NOTE: JRJ benefits do not make recipients ineligible for Public Service Loan Forgiveness under the College Cost Reduction and Access Act, however, because JRJ funds are taxable as income, the benefit will serve to increase Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) which may influence a borrower's payment amount due under the Income-Based Repayment (IBR) program. Typical prosecutors and defenders will see a minimal effect on their IBR payments and will benefit from participation in JRJ. Law school, state-based, and employer-based Loan Repayment Assistance Programs (LRAPs) have individual policies regarding the effect of receiving benefits from other LRAPs (including JRJ in some cases). Applicants are encouraged to contact the LRAP administrators of the programs in which they participate to determine whether JRJ benefits influence eligibility or award amount.
