Hi everyone,

We are almost to the finish line! Thank you, again, to everyone who has spent time scrutinizing our collective initial assessment and offered comments, edits, additions, and overall support for this work.

Attached is the latest version of the initial assessment, which, as Undersecretary Judge mentioned, will also be formatted into a polished design. We would encourage you to give the executive summary a good review and to look over any sections you feel might be relevant to your department. Our next (and final, for now) EVICC meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, August 9, 1–3:30 p.m., at which we will go through the final document one more time. The Zoom link for this meeting is <https://zoom.us/j/96429671267>.

Also attached are the meeting minutes of August 2 and notes from the third public hearing in Boston on August 3.

See you all soon!

Jen
