RE: ACO LEAP Certification

Dear Ms. Senese:

Congratulations! The Health Policy Commission (HPC) is pleased to inform you that Atrius Health, Inc. meets the requirements for ACO Certification under our Learning, Equity, and Patient-Centeredness (LEAP) standards. This certification is effective from January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2023.

The ACO Certification program, in alignment with other state agencies including MassHealth, is designed to accelerate care delivery transformation in Massachusetts and promote a high quality, efficient health system. ACOs participating in the program have met a set of objective criteria focused on core ACO capabilities demonstrating dedication to patient-centered care, use of evidence-based and data-driven strategies to improve care delivery, and commitment to addressing long-standing health inequities. Atrius Health, Inc. meets those criteria.

The HPC will promote Atrius Health, Inc. as a Certified ACO on our website and in our marketing and public materials. Enclosed you will find an ACO Certification logo for your organization to use in accordance with the attached Terms of Use. We hope you will use the logo on promotional materials when you highlight your ACO Certification to your patients, payers, and others.

The HPC looks forward to ongoing engagement with you over the next two years. We intend to follow up shortly to provide an overview and some reflections on what we saw in the Health Equity Responses, a new feature of the ACO Certification application this year, across the cohort of Certified ACOs. We hope your organization will find that information helpful as we all continue to explore ways to improve health equity in the Commonwealth.

Thank you for your dedication to providing accountable, coordinated health care to your patients, and to continued learning and improvement over time. If you have any questions about this letter or the ACO Certification program, please do not hesitate to contact Mike Stanek, Senior Manager, at HPC-Certification@mass.gov or (617) 757-1649.

Best wishes,

A former Massachusetts town official pleaded guilty Wednesday to joining a mob in storming the U.S. Capitol after she organized a bus trip to Washington, D.C., for fellow members of a right-wing group called "Super Happy Fun America."

Before her guilty plea, Suzanne Ianni had argued in February that federal authorities had selectively targeted her for prosecution based on her political beliefs. Prosecutors said her political views played no role in charging her with crimes for her conduct at the Capitol on Jan. 6, 2021. A judge rejected Ianni's request to dismiss the case before she pleaded guilty.

Ianni, 60, of Natick, Massachusetts, faces a maximum sentence of six months of imprisonment and five years of probation after pleading guilty to a misdemeanor count of disorderly conduct in a Capitol building. U.S. District Judge Carl Nichols is scheduled to sentence her on Dec. 2.

Ianni was an elected member of Natick Town Meeting in a Boston suburb while serving as operation director of Super Happy Fun America, which gained national notoriety for organizing a "Straight Pride Parade" in Boston in 2019.

On its website, Super Happy Fun America calls itself "a right of center civil rights organization focusing on defending the Constitution, opposing gender madness and defeating cultural Marxism." The group registered as a nonprofit with Massachusetts state regulators.

A Dec. 29, 2020, post on the group's Twitter account said Super Fun America would be in Washington "to get wild." Ianni listed as the co-leader of the trip. The account tweeted a photo of Ianni and other members of the group on a bus traveling to Washington on the eve of the Jan. 6 attack.

After marching to the Capitol, she joined a crowd chanting "Trump!" and "Over the Hill!" while rioters broke windows, opened doors and police barricaded the area. Ianni was seen in a surveillance video marching through the Capitol after the attack. She raised her

Fla. flies migrants to 'sanctuary'

ASSOCIATED PRESS

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis on Wednesday flew two planes of immigrants to Martha's Vineyard, escalating a tactic by Republican governors to draw attention to what they consider to be the Biden administration's failed border policies.

Flights to the upscale island enclave in Massachusetts were part of an effort to "transport illegal immigrants to sanctuary destinations," said Taryn Fenske, DeSantis' communications director.

While DeSantis' office didn't elaborate on their legal status, many migrants who cross the border illegally from Mexico are temporarily shielded from deportation after being freed by U.S. authorities to pursue asylum in immigration court — as allowed under U.S. law and international treaty — or released on humanitarian parole.

Massachusetts' Gov. Charlie Baker, a Republican, said he was in touch with local officials and that short-term housing was provided.

Martha's Vineyard has been a "sanctuary destination" for immigrants — a position it took from President Donald Trump's administration.

State Rep. Dylan Fenech sent Martha's Vineyard, which has long been a popular vacation spot, land jumped into action providing beds, giving everyone a good play area for the children, and making sure everyone has the healthcare they need. We are a community that supports immigrants.

Texas Gov. Greg Abbott has sent thousands of migrants to Texas and recently added New Mexico as destinations. Arizona has been busing migrants since May. Passengers must be able to pay for the free trips are voluntary.
