Dear [REDACTED]

The protection and privacy of your personal information is a very high priority. Because of this, you are receiving this letter to make you aware of a recent data security incident that may have involved some of your information. This letter is to advise you about the incident and to provide you with guidance on what you can do to protect against fraud, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

What happened: You are receiving this letter because you were a client of Jarrett & Luitjens, PLC, which ceased operations on or about May 31, 2022 when Jennifer R. Luitjens retired. A new firm, Jarrett & Hoyt, PLC, began operations on June 1, 2022. On August 26, 2022, Jarrett & Hoyt identified suspicious activity in its email environment. Upon learning of the issue, Jarrett & Hoyt quickly began an investigation and took steps to secure the systems. As part of that investigation, it was determined that one of the firm's email accounts was compromised and, on November 11, 2022 it was determined that your information could have been contained in the account.

What Information Was Involved? The type of information in the accessed email account differs from individual-to-individual but included your name, Social Security number, and for some individuals a date of birth, financial account information and/or health information.

What Is Being Done. In addition to the actions described above, steps have been taken to reduce the risk of this type of incident occurring in the future, including enhancing the system's technical security measures. No one has reported that their information was misused in connection with this incident. Nevertheless, you are being offered a complimentary two-year membership of Experian IdentityWorksSM Credit 3B. Under Massachusetts law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it. Massachusetts law also allows consumers to place a security freeze on their credit reports. A security freeze can be placed without any charge. A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing or other services.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you must send a written request to each of the three major consumer reporting agencies by regular, certified or overnight mail at the addresses below or, if available, comply with the consumer reporting agencies' online security freeze request procedures:

Equifax Security Freeze

Atlanta, GA 30348

Trans Union Security Freeze

www.transunion.com
P.O. Box 160
Woodlyn, PA 19094

In order to request a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security Number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.); and
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to place a security freeze on your credit report. The credit bureaus must also send written confirmation to you within five (5) business days and provide you with a unique personal identification number (PIN) or password, or both that can be used by you to authorize the removal or lifting of the security freeze.

To lift the security freeze in order to allow a specific entity or individual access to your credit report, you must call or send a written request to the credit reporting agencies by mail or, if available, comply with the consumer reporting agencies' online procedures for lifting a security freeze, and include proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze as well as the identities of those entities or individuals you would like to receive your credit report or the specific period of time you want the credit report available. The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to lift the security freeze for those identified entities or for the specified period of time.

To remove the security freeze, you must send a written request to each of the three credit bureaus by mail or, if available, comply with the consumer reporting agencies' online procedures for removing a security freeze, and include proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze.
