and health insurance information. Your Social Security number was not printed on these documents and was not impacted.

What We Are Doing:

We want to assure you that we are taking steps to minimize the risk of this kind of event from happening in the future. We have retrained the cleaning company on the proper disposal of sensitive information and implemented additional controls to prevent a similar event from occurring in the future.

In response to the incident, representatives are available for 90 days from the date of this letter, to assist you with questions regarding this incident, between the hours of 8:00 am to 8:00 pm Eastern time, Monday through Friday. Please call the help line 1-800-405-6108 and supply the fraud specialist with your unique code: . This service is provided by Cyberscout, a company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services.

What You Can Do:

It is always a good idea to review your estimate of benefits and contact your provider if you identify any errors. You can also review the enclosure included with this letter which describes additional steps you can take to help protect your identity, including recommendations by the Federal Trade Commission regarding identity theft protection and details on how to place a fraud alert or a security freeze on your credit file.

For more information.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call 1-800-405-6108 Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm Eastern time. Your trust is a top priority for us, and we deeply regret any inconvenience or concern that this matter may cause you.

Sincerely,

Scott B. Williams, M.P.H., CASC
Administrator

RECOMMENDED STEPS TO HELP PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

1. Review your credit reports. We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports. Under federal law, you also are entitled every 12 months to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting companies. To obtain a free annual credit report, go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. You may wish to stagger your requests so that you receive a free report by one of the three credit bureaus every four months.

You should also know that you have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity fraud. Please note that in order to file a crime report or incident report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some kind of proof that you have been a victim. A police report is often required to dispute fraudulent items. You can report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement or to the Attorney General.

2. Place Fraud Alerts with the three credit bureaus. If you choose to place a fraud alert, we recommend you do this after activating your credit monitoring. You can place a fraud alert at one of the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three bureaus is as follows:

Credit Bureaus

Equifax Fraud Reporting
P.O. Box 105069
Atlanta, GA 30348-5069

Equifax Credit Freeze
P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348-5788
1-888-836-6351
www.equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services

Experian Fraud Reporting and Credit Freeze
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
1-888-397-3742
www.experian.com

TransUnion Fraud Reporting
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19022-2000

TransUnion Credit Freeze
P.O. Box 160
Woodlyn, PA 19094
1-800-680-7289
www.transunion.com

It is necessary to contact only ONE of these bureaus and use only ONE of these methods. As soon as one of the three bureaus confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place alerts on their records as well. You will receive confirmation letters in the mail and will then be able to order all three credit reports, free of charge, for your review. An initial fraud alert will last for one year.

Please Note: No one is allowed to place a fraud alert on your credit report except you.

3. Security Freeze. By placing a security freeze, someone who fraudulently acquires your personal identifying information will not be able to use that information to open new accounts or borrow money in your name. You will need to contact the three national credit reporting bureaus listed above to place the freeze. Keep in mind that when you place the freeze, you will not be able to borrow money, obtain instant credit, or get a new credit card until you temporarily lift or permanently remove the freeze. There is no cost to freeze or unfreeze your credit files.

4. You can obtain additional information about the steps you can take to avoid identity theft from the following agencies. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them.
