

This Job Aid shows how to:

- Navigate through COMMBUYS under the Seller Role
- Use various icons within COMMBUYS
- Use the Control Center tabs to locate documents including Purchase Orders, Bids, and Quotes
- Use the Documents navigation dropdown menus to locate documents including Purchase Orders, Bids, Contracts, and Quotes
- Use the Advanced Search feature to enter multiple search criteria to assist in locating a variety of Bids and Purchase Orders

Of Special Note:

This job aid provides a basic overview of COMMBUYS navigation and describes key icons, menus, and fields used within the Seller role of the COMMBUYS system.

There are multiple ways for those with the Seller role to search for documents in COMMBUYS.

Searching functionality is not included in the Seller Administrator role. Only users with the Seller role can conduct searches in COMMBUYS. These instructions assume the logged in user has Seller credentials.

Step 3: Header Bar

 The right side of the Header Bar displays three navigation icons: Settings, Help, and Account.

Directions

- 2. The Settings icon contains:
- An Advanced Search link.
- A Reports link. Please note that the Reports link is currently inactive.
- 3. The Help icon contains:
- An About link that displays COMMBUYS version information.
- A User Manual link that opens the BuySpeed user manual in a separate web browser or tab. BuySpeed is the platform on which COMMBUYS operates.
- A Customer Service link that allows a user to send an email to the COMMBUYS Helpdesk to report an issue.
- A NIGP Code Browse link that allows a user to search for UNSPSC commodity codes.
- 4. The Account icon contains:
- A dropdown menu that allows users to switch their role in COMMBUYS. Available roles include Seller and Seller Administrator.
- A My Account link that allows a user to view or edit their user account information.
- A Logout link that allows a user to log out of COMMBUYS.
