

Template Consumer Notice

Interstate Transport values your business and respects the privacy of your information, which is why, as a precautionary measure, we are writing to let you know about a data security incident that may involve your personal information.

The breach occurred on approximately April 19, 2022 and was discovered on or about April 21, 2022. During the course of our thorough investigation, on or about May 18, 2022, it was discovered some of your personal information may have been accessible. The data accessed may have included your name, and phone number as submitted in accordance with your Carrier Setup Packet. Interstate Transport is not aware of any other personally identifiable information of yours which may have been accessed.

Interstate Transport values your privacy and deeply regrets that this incident occurred. Interstate Transport has conducted a thorough review of the potentially affected records and will notify you if there are any significant developments. Interstate Transport has implemented additional security measures designed to prevent a recurrence of such an attack, and to protect the privacy of individuals associated with Interstate Transport. The company also is working closely with law enforcement to ensure the incident is properly addressed.

Please also review the attachment to this letter (Steps You Can Take to Further Protect Your Information) for further information on steps you can take to protect your information, and how to receive free credit monitoring for one year.

For further information and assistance or to learn what types of personally identifiable information is maintained and whether Interstate Transport maintained personal information about an individual, please contact professionals hired by Interstate Transport to assist you at XXX-XXX-XXXX between the hours of ___ a.m. and ___ p.m. EST Monday to Friday.

Template Consumer Notice

Interstate Transport values your business and respects the privacy of your information, which is why, as a precautionary measure, we are writing to let you know about a data security incident that may involve your personal information.

The breach occurred on approximately April 30, 2022 and was discovered on or about May 6, 2022. During the course of our thorough investigation, on or about May 18, 2022, it was discovered some of your personal information may have been accessible. The data accessed may have included your name, phone number, social security number, and email address as submitted in accordance with your Carrier Setup Packet. Interstate Transport is not aware of any other personally identifiable information of yours which may have been accessed.

Interstate Transport values your privacy and deeply regrets that this incident occurred. Interstate Transport has conducted a thorough review of the potentially affected records and will notify you if there are any significant developments. Interstate Transport has implemented additional security measures designed to prevent a recurrence of such an attack, and to protect the privacy of individuals associated with Interstate Transport. The company also is working closely with law enforcement to ensure the incident is properly addressed.

Please also review the attachment to this letter (Steps You Can Take to Further Protect Your Information) for further information on steps you can take to protect your information, and how to receive free credit monitoring for one year.

For further information and assistance or to learn what types of personally identifiable information is maintained and whether Interstate Transport maintained personal information about an individual, please contact professionals hired by Interstate Transport to assist you at XXX-XXX-XXXX between the hours of ___ a.m. and ___ p.m. EST Monday to Friday.