CLARIFICATION

In the Order on Motion for Order Approving Transfer (“Order”) issued in the above-referenced docket on November 20, 2002, the Cable Television Division (“Cable Division”) of the Department of Telecommunications and Energy approved transfer of control of the cable television franchise (the “License”) in the Town of Ashburnham from AT&T Corp. to Comcast Corporation.¹ While the Order taken as a whole establishes this result, the Ordering Paragraph may be interpreted as transferring the License itself, rather than control of the License. Since the transfer of a license is accomplished through a corporate transaction, the role of an issuing authority is to approve or deny that transaction. In the case where an issuing authority fails to comply with a lawful order, the Cable Division assumes this role. By this Order, we reaffirm our approval of the transfer of control of the License in the Town of Ashburnham from AT&T Corp. to Comcast Corporation.
