Dear Sample A. Sample:

Kal Krishnan Consulting Services, Inc. (“KKCS”) is writing to make you aware of recent events that may affect the security of some of your information. This letter provides you with information on the investigation and the resources that are available to you to help better protect your personal information from possible misuse, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

We take the security of information within our care seriously. We launched an in-depth investigation into the events to confirm the security of our network and to determine what sensitive information, if any, may have been affected. Although our investigation is ongoing, in general, we store information on our systems, including name, address, Social Security number, and financial account information. Therefore, if you have provided this type of information to KKCS, it is possible it may be affected.

As part of our ongoing commitment to the privacy of information in our care, we are reviewing our existing policies and procedures and implementing additional safeguards to further secure the information in our systems as appropriate. Although our investigation is ongoing, we notified law enforcement and will notify regulatory authorities as required by law. We are also notifying individuals, including you, so that you may take further steps to best protect your personal information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so. As an added precaution, we arranged to have Experian provide credit monitoring services for 24 months at no cost to you.

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer's express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information, depending on whether you make the request online, by phone, or by mail:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;

* Offline members will be eligible to call for additional reports quarterly after enrolling.

 The Identity Theft Insurance is underwritten and administered by American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, an Assurant company. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

3. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
4. Social Security number;
5. Date of birth;
6. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
7. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
8. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.);
9. Social Security Card, pay stub, or W2;
10. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
