Dear <<FirstName>> <<LastName>>:

Mohr CPAs LLP (“Mohr CPAs”) is writing to inform you of a recent incident that we determined may have impacted the privacy of some of your information. We are providing you with information about our response to the incident, and steps you may take to help protect your information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so. Pursuant to Massachusetts law we are unable to provide a description of the nature of the incident. If you would like more information, you may contact our dedicated assistance line provided below.

Our investigation determined the information potentially impacted includes your name, Social Security number, date of birth, and Driver’s license number, and may include other information such as personal account information shown on government forms, if such information was provided to Mohr CPAs in order to prepare your tax return. If information of your spouse or dependent(s) was involved, we are providing separate notifications to you for each dependent.

We take this incident and the security of information in our care seriously. Upon learning of this incident, we moved quickly to investigate and respond, and worked to secure our environment. We conducted a thorough investigation of the incident with third-party forensic specialists to determine what happened and what personal information may have been affected. We have also been in communication with the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”), Wisconsin Department of Revenue, and the Federation of Tax Associates and have cooperated with these agencies’ investigations. As part of our ongoing commitment to the security of information, we are also reviewing and enhancing existing policies and procedures to help prevent a similar future incident.

As an added precaution, we are offering you access to Single Bureau Credit Monitoring/Single Bureau Credit Report/Single Bureau Credit Score services at no charge. These services provide you with alerts for <<service length>> from the date of enrollment when changes occur to your credit file. This notification is sent to you the same day that the change or update takes place with the bureau. Finally, we are providing you with proactive fraud assistance to help with any questions that you might have or in event that you become a victim of fraud. These services will be provided by Cyberscout through Identity Force, a TransUnion company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services. More information about these services is below.

Enroll in Offered Monitoring Services

To enroll in Credit Monitoring services at no charge, please log on to <https://secure.identityforce.com/benefit/mohrcpa> and follow the instructions provided. When prompted please provide the following unique code to receive services: <unique code>

In order for you to receive the monitoring services described above, you must enroll within 90 days from the date of this letter. The enrollment requires an internet connection and e-mail account and may not be available to minors under the age of 18 years of age. Please note that when signing up for monitoring services, you may be asked to verify personal information for your own protection to confirm your identity.

Additional Steps You May Take to Help Protect Personal Information

We encourage you to remain vigilant against events of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. You should promptly report any activity indicative of identity theft or fraud to law enforcement and to your bank or credit card company as appropriate.

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information, depending on whether you make the request online, by phone, or by mail:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.);
7. Social Security Card, pay stub, or W2;
8. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Under Massachusetts law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this event. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it.

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General.

For More Information. Please note, Massachusetts law does not allow us to include certain information in this notification. However, if you have additional questions, please contact our dedicated assistance line at 1-833-961-6767, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. E.S.T. (excluding U.S. holidays).
