Introduction and Procedural History of this Appeal

The employer appeals a decision by a review examiner of the Department of Unemployment Assistance (DUA) to award the claimant benefits following his separation from employment on March 18, 2020. We review, pursuant to our authority under G.L. c. 151A, § 41, and affirm.

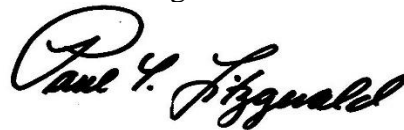

On November 7, 2020, the agency initially determined that the claimant was entitled to unemployment benefits. The employer appealed and attended the hearing. In a decision rendered on April 26, 2022, the review examiner affirmed the agency determination, concluding that the claimant involuntarily left employment for urgent, compelling, and necessitous reasons and, thus, was not disqualified under G.L. c. 151A, § 25(e)(1). The Board accepted the employer's application for review.

Ruling of the Board

After considering the recorded testimony and evidence from the hearing, the review examiner's decision, and the employer's appeal, we conclude that the review examiner's decision is based on substantial evidence and is free from any error of law affecting substantive rights.

However, we note that the DUA's UI Online record-keeping system indicates that the employer was reimbursed for benefit charges relating to the claimant in July, 2020, and has not been charged for the claimant's benefits since. Beginning in August, 2020, the claimant's benefit payments have been issued through the DUA's solvency account, in accordance with G.L. c. 151A, § 14(d)(3).

The review examiner's decision is affirmed. The claimant is entitled to receive benefits for the week beginning May 17, 2020, and for subsequent weeks if otherwise eligible.
