IMPORTANT NOTIFICATION

The confidentiality and security of our customers' personal information is very important to New York Life. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that meet state and federal regulations, and we limit employee and agent access to our customers' information.

On March 16, 2022, we were advised by our brokerage provider National Financial Services LLC of an issue involving your personal information. Pursuant to Massachusetts law (M.G.L. Chapter 93H), we are not permitted to include the nature of the incident in this letter. While we have no indication that any of your information has actually been misused, as a preventative measure, we are notifying you about this issue.

New York Life is employing measures to prevent unauthorized access to your records with us. As a preventative measure, we have flagged your account number in our system so that additional verification protocols will be utilized if anyone attempts to access your account.

Additionally, we will purchase for you two-years of credit monitoring services via the Equifax Credit Watch™ Gold Service. This service will provide you daily access to your Equifax credit report and notify you of key changes to your report. It also includes up to $1,000,000 of identity theft insurance coverage and Identity Restoration services if needed. Please see the enclosed instructions for enrollment in the Equifax Credit Watch™ Gold Service.

We want to inform you about ways to protect yourself from identity theft should you wish to pursue them. We recommend that you place an initial fraud alert on your credit files. A fraud alert requires potential creditors to use what the law refers to as "reasonable policies and procedures" to verify your identity before issuing credit in your name. A fraud alert lasts for 90 days. Just call one of the three credit reporting agencies at a number below. This will let you automatically place an alert with all of the agencies. You will receive letters from all three, confirming the fraud alert and letting you know how to get a free copy of your credit report from each.

You can also order your free credit report by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, calling toll-free at 1-877-322-8228, or completing the Annual Credit Report Request Form on the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's website at www.consumer.ftc.gov and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281.

We encourage you to remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports. When you receive your credit reports, please review them carefully. Look for accounts you did not open and inquiries from creditors that you did not initiate. Also, look for personal information, such as home address and Social Security number, that is not accurate. If you see anything that is not accurate or that you do not understand, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report. You have rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA"). These include, among others, the right to know what is in your file; to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information; and to have consumer reporting agencies correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. For more information about the FCRA, please visit <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/pdf-0096-fair-credit-reporting-act.pdf> or www.ftc.gov.

If you find suspicious activity on your credit report, call the credit agency, and your local police or sheriff's office and file a police report of identity theft. Get a copy of the police report. You may need to give copies of the police report to creditors to clear up your records. You may also want to place an extended fraud alert on your file, which will remain on your credit file for seven years.

Even if you do not find any signs of fraud on your credit report, we recommend that you check your credit report periodically. You can call one of the numbers above to order your report and to keep the fraud alert in place.

You also may consider placing a security freeze on your credit reports. A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. Credit reporting agencies cannot charge you for placing a security freeze on your credit reports. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing or other services. For more information on security freezes, including how to place and lift them, you may contact the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies as described above or the Federal Trade Commission as indicated below. As the instructions for establishing a security freeze differ from state to state, please contact the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies for more information. The consumer reporting agencies may require proper identification prior to honoring your request, such as your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, copy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.), and/or proof of your current and former residential address.

For additional assistance on steps to avoid identity theft including information about fraud alerts and security freezes, you may contact:

Under Massachusetts law, you have the right to obtain a copy of any police report that is filed regarding an incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it. You also have the right to request a security freeze as described above.

We regret any inconvenience this may cause you. If you have any questions or concerns, please call New York Life at our toll-free number (800) 695-4331.

Sincerely,

The New York Life Service Team
