BOARD OF REVIEW DECISION

Introduction and Procedural History of this Appeal

The claimant appeals a decision by a review examiner of the Department of Unemployment Assistance (DUA) to deny the claimant one week of benefits following her separation from employment. We review, pursuant to our authority under G.L. c. 151A, § 41, and reverse.

On October 20, 2018, the agency initially determined that the claimant was not entitled to unemployment benefits for the week at issue here. The claimant appealed and attended the hearing. In a decision rendered on December 11, 2018, the review examiner affirmed the agency determination, concluding that the claimant was not able, available, and actively searching for work during the week ending October 13, 2018, because she was ill with pneumonia, and, thus, she was disqualified under G.L. c. 151A, § 24(b). The Board accepted the claimant's application for review.

Ruling of the Board

After considering the recorded testimony and evidence from the hearing, the review examiner's decision, and the claimant's appeal, we conclude that the review examiner's decision to disqualify the claimant pursuant to G.L. c. 151A, § 24(b), is based on substantial evidence.

However, the review examiner failed to consider another provision within G.L. c. 151A, § 24, which states:

No individual shall be considered ineligible for benefits because of failure to comply with the provisions of said clause (b) if such failure is due to an illness or disability which occurs during a period of unemployment after he has filed a claim and registered for work, and has been determined to be otherwise eligible; provided, that no work which would have been considered suitable but for such illness or disability was offered to him after he became ill or disabled; provided further, that the exception granted under this paragraph shall apply to three weeks only within a benefit year.

Thus, while the claimant was neither capable of nor available for full-time work during the week at issue, she is entitled to one of the three weeks of benefits permitted for claimants who become ill during their benefit year.

The review examiner's decision is, therefore, reversed. The claimant is entitled to receive benefits for the week ending October 13, 2018, if otherwise eligible.
