Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear Sample A. Sample:

We are writing to notify you of an incident experienced by 3D Diagnostix, Inc. (“3DDX”) that involved some of your personal information. 3DDX systems are used to process data, including personal information, related to your account with us. We deeply regret that this incident occurred despite our ongoing investment in data security.

This letter provides details about the incident, explains how we are prepared to assist you, and lets you know what steps we are taking to continue to protect your personal information.

What Happened?

On or about January 3, 2023, 3DDX discovered that certain company servers were accessed by an unauthorized third-party. As soon as we became aware of the situation, we initiated an investigation to understand which components of the 3DDX systems were potentially affected and whether personal information was potentially at issue. Through investigation and review, we determined that some of your personal information may have been accessed without authorization and potentially acquired.

The privacy and protection of the information in our possession is a matter we take very seriously, and we have worked swiftly to resolve the incident. There is no evidence of any continuing unauthorized activity on 3DDX’s systems. At this time, 3DDX has not uncovered evidence that the affected personal information has been used for fraudulent or illicit purposes or has been made publicly available. 3DDX continues to monitor the situation.

What Information Was Involved?

The information affected may have included information that you provided to us in connection with your account at 3DDX, such as your name and the credit card number, email address, and phone number associated with your account. In some cases, the credit card used may have been a business credit card rather than a personal card.

What We Are Doing

Your trust is a top priority for 3DDX, and we deeply regret the inconvenience this may cause. The privacy and protection of the personal information of the providers we work with is a matter we take very seriously, and we have worked swiftly to resolve the incident. We have implemented additional security measures, internal controls, and safeguards, and made changes to our policies and procedures to prevent a similar occurrence in the future.

Experian Identity Theft Prevention and Mitigation Services

We are providing free identity theft prevention and mitigation services from Experian, including credit monitoring, for one year to any individual whose information was exposed by the incident. Details about how you can enroll in these services is provided earlier in this letter.

You should always remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports to detect errors resulting from the incident.

Monitor Your Accounts

We recommend that you regularly review statements from your accounts and periodically obtain your credit report from one or more of the national credit reporting companies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report online at www.annualcreditreport.com, by calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by mailing an Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at www.annualcreditreport.com) to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281. You may also purchase a copy of your credit report by contacting one or more of the three national credit reporting agencies listed below.

When you receive your credit reports, review them carefully. Look for accounts or creditor inquiries that you did not initiate or do not recognize. Look for information, such as home address and Social Security number that is not accurate. If you see anything you do not understand, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

Credit Freeze

You have the right to put a security freeze, also known as a credit freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to access your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact all three major consumer reporting agencies listed below.

You must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting agency. The following information should be included when requesting a credit freeze:

- 1) Full name, with middle initial and any suffixes;
- 2) Social Security number;
- 3) Date of birth (month, day, and year);
- 4) Current address and previous addresses for the past five (5) years;
- 5) Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
- 6) Other personal information as required by the applicable credit reporting agency;

If you request a credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agencies have one (1) business day after receiving your request to place a credit freeze on your credit file report. If you request a lift of the credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agency must lift the freeze within one (1) hour. If you request a credit freeze or lift of a credit freeze by mail, then the credit agency must place or lift the credit freeze no later than three (3) business days after getting your request.

Fraud Alerts

You also have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your file at no cost. An initial fraud alert lasts 1-year and is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the agencies listed below. The agency you contact will then contact the other two credit agencies.
