

I feel that private companies should not develop public lands for personal gain. The risk to the fishing/fisheries, damage to the environment too great a risk. These companies need to negotiate for private land, for which they are solely responsible. Adherence to any laws related to environment, etc. must be enforced. We have one planet, we must use it wisely.

auntieshrew@comcast.net