Introduction and Procedural History of this Appeal

The employer appeals a decision by a review examiner of the Department of Unemployment Assistance (DUA) to award the claimant benefits following his separation from employment on May 19, 2023. We review, pursuant to our authority under G.L. c. 151A, § 41, and affirm.

On July 14, 2023, the agency initially determined that the claimant was entitled to unemployment benefits. The employer appealed, and both parties attended the hearing. In a decision rendered on November 3, 2023, the review examiner affirmed the agency determination, concluding that the claimant left employment for urgent, compelling, and necessitous reasons and, thus, was not disqualified under G.L. c. 151A, § 25(e)(1). The Board accepted the employer's application for review.

Ruling of the Board

After considering the recorded testimony and evidence from the hearing, the review examiner's decision, and the employer's appeal, we conclude that the review examiner's decision is based on substantial evidence and is free from any error of law affecting substantive rights.

Because this separation is deemed to be involuntary under G.L. c. 151A, § 25(e), charges for this claim have been made to the solvency account pursuant to G.L. c. 151A, § 14(d)(3), not to the employer's account.

The review examiner's decision is affirmed. The claimant is entitled to receive benefits for the week beginning May 14, 2023, and for subsequent weeks if otherwise eligible.
